JAPAN STIRS U.S. BY NOTE ON IMMIGRATION

Senate Aroused. This Forenoon Over Meddling of Japanese Minister in Pending Legislation on Immigration; Hamhart Threatens "grave Consequences."

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 12.—The house today passed the Johnson immigration bill restricting immigration to two per cent of the foreign born recorded in the 1890 census and providing for the exclusion of the Japanese.

The vote was 322 to 71.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 12.—The house today agreed to the Japanese exclusion section of the Johnson immigration bill without even the formality of an attempt to amend it.

Sentiment in the house was understood to be so strongly in favor of the Japanese exclusion section that a movement was under way to introduce the house conference committee to insist that if the Senate rejected it.

WASHINGTON, April 13—Answered by threat of Ambassador Hamhart that "grave consequences" would follow enactment of the Japanese exclusion feature of the immigration bill, Senator Johnson, who had proposed the provision as a prompt rebuke to what they regard as "foreign meddling in domestic affairs,"

Not only did he accept the Senate's amendment to the bill, but also agreed to the insertion of a rider authorizing him to demand the withdrawal of the Japanese ambassador.

Senator Huran Johnson, California, was thoroughly aroused and announced that he would use every tool to rally the Senate and the public to rebuke Hamhart. Pacific coast senators particularly urged Hamhart's attitude in the matter as a deliberate attempt to "nationalize" Japanese exclusion.

Senator Sherrard, California, one of the leading advocates of the Japanese exclusion, believed that the Senate would not adopt the provision. A group of southern democrats, however, are planning to oppose it as a rebuke to Sherrard for his support of the anti-immigration bill.

BOOTLEGGER WILL TAKE HIS GIRL TO ITALY

Mike Cusumano Who Chopped Sodas in Three Years Is Leaving for Italy Because Children Made Fun of His Glasses

NEW YORK, April 12.—"This isn't world's best kids' team,"

And that, says Mike Cusumano, is all there is to it.

In his 15 years of sitting it all up, he business that brought him involved in three years and taking his little 11-year-old daughter, Eddie, to sleep, when they will sit in the front row, and when she will sit in the back row, explosives and acids and everything

Cusumano didn't mind, particularly when it was whispered and "there was that was 'Mike,' the bootlegger."

He continued. "He was a bootlegger, but he was a good bootlegger, and he had to put himself somewhere. By the time Coach Evans had decided to pull him and he was replaced by

Ray Evans, he was a bootlegger, but the stoolie when he was weakened, bootleggers had raised support, with the news spread in the seventh day at first failed to tax a single soul, but when he was on a bright day, Nagy error helped to increase the score in the first inning and yet we are sure that the Blue and White can play much better than they did when they were exhibited yesterday.

The visitors fielded well and played a good type of baseball and their hitting was excellent, but the Blue and White when the latter are sponting at top speed, Evans has the means of a very strong team and we think it was a series of circumstances that caused the Blue and White to lose the end of the 11 to 10 score rather than superior playing.

Garity allowed four hits and struck out only one in the first inning, but the Blue and White scored three runs in the second inning. Hodson bunted the Indians without a hit, scored one more and when he was struck out on the eighth he was taken out.

Twin Falls sluggers came in bat with a determination to open up the score, but the Blue and White held on to one score when Bish Crook drove a pretty single into the outfield after which the Blue and White scored two runs in the fifth and fourth, but Hodson failed to score.

In the last of the fourth inning

the Blue and White scored two runs in the fifth and one in the sixth.

The Blue and White scored two runs in the seventh and one in the eighth inning, but Hodson bunted the Blue and White and Crook hooked a pop-up.

In the second half of the fourth inning Day walked, Crook took first on an error and Hodson, Morris, Jarman and

L. J. Larson drove one off left field

COURT BINDS OVER DRUG ADDICT FOR STATE TREATMENT

J. J. Taylor, taken up to day on a charge of being in drug addit, was given a hearing by District Judge W. A. Balcock this morning, and his defense attorney, C. E. Darrow, presented his case.

H. Barnes to lease an other building over to the Blackfoot Hospital for treatment as provided by law.

Taylor, who was arrested last night, had been bound and hand fast with Postelwaites and his wife when he left his family. After he was taken into custody, it was learned that the first act of his was to give the impression that he was a drug addict. Judge Balcock some days ago appointed Judge H. Barnes as attorney for Taylor. Today he was at the jail for trial. Testimony was offered by Sheriff M. E. Flatch, Deputy Sheriff Charles E. Jones, and Probation Officer John C. Johnson, and Taylor's defense was given by Dr. J. F. Conchuk. No testimony was offered by Taylor.

Taylor, accompanied by his children, are now with his parents in this country.

Former Resident of Twin Falls Dies in Virginia City, Cal.

Mrs. Nellie May, whose home has long been on Main Street, died yesterday afternoon at the home of her son, W. J. May, 26, after six years of suffering, says the Virginia City (Calif.) Journal.

During the long illness, she has been unable to speak, but has been able to write, and when she did, her voice was clear and strong.

She had been ill for two months, and her stroke came while she was in bed.

Her son, W. J. May, and his wife, Mrs. May, were ready to answer the welcome call. "May had been continuous until the last two days she made arrangements for her funeral, even for the selection of the hymns to be sung."

Mrs. May lived for sixteen years in Twin Falls, Idaho, and then moved to the Pacific Coast, where she died, loved by a host of friends there who knew her intimately. Sixteen months ago she came to Lodi, Calif., and for the past two months has resided in Virginia City.

Besides her, friends, Mrs. May leaves no heir to her property. Her three sons are married, Mrs. Pauline, Mrs. Arthur and Robert, and three step-sons, Arthur, Orley, and Paul Nare.

Funeral services were conducted in the Methodist church. Many friends were present. Rev. Royce of the M. E. church officiated. Interment was at Ardenwood.

The funeral service extends its hearty sympathy to the bereaved family in their sorrow.
