KIMBERLY WILD WEST SHOW IS FEATURE OF FAIR

(Special to The Times)

FILED—Idaho, Sept. 11.—One of the most interesting attractions on the fair grounds is the wild west show, which is being staged by Pay Cox of Kimberly and a number of able assistants.

Mr. Cox is a rider of prominence, having won several prizes in the open ring, and is well acquainted with the line of amusement that he has prepared for the public.

The old ring devoted to bucking horses has been reconstructed and with a grandstand facing an arena of 125 feet diameter, the spectators will have seating accommodations to witness the bucking antics of the 75 various wild west shows, while 15 have arrived from Pendleton, Ore., where they took prize money for consistency. They are coached by Frank Nichols, of Three Creek, Nev.

All of the contests will be in the open ring and prizes of $25, $50 and $100 have been offered for the best riders, and already listed to compete for the prizes are Jess Coates, who won the world's championship for riding a bucking horse, and Fred Smith, winner of the Pendleton rodeo. In the other rodeo steer roping and tying has been permitted but the state of Idaho's human society has not yet permitted the steers here will be ridden instead.

The performance will follow at 8 o'clock the close of the racing in the afternoon, and during the evenings a special performance will be given with such well known women riders as Mrs. Dick of Pendleton fame, and Mrs. Cassut, a trick rider and winner three years ago of the woman's roman races.

About 25 horses will be sent into the arena to ride with the women riders. The performance will follow at 8 o'clock the close of the racing in the afternoon, and during the evenings a special performance will be given with such well known women riders as Mrs. Dick of Pendleton fame, and Mrs. Cassut, a trick rider and winner three years ago of the woman's roman races.

JACK NEARS END OF HIS PREPARATIONS

Champion Not Worried Because He Does Not Show Off to Advantage Before Training Camp Crowds; Misses Punches to Save Sparring Partners.

BY JENNY L. PARRELL, N. Y. Sept. 11.—Reaching the end of his real training, for the defense of his heavyweight title against his opponent, Primo Carnerio of New York Friday night, Jack Dempsey looks to be in condition good enough to retain the title.

Experienced expert like Jack McAuliffe, the retired lightweight champion, mild object in his opinion of Dempsey and actions, symptoms of unfavorable condition, to lose skillful eye. The champion seems to be ready in every respect.

He does look slender in the hips and feet, but he has worked to develop maximum speed and his boxing is almost perfect. He still misses many of his punches, but he always does "in his training and it is apparent that the misses may times be due to his desire to save his sparring partners. He will fight good.

Some of the experts have detected a lack of the old Dempsey kick in his punching but the champion said this morning that he did not let himself go.

I have to do my fighting in the left hand and I have to fight my sparring partners. It takes too much out of me, Dempsey said. Others have wondered why Dempsey has devoted so much time to the development of speed when fast work will not be such a big factor against a slow-moving awkward fighter like Primo Carnerio.

McAuliffe has been noticed here at Great Falls in the open to the left hand and his right hand, but he does not get the same weakness when he is actually fighting. The man who is one of the few leaders who does not care if he looks bad before a training camp crowd, it will be able to hold out and achieve some particular plan that he might have in working another week.

Paternalism Menaces Business World

Present Tendencies of Legislation Held to Endanger Very Foundations of Our Government.

Paternalism, government operation, and other forms of paternalism which individuals and legislators in many of the states are trying to fasten on the public are being viewed with considerable uneasiness by business men. It has been noted that at a large majority of the trade conventions held during the last few months at least one speaker has dwelt upon the menace to private enterprise represented by paternalistic legislation.

Undermining Industry

Conduct of every kind, laws are piled upon laws. Proposals for state and municipal ownership in various fields and other paternalistic measures are common.

"America's business progress—the wonder and envy of the rest of the world—has been jeopardized by the most government to that which governs least; that the sound function of government is not to invade the territory of the individual, but to insure to each individual security and the very foundations of our Government."

There are about 100,000 shade trees in the national capital. Practically every kind of tree that will grow in this climate is found. PREPARE FOR PEACE

Under this title the bulletin of the Rochester church federation, Dr. O. T. Price, executive secretary, says: "Our government is doing much to prepare the country for war. Propaganda is in the movies, in the press and in the air. What is Washington doing to educate for peace? Does any one know of anything? Eighty-six per cent of our federal budget is going for past and future wars, and 2 per cent for education, and somebody is blocking the way to every sort of international co-operation, the only hope for peace. How much longer is the church going to stand by while politicians shout, "Hands off! International relations are political issues, let the church keep out." Is not the time nearly ripe for a religious crusade for peace, amity, international friendship, the World Court and the League of Nations? The Locomotive Engineers' Journal for April says: "Madison says that London can be wiped out in three hours and that there is no way of preventing it. Bywater says that the French have now enough airplanes to lay waste half the cities of southern England, including London. The next war will be the twilight of the white civilization. The jackals and the eagles will be barking amid the ruins of the great cities of the earth when its clouds hit for God to look down." And still one party does nothing lest glory come to another party. "God, give us men" in Washington who will put humanity and "country before party."—The Baptist.

GENERAL BUSINESS CONDITIONS

The business of the country has given evidence of great stability during the summer months, and enters the fall season with general confidence prevailing. It is now more than three months since the reaction to the spring boom began, and notwithstanding the spirit of caution that has been dominant the volume of business has been well-sustained. The industries have shown rather less than more of the usual seasonal slackness, and railroad traffic for each month has been greater than for the corresponding month in any previous year. The natural inference is that the heavy buying of last spring explains in large degree the recession of buying in recent months, for on the whole the buying seems to have been sufficient to supply the needs of the country and maintain practically full employment. The fact that forward buying has been light, coupled with the fact that retail trade over the country has been good, gives assurance that stocks of merchandise must be constantly replenished, for there is no reason to believe that the purchasing power of consumers has been diminishing. Labor is well employed at high wages, the only menacing controversy being that in the anthracite coal field. The situation of agriculture has improved by reason of price advances for live stock and corn, while even wheat has a more hopeful outlook. The textile industries have to meet a situation in which, on the one hand, costs are higher owing to wage-increases and higher prices on raw materials, while on the other hand the public has not been very resolutely against higher prices on finished goods. The result is that business has been a little slow in some lines and margins very thin. Nevertheless, the general sentiment is that trade will be quite satisfactory in the coming weeks. In cotton goods, the situation has been unfavorable to much activity since last spring, when raw cotton went above 30 cents per pound on the theory that American stocks would be wholly exhausted before the new crop was ready. Buying fell off to such an extent that new and old crop cotton were on practically the same basis by the end of the crop year. Even then, however, conditions were confusing, for stocks are so small that prices have been very sensitive to the weather conditions affecting the new crop. Buyers of goods have been indisposed to follow the market up, and the mills have complained that goods at current prices were not in line with raw cotton. Nevertheless, an increasing volume is being done, and there is reason to believe that when the size of the cotton crop is finally settled and prices are adjusted, the goods will move more freely. The situation in woollens is still more indefinite. The sale of dress goods has been good, but of men's wear for the spring trade has been light, and there has been some curtailment of production. The rise of prices which has been made necessary by higher prices for wool and higher wages are not pleasing to the trade, and forward orders are restricted in consequence. Reports are more or less conflicting, some of the lines being reported as moving very well. In silk goods as in cottons and woollens, raw materials and wages are both higher, necessitating higher prices to the trade. The trade is inclined to go slow and try the prices out on the consumer, whose decision will be final. This cautious attitude of the retail trade prompts manufacturers and wholesalers to pursue the same general policy, with the result that the prices of raw materials are subject to more than the usual amount of fluctuation as soon as buyers appear. At the same time, this buying policy insures that stocks in the hands of dealers will always be so small as to guarantee a certain minimum volume of buying at all times. The shoe trade is looking well. A wide inquiry instituted by one of the leading trade journals shows that orders for shoes for the balance of 1923 are running from 10 to 25 per cent ahead of 1922 and that the feeling among manufacturers is, in the main, a very satisfactory one. Shoe orders are taken so far ahead that they give a more than usually interesting insight into the feeling of retailers as to business conditions several months hence. The building industry, although not running on as high pressure as in the first half of the year, is holding up very well. The railroads are buying freely of steel and steel playing orders for equipment. Bradstreet's July figures for building permits in 107 cities show an aggregate of $224,078,000, against $237,827,889 in June and $206,359,993 in July, 1922. This indicates that building activity is still very well maintained, and according to reports this is especially true as to business buildings. On the whole the outlook is for steady business, sustained by the consumptive requirements of a well-employed population, with little speculative activity and relatively small price changes.

Rheumatic Agony

New Easly Ended, Says James H. Allen. It does not matter to me whether you are disabled with cured rheumatism or have only occasional twinges, I know that you will never be free until you have had my own discovery, will stop the agony, do away with the gnawing pains and reduce the swollen joints. I know it will dissolve the uric acid deposits that have become deposited in your joints and muscles and quickly drive every trace of rheumatism from your body. I know this because I was afflicted for years and many times was unable to work, and although made a well, robust, healthy man of me. I know because since I cured myself, hundreds have taken Allevin and speedily rid themselves of this agonizing disease. No matter how severe your case I urge you to put your faith in the prescription that I took me years to perfect—a prescription that made a new man of me after doctors tried and failed. Allevin is no lazaroid; it starts right in at once; it gets into the blood, searches out the poisonous uric acid deposits and in two days starts to drive the concentrated impurities that cause rheumatism, out of the body through the natural channels. Through the excretion of this excretion, I authorize every druggist to guarantee one full pint bottle in every instance. Schram-Johnson Drug store will supply. 3001 orders accepted.

Comments Times Earthquake Story

Praises Progressive Policy

Moscow, Idaho, Sept. 8, 1923.

Twin Falls Times, Twin Falls. Dear Masters:

Thanks for sending me the paper. It certainly is interesting reading.

One of the men in the store reads it as regular as I do, and he said that it contained more news than the Spokesman-Review. If it was published here everybody in the valley would subscribe for it in place of the Spokane papers. He thinks it is the best paper he has read. The story of the earthquake was especially good and contained interesting news that the Spokane papers failed to get. We both commented on this today.

I hope everything is going well with you and that Twin Falls is getting out of the rut. About all we hear up here is how hard hit Twin Falls has been. I trust things are looking better for the country now. They have wonderful crops up here; some wheat averaging 55 bushels to the acre. Smut has been very bad, several machines and crops being blown and burnt up by smut explosions. Business is picking up with prospects for the best in years.

Yours very truly, EMIL STROBECK.

MACHINE FOR BEAN RAISER'S MARVEL

Industry Will Be Revolutionized by Invention of E. W. Steele of This City; Saves 10 Cents a Bushel and Does as Good Work as Old Kind; Will Operate at Traploof Field Friday.

Complete revolution of the bean industry is promised by the new combined bean harvester and thrasher invented by E. W. Steele of this city, and constructed by him at the Kragg Machine Works, which will be put into operation at the W. J. Traploof farm at Thonesta station Friday of this week. The machine will, it is said, save the labor of from 16 to 18 men and will be quite as efficient as its like as the combined wheat harvester and thresher has been. So contented were the International Harvester people of the success of the invention that they have purchased the right to make it from E. W. Steele, has applied and will put the machine into operation at the W. J. Traploof farm this week. The new machine is drawn by a tractor, the engine being part of the machine. It is a self-propelled machine, it goes along, separating the beans from the good seeds and sowing the latter. As soon as a sack has been filled, another is put on and the first is sewed up and laid on a platform. When the sack is full, the platform is raised and the beans are dumped on the ground by a chute. Mr. Steele invented the machine to come and see his invention at work in the Traploof field.

The railroads have made a low fare for those going to the convention. The fare from Ogden, for instance is $12.25, this will be the round fare. The fare from other points is proportionately lower. The tickets are limited to November 15, giving thirty days time. It was also announced that the special trains will be run along the route will be paid during the day. A number of local men will attend the San Francisco convention.

CRYSTAL SPRINGS PEACH PICKING SEASON AT END

Two Dozen Cars of Fine Fruit (Continued from The Daily Times) Orchard Yields a Bountiful Harvest Harvesting Ready to Start.

Peach picking at the Crystal Springs orchard of the crop of about twenty thousand bushels of the Harbor of the Idaho fruit company, was completed today. The great picking season among the very finest ever sent to the eastern markets. Picking started a week or so yesterday and has continued for about 100 pickers being engaged. Word is received from the Niagara Spring orchard that the gathering there is complete. There were some cars of fine fruit from the Orchard. Schramm, a crop of Milwaukee purchased this crop. Gathering of the two million bushel bean crop will start at once. The price holds up and the weather has been such that it is felt that the whole of this will mature. The weather has been ideal for all crops. The soil around the orchard men. "Matured" has always preferred to take the great work from the soil. Many of the orchard men are of those described where city parents separate them from the mother of an old-Celtic origin.

ENGINEERS MEETING ON ROAD CROSSING SET FOR THURSDAY

Engineer A. H. Adline, representing the state highway department and an engineer representing the Chief Engineer, W. H. Armstrong, of the Oregon Short Line will arrive in this city Thursday to go over the line of the proposed route and will be quite as efficient as its like as the combined wheat harvester and thresher has been. So contented were the International Harvester people of the success of the invention that they have purchased the right to make it from E. W. Steele, has applied and will put the machine into operation at the W. J. Traploof farm this week. The new machine is drawn by a tractor, the engine being part of the machine. Golden Rule is Business Key

The American Legion post held its weekly luncheon at the Hooten Hotel today. "Cash" Kretz presided at the meeting with about 25 members present. It is Fisher, who has been in the city since a series of lectures the week before last, who is the most interesting talk in the lecture series. The keynote of his talk hinges on the necessity of applying the Golden Rule in business and politics before the country would "come back" again. He also discussed points in financial, economic and governmental problems of today. The Golden Rule is the key to the Golden Rule in business and politics and the young men of the country it is the duty of American Legion members to lend every effort to see that man sent to the senate, be men of political independence, and without political bias. FORM PLANS FOR LEGION CONCLAVE

Post Adjutant Johnson of the local Legion post has given out the plans for the district convention of the Golden Gate Chapter at San Francisco, California, on Tuesday, September 18. There will probably be 76 men present at that time. The convention will be held at the Twin Falls branch and the Jerome branch.

SIDE LIGHTS ON COUNTY FAIR

The Twin Falls county fair is the only agricultural fair in the state of Idaho this year, and the exhibits in livestock alone will place this section of the state far in the path of fame for animal husbandry in Idaho.

DOG INOCULATION AND WATER RATE BEFORE COUNCIL

Inoculation for rabies instead of trying or muzzling was advocated today at a meeting of the city commission which worked over the city and the waterworks situation. The commission heard some complaints for unseemly conduct by Charles Hays of the American market, discussed the taxi stopping situation, rejected bids on the old tower; instructed Commissioner S. All to find out the extent of damage done to raters by falling limbs and advise the waterworks department to finish up on the water and the levy. The meeting was largely taken up with reports on the water and the laying of the last year's audit prevented the working out of some details.

MANY MINISTERS ASSIGNED PLACES

The ministers for the Pocatello district of the Episcopal diocese of Idaho were assigned their places for the week ending last evening, but all exhibits must be in the hands of the judges by 10 o'clock today. The exhibits in the entries have been made and the exhibit premises to exceed the benefits of federal supply of last year, which was greatly amended.
