

BERLIN TO CHICAGO BY AIR

United States Navy Plans Some Great Air Feats in ZB-1 Will Visit North and South Poles and Fly Around the World; ZB-3 Will Attempt Flight from Berlin to Chicago About May First.

NEW YORK, March 7.—A conquest of the air that includes flights around the world and to the North and South poles is planned by the United States navy.

The flights will be attempted with the newly dirigible ZB-1, a monster airplane now under construction at Philadelphia and Lakehurst. New Jersey. Rear Admiral William A. Moffett, chief of the bureau of naval aeronautics, declared in a speech through a wireless broadcasting station here last night.

The dirigible, the first of its kind to be built by the navy will be completed about July 1 and will be sent on long trips throughout the United States. It will make its first flight in a later "globe" air, the ZB-3 is being built for the American navy in Germany.

The two ships, it was declared, comprise the most important factors known to air science.

BERLIN, March 7.—The finishing touches to the Zeppelin ZB-1, a dirigible, a non-stop flight from Berlin to Chicago is planned, are expected to be made within a few days. The first trial trip of the giant airship, now under construction at the Bodensee works in Biedersheim, Germany, is planned on May 7, when a flight over the Alps will be attempted.

The ZB-3 is the trans-Atlantic dirigible but will fly the American flag. Permission to break the flight of air, the ZB-3 has obtained only after assurances that the Zeppelin is owned by the United States and will fly the Stars and Stripes.

Didn't Know His Brother
 "My brother got so bad with stomach and liver trouble that when I saw him after a year I didn't know him. He was emaciated and yellow as a pumpkin and was often in great pain. He couldn't have lived long the way he was going. Doctors and medicine gave him no relief. I picked up a little booklet on Meyer's Wonderful Remedy, which I sold myself. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the carteral mucus from the intestinal tract and allows the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. QUESTION AND ANSWER BOX

(Conducted by Auntie Sue.)

Q—Dear Auntie Sue, which is the richer, John D. Rockefeller or Henry Ford?—Lewis.

A—The last I heard from Johnnie was that he held the title. Henry seems to be holding his own, though, doesn't he?

Q—What is the International Chamber of Commerce?—John.

A—It is the federation of financial, industrial and commercial forces of the world, modeled upon the Chamber of Commerce of the United States.

Q—Dear Auntie Sue—Where can we find sure protection from temptation?—S. M.

A—See Bible. I Cor. 10:12-13. Dearest Auntie Sue—Just a few lines in thank you for what you have done for me. Now if you will tell me how much I owe you for the information you sent me I will be glad to pay you. You can let your sweet little girl take your good wishes with me and will be only too glad to. Although I cannot see why you should hate to see me go away, I am thanking you again for your kind ness and will close for this time, as ever.—The Collins.

A—I am very glad the information was of real help to you. There is no charge and it is surely a pleasure to do anything for one so appreciative. You can't see why I don't wish you to go away? I really hate to see anyone leave Twin Falls now for I feel that she is a new era.

Q—Low many soldiers and widows would have been benefited by the Bursum bill (I mean of the Civil war)?—Lacy.

A—The pension bureau says that there are approximately 35,000 survivors and 250,000 widows of the Civil war who have benefited by an average increase of $21 each under the Bursum bill. The bill also includes an increase to Indian war widows and survivors, any widow of the Civil war and dependent parents of Civil war survivors, widows of the war of 1812 and survivors and widows of the Mexican war. The estimated cost would be about $3,000,000 a month.

EQUITABLE LIFE PASSES $3,000,000.00 MARK IN OUTSTANDING INSURANCE

The 63rd annual statement of the Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States gives evidence of the company's continued progress. The new insurance written in 1922 totaled $260,000,000, exceeding over $4,000,000 of group insurance. The outstanding insurance on December 31st exceeded $2,000,000,000. Income of $111,000,000 was distributed to policyholders and beneficiaries during the year in death claims, matured endowments, dividends, annuities and other payments, making a total return of $1,523,028,000 to policyholders since organization. Nearly $25,000,000 has been set aside for dividends to policyholders in 1923. A large increase was made in the issue of policies payable on the monthly income plan, as well as those taken to protect business interests and to provide for the inheritance of children. Over 38 per cent of the insured death claims were paid within 24 hours after receipt of due proof of death. The statement calls attention to the broad scope of Equitable service, and to the many insurance claims covered by the company's wide range of policies.

 Will show you how folks get those whiter, cleaner teeth

Go ask for a test of this new way of teeth cleaning. It means too much to miss.

You see prettier teeth everywhere today. Learn how people get them. Do this now. Millions of people of some 50 nations enjoy these benefits. Get them for yourself.

Film makes teeth dingy
 That vicious film you feel on teeth is their chief enemy. It clouds them. It clings to teeth, erodes crevices and stays.

Film absorbs stains, then forms a dingy coat. Tartar is based on film. That's why teeth lose luster.

Film holds food substance which ferments and forms acids. It holds the acids in contact with the teeth to cause decay. That's why few escaped tooth troubles.

Germs breed by millions in film. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea, now so alarmingly common.

Now they curdle film
 Old brushing methods did not effectively combat film. As a result, nearly all people suffered from it.

Now dental science knows two film combatants. One acts to curdle film, one to remove it, and without any harmful scouring.

These film combatants were embodied in it for daily application. That tooth paste is called Peppodent. To millions of homes it has brought a new dental era.

Advised the world over
 Careful people the world over now use Peppodent, largely by dental advice. It has supplanted in millions of homes the methods of the past.

Avoid Harmful Grit
 Peppodent curdles the film and softens it so that it can be brushed away. It contains no harmful scouring. Its polishing action is gentle. It is a film combatant which contains no harmful grit.

Corrects old mistakes
 Research also proved that old methods brought undecidated effects. They decreased the alkalinity of the saliva. That is there to neutralize mouth acids, the cause of tooth decay.

It also reduced the starch digester in the saliva. That is there to digest starch deposits which may otherwise ferment and form acids.

Peppodent brings just opposite effects. It multiplies that alkalinity, multiplies that starch digester. Thus it gives manifold power to these great natural tooth-protecting agents.

This test will show
 The result of this test will amaze and delight you. Make it—watch the changes that occur.

Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the vicious film. See how teeth whiten as the film-coat disappears.

Compare the results with old methods by what you already see and feel. You will gain a new conception of clean teeth.

If you are fat it will be difficult to convince anybody you are overworked.

The man who was rescued from the gutter—we're for him as long as he doesn't turn evangelist.—Exchange.

Remember young Twin Falls that the man who tried three times and failed is stronger than the man who failed because he never tried.

If you are not now figuring in taking part in the coming city election you should begin to figure that way. What is everybody's business is nobody's business.

Ministers and church leaders might capitalize a few seats on the platform now days since an important city election is near at hand and a number of candidates would like to get before the "Dear Public."

Conditions are growing better on the Twin Falls tract if we see clearly and some business people must see better times ahead because they are investing their money in business houses here and preparing to enlarge same for increased business.

It is strange that any one who pretends to call himself an editor of even a weekly newspaper does not know that the Springfield Republican is a great nationally known democratic paper.

If we could just eliminate the element of gossip the coming election would be comparatively clean. But before the campaign gets half a start the babbling tongues will begin to wiggle waggle and the awful yaras will grow in dimension as the number of times they are repeated is multiplied.

The American newspapers have an outstanding duty in this unsettled world today. They press should do their utmost to quell the spirit of unrest and dissatisfaction which seems to possess the people generally.

A CREED

The following classic is being wanted about in the newspapers and nobody seems to be able to identify the author:
I believe in the cheery whistle of the lark white, I believe in smiles, even though the heart is heavy in lending a hand; in stopping in the shade of a tree on the road of life to chat a while with some neighbors; in saying kind things before it is too late; in keeping my eyes on the stars though I walk in the mire, I believe that nothing can hurt me save only as I let it; that each failure brings me nearer the ultimate success; that should I ever reach the topmost round of the ladder, I should make way for others, stooping to help them up beside me; I believe that God hates no one but does despise a man that cheats.

Faces Slayer of Husband

In the rear of the court where Mrs. Sturtevant is on trial for her life. Mrs. Orest M. Sturtevant, widow of the slain insurance broker, sits with her child, Nerlyn, and hears the legal record to the shooting of her husband last July.

ROGERSON

First Morrison came in from Spokane last Thursday and reported that Grant Mason of the creek ranch had been found dead with a bullet hole through his head. Mr. Morrison called the sheriff's office and Deputy Sheriff Hamilton and Corporal J. J. Grossman motored out to a far a Roger son and went from there on a bill to the Big Creek ranch. They returned early Wednesday morning with the body of Mason. It is believed to have been shot by his own hand and not by the hand of an enemy.

This is 23 per cent of the crop in Great Northern territory. Figures of the Northern Pacific were about the same. Foreign news was depressing.

WOLFE SAYS WORK STARTS NEXT MONTH

President of Idaho Central Gives Out Interview in Oakland; Associates in Riverdale Mines Remain Silent and Look Confident.

Although reference marks the title of Engineer D. G. McArthur and other connected with the Riverdale Mining company, as far as the power line to this plant is concerned, the general atmosphere is one of confidence. Asked in regard to the opponents this morning, Mr. McArthur shook his head and smiled confidently but said nothing.

However, several copies of the Oakland Tribune of March 4, have noted in this city containing an interview with Conrad Wolfe, in which he sets forth in detail his plan to build a line along which he says the road will be built. He says that the right of way has been secured and that work will begin by April 1. The story follows:

Between Wells, Nev., on the south and Ruston, Idaho, on the north, a distance of 90 miles, lie the great granite lands of the Nevada desert. In their thousands upon thousands of cattle; the Salmon River mining district, with 200 square miles of prospecting, mineral fields; and the fertile lands of Twin Falls county, with 600,000 acres under irrigation, upon which a variety of crops from potatoes to fruits are raised annually. To the present time most of the products of this vast territory have shipped to the coast by ocean, as the difference in mileage, and the lack of transportation has practically shut them off from California markets.

Conrad Wolfe, formerly of Spokane, Wash., but for the past two years a citizen of Oakland, announces a new railroad, the Idaho Central, to be constructed at once between Wells and Ruston, and which will put California and particularly the great cities of Los Angeles, San Francisco and San Diego, within the producers of this tremendously rich country.

"New people," said Mr. Wolfe, "have any conception of the potential wealth of this region. Apart from the oil and gas, which are enormous, the opening of the Salmon River mining district will undoubtedly create a boom that will be felt all over the west. These mines, few of which are being worked today, notwithstanding the primitive methods of transportation necessitated by lack of rail facilities, have great possibilities. The building of the road will start as soon as the winter snows have disappeared, and it is confidently expected to have the work in full swing by April. The surveys have been obtained and the surveys are completed.

Plans for a terminal halfway between the two termini, are already under way, and in the works of Mr. Wolfe it will be well for the people of Oakland to lay steps looking toward the capturing of the business that will surely come in this area as soon as the road is opened."

At the regular monthly meeting of the directors of Salmon River the company, held at Hollister Tuesday, the maintenance assessment for the year was fixed at $1.00 per acre payable April 1.

The board authorized the removal of the warehouse from the northern corner of the townsite to be close to the office.

The inspection visit of the state president of the Rebekahs, Mrs. Hattie Fry of Ferdinand, last evening was made to occasion of a happy celebration and banquet at the hall of Primrose Lodge, No. 70, in the city of Twin Falls. There was a 6 o'clock banquet at which 120 were seated. The tables were decorated with pink and green in crystal chandeliers. Following the banquet there was a regular lodge session at which three candidates were initiated. President Fry made a splendid speech which was much applauded. She is the guest of the kindly Rebekahs tonight.

SENIOR LIKELY TO APPEAL THE OBSERVER CASE

Commissioner All Winters announced that Mayor Bennett informed him that Mayor Tucker would probably be carried to higher tribunals. Commissioner Winters said that he had been informed by Attorney H. H. Davis that the abstract of judgment from the district court showing that the injunction had been dissolved and the summary sustained. Then Commissioner F. Cogswell presented a written motion that Mayor Tucker should stand independent motion to the same effect, but later withdrew this motion and requested the Commissioner to be notified of the probable appeal of the case, which he requested as practically certain. He wanted the matter held open for the present. Commissioner H. H. Davis asked the city attorney what condition an appeal would leave the city. The city attorney answered that the decision of the court notified the city of responsibility. Notice of appeal would have to be filed within 30 days and completed in 90. Mr. Senior could appear and might get a reversal but that would not injure the city. Commissioner H. H. Davis asked if at present the condition were not the same as if no suit had been started. The city attorney replied in the affirmative. All the commissioners except All voted for the appropriation.

Will Sell Old House Commissioner McCauley was granted a license to sell the house over the old filling plant to G. H. Hempling if a deal could be had. Written offers for the payment for the house demolished during a mild fall of the Weaver rooms was presented by Mr. Weaver. The amount said that the city attorney had called the attention of City J. E. Cress and Commissioner J. E. Roberts in the matter several times and an answer. Commissioner Roberts said he had made an investigation. Chief Clerk Cress said he had broken the door when the person inside refused to open it. City Attorney Davis said that if the offer was a cash warrant and the proprietor refused to open the door they were justified in breaking in. The offer was $1500 in connection with the expenses of the city. The offer was for the county hospital.

This amount of the bond and the exact terms of the contract are not yet definitely known as there are several details to be worked out.

The legal phases are being worked out by James H. Howell representing the district and J. E. Stutzman, representing the reclamation service. The board is expected to take action on the contract with the city attorney.

CITY MACHINE STILL MARKING

Administration Forces Stand Together; Hassen Insists on Law Enforcement and Charges That Gambling Exists with the Knowledge of the Police and Commissioner Roberts.

Again, regardless of current rumors, the city administration machine working together harmoniously last evening and allowed the night watch to be reduced to $444.40 from $855.00, and other bills, including $75 on the $200 for Homer C. Mills as witness attorney in the case of B. A. Van Meter. Commissioner S. B. All refused to vote on the bill on account of an objection raised regarding the validity of the street fund expenditure and voted against payment of the Observer bill on legal grounds.

Strikes First Suit The meeting was judicial about an easy pace when the president of the famous Spartan athletic, Lyander and the noted Moroccan expert, Frank, were developed in a stereotyped police chief's report showing 25 arrests for violation of summary laws, five for traffic violation, nine for being drunk, one for vagrancy and a round dozen for state misdemeanors, had been received and accepted. Various licenses had been granted, and an application for car table for the Club had been denied. The Smoker, Brunawick, St. Legis, and J. W. Shiffley, Carl Lule, Lorenz and St. Legis and Manual Hays (both public houses). Milk and dairy licenses had been granted. Fred Deaton and T. E. Jones and the report of J. M. Thomas as wagonmaster had been received and favorably accepted. These things had all been done when Mayor Tucker recognized Mr. Hassen and the bill began to roll.

Asks for Facts Hassen wanted to know what the license fee for the card table was and was informed that it amounted to six cents a month for each table. He declared that this was the same as license gambling. "I understand that, but all gamblers. They all play license. I am told, and that is gambling. There is now is full of punchboards. I have had some experience in regard to punch boards. It is the worst form of gambling. You may say that you are a better gambler than I am, but I know you are not. The more you know about these things and the money that the sheriff and the mayor say it is the duty of the city to suppress them. If you think it is necessary to let them alone, I believe that those who are running these boards call playing hickey with the knowledge of the city should be notified to stop at a certain date. It is that that cut-up license law and that is the only way to get rid of them that they are called to the justice. I am not referring especially to you, Mr. Roberts, you are no worse than the rest."

Commissioner Roberts suggested that the punch boards not be used for the jurisdiction of the city authorities. He admitted that the card tables were under the law ordinance. Mr. Hassen replied by asking City Attorney Davis if it were not the duty of every citizen who saw a law violator in his presence to arrest the violator and bring him to an officer. Mr. Davis said that it was. He said that the city had no authority to punish gambling, where the state usually was over the state. The city could levy on them over the state. The city could levy on them over the state. The city could levy on them over the state.
