TWIN ROLES PLAYED BY REMININGTON

Aviator Lives Life of Jekyll and Hyde with Booze Selling Means of Replenishing Treasury; Woman Prominently Mentioned Among Murder Suspects; Death Was Feared Forebodings.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 22.—The "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" life of Earle Remington, Jr., continued both to amaze and baffle detective attempts to unravel the mystery surrounding his life after he was found dead last weekend.

Whether the motive for the murder originated in the shadows of the underworld or in Remington's own mind, or whether it was a highly-reputed intrigue with a woman in the high-social world in which he moves, or if "Jekyll" is the subject of the most bizarre and grisly story of the week, remains to be seen.

Assuming his role as business man, financier, engineer and gentleman ranch owner, Remington by day made a fortune, while at night he was a scoundrel and wealthy member of society California. He was a highly respected member and active worker in the community, and was a well-known, prominent figure in exclusive clubs where doors always open only to those who have won.

By night he became a gay gambler and host-parader, while police believed he accepted orders for liquor from a large scale from the underworld, received secret information and other confidential information which led him to other criminal periods to the fringes of respectable society, or, possibly, to the denouement of his life.

Remington had paid his debts, buying salaries and shipments from his beautiful home in the exclusive dental district.

So far as was the skin claimed, the big capitalist in the many legitimate businesses in which he had a hand are today absolutely dumbfounded by the statement of the son of his underworld affiliations and killing.

That Remington had become so involved in the secret underworld of the underworld, he feared death was indicated, police declared today, by letters to his office.

These letters are said to be from friends in the secret underworld, who had written and thus indicated that Remington had expressed fear for his safety. The names of the writers were not made public by the police, but they were said to be underworld leaders who have been asked to check back for the criminals.

A woman is still believed to be behind the killing, and police believe she has been present when Remington's life was ended by a shotgun charge and a knife to the heart.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 22.—Federal prohibition officers today were investigating cities which indicate that Earl Remington, Jr., may have been killed by a woman who was the victim of the man who murdered Edward M. Sheehe, prominent Oakland, Cal., automobile dealer, who had dealings with a liquor gang, the Oakland police believe. The time of his murder is unknown.

THREE MISSING AFTER BLOW TO GLYCERINE BLOWOUT

GRATON, Ill., Feb. 23.—Three men were missing today in the experimental plant of the nitro-glycerine department of the Hercules Powder Manufacturing Company here. Workers searched the ruins for the bodies. They were injured in the blast. Property damage placed at $10,000.

PIRATES FOUND DEAD

CALIFORNIA CITY, Feb. 23.—Three pirates, held by the First National Bank of Oceanside, was found guilty of robbing the national bank of $10,000. The maximum penalty is 20 years in the state prison. The pirates, $4,000, judgment will be imposed tomorrow.

RACERS REPORT TO JUNK HEAP FOR THEIR STEEDS

VALENTINO AND MANAGER SPLIT OVER FINANCES

CHICAGO, Feb. 23.—Rudolph Valentino, "the look of the movies," left New York today despite the adoration of the public.

Valentino has been packing 'em' at the Triangle with a dancing net for the past week. Valentino and Valentino appeared before Andrew Karsan, manager, and demanded that his salary be doubled.

"I'm not going to pay him," Valentino told Karsan. "The girls are coming from all over the city to see me. Somebody has got to take care of me."

"He filled the place with flappers," he said. "I gave him $100,000. When he asked for more, I told him no."

The next morning Valentino is now scheduled as his second marriage to Winifred Hudnut, his dancing partner here on Monday.

GOVERNOR'S HOUSE RENT CONSIDERED

BOISE, Feb. 23.—An item of $2400 to pay house rent for the governor, the probably the costliest house ever to be offered for rent outside of the capital, was introduced yesterday in the House of Representatives.

Representative Robert Conlier, democrat of Valley county, a minority member of the appropriations committee, introduced the bill.

He told the committee and must sleep at the house, that he considered the bill reasonable, but proposed unconstitutional legislation, and, in violation of that provision against increasing the salary of any elected state official due to inflation and high prices.

"I want to get back to Idaho," he said. "My mother—she's 74 years old—is waiting to see me before she dies."

Promised full details of the bill will be given in the House on Tuesday, March 1, 1923.

"I'll not stay tickled, though, by any man driver that even rode a sled and let me try it again in the next heavy snowfall," he said. "I'll go to the cabin and get a gun and buy a new dog."

Police here checked up on his story once. Constable Williams of Lolo, Montana, told that he had shot and killed a bear in 1908 in a remote little town. He said McCandless had not "wanted" for the shooting. Sheriff Collworth of Corryell county was asked if he wanted McCandless and replied:

"C. Woods, shot at Ellice, Texas, in 1908, shot at Corryell county in 1909."

William Turk, alias "Mo," Dupree, shot at Clovis, N. M., in 1910.

At about the same time, he shot at St. Marcelline, Tex., in 1908.

Police here checked up on his story once. Constable Williams of Lolo, Montana, told that he had shot and killed a bear in 1908 in a remote little town. He said McCandless had not "wanted" for the shooting. Sheriff Collworth of Corryell county was asked if he wanted McCandless and replied:

"No, you keep him in Maryland."

Two White Knights Retire the Salaries of Members of the Public Utility Commission and Other Commissioners Were Passed by the Senate This Morning to the House, Where They Will Be Considered.

DUSSELDORF, Feb. 23.—Germany's foreign ministry has issued a note which is to be taken bodily from Germany and operated by France and Belgium, began here today.

Adolf von Hassel, director of the state railway of Prussia, will be named director general of the project.

FILER AND OAKLEY BAFFLES TWIN TAKE HOOP MEET

SUB-DISTRICT BASKETBALL HONORS GO TO WINNERS OF LAST EVENING; FILER WHIPS RUHT AND TWIN FALLS ENJOYS THINGS AT EXPENSE OF KIMBERLY; METOORS LEAD IN SCORING.

Yesterday's evening's cage battles wound up the tournament for the sub-district of the Northwest. Filer, which had built up a 10-point lead over Twin Falls, beat Kimberly, the former by a 41-4 score, and the latter by 65-12. The opening game was a nail-biter, though, with each team battling to a heating. Filer was when they tied the score in the first five minutes of play when the second team, 1-1, Martin Powell, came on with his night's traps. He succeeded in scoring 14 points individually, Lapp and Love, who sat at his heels with nine and nine respectively.

For Filer the point winners are hard to choose, for Ruht never made a fluke shot during the entire evening. Martin Powell, though, had the best chances for fouls, and Layne dropped in three other points from the free throw line. With the exception of the first period, the game was fairly fresh from foul. The first half ended with Filer holding the ball and a 15-3 score. In the second stanza Filer again got the ball, but was held by time without Layne's lone free throw they would have been scoreless in that period. The game ended 41-4.

The second game was a hard-fought battle, but the Blue and White defenders worked more as a team than they have ever done this season. This is reasonable, for the two teams have even man-made the shadow of the best.

Jenkins duplicated his record of the Twin Falls-Hollister game of 13 field goals, four free throws and three steals.

Cole, from both annexed 12 points; Cole has an enviable record of not having a personal foul called on him during the entire tournament. Huie and Robinson were the only two who were able to get through the Blue and White defense for counters. The first half and the second were 32-3 for the Metoors. The lead was greatly increased during the latter part of the game and the final score was 56-32.

Twin Falls tops the list for points earned in the tournament. The Meteors have the best record, though, with the last that Filer, next highest, did, could do was 134 in three games.

This is how the scorers tell the story, or stories:

Next week the real tournament will be held here, with teams from all over the state coming to compete. Two teams of each sub-district, all of whom have enviable records for the year, will meet to determine the champion of the district in basketball. The teams will be the Blue and White, driving home their horses of racing, Durley and Oakley's colts in the country contest. The games will be

The Bible records many puns and it indicates that plays on words were popular among the Hebrews, but it never hints that anybody thought of laughing at such things. This is as it should be.

Now that the telephone has lengthened our tongues and ears and the telescope has added trillions of miles to our vision, we need only extend our nerves of taste and smell to enjoy the millennium of the senses—and all we shall lack will be the sense of God.

The thing that is worrying the Mills-Walton crowd is not the editorials on national affairs which appear in The Times but the remarks we make about this audit which cost the city $4000 worth that could have been done by a regular certified accountant for $200. We repeat the question why this steal of $2400 of the taxpayers' money in Twin Falls city.

The Christian Science Monitor quotes Warden W. H. Westbrook of the Cook County (Chicago) jail as saying: "Since prohibition went into effect it has materially lessened the numbers housed here. We used to get 80 or 90 prisoners a day, but now we may get eight or ten."

A certain citizen of Twin Falls who was blackmailed by a disreputable publication a few days ago by dubbing him "Dogcatcher," states that if he should be given this important position there are at least two big-peds walking about these streets that would be gathered into his net first. The Gold Dust Twins may be caught in their own trap. It seems too bad that some people have so much of this ashine stuff in their veins that they have to vent it continually on their neighbors.

Candidates for positions on the Citizens' ticket at the coming election will not be hard to find in Twin Falls because the people realize too well what the present administration has cost them in waste, extravagance and incompetency during the rule of the Walton-Mills gang. Good citizens dislike as a rule to subject themselves to the jabs and thrusts of the political snappy-gosters for all there is in holding such positions of trust but they have learned a lesson during the past year that unless some one with stability and integrity looks after this city it will slip into the hands of the unscrupulous and the political muckraker who will use it to further his own selfish ends.

Grover Moore vetoed the direct primary bill and again said to the people of Idaho "I will obey the bosses rather than masses." He was elected on an indifferent platform and many republicans predicted that if the republican legislative ticket and the governor were elected we would get a direct primary in this state. The democratic party contended all through the campaign that if the people wanted a return to the direct primary they should elect that party but some doubted and again placed their trust in the Q. O. P. but lost. Idaho should have a direct primary throughout and we believe they will get it in the polls in the 1924 election.

The fight on the educational measure before the state legislature seems to be a political fight against the commissioner of education, Dr. E. A. Bryan, rather than to work any other particular reform. We think that those who are working for this bill want to remove the commissioner regardless of all else. If this bill would tend to throw our school system into the hands of the politicians everybody should oppose it without stint or favor.

TRAPPING CROOKS

In the dead of night, thieves several times broke in and rifled the cash register of J. E. Griffin, photographer in Monroe. La. So Griffin set a trap, rigged up an affair that exploded a flashlight and snapped a camera shutter when the cash register drawer was opened. It worked. He got a good picture of the thief.

Shrewd business men will see in this a suggestion for the office or factory with a safe tempting to burglars. The cost of installation would be small, and the camera could be hidden so the burglar couldn't find it and destroy the film.

In most cases the flashlight alone would do the work—secure away the intruder, under the belief that a burglar alarm had been set off.

Banks and business firms might use a similar device, eliminating the flashlight, for daylight hold-ups. The camera could be worked by the cashier pressing a button, bulb or lever with his foot.

It wouldn't stop a hold-up, but it would provide the police with ample identification of the crook. The frightened victim rarely is able to remember a good description of the thief. Lack of such description is generally the worst handicap the police have.

If you are ever held up, the most important thing is to study the bandit's build, walk and physical peculiarities that will help identify him. Remember that.

One of the foxiest traps ever set for criminals was rigged up by a banker in a small western town. He fixed a trapdoor in front of the paying teller's window. When a hold-up stuck a gun through the wicket and demanded the money, the teller merely touched a lever with his foot, the trapdoor opened and Mr. Bandit dropped like a shot into a nice cage-down cellar. Sounds like Charlie Chaplin.

Another unique trap that we recall, consisted of hooking one

Modern Highways Rival Old Roman Roads

"The popular impression that the old Roman roads were never surpassed or equalled in wholly primitive age," says Bedell-Quirk, the great writer.

Mr. Agnew Way states the latter was at its best and was constructed at different times over 1,000 years, the Romans constructed their highways with a fatal naivete which determined the course of the roads and of man. This required the movement of enormous quantities of stone and mortar and the cutting of trees and many hundred thousand trees.

It is probable that under the most favorable conditions the ancient Romans did not require more than 100 days to complete a road from Mitchell Point to Mitchell Point Avenue, a total thickness of about 11 inches. The explanation of the defective highway construction lies in the fact that the Romans did not practice highway engineering in modern times.

Beginning with John L. Macdonald, the principle has been developed that for keeping the earth embankment dry an embankment can be strengthened by the addition of a drainage system. The portland cement concrete foundation of heavily travelled city streets in many country highways is also being applied, making the embankment of asphalt which protects the foundation against water, against the freezing and thawing temperatures changes and against the shattering effect of heavy traffic. As a result of this the life of the asphalt is increased three times for the mixie structure which characterized the old Roman pavements.

Today, asphalt pavements of various kinds and other types comparable to it are rapidly finding favor on country highways as the cost, convenience and durability are little if any greater than the construction of unpaved concrete pavements.

Old Santa Fe Highway.

Not only is the American engineer designing the most effective type known but "String America" first movement is to turn the treacherous roads from the open asphalt paved scenic highways in all parts of the United States. These roads are to be built in the same manner as the roads in Europe, with the exception of the Storm King Highway which follows the Hudson River.

A great deal of inventive ingenuity is employed by criminals, Arrayed against this is other inventiveness to checkmate the crooks. On the law of averages, the protection keeps well ahead of criminal devices.

This has been illustrated in the perfection of safes and alarms to an almost 100 per cent burglar-proof condition. Safe blowing, for this reason, is becoming a lost art. That's why we see so many daylight hold-ups. The yeggs have turned to the pistol, finding their diamond drills, "Screws" and "soups" ineffective.

The odds are always against the lawbreaker.

Child Heroine

Little six-year-old Poly Moran of Idaho, N. Y., is a heroine of the year. When this six-year-old playmate, Ruth Webb, fell through the ice, Poly removed her scarf, took off her coat, started straining and managed to pull Ruth from the icy water.

Bad Luck and the Devil Pursued Him

"I don't think any one has had more bad luck and sickness than I have had in the last year and collar bone bone trouble, an arm and shoulder trouble, and a railroad accident. Then I had pneumonia. After recovering from pneumonia, I had a severe attack of rheumatism, which caused me to lose my voice. Then I had typhoid fever, which I never recovered from. I had a severe attack of liver trouble, which no doctor touched until two years ago. I got a bottle of May's Wonder Remedy and took it every day for a year and a half in thirteen years."

It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal troubles of the lungs, the liver, the kidneys, the intestines, the gall-bladder, the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis, and is done with confidence or money refunded.

Instantly! End Indigestion or Stomach Misery with "Pope's Diapepin".

As soon as you eat a tablet or two of "Pope's Diapepin" in the morning you will be given in the high school auditorium this evening a free lecture on "Wonders of the Human Body" and everyone is urged to attend.

The dramatic club is mounting to give away $1000 in prizes for the club some time in the near future.

The Seniors held a meeting to decide on the place the class blue and gold should be worn. The blue and gold pins are being worked up very artistically this year in blue enamel. The plan for the Senior day are now under way in the Senior advisory.

MRS. LINDQUIST TELLS WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did for Her

Kansas City, Mo.—"I was left in a very serious condition after childbirth and I could do nothing to make myself better. Then came the 'Change of Life' and I was so bad I had to have a doctor for what I had to suffer. I had to go to a doctor every day just to feel fairly good as I could not even sleep down to pick up my clothes. I did not know if I could stand it any longer, but I was decided to try Lydia's Vegetable Compound. For two years I was the best. The doctor was frank enough to tell me that he could do more for me. So we got in touch with the manufacturer and an advertisement of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. In a few days the manufacturer, Mr. C. E. Crater, came to see me and I took it regularly and well. I recommend the Vegetable Compound to all women who are having trouble with their health."
