People's Legislative Service Reiterates Demand That Government Call Magazines on the Carpet for Investigation of Price Hikes; Urges Books of Companies Be Put Before Jury.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—The department of justice early next week will call the attention of the public to the fact that the government is not satisfied with the price of sugar.

A comprehensive investigation of manipulations on the sugar market during the last six weeks which have resulted in an increase of about 75 per cent in the price of sugar will be made by the department.

Books of companies will be put before a jury for investigation of price hikes. The government is not satisfied with the price of sugar.

It is suggested to the department of justice that the attention of the public be called to the fact that the government is not satisfied with the price of sugar.

NEWS OF THE SPORT WORLD

OUTLOOK FOR HIGH SCHOOL BALL SEASON SEEMS GOOD

Task of Moulding 1923 Nine Faces Evans; Outfield and Infield; Unbounded Ability; No Need to Worry About Pitchers; Catcher is the Puzzle at Present Time.

By Henry W. Graham. From the showing of the various participants in the interclass baseball season last season at Lincoln field we have been able to gather a pretty accurate advance opinion of the caliber of the Twin Falls high school team during the coming months and this forecast is rose-colored, indeed. We do not feel, therefore, that we are showing any unwarranted optimism when we say that indications are that Twin Falls high school will have the most glorious baseball season of her career, winning the state championship under her belt after all is said and done.

Couch Evans never had better material to work with. It is doubtful, in fact, if any high school of this state ever had any more brilliant and more own this spring. That our infield will be a corking one there seems no doubt. Three regulars, a reserve, and Jerry Jarman, are back, and Walter Gatz, whose playing with the (light league season before last) drew a most favorable impression, will fit right into the combination. Few balls will find their way through the defense and all of these have hitting strength and nimbleness on the bases, which is well-nigh insuperable for scholastic circles.

Strolling to the outfield we see with especial prominence three candidates, the Dobson twins, both athletic, both red-headed, so much alike that they refer to the gardeners to whom we refer and with these cravine acting as sporting wayfarers the outfield problem is virtually solved. Of course there are other clever players, but upon this trio we can see the ocean of service last year, will set the bases of the team and while Munsell is a wonderful fielder, and hitter as is Johnny Nye, who has an excellent ball, it seems to us that in all fairness to rival teams Coach Evans should give Johnnie against this unparelleled aid for perfectly good ball games are often broken up in this manner. Six-six did not get into the fray often enough last year to show how good he really is.

From the mound elevation we see looking down at us Leighton and Ray Hodgins. Jarman whipped the Calweld state champions last year and is a most brilliant youngster. Hodgins cast his lot with Hult in the past, and his mates almost led Twin Falls a bitter pill at Paris field when we were climbing the state championship hill toward the end of the season. Jarman and Hodgins, strengthened by a newcomer of joy, will comprise a formidable and well-rounded staff of sibilmen.

Looking at the future from behind the last we removed our rose-colored spectacles and substituted the ordinary kind. We worry less, but the absence of Bob Evans, who has a bat and steady pen. Bob's was a hard victory to fill, and every thing a true backstop needs and could whip up a team and make it steady down when things were going badly on the diamond. Who will check the whizzing slants of our pitchers this year is a mystery. The slanting games brought out some good, reliable "boppers" who with a little Jarman, may ripen and make the article. Garity, he of the plugging type, looks as well as any of them and is heralded as a likely candidate. Johnny Leizer knows considerable about the catching art, too, and has been slated for something, too. Regardless of the uncertainty of our catching staff the practice season has just begun and the time will unquestionably produce some one who can take care of the job and angle the bulk of the work.

Athletic Twins Confuse Their Opponents DECIDING CONTEST IS TAKEN BY SUGAR MEN

Here is what makes the Louisiana referees and umpires gray-headed—the Dobson twins. Both athletic, both red-headed, so much alike that they can hardly be called by name. They are shown here in several spots.

SHREVEPORT, La., March 24.—There will be a deep sigh of relief, leaved collectively and individually in June by all prep school umpires in this section. The Dobson twins—red-headed, equally proficient in athletics, and as alike as the well-known two peas—will be graduated from Shreveport high school. This means an end to four years of trying to determine whether it's Bob or Lee who is on the bases and Lee or Bob who is coaching. It will simplify matters for scorers, too, and even their own teammates won't be throwing the ball to Lee, thinking he's Bob, or forward passing to Bob instead of Lee.

For four years, the Dobson twins have been prominent in athletics at Shreveport high. They have always starred in football, basketball and baseball, while they both win points for the track team—one a half-miler, the other a sprinter. Their

FRESHMEN CAPTURE INTERCLASS TITLE

(OF MARSH) Yesterday afternoon the Freshmen took the interclass title in a 7-4 battle on Lincoln field. Jarman's warflora showed their stuff throughout the game, taking the lead from the very start and holding it throughout.

Moore's Garity's big trouble in yesterday's game was a decided lack of battery material. With the Jarman brothers doing the twirling for the Freshies the Sophs found themselves at a great disadvantage. Jarman and Garity held down the fort for the Sophs during the first three stanzas but when Garity gave up the backstop position to pitch Russell Denoyer found that Moore was just a little too much for him and after holding down until the sixth the combination broke up and the Freshmen scored two runs.

The last inning opened with the Freshmen three points ahead. The Sophs got two men on bases. Ray Jarman, Garity helped the ball out toward the left field fence into the waiting hands of Shockley, who promptly tossed it to second, recently vacated out unawitantly by Denoyer who failed to give the Freshmen credit for knocking the "Stone" fly. And the Sophs realized that the game was not for them.

After all it was a good series. The order of classes was just reversed in their standing. The Juniors won the basketball title and the Freshmen the baseball moniker, and it remains for

DO YOU KNOW WHY THE GEAR-SHIFT IS DIFFERENT?

The design of Dodge Brothers gear-shift takes into consideration the natural inclinations of the driver.

To start, you throw the lever forward. To reverse, you pull the lever backward. And when the car is running in high gear—which is about ninety per cent of the time—the lever is in a forward position, out of the way, where it does not interfere with passengers, robes, or luggage.

Moreover, the transmission, developed and patented by Dodge Brothers, is so designed that the countershaft—used in intermediate speeds and in reverse—is disconnected when the car is in high. There are no gears in mesh. Power is transmitted directly from clutch to rear axle.

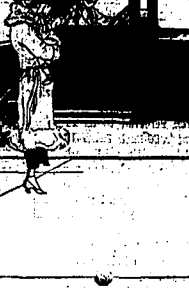

This exclusive feature prevents the loss of power through friction, reduces gear-noise and eliminates a year's amount of wear.

That is why the gear-shift of Dodge Brothers Motor Car is different.

When a man gets into a corner he can see things from a different angle.

The newspaper that always pleases all of its readers has never been published.

No man is so severely punished as he who broods over the wrong he has done.

Will the abolishment of capital punishment mean that there can be no more hung juries.

The man who knowingly neglects to pay an honest bill which he is capable of paying, is almost as much of a thief as if he had filched it from the pockets of the man whose confidence he has betrayed.

ENCOURAGING SIGNS FOR TWIN FALLS

Announcement yesterday that the Interurban Motor Freight company would start a line on regular schedule from this city to Boise is cheering news. To some extent it will help solve the question of freight congestion though naturally benefits in this direction will largely be confined to intrastate state shipments between this city and other towns having connections with the interurban freight depot at the state capital. It has, however, another aspect that is far more encouraging, and that is that business is not merely on the up grade, but that in some respects it promises to be better in the immediate future than ever before, while lacking the spectacular features of the era of speculation.

Should the auto club plan laid before the Chamber of Commerce yesterday prove satisfactory on investigation, it will mean, in addition to the benefits of the interurban freight line, that this city will be one of the great auto centers of Idaho.

Two great courses towards the inauguration of enterprises like the starting of the interurban freight line. One is the conviction that the big irrigation districts will be a great benefit to the Twin Falls country. The second growing out of the first in some measure is the conviction that the Idaho Central railroad will be constructed connecting this tract with California.

Another thing that is encouraging, is the growing spirit of cooperation in city and country and between city and country. This is manifested in this town in many ways, among others the announced determination of the Rotary club to help entertain the Kiwanis convention. In the country it is manifested by the tendency to take up dairying, berry raising and vegetable growing on a larger scale and to practice more intensive farming and more crop diversification.

SWELL FUNERALS

Old-timers can recall when one's social standing in the community never was definitely settled until death. Then the deceased was classified according to the number of lucky in his funeral.

For instance, back in the home town we recall old Soerater Skagway. He never cut much of a figure socially. But when he died, his family gave him a "30-luck funeral"—thereby asserting his social standing, also the family's, for years to come.

For a time, village events were even referred to as so many years before or after "Soerater Skagway's 30-luck funeral."

Most people like big funerals. When a man said and done that, probably why King Tut has become the popular figure. It wasn't so much that Tut lived a long time ago, or that the unearthing of his tomb had important scientific value but that Tut had the "swellest funeral" in history—lasting at least fifteen million dollars.

That great even Attila the Hun, died in the year 453. According to tradition, his Chinese conqueror was buried in an unbecomingly big gold coffin, packed in jewels.

As people get more civilized, funerals become more simple and less expensive. The other day it was revealed that William K. Vanderbilt, who died in Paris in 1920, left an estate of more than fifty-four million dollars, but $20,000,000 covered his funeral expenses, including bringing his remains back to America.

Henry Clay Frick, who died in 1919, left a fortune of nearly ninety-three million dollars. An accounting in court shows that his funeral cost only $11,489.

These two multi-millionaires were buried at an expense of only $1 for each $75,000 of the estates they left behind. You can imagine how gorgeous their funerals would have been if they had died in King Tut's time.

A considerable part of King Tut's treasure was buried with him. No way of knowing how much, for his tomb was looted by grave robbers a couple of thousand years ago, and they probably carried off the bulk of the gold and precious stones that were sealed up with him.

Today the rich man's fortune, instead of being hidden away in his grave, goes on as an active investment, representing him after his death. His fortune carries on the industries he founded. It builds libraries and museums and endows schools and research laboratories—the finest kind of monuments.

Among families of smaller means, the tendency still is to spend more on a funeral than can be afforded. This is not so much to gratify vanity as it once was, but as an expression of respect and love for the departed. Then the years slip by—and it takes only a few of them to emphasize the folly and futility of costly funerals.

MARKETS

CHICAGO, March 24—All grain prices were lower at the close of a dull, short trading session on the Chicago Board of Trade today.

Restricted export demand for wheat resulted in a lower selling and liquidation carried over from yesterday was still apparent. Little buying power was apparent. Crop conditions were reported more favorable. Oklahoma droughts were still green, but not starting to invade wheat fields there, had been killed off by the recent cold weather. About 100,000 bushels of wheat were sold to store, to cover grain sold for May delivery. About 50,000 bushels of soy were sold to store.

Moderate buying of corn for export was reported. However, liquidation was apparent and with the call demand still, prices slumped through the day.

Country offerings were better than had been anticipated. Canadian wheat trade was on both sides of the market but not of any great volume. Provisions were sharply lower on a lower holding market and with heavy receipts for next week expected.

The bowling exhibitions which were put on at the Annex last night by the Baptist Athletic club proved to be a big success. In the first preliminary Edward Zerkland and Raymond Pennington put on a fast exhibition with Zerkland slightly ahead on pins at the end of the scheduled three games, both scored in 70 pounds.

The second bout of the evening was scheduled for four rounds, the principals being Alvin Knight and Gracie Hall. The first two rounds of this bout were about even, in the third round in a far from unexciting struggle, Knight hit on the jaw with a right hook outting him on the floor for a short time and he barely only to be flung again. At this point it is well to mention that this is as good as they make them and probably would be having got if it wasn't stopped after Knight and Strachan hit out for the fourth time in the main event Murray and Warber, two veteranists, boxed a six-round draw. This bout went in quite one leading on pins at the end of one round only to have the other make a rally and even the bout was undecided on their feet until the very end when Gracie and Miss Verona (Club) Murray and Miss Alma Sheridan gave a good exhibition of the manly art of the womanly way. This bout almost caused a riot and everybody who saw it held it was the cream of the program.

MRS. HINGKLEY NERVOUS WRECK

Tells Women How She Was Restored to Perfect Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Memphis, Tenn.—"Two years ago I was completely run-down and my nerves were a wreck. I could not sleep a room and I could not do my work except a little at a time, and the doctor's medicine did not help me. One day some one threw your little book on to my table and I read several testimonials of women who had been cured. I bought a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and before I had taken the whole of that bottle I knew it was helping me. I took bottles and another bottle a month I look better. Now I am in perfect health. I do all of my own work and could do more. I can truly say that I know Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound gave me my health."—Mrs. O. J. Hingkley, 310 Union Ave., Memphis, Tenn.

Attention, Farmers!

We have now about 5000 acres of beets in sight. The price of sugar keeps going higher. We have paid $0.75 per ton for the 1922-23 crop to date. Farmers are sure to get at least $1.00 more per ton for the past year's crop which will make $7.00 per ton.

Prospects for the coming year are better than the past year's. Why? We help us get 10,000 acres by putting a part of your land in sugar beets. We feel that early planted beets is the safest and surest crop you can plant. The price is sure and there is no other crop we know of that will bring as good returns. Why not take advantage of these good prices this year?

Sugar beets get most of their sugar from the air and contrast to beets given out are easier on land and put land in better condition than any other crop we know of. Beets and figure, it will pay to diversify. Ten acres of sugar beets will pay expense of running your farm.

Mr. Land Owner, did you know that every acre of land planted to sugar beets the past year on the Twin Falls tract brought from $30 to $40 per acre more?
