GIANTS-YANKS APPEAR SURE FLAG WINNERS

THESE "A" couple of days, after dark upon the field, the Giants and the Yanks should be in a position to appear to smoke out any other team in the league before September is very long on the way.

Both the champion clubs got away good and piled up leads that would make them favorites for their ninth straight pennants, even if there were some strong opponents in the field against them.

In the National league it is almost a sure thing that the Yankees will be the pennant. John McGraw has a tremendously powerful line club and the opposition that they meet is weak.

The Pirates, from early season form, looked like the only rival that the Giants had for the crown.

The Reds were a disappointment and Cards, without Hornsby, will get no run in the pennant race.

While the Yanks haven't a team to compare with the Giants, they are running away with the American league race.

All of the western clubs failed badly to live up to expectations.

The White Sox were the biggest disappointment of the year.

The Cleveland Indians fell down, and the loss of George Hitter ruined the Browns.

Ty Cobb has been troubled with an inflamed foot and his pitchers did not deliver as he expected them to.

Conrad Mack's Athletics were the big surprise of the early season.

The Yanks would be in a bad way if any of the infielders ran into some bad luck.

Mike McNally and Ernie Johnson are the only players Miller Hughes has to fall back on.

McNally has been banged around enough to go through a hard season.

Cobb may be a small ball player, but every club in the league, with the exception of the Yanks, walked on his base the White Sox put him on the black.

Gardella, a football and baseball star from Lehigh, has been signed by the Yanks, and he might step into star.

TEN EYCK'S BOYS AFTER MIDDIE'S SCALPS

DEMPEY REPLIES TO HIS CRITICS

GREAT FALLS, Mont., June 20.—Jack Dempsey laughed when critics who have seen the champion train for all his fights shake their heads and say he is not in condition.

"Those who sit on the outside of the ring, in the shade with the breeze of the Missouri fanning their eyes, cannot appreciate how warm it is in there, exchanging punches with those who are getting a hot workout of it," he said.

There are two ways to train for a fight, I think I have learned them. If this was an indoor fight in the city, I would have been here for any other afternoon in a gymnasium.

A fellow can expend as much more energy when he is in a ring as he can when he is in a gymnasium.

Despite the criticism that have fallen on me, for my apparent lack of desire to training, I will persevere the course that will bring me to my top form before July 4.

Jack Kearns, the champion's pilot, supplements Jack's remarks. Kearns does not seem a bit worried over Jack's condition so far as he is satisfied with the way his usual time is going for his championship fight, why should anyone else worry?

WATCHING THE SCOREBOARD

Coming from behind twice the Senators won from the Cleveland Indians in the tenth.

The White Sox staged ninth-inning heroics in the fifth and sixth, gathering 12 runners and drove Horace Frazier, second, defeating Philadelphia, 12 to 5.

Schleimer, Browns' first baseman, struck out four hits, including a circuit breaker yesterday, when St. Louis made its three straight over Boston, 12 to 6.

Hargrave's sacrifice hit that scored Duncan in the eleventh, ended an extra inning pitcher's duel and Brooklyn lost to Cincinnati, 4 to 0.

McGillion shut out the Cardinals with seven hits and the Giants triumphed, 4 to 0.

Fred Fussell weakened in the eighth and the Phillies pounded him for four hits which gave them a 6 to 3 victory over the Cubs.

EAT MORE WHEAT IS SLOGAN OF CHICAGO MEET

Great Gathering Galed by Governors of All Parties at Chicago World Aeronautics Exposition, Many Bibles Represented.

CHICAGO, June 19.—The calling of wheat and wheat products to be used by a large percentage from all western grain growing states, here at a meeting called by the governors representing different political parties. The call which was read at the opening of the exposition was as follows:

More than ten million men, women and children of the United States are directly interested in the production of wheat. The diversified condition of a big portion of our agricultural population today is very largely due to the price of wheat, which measures by its cost the production of all the other things of value of the farmer's life, is lower today than in the production of any other crop.

There is being a call to the farmer from his present situation will have a serious effect on the continuing policy for permanent prosperity of the wheat raising states. It is a call to bring agriculture upon the fields and farms that support the nation's physical life. It is a call to the farmer, making himself a part of the American people, to give his wheat for American workers.

The wheat that is raised in this country, and later, our standards of living and those of other wheat-producing nations of the world, are dependent on the wheat that we raise. It is a call to the farmer, to produce wheat, to produce wheat, to produce wheat, to produce wheat, to produce wheat.

- Committee on Call
J. A. O. Press, governor of Minnesota.
L. H. Small, governor of Illinois.
Joseph M. Hyde, governor of Indiana.
Jonathan M. Davis, governor of Kentucky.
R. A. Sweeney, governor of North Dakota.
W. W. Donahoe, governor of Ohio.
John L. Walton, governor of Oklahoma.
Arthur Capper, Senator of Kansas.

JOE BOYLE, LAST OF D'ARTAGNANS

Death in England Marks End of Man Whose Exploits Made Him Hero of Rumania.

If you enjoyed following the adventures of D'Artagnan in the pages of the novel, you ought to find this story immensely interesting.

Toronto.—Joe Boyle of Woodstock and Toronto, Canada's greatest adventurer, has passed on to the supreme adventure. He was the Canadian d'Artagnan. There were literally scores of incidents which have made him a hero of Rumania. In a motion picture play or novel, would be described as belonging to the class of heroes who are moved from the sphere of realism or even of probability.

By this time Russia was getting ready for the coming of the winter. He had asked Boyle to go to Russia to see what he could do for the army transport there. Boyle jumped at the chance. He had been in Rumania for some time and he had seen something of the life of the country.

He was still in Rumania when the Bolshevik war came and the arrival of the British and German troops. He was still in Rumania when the Bolshevik war came and the arrival of the British and German troops.

station house, they succeeded in getting the engine in motion. Without signs, the amateur engine driver drove forward slowly on his track. Some hours they halted in a quiet spot. One of them cautiously returned to the engine house. He was knocked at the door of a small house and inquiry revealed the fact that they were in the presence of a man who was the Hungarian ruler. He was friendly and generous, the officers went to the nearest Rumanian station and he had lunch with them.

When the queen of Rumania heard of this exploit, she was so pleased that she ordered the man who had been the ruler of the Crown, the highest order in Rumania.

He turned to the Russian Black Sea fleet possibly a critical moment. He arranged peace terms between Rumania and the Bulgarians. He saved 20 Rumanian d'Artagnans from being sent to the front lines and he was in the Crimea, and King Ferdinand of Rumania was anxious that he should be in the Crimea, and King Ferdinand of Rumania was anxious that he should be in the Crimea.

Many of Boyle's adventures at this period were in connection with the war in Rumania. He was immediately called upon to go to Rumania to see what he could do for the army transport there.

BOY SCOUTS PROTECT BIRDS
A pair of robins built their nest upon the fire escape opposite a window of the dormitory at the State Industrial school of Utah.

These verses are like a gold mine to the one who has the heart to read and ponder the deeper the vein is followed. They will undoubtedly need a rich reward to thought and meditation.

SCOUT OATH: HONOR SYSTEM

An evidence of the practical working of the scout oath, in action as well as in work and play, is contained in the following recent statement of Scoutmaster E. H. Henson of Chattanooga, Tenn.: "A boy who takes the scout oath can't go wrong. I have in my class a boy who has been under the scout oath since he was a child, and he has never done anything wrong. He has been a good boy, and he has been a good citizen." "Can any good thing come out of Nazareth?" Philip "simply replied, "Come and see." At the invitation in Matthew 23 the disciples went to Nazareth. At the close of the first movement of the scout in the world, the scoutmaster said, "I am not a scout, but I am with you and I am with you and I am with you."
