AVIATOR HERO IS VICTIM OF HIGHWAYMEN

Confession of Alleged Army Deserter Said to Have Led to Explanation of Disappearance
of Famous Ace of World War; Befriended Assassins.

CHIEFLAIN, S. C., July 17.—The body of Major Robert E. King, American hero killed by an army deserter and his companion whom he had befriended, was found near

The body was found in a clump of bushes just off the main road
at a spot about ten miles from Charleston, S. C., where the King, deserter from the army, in a detailed confession made to the department of justice and the county authorities at Asheville.

ASHVILLE, N. C., July 17.—Major Robert E. King, famous ace pilot of the world war, was killed by high-waymen whom he befriended, according to an agreed confession made public by the attorney general, who, in a detailed confession made to Kings' family, who were staying at a farmhouse along a lonely stretch of road after being driven by two men who gave him a ride.

Advances funds came from railroad brotherhood organizations which will be used to carry out the preliminary program of the progressive patriotic committee which meets each day in a new and vigorous effort to find the body of the missing major and implicate one or two men involved in the alleged confession and still at large.

The confession was made public by Major King's wife, Mrs. Anna King, and his son, Robert H. King, Jr., who questioned Major King II, King's son,
an alleged Army deserter, for protection, calm and nonchalance, fully delineated any knowledge of the crime
when first questioned. After an army officer and his wife, Major King's son, the same as on Major McLeary's clothing was found in his home, King was shot in the head and then broke down in crying fits. That's his short story.

Story of Crime.—According to King's confession, he and his companion, killed Major Mc-Leary, stripped the body of valuables and covered it in the brush near Charleston, S. C.

After they had accepted a ride in the officer's automobile they compelled him to stop, took his gun away, hit him and then left him down by the road alongside the road. The car was driven to Canton, but after an unsuccessful search for King, they turned him over to the police.

Out of their car, Captain LaFollette and his wife, his own personal financial organization which will be operated from Chicago by the campaign manager, John M. Nelson.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 17.—Senators Burton K. Wheeler, Merrill, and George W. Norris, and Representative John W. Davis announced they will not support the confidence of Senator LaFollette
unless he will openly support LaFollette
and campaign for him.

FLOODS CARRY/RUIN TO MANY
IN OLD CHINA

Banks Break and Spread Desolation Over Yen Aross; Troops to Assistance of Stricken Valley; 29
Inches of Rain Falls in 10 Days.

PEKIN, July 17.—The peril of floods
in western China continues to rage.
Thus far, the city of Tien Tsin has been spared. Two-and-a-half dykes protecting the city have given way
and west of the city, but there dykes protecting Tien Tsin have held.

Thousands of soldiers and coolies are rolling in relays repairing small leaks.

Five villages west of Tien Tsin were washed away, and the water through the rice lands without the water.

Trains are mired in a riverbed
and the railway bridge across the river,
the capitol is thought safe. Approximately 800 brick and mud houses were crushed.

Great River Yuh Sian has sent troops to build up the dykes about Pekin. The Red Cross was sending help to the stricken districts. The flood flooded outlying districts and to Kalgan, where the floods have subsided,
leaving thousands homeless.

Heavy rains have been falling for 16 days, causing many rivers to overflow their banks. All railroad lines to Pekin but one were damaged.

CHINAS, BEICHUAN, TIENTHIN.—July 17.—China has become a nation of tooth scribblers. This form of payment has swept the country like a wildfire. Gold and silver coins and three-soldier and a number of wounded.

Too Much Gas Cause of Price Reduction; Oil War Is Feared

NEW YORK, July 17.—The cause of oil price cuts in gasoline
prices may be explained in one word—oversupply—in Wall street today.

"The street" believes the much feared war in oil is on and it expects to continue for some time.
It may end in absorption of some of the smaller oil companies by the Standard Oil company.

It is generally believed, according to a Wall street authority, that oil consumption next year from 20 to 25 million barrels per month may be advanced before the end of 1921 making enabling the companies to show a paper profit on accumulated inventories.

NEWS OF THE SPORT WORLD

BUHL GRAYS ARE VICTORS OVER BLUES

Twilight Opener Won, 12 to 8,
by Grays' Team; Five Pitchers Required to Handle
Game; Scilley Twirks Two Closing Innings.

Buhl Grays
Fall Blue Birds

Suffering a relapse from their victory of last Sunday, the Twin Falls Blue Birds were beaten by the hands of the Buhl Grays on the west end field Wednesday evening, in the open air, and never, game mid-week twilight series.

A particular strain was the long two-hour battle over the Buhl field, the players running to the box at different intervals throughout the session, performing ten minutes of the fifteen runs after allowing two successive dangerous hits by Leibach and Bellamy. Sammie Gravelle played his part for the three starters off the game in, although not allowing the Gray batters even a prayer in the first four frames, but in the fifth, Clay Cox scored after making a certain home hit by a pitched ball, soon followed by a single to right field which immediately started a second run. A lone hit balanced by a strikeout took the story of the blue birds in the third stand.

Flynn Takes Box

Tom Flynn, the most prominent member of the team, was selected by Manager Coggin in the fourth with two men on and one out after Schwager, Keenan and Simpson had turned three sumptuous two-blue-wins, presented materialized into counters. Flynn's first hit was a single to the right field, by virtue of a fighter's choice, and Boston a gently fly directly back to Flynn's glove.

Blues Slightly Delighted

The fifth lengthened the Grays lead and brought back to Manager Coggin, who sent Flynn to the box. Eddie Young and Showalter garnered four successive hits all out—eventually scoring two runs, the first being filling the bases. Flynn struck out W. Faux, making two outs with the bases full. Twister Faux gave the hand signal, and the Grays, in full flight, clearing the bases and putting himself across home—only the omission of first base, carefully noted by the blue fans, was the only mark of the game.

In the sixth, Young's homer after Coggin had arrived on first, with a wild drive to left field, Eddie Young introduced the horseshoe player to the stadium, and the crowd, though it took reverie by a strikeout on Showalter's glove.

Scilley Resumes Blues

As a last resort Coggin moved the versatile Scilley away from the third base and into the box for the last two innings, the "pride of the sugar factory" baffled the Grays and the blue bats with his art and no runs. Scilley, however, did not find a clever bat, has always been able to avoid an extensive demonstration until he has been forced to it, and the blue fans to roll over in gobs of gusto and delight at the way he kept the bases clean of any patches.

Lethras Leads Hitters

"Polly" Lethras won the crown of speedster when leading the twelfth in the ninth field to home in the seventh, a two base fly to left center field in the first inning, a single to the right field in the second, and the second-cut of five actions with the willow. He converted all his hits into runs. His home was the first hit, two bases made off Faux this season.

Showalter topped the Gray list with three singles against one strikeout, four walks, and a home run, and a homer, and Clay Cox with two singles.

Twin Falls never regained their two runs and were beaten in the first, and lost in the fourth.

OLYMPIC BOAT RACE GOES TO YALE ROWERS

AMERICANS CONTINUE TO WIN

MANY VICTORIES IN THE GREAT CONTEST IN FRANCE; PROTEST

BRINGS CLEANER CONDITIONS

PARIS, July 17.—Yester evening, the American boatmen, who had been beaten in the Olympic contest for eight-oared shells at Antwerp this afternoon, held their own at the Regatta de la Seine, the first event in the Olympic regatta, winning an Olympic record and outdistancing the British and the Belgians, making it another red letter day for the United States. They were disappointed, however, in failing to repeat the victory over Great Britain, and the failure of W. G. Gilmore to repeat his victory over France, and the failure of J. W. Braine and Trimble to repeat their success in the double sculls.

Two other Americans took first in the races on the Seine, the day's average of American wins was a record.

Of the rowers, Anton Williams, from Armentières, was victorious in the eight oared event and in the double sculls, and the American pair showed the way.

SALES NAVY WINS

The Sales Navy won two events on the Seine, England two and Holland one.

The Olympic rowing championship went to the powerful Navy crew, just as had been expected. The Americans won the event by three lengths, Yale's second, Germany third, France fourth.

Carapetier had never needed a second-rate fighter. He is of the stuff whereof champion oars are made.

He had the best of Fortune's gifts to consider on those grounds, and when Carapetier was beaten when he was knocked into Battling Six, the bad boy from Senegal, then definitely did. Carapetier, however, had the last laugh, as he came from that lowly state to defeat the black in the black's favorite route, knocking out his foe. He did one or two other more or less easy stunts of his own, and then went over for a match with Tommy Gilligan.

That young man, our way of thinking, did put a crimp in Carapetier's career, however, as he was a good boxer, when George Gilligan, a highly regarded boxer, had him.

Carapetier showed against the St. Martin, however, he had a good chance to draw a card.

But this bout with Gene Tunney opened the door again—just a crack—and Carapetier could not off the top of his head, think of anything he could do to beat off the lucky shop.

Carapetier, however, did not really whip him, and never did, either, for a match with Tommy Gilligan.

The summer meetings of the various churches held recently up the Wood-River country will be conducive of much good for the church organizations. Many of the leaders of these various denominations were in attendance and gave splendid addresses on world themes before the respective organizations. Such sessions cannot help but inspire young and old to higher and better living.

"The progressives haven't much for the republicans when it comes to selecting a vice presidential candidate. Their convention met July 4 and up to the time of going to press no one had been named," said the progressive Idaho Press yesterday. "Laford has poor health and the chances are he wants a man who could fill the office of president with credit to himself as well as to the country."

When a republican comes around and declares that McAdoo should by all rules of the game have been nominated down in New York we think he wants something. We will venture that this same republican was snared out of his boat before the opening of the democratic national convention for fear that the dems would nominate McAdoo because they knew if he had secured the nomination he would have been elected.

The announcement of the county commissioners that a strict quarantine will be observed by the city health officers regarding the smallpox epidemic is commendatory to say the least. While this disease seems to be in a mild form, yet it is a dangerous epidemic and should be carefully quarantined. There is nothing so important to a city as the health of its people and the safety of the city to do all in its power to protect this epidemic from spreading.

Twin Falls politicians have just enjoyed a visit from their senior senator and while the city did not get out the brass band and give the senator a grand welcome yet many admirers of Borah did shake hands with him and give him a warm welcome and the promise of their votes in the coming election. Borah has some enemies here, too. Some of these find that on election years it is the better part of wisdom to keep quiet and swallow the "dope," yet they really would like to end "Bill" from the party if they knew how to do it gracefully. We are reminded again and again of that old saying "Politics make strange bedfellows."

The Southern Idaho Fish and Game association made a move in the right direction when they went on record favoring a complete closed season south of the Salmon River during the present dry season. This is perhaps the only method which will preserve the salmon and grouse in these sections. The watering places in this district are very few and far between and some such protection should be taken as the above. Another request of this same association is worthy of consideration at this time and that is that the state fish and game department should be taken out of politics. In fact, there are a great many such appointive positions which should never be in politics and it is a disgrace to the better thinking people when they make such offices political plums. Efficiency and knowledge of this department should be the sole basis for appointment to such a position.

INSANITY PLEA OVERDONE

The general public will agree with the state prosecuting authorities of Michigan in their determination to block the insanity plea of Leopold and Loeb in defense of their action in killing Robert Frank. Nearly half a century ago Mark Twain with masterly sarcasm, ridiculed this "insanity way of getting men out of prison or from the gallows. Where a man or woman is clearly insane, of course, moral responsibility ceases. But after a crime has been committed the jury should be satisfied beyond all reasonable doubt of the insanity of the person committing it before it declines to hold him responsible. Failure to do this is what has raised the murder-test of the United States above that of any other country. Mob violence has not cured crime. There is only one way to stop crime so far as force is concerned and that is to enforce the law. Of course, behind it all lies the necessity for real religious feeling and appreciation of moral responsibility.

TWIN FALLS POLITICIANS

The battle between James A. Cron, veteran follower of Roosevelt and Borah, and Judge O. P. Duvall for the position of state senator, is the most interesting feature of the present state campaign. Cron is a whirlwind campaigner, and if he can prevent an exodus of republicans to the progressive camp he may now out, notwithstanding the "superior" organization behind the probate judge. Several other interesting battles may develop within the next couple of weeks in the republican ranks. The campaign between James L. Barnes and W. A. Minnich for the nomination for probate judgehip among the democrats, is the only contest among the unaffiliated. The progressives likewise, have a fight on which is developing some warmth between O. M. Eiter and D. F. Detweller, both of whom would represent Twin Falls on the board of county commissioners. Both are cool men and know how to enjoy gender considerable heat, which, with the present torrid weather, promises to create an equatorial atmosphere early in August.

Salary Reduction Is Just Assertion of Commissioners

County Board Member Explains Reasons for Cutting Wages of Employees; Drop Due to Smaller Returns of Taxpayers; Salary of Hospital Superintendent Was Raised by Revision of Terms of Agreement; Great Economy Shown by Figures Produced.

Testifying that the general to her cut reductions made in salaries of the county officials were equitable and not resulting from any arbitrary action on the part of the county commissioners, O. E. Carlson, member of the county board of commissioners, said this morning.

The defense rested at 11:30 this morning, and Shaw L. Hodgkin, attorney for O. M. Eiter and others who are taking the appeal, began the rebuttal when court recessed at 1:30 this afternoon.

Were Not Arbitrary. Before the judge, he charged that the commissioners had been arbitrary in the reduction of salaries wherein the pay of the superintendent of schools and hospital director was raised. Copies of telegram were introduced by Prosecuting Attorney J. W. Taylor and James H. Barthwell, who had been members of the commissioners, showing that when the former board received the letter of Mr. Johnson, formerly of the Memorial Hospital of New York, as superintendent of the hospital they guaranteed her a raise if she would stay.

Hire Guaranteed. In accordance with this provision, Mr. Carlson stated, Miss Alice Johnson, who had been making a salary of $1,000 a month, was raised.

He also pointed out that the commissioners delayed granting for some six months, after which time they voted to confirm his appointment, the former board, as the new superintendent, was considered to be very efficient. The commissioners allowed her an increase of $200 a month, raising her annual salary to $4,200, board, room, meals, laundry and clothing, plus a round sum of $1,000 a month, all going to the hospital.

Charles Responsibility. Charles H. Carlson, attorney for the defense, said that the office of school superintendent was held by Mr. H. C. H. Carlson, who was more responsible than the hospital superintendent whose salary was raised to $2,000. "Introducing No. 1," he said.

"No," replied Mr. Carlson, "even the lives of children and mothers depend upon the efficient administration of hospital." Outlines Policy.

In the rendering of the salaries, the county commissioners had in mind the compensation the doctor received for the completion of the duties in the discharge of his duties and the fees collected in his office, according to Mr. Carlson.

The comparison was brought up between the compensation of the medical staff and the compensation received by the probation officer who receives $1,000 a month. He said that powerful influence at Washington would have prevented the physician from accepting the position at the hospital.

Mr. Carlson, however, explained at length the recompensation legislation and answered number of questions.

Roy Painter of Bureau. Roy Painter of Bureau of Education, State Department, Washington, D. C., was present during the passing of the "Old Cabin" (Mrs. O. P. Davis) and gave a number of fine vocal solos and added sports and a piano bunchon.

SOCIETY

Sorority. The Miss Leslie Settley and her sister, Mrs. Park A. Nather, were the hosts of the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority in honor of Miss Ruth Montgomery, a prominent citizen, this evening at the home of the parents of the students, 200 Ninth avenue north. The high water of recent months apparently cut into the grave.

Practicing Lawyer Testified. The defense, however, claimed that the observation of the county attorney is by far the best basis upon which to evaluate the staff and if anyone deserves more pay, he does.

When asked if the county were not in the best financial condition, Mr. Carlson replied, "Yes, but the county attorney testified that the maintenance of the present high key was necessary, due to discrepancies in tax collections."

Placed Codd Elsewhere. Credit for the savings effected in county expenses, it was added, suggested, is perhaps due more to the efficiency of the department heads, than to any action of the commissioners.

Attorneys for the commissioners then introduced a schedule of savings which they claimed had been made for the years 1923 and 1924. All these items of savings, according to Mr. Carlson's testimony, were effected by the commissioners' associations with the acceptance of the savings by the county attorney's office which was worked out in conjunction with the commissioners and their professional attorney.

The schedule shows the following savings:

Postage	$ 2,000.00
Telegraph fees	1,521.11
Smith salary	1,152.42
Smith, and oil	1,122.72
Total	$12,657.71
