Woman's Progressive Club Picnic—The annual picnic for the families of the members of the Woman's Progressive club was held at the home of Mrs. D. Aranz on Friday. There was an attendance of fifty children and thirty-two grown people. One of the features of the picnic was a hand-ceremonial shower for Mrs. Emma Shaw and for Mrs. C. Abricht who are leaving town in their homes and elsewhere. There were games to amuse the children from 3 o'clock until 10 and refreshments were served.

The picnic meeting of the Presbyterian Ladies' Aid will be at the home of Mrs. David Clark, near Kimberly on Thursday. There are asked to be at the church at 10 a. m. Ladies are asked to bring sandwiches and a covered dish and their own dishes. Ice cream and tea will be furnished. Mrs. A. B. Smith and Mrs. Young will be in charge. Those who will wear their caps. All the ladies of the congregation are invited.

Will Hold Picnic—The Ladies of the Methodist Society of the Christian church will hold their annual picnic at the home of Mrs. W. W. Farish on Thursday. Each lady is requested to bring a covered dish and sandwiches, also their cups, knife, fork and a spoon. Cars will be at the park at 11 o'clock for those who wish to go.

The Hobbs' lodge will hold their regular meeting tonight. A large attendance is desired.

Could Not Digest the Wind
The contents taken from the stomach of a large bear after an excessive recent meal in Transbaikian territory include some curious and gruesome details. Apart from antelope horns, reindeer horns and porcupine quills there were a large number of metal hinges and nails by native women, break and a long strand of wool. The strand of wool solved the mystery of the disappearance of a native boy. The lad was in the habit of gathering wool along the river bank and taking it home with a bit of wife. The wife could find in the crocodile's stomach was only to sure an indication of the fate of the unfortunate boy.

Various Kinds of Ice.
Experimenters have shown that water can be made to solidify into five different kinds of ice, each of which at certain temperatures and pressures changes from one into another with explosive violence. One kind, "ice-2," requires a very low temperature and great pressure to keep it from exploding into ordinary ice. Another kind will stay frozen at summer heat, provided it is kept under a pressure of 20,000 atmospheres. In nature such great pressures exist only in company with very high temperatures, and it is not possible that some of these kinds of ice never existed until they were created in the experiments of modern men.

World and His Wife Attend Singer's Debut at Sea

Mort Downey Has Unique Distinction on U. S. S. Leviathan

The first international debut of an operatic star took place recently when the Leviathan, biggest steamship in the world, made her maiden trip across the Atlantic. The star who received the honor to give introduction to his public was Mort Downey, young Irish tenor, who was discovered and presented by Paul Whiteman, famous orchestra leader. The role of soprano is a new one for Whiteman, but his friends along Broadway who declare he "knows" a "big ship" were not in the least surprised that he declined the ordinary way of launching a grand opera and chose, instead of the Metropolitan, the magnificent hull of the Leviathan where, during the voyage, making every station guaranteed. Whiteman's orchestra furnished the accompaniment for the youthful singer and "Wonderful One," a waltz song composed by the leader himself and considered by publishers the best musical find of 1923, was what he sang. "It was a greater thrill than I have gotten out of even the Metropolitan, though always so, that was the delight of my ambition," Whiteman's friends after an opening night at sea.

IDAHO THEATRE RECITES MARSHALL NELLAN'S "MINNIE"

Marshall Nellan's latest picture, "Minnie," released by Associated First National, has been secured by the Idaho theatre and will be shown this afternoon and Tuesday. Matt Moore and Lettie Joy are featured in the story. Here follows the story of Marshall Nellan pictures will act a surprise in "Minnie" because Matt Moore for the first time in his career appears in character. An usual he does a clever piece of acting, full of white, some human humor. Ad Miss Nellan, who is known for her beauty, has entered the picture and comes forth as a family friend and who leaves the screen better for her excellent portrayal. Lettie Joy and Matt Moore are going to win new laurels with the showing of "Minnie." They are going to give an absolute motion picture world a good hearty laugh. These two clever screen players are ably supported by George Barney, Josephine Crowell, Helen Lynch, Raymond Griffith, George Wayne, Tom Wilson and George Dromgold. Frank Uram, assistant Nellan in the direction of the picture.

ORPHEUM YARDVILLE

Another busy program presenting a laugh festival on the vaudeville bill at the Orpheum theatre on tomorrow.

Headed by three novelty entertainers, Victoria & Frank in plastic art, "Orpheum" now presents from what you have seen in this theatre lately. It is a comedy of duration but contains a world of novelties that are bound to appeal to the enthusiasm and entertainment of the audience.

Mahoney & Falset furnish their usual crop of comedy. A story and songs interspersed with harmony, singing and juggling that sends the audience home happily entertained. They are vocalists from Soudan.

Johnny Burns by comedy character impressions. He is a clever character impersonator and master of the art of making a laugh out of comedy bits that he hands out in a very humorous manner.

Franklin & Lee in "A Study of Legman." A clever couple who sing and dance their way into your hearts with their high kicking and eccentric gyrations. A pleasing feature throughout and well worth while.

Feature pictures, "Elysium" and "The Last Adventure." A story of beauty, wisdom, sorrows, romance and adventure. Two reel comedy, "Brahmin" and "The Coyote." It is a dandy show from start to finish.

SAVED FROM AN OPERATION

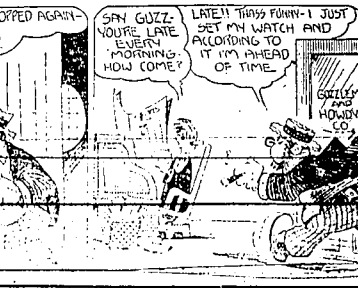

Now Recommends Lydia E. Finkham's Vegetable Compound

Washington, D. C.—"Lydia E. Finkham's Vegetable Compound saved me from an operation which a physician said I would have to have for a very bad case of female trouble. My system was all out of gear for years after my little girl was born. Then I decided to try the Compound and decided to try it. I could hardly drag on and after taking six bottles of the Compound I felt like a new woman. I now do all my work, washing and ironing, and do not know what real trouble is. My health is fine, and I weigh 140 pounds. When I started taking it I weighed 97 pounds. I gladly recommend Lydia E. Finkham's Vegetable Compound to any one who is suffering from female trouble or is run down. This compound is the only one for I am only too glad to list suffering women know that the Vegetable Compound did for me." L. J. HENRY, 1620 Penna. Ave. S. E., Washington, D. C. Such letters from women in every section of this country are being collected for the merit of Lydia E. Finkham's Vegetable Compound.

QUESTION AND ANSWER BOX

(Conducted by Auntie Sue.)

Q. Dear Auntie Sue: I come to you with a question. I have much should I wear a hat in the hot sun? I think I am too hot and hot in the sun. I have to get to it. I'd just love to see you sometime.—Tide.

A. Perhaps you make a much better picture of me than the photographer does, so why spoil it. You should wear just no hat. Do you wish more? If so, perhaps Dr. Little Fluid Pills has to offer in the subject of "hat" pills. In her book entitled "Watch Your Waist."

Q. Dear Auntie Sue: I'm heading for the dark sometime in August. Is it alright to go in like this? I'm all blue, or should I take a stress along? I have never been there and wish to do what is correct. Thanking you kindly.—Mrs. L. N.

A. Hiking clothes are quite the best. In my opinion, and unless you are intending to stop at the hotel, anything else would be out of place. However, if you intend stopping at the hotel, then a dinner gown is quite essential. You are most welcome, and I wish you a pleasant trip.

To Mrs. Virginia: I am working on your question now. Sometimes I take some time longer than others, and don't you think it best to take a little time, and be sure and be accurate?

Q. Dear Auntie Sue: Will you please tell me the correct meaning of the term "Magdalen." It is my life. How nice. Thanking you kindly for the coming answer.—Magdalen.

A. "Magdalen" is derived from the Hebrew word which means "magdalen." You are most welcome.

NEWS OF THE SPORT WORLD

GIANTS WILL KNOW THEIR FATE SOON

Before the End of the Week John McGraw's New York Giants Will Know Their Fate, Yanks to League With 14-2 Games to the Good, Indians Crawling Up.

BY HENRY L. FARRELL.
NEW YORK, July 31.—Before the end of this week John McGraw may have a better idea of where his New York Giants are going to end the National League season.
With just a slim lead over the Pittsburgh Pirates and the Cincinnati Reds and a team that is more heart than anything else, the world's champions are on a treacherous ground. The breaks in the coming series with the Pirates and Reds no doubt will make or break the club.
Starting today in Pittsburgh with a doubleheader the Giants will battle the Pirates over five games in four days. Then the champions go to Cincinnati to do five games in five days with the Reds. With no abundance of good pitchers, ten games in eight days against the best clubs in the league is a champagne job for the Giants.
The Giants are now three games ahead of the Pirates and 3½ games in front of the Reds. If the Pirates should take the series and the Reds should rout the Phils, the Giants will have Pittsburgh in third place, and sit out either the Pirates or the Reds the lead at this critical stage of the fight might be disastrous for the Giants.
McGraw started well on the trip by breaking over with the Cubs. The form shown by Jack Bentley and Henry Ryan was encouraging as it indicated that the champions might have two relief pitchers to depend on in their journey through the west.
They have had a very busy week in the name, the defense and the offense will be stretched. Young Jackson has been doing well, there being the absence of the team captain, but he lacks the brains and the experience of Bancroft.
The Yanks are on top with a lead of 14½ games over the Pirates. Even if they do no better than break even in their remaining games they will finish with 94 victories and 60 defeats. To beat them out and win the Cleveland Indians will have to win 47 of their remaining 63 contests and that is a huge job and practically impossible.

NEW YORK.—Dabe Ruth closed up again in his drive for 100 runs as Yogi Bating championed him when he got one hit in three times to win with Detroit and a 3-2 victory over Detroit star is batting 396 and Ruth 359. The Babe is three homers back of Cy Williams, who has 27.

Manush May Fill Ty's Place in Outfield

HEINIE MANUSH. In a couple of years he will be one of the most talked about hitters in the big show. He also gives promise of being an excellent fielder. In a couple of years he will have arrived with a vengeance.

DETROIT, July 30.—Heinie Manush, Detroit rookie today as the successor of Ty Cobb as center fielder for the Tigers.
Cobb's legs are bothering him. He can't cover the ground he once did and he lacks the oblique speed on the bases. Father Time is taking his toll.
In Manual, Detroit appears to have picked up the most gigantic outfielder of the year. He has wonderful natural ability. He lacks only experience and confidence in that ability.

SHALL FIRPO OR WILLS MEET JACK DEMPSEY IN RING

(By HENRY L. FARRELL.)
NEW YORK, July 31.—Blatting over the dough who's who's the fight promoters and the supporters of Henry Willis plan to carry their fight today to the New York boxing commission. One idea was the commission to sanction the Dempsey-Firpo fight in the Polo Grounds on September 4 and the other was to have Firpo teamed with Wills, named as the opponent for the champion in a fight to be staged in the Yankee stadium on Labor day.
Pulkittans are chiefly interested in having it decided officially which fighter is to get the money from the next heavyweight championship fight and Firpo and Wills are only pawns on the board.
Percy Mullin, manager of Willis, is entitled to the first shot at the title since he signed a contract more than a year ago to fight the champion.
In reply to the assertions of Jack Kearns that no promoter had offered him terms for a Dempsey-Willis fight, Mullin will argue that Simon Roberts, Long Beach city promoter, did make a legitimate offer.
Kearns says he does not consider Roberts a competent promoter and that after Shelby he will not do business with a promoter who has not had a few big fights under his belt.

WATCHING THE SCOREBOARD

The Boston Braves rode to a victory over the Cubs on their Ford territory, but a home run with the bases filled and won the game 6 to 5.
Same old story. The Phils dropped two. The Reds won 7 to 5, and the A's and jumped into second place.
Walter Johnson, the youthful star of the Washington Senators blanked the Tigers and won.
Connie Mack chirped "No, we used to have a ball team," when the Athletics dropped two of them to the Browns at 6 to 2.

The Little Lovetts of the White Sox failed to hit the brakes and the Yanks kidded past them to a 5 to 3 win.

Sauro Ebbeba prepared his most valuable ten cent medal for Tom Griffith who left-packed a home run in the ninth with two on and won the Athletics 6 to 5 victory over the Cardinals.

More enthusiasm than Barney Dreyfus had dreamed there were five runs in the ninth inning and beat the Giants, 5 to 4 in the first game. The customers were the balm when the Cleveland won the second 17 to 2.

Cleveland took a double header from Boston 5 to 4 and 3 to 0.

YESTERDAY'S HOME RUNS

McManus, Browns, 2-12.
Hornsbay, Cards, 1-12.
Ward, Yanks, 1-6.
Kamm, White Sox, 1-6.
Waters, Browns, 1-3.
Ford, Braves, 1-2.
Stephenson, Indians, 1-2.
Hull, White Sox, 1-1.
Hill, Athletics, 1-1.

GIL DOBIE VISITING ZUPPKE OF ILLINOIS

Famous Coaches Will Exchange Views on Football Game.

There are no more famous and successful football coaches in the United States than Gil Dobie of Cornell and Zupke of Illinois, and they are going to have the time of their lives this summer.
Dobie is to spend six weeks teaching football in the Illinois summer course in athletic coaching, which opens Aug. 15. That means that he and Zupke will spend a lot of time exchanging views with each other.
And it will not be surprising if Cornell athletes show a trace of Illinois influence and if Illinois plays have a little Cornell in them.
It's a great thing to bring two coaches of such prominence together. The Illinois idea is to give the students a lot of their coaches with performance a broad course. They may take either course, or both, as they desire. Most of the men who have attended are credited with that they want to take both courses.
Both Dobie and Zupke are real enthusiasts. They like to talk football and they like to see the boys spend the summer reading to widen their knowledge. This is demonstrated by the interest in attendance of the Illinois summer course, which was established in 1914 and was the first to emphasize the coaching of competitive football. Most of the students are men who have experience as coaches and in athletics. For the high school graduates' suits. Around the suite all is quiet. But in the far end of the adjoining corridors, the life of the big hotel goes on as usual. A group of men, some in uniform, are in the same floor, long after the members of the presidential party had retired.

In the lobby below, the scene during the evening was brilliant. While awaiting the watchers spoke to whisper, women held fans and went in dazzling dresses. Not a figure of the world—the Admiral himself, Horatio Hovey, Speaker Hiram, the House, Senators John and George Chalmers—walked with the president.
Now and then Dr. Sawyer, slight of build and nervous, would appear for a moment, or perhaps the Hon. Commander. Hardly a step could they take without being surrounded by a group of inquiring, disinterested or seawater-seeking some word from the chamber.
Add then outside the hotel, the traffic of Market street rumbled on as usual—street cars clanging, automobile exhausts crashing along in the face of the traffic policemen's whistles and the how-how of the "Extra." "All about the president's friends."

NEW YORK, July 31.—President Harding's illness was an outstanding factor affecting trading on the New York exchange this morning. As a result of the president's condition, the tone of the market was irregular, the general list reacting a point in early trading, later recovering substantially upon advice that Mr. Harding seemed somewhat improved.

ST. FRANCISCO, Cal., July 31.—At 10 a. m. physicians attending to the president of the United States issued a statement on the president's condition.

The president had a fairly comfortable night—with considerable relief after the temperature at 9 a. m. is 100; pulse 120; respiration 40 and regular.

DETERMINE VALUE OF BULL

Do Not Send Animals to Butcher Until He Has Had Chance to Prove Himself.
It is a mistake to suppose of a bull that has any pedigree whatever until his true value is determined by his progeny. Many a dairy bull has gone to the slaughter for it is to be found here on that some of his daughters are making fine records. You cannot tell about the record of a bull until he is about five years old and he has to be about seven years old before you can be at all of his breeding quality. The best butcher an animal that may be the making of your herd, until he has had a fair chance to prove himself.

The Twin Falls band has been furnishing music for the city of Twin Falls free of charge for several Saturday evenings of late and yet the question recurs to us time and again, "How can a musician or anybody else continue to work for nothing?" It seems to us that such an arrangement is not based on sound economics. If these musicians are good enough to play and entertain the citizens generally, should we not compensate them in some way? No other means can be provided a benefit should be given or else the public at large be given an opportunity to contribute as individuals. Let's see if we cannot do something to keep this splendid musical organization alive in our city. If they continue to play very long for nothing their organization will soon pass out.

It is gratifying news to friends of law enforcement that the police department is prepared to take vigorous action against the old saloons through the use of the injunction, as made possible by the federal prohibition act. Some of these bars have been flouting advertisements of liquor law violation. They have defied good their best to bring prohibition into contempt and to foster disregard for law. Yet they have been difficult for the police to get at in the regular way so as to convict by the old process, and the small force of federal agents have made slow progress. Colonel Hubbel, chairman of the police board, and Chief Quinn now think there exists, or can be obtained, enough evidence against these places to make the injunction process operative, so that the bars can be closed. But, if experience elsewhere, as in Hartford, counts for anything, the fight will not be carried to the bitter end. It is more likely that the saloonkeepers will be like Day "Crockett's" room, willing to come down.

The school children of Hinsdale are entitled to congratulations for their accomplishment in winning for three successive years the American flag offered to the town doing the best work during clean-up week. The award is made annually by the New England clean-up and paint-up campaign committee and thus the Berkshire town is the winner among a large number of entries. It is a small interest and a small amount of work to make the village appear the most spotless in New England. The pupils of every school in town took part in the campaign and their enthusiasm was carried into the homes, for nearly every yard in town is now adorned with an attractive flower garden. It is a credit to any town, and especially one that desires to attract summer people as Hinsdale does, to have a reputation for cleanliness and general attractiveness. It is an asset that the town chamber of commerce does right to include among its reasons why Hinsdale is a good place to live in.

LUNACY AT LARGE

When an Illinois asylum lost a score of madmen recently, townspeople in the vicinity were terrified at the thought of so many demoralized creatures roaming about. The discomfort of these townspeople lay mainly in the fact that it is very easy to mistake a madman for a sane man. Any stranger looked insane.

These men who have escaped from Chester were not, you see, simply men who deviate from a fixed standard, a definite normal of behavior. They were not so easily marked as that. Furthermore, more there is no perfectly normal person. Perfect sanity is the orient of time. Every person deviates from it in his moods, his fears, his boisterous moments, his hobbies, his pet aversions and likings, his superstitions.

The men who have been put behind bars at Chester and other asylums have been put there, not because they did not measure up to a standard of theoretically perfect sanity, but because they did not measure up to a standard of practical safety, or usefulness.

As to mad insane people a state seems to have two responsibilities. One is to remove them to safety from the mischief that may be done by the dangerous ones. The other is to nurse all those who have so far deviated from normality that they cannot get along in normal society, the hope being, of course, that they may be brought back through care within the limits of usefulness.

But a lot of our amateur clinicians who accept responsibility for sending people to asylums forget the nature of this charge. They grab at any evidence of abnormality, enlarge upon it and write, "Insane." And so, through their convenience, carelessness or criminal ignorance, we find counties unloading poor farm people upon state institutions, heartless children putting cotchery and "peculiar" parents out of the way and parents shirking the care of "queer" children.

It is all right to be afraid of the dangerously insane people. But let us not forget that we all need more sanity on the subject of sanity. And we need it right here in Idaho, too, where every investigation shows in our asylums people who do not belong there but whose care and expense interferes with the proper treatment of those who do.—Stigman

It's a Matter for Argument.

An English writer says "The athletes of England have more stamina than those of the United States. At the long distance run events." One American is behind in the marathon. We haven't specialized on that so much over here. But speaking of stamina, "The English are much of it as the long distance run. And we have it all over their countries as the water-fish."

Privilege of a Highbrow.

The nice thing about being cultured is that you can act common without being considered a lowbrow.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Why, Why Should We?

"As a general thing," says an exchange, "we don't find fault with a woman's incoherency until we have been made a victim of it."—Boston Transcript.

Will Tunnel Through Continental Divide

High in the Rockies, cutting through the continental divide, a tunnel soon will be drilled. It will shorten the transcontinental trip from New York to the western coast by 178 miles. This bit of super-engineering is the realization of a dream of the late David H. Moffat, and it will bear his name. The illustration shows clearly the problem before the engineers. That it is a genuine problem will be realized when it is realized that the tunnel will be approximately 2,100 feet above sea level.

DENVER, Colo., July 25.—The United States supreme court has reduced the distance from New York to San Francisco by 178 miles. In a decision upholding the legality of an act creating the Moffat tunnel commission, the supreme court also removed the last legal obstacle to the accomplishment of one of the world's greatest engineering feats.

As a result, work will begin within 90 days on the Moffat tunnel, a tube a little over six miles long, through the heart of the Rockies. The tunnel will be 2,100 feet above sea level. It will be directly through the continental divide from Denver to Salt Lake City. It will cut across the extreme northwestern part of Idaho, nearly in the center of the state.

The distance between these two cities is 2,278 miles. The tunnel will be 178 miles shorter. It will be one of the five longest transportation tunnels in the world. The Moffat tunnel, alone, will be 1,780 miles long. It will be 1,780 miles longer than the longest tunnel in the world, the Erie canal, which is 1,780 miles long. The Erie canal is 1,780 miles long. The Erie canal is 1,780 miles long.

Geological formations which will be penetrated, scientists believe, and which have been impossible to pierce a few years ago. However, late mechanical devices have been invented which are expected to make possible the construction of the tube in less than half as long as the building of the other and longer tunnels. Transcontinental train, engineers predict will be running through the Moffat tunnel within three years. Ten years were required for the building of the St. Louis tunnel. The St. Louis tunnel, nine years ago, the Erie canal took nine years. The Erie canal was completed in something more than three years and the Erie canal was finished in 1905. Summarized, other facts about the Moffat tunnel are: Location of tunnel eastern portal 2,100 feet; western portal 2,100 feet. Sixteen feet wide. Construction of tunnel lowers railroad trucks vertical distance of 2400 feet. Grades .03 on eastern end and .04 on western end. Size of tunnel, 36 feet in width and 24 feet in height. Construction, main tunnel through a glacier tunnel, first to be driven. Pioneer tunnel 243 feet and center line 76 feet from main tunnel. Formation probably of granite, gneiss and schist. Similar to formation in Simpson tunnel, with substitution of granite in Moffat tunnel for interglacial mica and schist rock in the Simpson. The new tunnel will bear the name of the late David H. Moffat, who built the railroad west from Denver to Steamboat Springs, which also bears his name.

KIMBERLY

KIMBERLY—Mrs. John Milton of Stockham, Neb., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. J. Taylor, and sons, Elmer and Charles and families. She will visit indefinitely. Denver, Colo., July 25.—The members of the Kimberly school board enjoyed a party Friday evening at the A. M. South home. About fifty young people were present. The party was given by the part of the evening after which cake and ice cream were served. H. G. Reppel and family drove to

THE BLIND SOWER

Your advertising appropriation should bear fruit a hundredfold. It stands to reason that the less you sow on the rocks and along the wayside the more returns you are sure to get. Scientific space buying is the seed that falls on good ground of reputable publications. Audit Bureau Circulation Reports, carefully studied, enable you to forecast where the good ground lies. Read pages two, three and four as well as page one, and you'll be surprised how far you can go in forming a correct estimate of merchandising possibilities throughout the United States and Canada. Net paid Circulation is what you gather first; but wouldn't you like to know how that circulation was obtained? The kind and character of people who read the publication and what it is worth to them? You can dig out all that information in a very few minutes from A. B. C. reports and every time you get additional, authentic information about a newspaper or a periodical you prevent advertising dollars from being thrown on the rocks, or along the wayside. More scientific selection of space is a solution of many of the problems confronting advertisers right now.

Corn Jumps to New High Mark on Chicago Market

Chicago, Ill., July 31 - July corn reached a new high level on the present crop when it sold at 90 cents at the close on the Chicago Board of Trade today, the highest in three years. What showing some strength over prices, July oats showed a weak undertone following the noon prices (firmed and practically unchanged) - feeding was dull. Reports from sections of Illinois, note toll of country elevators being in receipt of large stocks to be stored farmers preferring to hold their stocks pending a boost in values.

Corn displayed an independent strength on account of the July delivery. Reports from sections of Illinois, note toll of country elevators being in receipt of large stocks to be stored farmers preferring to hold their stocks pending a boost in values.
