The Mayor Starts a New Project

By C. W. NIGHTINGALE.

This is Twin Falls, the juice of the land. And this is the home of a jolly old band; The Mayor and Aldermen, and the Mayor and stand at attention, but say a heck cat; And run like the deer, to the woods in the hills; And hide in the brush, by the trees and the hills.

They looked all around; but no cat was in sight; "Was all around; but where the rattlesnakes fight; "But isn't it grand?" they shouted in glee; "It's superb, it's heaven," the Mayor said; "Well, start a new project, it's a free tree; And just name it Rowland, the best name we can give."

So they borrowed some money and started an inn; And built a high tower, to keep water in; Ordered some handrails, and painted a book; Hired a holly and water, and hired a cook; Chartered a special grand train from St. Paul; With Germans and Swedes and Yankers and all.

All aboard all aboard; all aboard for Rowland; "Mink," said you Yankon to Paul Humphrey; "You have started in Rowland, and you had better; You look good, but you got a real job to do; But we pay for 300 votes for ever half to you; So remember to get away so."

"Rowland Junction? Rowland Junction? Rowland Junction? All like the stars in the sky; But wasn't the sight one for terror some time; To be home again they gave all they had; "You pitch fork, and talking when they got out to the inn; And the coyote made hideous, the night with his sn."

Asked for a ripple that charged as a live; By the twitter of birds, and a glow from a fire; As the sun rose high in the dark blue sky; While the coyote of yore, had trousers, untold; "But isn't it grand," they admitted in glee; "Isn't a peach? we're in heaven," said Rowberg, said he.

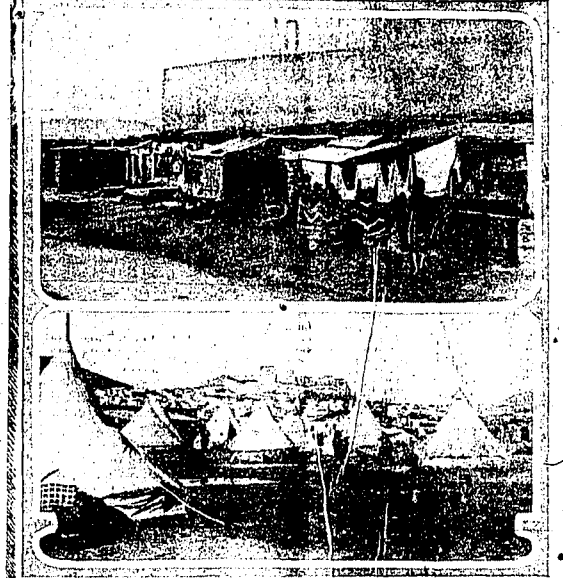

Along that road, competition grew keen; The greatest hand barnd, they ever had seen; They bought off the line, and bought some more; Than Rowland had farmers, and farms by the score; A store and a grocery, an inn and a tank; Jack rabbits and coyotes, hungry looking and lank.

The years have dragged, since Rowland's grand road; Took milk and still flour, in it's glorified road; Happened never to rest, again, from it's flight; Though weary by day and late at night; Customers now roam there, in broad daylight; Whole weeks, and convene, in the graveyard at night.

Yours truly,

Story of Life of Christian Citizen Who Goes to Reward

Oscar Leo Coxon was born in Harrison, Ind., November 16, 1858, and died at his family home two miles north of Twin Falls, Idaho, at 7:55 in the evening of April 17, 1923, being 66 years of age and 1 day old.

He came to Kansas about 1878, and was married to Elizabeth G. Coxon at Alum, Kan., December 10, 1879. He came to Idaho five years ago, and for the past three years has resided near Twin Falls.

After becoming a Christian and joined the Baptist church at Eldridge, Kan., about 28 years ago, and at the time of his death was one of the honored members in the First Baptist church of Twin Falls.

He had been a Mason, and at the time of his death belonged to the 664 Fellows and the Woodman orders.

No one questioned his word or his honor and he lived up to the high, pure type of religion which he professed. He was a man of character, honor and integrity. His pastor, Dr. Folliott, took his funeral last night at 11:14, which reads, "If a man die, shall he live again? All the days of my appointed time will I walk, till my change come." The service was impressive. It was held in the First Baptist church and a large and sympathetic audience gathered for the occasion. The quiet words were, "Start in the Arms of Jesus, and We'll Never Say Good-Bye."

Mrs. Edna Graham sang an impressive solo.

There were present at the time of his death, his devoted wife, and her sister, Mrs. C. E. Coxon, Mrs. Edna Hunsbaker, Alfred Dent and the nurse, Mrs. Mae Justice.

Beside his faithful wife, Mrs. Coxon leaves five brothers and two sisters: They are: O. E. Coxon, Fredonia, Kan.; O. F. Coxon, of Missouri; D. W. Coxon, Elwood, Ind.; O. C. Coxon, of Twin Falls, Idaho, and O. J. Coxon, of Weidson, Okla.; Mrs. Edna Dent, of London, Kan., and Mrs. Leola Carter, of Hammond, Okla.

The body was shipped today to Eldridge, Kan., where interment will be made among other relatives.

JESS WILLIARD ARRIVES IN NEW YORK CITY VERY BEEFY

OTHER FIGHTERS DISCUSSED FOR BIG BENEFIT

BY HENRY L. FAHRELL.
 NEW YORK, April 20.—Jess Williard, the world champion of the bantam weight class, arrived in New York today on his way to fight for the benefit of the American Red Cross. He is expected to fight on the 23rd of the month.

The former champion heads in the order of the boxing commission that he must show what kind of training he has done before he can accept the $25,000 that he is to get for fighting for charity.

Jack McAuliffe, the first opponent, arrived on the boat yesterday from Detroit, but he was so possessed of "train legs" that he did not work out and the critics did not get a chance for a tip on how to beat their money.

Pipino, the South American giant, who is scheduled to operate on McAuliffe, has been criticised for being since he flattened Bill Brennan. He is being kept carefully under cover by Jimmy Delaney, who is getting him ready for the planned bout with Williard.

Advance information states that Williard is down to 231 pounds, and that he is in the best condition of his life in years. Various stories have come out of his training camp about the kind of training he has been doing, and it was for that reason that he was ordered to New York to allow Dick McKeon to take a look at him.

Williard, who is to face Willard in the big bout, is training on Fulton. He is being trained by Alvin Karpis, who is nothing else to do.

Johnson meets Fred Fulton Monday night in Jersey City and the Johnson backers are hoping that it is a very poor match. The fight is taking a big chance, but he seems to have nothing else to do.

The above is a late picture of the big Kansas Giant as he looked only a few days ago. Note the large amount of fat which he is carrying and the New York boxing commission may refuse to allow him to go into the ring for benefit bout.

BRUINS WIN FROM OAKLEY

(BY MARRIS)
 Yesterday Oakley met to the Bruins in a one-sided game in Lincoln Hall. The final score, 12 to 1, was run up in four and a half periods, the most of which was played during a drizzling rain. There were quite a large number of fans out and they showed themselves true lovers of the game by staying until the end.

Larson, the all-time center on Oakley, led a crack line-up which included the game in the last, while Lavalle, Larsson, and the Bruins' line-up. White rubber. It took Twin Falls one inning to get used to the fast ball, but the end of the game was the lowest run. They once did get the idea, a home run and two runs hit by Adkinson, Larsson and Schick speak for the Twin Falls batting ability.

In the second inning Twin Falls started to go round the bases with the start "roll" gave them with the score run and another thing that started about them and later until the end of the game was the lowest run. It rained and rained and rained until the last of the fifth when the game was called. In the third inning Oakley made her single score. Larsson and Schick speak for the Twin Falls batting ability.

Important Election News

As you all know, Shad Hodgins and we were elected in the last election, so we are not running this time. The way we have been handling coal since last election will convince anyone that we were elected. We burned the engines out of open trucks and had to get most of our coal from other districts and it took a lot of us will have to get new men until these are rested up.

Well, Shad, it just looks as though the people of Twin Falls know how to vote; all they want is a chance. Now, Shad, let's not disappoint them; and I know you won't. You give them the best administration that they ever had and we will do likewise with the coal, and by the time next election comes around we won't have to worry at all about the Klan or anyone else. We won't have to call anyone any names; they will just want to keep on voting for us. You know some fellows make great promises and platform pledges, but we will produce the goods, that is what counts.

Well, we suppose we ought to say something about the other four fellows that want a chance to serve the people of Twin Falls but there's what is the case, they are all good fellows, and besides it don't make so much difference so long as you and we are at the head. With you at the administrative and we on the coal, we think that there is a bright future ahead for the people of Twin Falls.

Oh, say, we almost forgot to tell you what we had to say about our service on coal. As we told you some time ago, we were your friends, this is how we prove it. On April 17, your enemy, the railroads, advanced the rate on coal 50c per ton so we bought a big supply of coal by order to keep on selling at the same old price; how do you like that? "Since we have adopted Henry Ford's plan we are doing lots of business, that means buy our coal and spend the rest for something else."

Now, here is another thing: we own a part of the Mutual Coal Co. In order to introduce that coal we will sell to any non-stockholder one ton of Lump Coal at $1.00 less than regular price. This is good for thirty days only. This is our way of having a got-together meeting; how do you like it?

Our prices on all coals are:
 Spring Canyon, Nut..... $ 8.00
 Spring Canyon, Egg..... $10.00
 Spring Canyon, Lump..... $11.00
 Mutual Lump to non-stockholders..... $10.00

We also have some pure re-cleaned Alifalfa Seed, 25c per lb.

THE SCOREBOARD

Walker doubled in the ninth and scored from second on Haezler's wild leave of Lee's bat in front of the gate, giving the Phils an 8 to 7 victory over Brooklyn.

Four hits bunched with four-ounces off two rookies, pitchers, gave the Reds seven runs in the fourth inning and a 10 to 2 victory over the Cards.

Dora's homer and a three run rally in the seventh inning enabled the Browns to win their first game of the season by beating the Tigers, 6 to 3.

Jack Bentley, $50,000 Giant pitcher, was pounded all over the lot by the Boston Braves and the champions lost 2 to 2. Bentley started badly, but McGraw made him stay on the mound and take his beating.

A degree of spiritual fellowship among nations, is a conspicuous element of our civilization. It is the stolid determination of Russia to ignore the opinions of other countries on everything, that now and will continue to retard development of that country.

Throughout the campaign for a new city administration in Twin Falls there has been this question asked over and over again, "What is the issue." Many of the people who wish to cover the facts have said time and again there is no issue any more than at choice between these men who are running.

ROBERTS AND THE BOOTLEGGERS

There is a great deal of capital being made over the "success" of Commissioner J. E. Roberts in his alleged campaign against bootleggers in this city. As a matter of fact, the movements with which Mr. Roberts has personally identified himself have been largely abortive, whether intentionally so or not.

The Times protests against the efforts of desperate local politicians to steal credit from the office of the sheriff in order to boost the chances of re-election of Roberts, who at best has proven himself a "fly on the earwhheel," and whose itch for notoriety seems to overshadow his desire to get results.

The statement that "all the bootleggers are against Roberts" is an unproven and unfounded assertion based on the statement of the police commissioner, who seeks to leave the impression that others will not enforce the law as well as he does.

His usual statements to that effect are just as reliable as his statements to E. J. Finch in regard to what he would do in the democratic delegate convention, or to former Mayor C. O. Meigs in regard to the horse purchase, or to former Mayor C. O. Meigs regarding the city printing.

Leslie and Keel are for law enforcement and it will take more than the word of Jack Roberts to discredit them with the people.

HUGHES AND THE SIX VOTES

By JAMES D. WHELAN.

The administration now admits that there is no disadvantage in the so-called six votes for Great Britain, about which so much was made two years ago. The truth is, as frequently shown, and never more ably than by that brilliant but honest irreconcilable foe of the League of Nations, Senator Thomas of Colorado that so far as the British foreign office is concerned, the six votes are handicaps, since England controls only one of them, directly and one more, that of India, indirectly. England opposed the granting of these votes in the assembly, since when divided, as they have divided since the league got into operation, they nullify the wishes of the mother country. The league covenant provided when a matter was appealed from the council to the assembly, that a report made by the assembly IF CONCLUDED BY THE REPRESENTATIVES OF THOSE MEMBERS OF THE LEAGUE REPRESENTED ON THE COUNCIL and a majority of the other members of the league, exclusive in each case of the parties to the dispute, shall have the same force as a report by the council concurred in by all the members thereof other than the representatives of one or more of the parties to the dispute.

members represented on the council should vote unanimously, there could be no action. Obviously, in such case six votes could count no more than one and if the six votes the British empire should divide evenly that great body would lose all representation. Hence, the six votes on important matters are a real handicap since Canada, Australia, New Zealand and South Africa are self-governing, appoint their own representatives and are not controlled by the British foreign office.

This arrangement has actually hampered the freedom of action of the English foreign office during the Bit of the league. It was put in against the protest of the British delegation and on the request of the self-governing colonies who would otherwise be without representation. These facts were well known to the fact-finding statement inside and outside the Senate in 1919 and 1920 as they are now.

But after all, it doesn't make so much difference whether we edge into the league through a republican back door or walk in the front way after the democratic method, only the latter is the more respectable and dignified.

BURLEY BANKER KEPT FUND FOR BUYING WHISKEY

Former Burley Bank Teller's Testimony Involving the Association of Interest Differences Questioned.

BURLEY, Idaho, April 21.—Edward P. McGuire, former paying and receiving teller of the defunct First National Bank of Burley, called on the evening Friday night for the government in the case of E. Carl Warren, Arnold E. Smith and Richard H. Whitehouse, being tried on a federal indictment charging conspiracy to violate the national banking laws and abstraction of funds of the bank, testified in effect that Smith, the cashier, told him one day in the bank that he was maintaining an "entertainment fund" and that at times Smith would take out cash representing differences in interest on notes collected from customers of the bank and the amount paid to banks carrying or purchasing the notes.

Says Whiskey Purchased. During his examination by E. O. Davis, United States district attorney, he related that Smith, the cashier, had purchased whiskey with some of the interest charges for the entertainment of the bank officials and some customers of the bank. He also testified that the largest quantity of whiskey he had ever seen in the bank was a gallon. On cross-examination by Justice J. St. Stevens, counsel for Smith, the witness admitted that the interest receipts have been used for other expenses of the officials and that he knew that Smith had taken away.

WHEAT CLOSES HIGHER AND RUGG GREENS LOWER ON CHICAGO BOARD OF TRADE

CHICAGO, April 21 - Wheat was higher and rough grades lower at the close of the board of trade today. Export buying of wheat ranged the strength. About 20,000 bushels were sold for shipment abroad, the largest export business reported in weeks. The buying by foreign buyers, though only after the opening caused by improved crop reports and favorable weather conditions. The Kansas and Nebraska crop reports were the most favorable, causing the decline at the opening. Although the wheat acreage was reported in the northwest during the week, many farmers are ready to enter the field the first of the week. Corn was under heavy liquidation and weak throughout the short session. It failed to respond to the advance in wheat. The heavy acreage reported by the bureau abandoned wheat largely influenced selling.

LOWER RATES ON PRODUCTS FOR TWIN FALLS

Gets in Many Articles of Freight, Go Into Effect; Pacific Coast Prepared to Fight to Recover Discriminatory Tariffs.

Local buyers are much interested in the intimation of maintaining the reduced rates in effect April 17, secured through the activities of the Interstate Rate Association, which was organized by the old Southern Idaho Traffic association during the time when Leonard Way was in charge of its activities. The Pacific coast cities are making a fight on these reductions and are asking that the Interstate Commerce commission discriminate in their favor. The reduction in effect in the Interstate freight rates, now challenged by the coast cities favors the following cuts per carload: Iron, steel, nails, bolts, pipe, copper, wire, etc., $120; canned goods, $150; sugar, $120; hard substitutes, $160; fruit, $100; and $40; wild game, $100; plate glass, $20; refrigerators, $40; innosol oil, $112; twine, $40; drugs, $114; roofing and roofing material, $120; paper things at $120. The hearing date for the reconsideration of this has not been set by the Interstate Commerce commission, as yet, but it is thought that it will be in a short time and a fierce fight is expected to be put up by the intermountain country against the change and against discrimination.

SCHOOL MINSTREL PLEASURES AUDIENCE IN AUDITORIUM

Large Crowd Gave Enthusiastic Over Music-Fueled Production by Members of the High School Band and Girls' Enthusiastic Applaud.

A large crowd enjoyed every minute of the time at the show given by members of the high school in the auditorium. There was plenty of music in every number and the audience went home in a joyful frame of mind. "The show was arranged in the usual minstrel style, consisting of songs and dialogues, followed by a program after the intermission. Walter Weaver was introduced and Edwin Slaughter and Donald Flynn opened. All were attired in sufficient style for the occasion, the costumes being arranged by Howard E. Sahlin, A. G. Finlay and Jack Turpin. Songs during the first period consisted of "Kiss Mama, Kiss Papa," by Ralph Ormsby; "Cowbells" by Edward Eggleston; "Love's the Stock of the Game," Francis Flynn; "Tost, Tost, Tost," Elizabeth McElhenny; "The Morning," Donald Flynn; "Call Me Back, Pal O' Mine," Kenneth Henderson.

These were all enthusiastically received. In the second part Paul Lavett and Burton Hammond gave several fine novelty acts as the "Man and Bitter," Edward Sigman, and Donald Flynn gave various vaudeville comedy acts that were much appreciated and John Nye and Donald Flynn gave splendid Hawaiian musical number, the Saxophone quartette, which gave the glowing number, composed of Walter Weaver, Russell Denoyer, Kenneth Henderson, Elizabeth McElhenny, Harry Foster, and Burton Hammond. The personnel of the orchestra was Clark Beebe, Fletcher Finney, Edna Thomas, Jack Johnson, Albert Berg and Leo Sholow with George Dunkey of the Idaho theatre as pianist. Edward Walters was stage manager. Composing the circle on the stage were Walter Weaver, Donald Flynn, Edna Thomas, Sigman, Ralph Ormsby, Harry Foster, Kenneth Henderson, Willis Moffatt, Russell Denoyer, Mark Sonn, Elizabeth McElhenny, Clarence Tolliver, John Walters, Valerie Wilkinson, Virginia Murray, George Duke, Edward Duke, Donald Lenz, Francis Flynn, William Parish and Russell Foster as postman. Every number was a "tipple" and the hope was expressed by many that in their worthy campaign in securing funds for uniforms, the high school band might see its way clear to give a number of other enterprising organizations. The members of the band say that the principal credit for the success of the show is due to the assistance of P. J. Hainbridge, who worked with untiring intelligence to see that every detail was properly arranged and carried out. They also expressed great obligation to Mr. Dunkey, who donated his services as a pianist.

Twin Falls High School Students Are Numerous at Pomona

By Dudley Swinn. CLAREMONT, Calif.—According to figures recently compiled by the Pomona college registrar, outside of California, Idaho is the home state of more students enrolled in Pomona college at present than any other state or foreign country. The native sons and daughters of the Sun-set State are of course far in the majority. Of the number from Idaho, more than half came from Twin Falls county. Furthermore, the majority of the Twin Falls county quota are graduates of Twin Falls high school.

We Favor the American Principle of the greater number of people controlling in the selection of public officials. This principle is generally accepted. We will explain why it is opposed in Twin Falls.

In the spring of 1922, as a result of the first election held under the Commission Form of Government, the Mills-Walton Ticket elected four of its candidates. Dr. W. H. Dwight, who opposed that ticket, and his opponent, Commissioner McAuley, each failed to receive a majority of the votes cast. Dr. Dwight receiving a plurality. However, Dr. Dwight recognizing that the electorates desired the Mills-Walton ticket to have the responsibility of the City Government; and notwithstanding his plurality over Mr. McAuley, publicly requested his friends to elect Mr. McAuley. His friends appreciating this FAIR and MANLY ATTITUDE took no further interest in Dr. Dwight's candidacy. After the election of Mayor Hodgkin on April 3, his unsuccessful opponent, Mr. Lambing, in a FAIR and MANLY SPIRIT congratulated Mr. Hodgkin and expressed the WISH and HOPE that Mr. Hodgkin would have a supporting council by the election of Mr. Keel and Mr. Leslie. At the same time the campaign manager of the Lambing ticket likewise in a FAIR and MANLY SPIRIT congratulated Mr. Keel upon his plurality and upon the plurality of Mr. Leslie and the election of Mr. Hodgkin and stated that from thence on he would be WITH THEM.

Why, then, the continued opposition to the election of Mr. Keel and Mr. Leslie? It is only by reason of the anxiety of the Ku Klux Klan to accomplish the election of Mr. Roberts and Mr. Stinson, who have admitted that they have applied for membership in that organization. Mr. Keel and Mr. Leslie are opposed to the intolerant principles and secret methods of this hooded organization. In their desperate attempt to elect Roberts and Stinson their supporters have endeavored to whisper a law enforcement issue into this campaign. They have not had the courage to do this openly or publicly because they know if such an issue is REAL it is so because of the FAILURE or the INCOMPETENCY of J. E. Roberts as police commissioner, and they know that thinking people would recognize this fact. Mr. Hodgkin is an experienced PEACE OFFICER and is PLEDGED TO ENFORCE THE LAW—all of it—solely by means of the CONSTITUTED AUTHORITIES at his command. Mr. Keel and Mr. Leslie are pledged to support and to work in harmony with him. THERE IS NO LAW ENFORCEMENT ISSUE. Neither is there any OPEN SUNDAY ISSUE. The City Council cannot, without the express consent of a majority of the electors, make any change in the regulations respecting Sabbath observance. Mayor Hodgkin, Mr. Keel and Mr. Leslie have publicly stated that they oppose any such change. This pretended issue is BUNK. It is urged by the Klan in support of its candidates, and is purveyed solely in a brazen attempt to impose upon and scare sincere law-abiding citizens, into voting for the Klan candidates.

If you want civic harmony—If you want efficient and safe business administration—If you want public affairs publicly and openly handled, vote for
