BOISE-IDAHO FALLS GAME STILL HANGS IN MID AIR

Capital City Football Stars Lose Prestige by Refusal to Play Winners of Eastern Section; Idaho Falls More Than Willing to Meet Boise at Place Designated by the State Board of Control.

Boise is content to claim the state championship by virtue of its victory over Burley at Boise on Thanksgiving day.

In Boise justified in claiming the championship? Let us see. In the first place, Boise has sneaked through the season in a sort of lopsided way, winning here and there, and getting to the point where it was the team to play with Nampa the right to play the northern district in the inter-district elimination game. Boise won from the Nampa team, 7 to 6, and many fans who attended the game are of the opinion that the best team did not win. A 7 to 6 game is a game, as far as touchdowns are concerned.

After its sweeping victory over the Nampa team, the Boise team was to go to Sand Point to play the high school team of that place, the winner to play for the state title with the winner of the two districts in the southern part of the state.

Finding its treasury without funds, the Sand Point school could not meet the proposed game, thus Boise moved up another notch in the football game.

Certainly 7 to 6 victory and a forfeited game would not entitle a team to take the state title in the present football controversy.

Idaho Falls, on the other hand, has been winning from every team it has played, with the exception of the Lewiston team which it tied with a 12 to 12 score on November 25.

As far as a technical championship is concerned, there is no such thing as far as football is concerned. At least there shouldn't be. What a team wants when they go out after the championship is to win a number of all-games from its opponents.

There is very little rivalry connected with the winning, anything that is decided by the flip of a coin, or the mandate of a tilting, anything that is left or athletes want is action, and if Boise is made of the right stuff, it will go to Idaho Falls to play the game with the Idaho Falls team on Saturday afternoon.

The Boise team is taking sides in the Idaho Falls-Boise controversy, but it is in strong clean athletic. It believes that good athletes make good citizens, that good citizens are beneficial in every community.

It wants the Boise team to follow the ruling set forth by the state board of control, and go to Idaho Falls and play a game as scheduled. If Boise wins, many play it is in its right to take the state championship, but until Boise and Idaho Falls play the game there is not a team in the state that can claim itself as state champions.

ROTARY WILL BOWL ZU ZIMS

The Zu Zims will clash with the Hetz club this evening at the Twin Falls bowling alley in what is termed a dual meet, the two factions to bowl to the final breath.

Zu Zim is not the name of a biscuit, but a high school fraternity composed of students whose ambitions are many, one of which is the winning from the Rotarians this evening.

The Rotarians were a trifle reluctant about the bowling contest, but when informed that cushions will be placed on the foot line during the game, they condescended to take a whirl with the younger generation.

All members of the Rotary club are requested to be present as everybody will be asked to do their bit. The Zu Zims are confident of victory, but they have failed to reckon on such hot buttons as Charley Booth, Stanley Taylor and Donald McLaughlin.

TILDEN SAYS TENNIS ASSO. AUTOCRATIC

Francis Chapman Claims That Association Too Authoritative in Its Handling and Unless Changes Are Made He Will Withdraw from the Davis Cup Tournament.

NEW YORK, Dec. 5.—Bill Tilden, threat to withdraw from future competition for the Davis cup and his announcement that he intends to carry his fight against the secret policy of the American officials to the annual meeting of the Lawn Tennis Association is the continuation of a controversy that has been going on since the association was formed more than a year ago.

Tilden has been the leader of a group of prominent players who have maintained that the association was undemocratic and too autocratic in its jurisdiction over the players. The champion maintained that the association exercised its authority in trying to tell the players what they should and should not do with their time and in entering them prominently in tournaments where they had no desire to go.

Tilden is insistent in his belief that he will not play with the Davis cup team in the future if the American committee persists in its policy of secrecy in making the appointments for the team and appointing the combinations.

There is a chance, however, that Tilden will be permitted to withdraw as a Davis cup player.

The champion is very sure that his position and the position of the public will not support the association in an argument that is so obviously unjustified.

Tilden, of course, is not bigger than that sport but he is in his right to be treated like a boy and he has done more for the game of tennis than all the associations that are in the world.

His race has much to do with that of Charley Faddock against the A. A. U. because Faddock sought the right of a little individual freedom, but it is Tilden who is threatening to discipline him and threatened to discipline him as a professional.

Faddock went on about his business and he will not be barred from the American Olympic team. You can bet your last dollar on that. You can also bet that no tennis association can, without public support, keep Bill Tilden off the American Olympic team or the Davis cup team for several years.

NEW YORK, Dec. 5.—Officials of the United States Lawn Tennis association refused to comment on the statement of Bill Tilden, national champion and Davis cup star, that he would not play in the future Davis cup tournaments if the association did not change its policies.

In answer to Tilden's statement that he did not know he was to team with Dick Williams in the doubles of the Davis cup challenge round until 26 hours before the match, one official said that Williams was told he was to play with Tilden a week in advance.

It could not be learned whether Tilden would be permitted to go before the annual meeting of the association and "fight it out."

KANSAS CITY.—Henry Miller and "moss" in Little Italy was under police suspicion today. Three points were found, with their long, narrow blades around their necks.

Three "hardies" died.

From a game of argument, it will be said that in the game given by experts of the Theatre team, there is a chance possibility that Boise would have made a better bowler.

Maxwell topped 16 for the three games, while the Theatre team, playing with the combination, the Shoe Market team and exceptionally well with the decision process, there is a change that he will have a better bowler.

Maxwell of a mark that will stand unopposed for a long time to come. The second game was filled with snafus and the best he could do was 12. Everybody was pulling for the Shoe Market team after he had made his first strike. Nothing, a hand, about the bowlers in the Twin Falls, Idaho.

Hugh Home, the champion south-paw of the Theatre team, was in the line trying to get away from the Theatre team, but he was not pulling for Boise and in his anxiety.

Walter Bonham topped 16 for the three games, after falling to 12 in the first game. If Walter could get over 20 in the second game, the world would be his.

The old reliable, "Honey" Lindholm topped 16 with a total of 28 for the three games. He has a little to boast from a great bowler in making the second game, but he has a little to boast from the first game, too.

John Tracy, a tall, thin, and a bowler, and will play in a game, probably in the average, having a number of hard balls, which, combined with the strike of a few, will be his total to 16.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON COACH HAS RESIGNED

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Ore., Dec. 5.—The resignation of Ray Huntington, football coach, is today in the hands of President Campbell of the University. Failure of the coach to cooperate with him is the reason advanced by Huntington for his resignation. Huntington has been a noticeable and outspoken figure among alumni. His resignation should be ousted, and after the closing game of the season this demand became instant.

In his letter of resignation, Huntington lays blame for the lack of cooperation which led to his failure to put out a winning team, in what he calls "house team psychology."

Railroad Construction Ordered to Start Friday

Archie Rowland, manager of the Utah Construction ranch, near San Joaquin, received a telephone call from last night, from President Winters of the T. T. Co., Salt Lake City, to begin grade work immediately on the line of the Oregon Short Line from Rogerson to Wells, Nev. Mr. Rowland was in this city when the message came and as the company has, as previously stated in the Times, been collecting men for some time, work will begin Friday at this point as the Times said yesterday that it would, and is expected to start at once.

The following announcement came from the Oregon Short Line offices in Salt Lake City this morning through the Salt Lake Tribune and confirms our story of yesterday afternoon which appeared about twenty hours ahead of the Salt Lake paper in this city. Here is the story.

Work of grading for the new rail road between Wells, Nevada, and Rogerson, Idaho, near Twin Falls, will be started Friday, according to the present program. The contract was awarded at Salt Lake offices of the Oregon Short Line. At least 15 miles of the route must be constructed by January 1 to comply with the certificate issued by the commerce commission. The contract is understood to have been awarded to the Utah Construction company.

The actual hour when the first shovel of dirt will be thrown is not fixed, except tentatively at noon. Mr. Rowland informed J. H. Weaver, of the Contract, Townsite company that he must be at work for three hours on Friday, but that he will probably fix the hour for commencing on Tuesday or Wednesday. Senator M. J. Sweezy is having up his party to be on hand when the first shovel of dirt is thrown.

Platt Confirms Report In a letter received this afternoon from General Manager H. V. Platt by Senator M. J. Sweezy, it was stated that the company expected to begin work Friday.

H. A. DeVaux of Contact unequivocally adopted and announced the fact that construction would begin on the extension of the Oregon Short Line between Rogerson and Wells. He stated that his information was that the crew at work this fall would be relatively small and that it would devote most of its energy to grading above from the former to the latter and laying a track out to the main line near to Rogerson.

DeVaux said that his confidence that work would begin this week was an iron-clad one. Mr. DeVaux yesterday stated to the Times that work would start this week, but would not be quick on the day. Today he was confident that it is correct.

Several railroad men went to Rogerson today, but refused to make any statement whatever when a representative of the Times sought to interview them. Several others arrived quietly at the end of the line three yesterday, it is reported.

TWO CAR THIEVES ARRESTED BY THE SHERIFF FORCE HERE

W. H. Holt of Missouri and Charles Goforth of San Antonio, Texas, were arrested this afternoon in this city by Deputy Sheriff L. F. Prater, assisted by Deputy Charles L. Jones, on the charge of stealing a Ford roadster from George Miller of Boise. The men admitted taking the car, the officers said. They are said to have stolen the car and then to have taken a Maxwell license plate. Deputy Prater saw them and halted them, and as he was talking Jones came along and both arrested them.

FILER HIGHWAY BOARD PLANS FOR ROAD IMPROVEMENT

PILER, Idaho, Dec. 5.—The election of the directors of the Piler Highway district is to be held Saturday, the polling place being the office of the village clerk, resulted in the election of the following directors of the Washington school district: E. J. DeHill of the Marso district and J. H. Suter of the Piler district.

An unexpected feature of the election was the writing in of the name of Mr. Shearer, which occurred on the ballot. Mr. Shearer, resulted in 53 votes for Mr. Murphy and 52 for Mr. Shearer.

Plans are before the new board of the extension of the road road in three directions leading into town and petitions have already been filed for the construction of the same. One of the roads will lead west for three miles to the place where the corner and extending to the farm of the Kinney Steel company. The second will lead north to the road at the corner of what is known as the Grudge place and will extend westward to the family corner, while the third new piece of work will commence at the rock crib on the corner of the road and extend to a mile and a half.

The surfacing of the roads will be paid for with private subscription of money and donations of work by the farmers adjoining the roads. This manner of extending the roads has been necessary by the fact that the city of the district road funds have been expended by the city and there is no money left to carry on the necessary improvements.

Would Restrict Negro Migration to North

After a warm debate yesterday afternoon the judges determined that the multi-race affirmative Vetoed delators, enacted by Professor Huggins of the State of California, of the Hiram Birth, trade association, enacted by Miss Traylor on the question: "Resolved: That the United States Government should Take Steps to Restrict the Number of Negroes who are Allowed to migrate from the Northwest each Year across the Mason and Dixon line."

BULL FARM PAYS FOR ITSELF IN SIX YEARS

From the proceeds of six crops 40 acres of irrigated land near Bull have paid the living expenses of a family all operating expenses, $3800 purchase price and interest thereon. The amount returned above living expenses and cost of operation were approximately $3000. Not bad for six acres in times like these.

In 1917 J. Gudowski, a machinery salesman, without farming experience contracted to buy five acres of land near Bull and $220 per acre. He paid nothing down on the land. He has paid for the purchase price, together with interest, from the proceeds of six crops, beginning with 1918.

He told the Times that he owned the big part of his story. This reason he had four acres of wheat five acres of corn, 11 acres of red clover, five acres of orchard red clover, 6 acres of orchard red clover and 2000 square feet of area in hay. He milked six cows which, he says, have made a living for his family. For two and a half acres of corn this year he secured 27 bushels of corn. Gudowski has kept his farm divided into three fields, plowing up one field each year.

Mrs. Helen Strabridge is back from New York, where she spent a month as the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Paul Dappay, wife of the famous senator and publisher editor of that name, who owns the Fort Parshall, the widely circulated newspaper in the world. Senator Dappay, who succeeds his father, a famous cabinet minister in the upper house of France, is in the city at the moment.

Senator Dappay and his wife leave today for France. They wanted Mrs. Strabridge to go back with them, but as she has been in the land of the four winds for some time, the journey across is trying, and she prefers to return to Twin Falls.

The following from the New York Advertising Club News, shows the importance attached to the visit in the Empire State.

Friday, November 23rd, will be a red letter day in the Club when a luncheon will be tendered to Senator Paul Dappay, member of the French parliament, and his wife, Mrs. Dappay, Gaston Liebert, Minister Plenipotentiary of France.
