

SMITH GETS SARCASTIC ON HEARST

Governor Says Publisher's Papers Are Not Allowed in Executive Mansion but Adds That Letter Shows Ignorance; Also Expresses Literary Value of Epistle.

ALBANY, N. Y., July 21.—Governor Smith today answered the suggestion made last week by William Randolph Hearst that New York state democrats nominate Lieutenant Governor George R. Ladd for the head of the state ticket this year, in a statement as follows: "It does not read any of Mr. Hearst's papers because they are not allowed in the executive mansion."

BRAZIL'S WAR STILL RAGING

BUENOS AIRES, July 24.—The attack in force by Brazilian federal troops on the state of Rio Grande failed, according to radio messages here today and a new bombardment was begun.

The rebels are making a new effort to incite an uprising in Rio de Janeiro and have circulated a report they intend to attempt an attack on the capital along the Central Do Brazil railway. This story, however, has caused little worry in government circles as the railroad is well protected by federal troops and an effort to reach Rio by this route is considered impossible.

EAT HOME AGAIN WASHINGTON, July 24.—The President Coolidge's pet cat, is lost again this time. It is feared, for good. The White House today officially declared it had given up all hope of recovering the feline companion of Mr. Coolidge. The latest disappearance of the "first cat of the country" was kept a dark secret.

COOLIDGE STARTS WORK ON WRITING HIS ACCEPTANCE

WASHINGTON, July 24.—President Coolidge today began writing his acceptance address to be delivered when he is formally notified of his nomination here August 17. The broadcast has followed on the general sense of what he will say and the speech undoubtedly will be considerably longer than the four messages promised to which John W. Davis, democratic candidate has decided to limit his acceptance address.

President Coolidge will summarize the accomplishments of the republican party during his administration and will set forth what will work to do if reinstated in power. Tax reduction, economy in administration and efficiency in government are expected to form the keynote of the republican program on outlined in the president's message.

Reports of confinement in various sections of the country brought to the White House officials and the president's press secretary are exceptionally optimistic. The president was said not to be unduly elated by officials made this early in the campaign.

WHEELER CASE COMES UP IN EARLY OCTOBER

Progressive Candidate for Vice President Ready for Battle of the Ballots and to Appear in Court. No Says as He Fishes.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 24.—In the fever heat of the colorful three-cornered battle for the progressive nomination, the dramatic touch may await the trial of Senator Wheeler of Montana, vice presidential candidate on the independent ticket now set for October—the crucial period of the campaign. Wheeler's trial, at which his conduct is being investigated without parallel in American political history, it was recalled, however, that Eugene V. Debs, socialist candidate for president on the socialist ticket in 1920 from Atlanta federal prison. Quite unimpaired by the investigation of charges of mismanaging the interests of a local legal client, Debs, being honored over his head since spring.

Wheeler, in a holiday mood, led today with his family to minor to Massachusetts. The little fishing village of Wollfleet, where he will rest for three weeks here, starting on the strenuous barnstorming campaign by him, by the independent managers. Wheeler said he had ceased to give the indictment any thought, after an investigation of the charge by a Senate committee, made at Wheeler's request. "Incuse of the circumstances surrounding the indictment, I regard it as an asset in my campaign with Senator La Follette and not as a handicap," said Wheeler. "I am willing to go to trial in the department of justice, if they want to conduct the campaign in the courts, I am willing to do that."

Entering the store while Joseph Magner, vice jewelry salesman, was displaying a case of diamonds to Jack Wolfe, proprietor of the store, the bandits covered Magner and Wolfe with revolvers. The bandits seized Magner's display case and rifled the show cases in the store. They escaped in an automobile.

PICNIC PARTY IS HURLED TO DEATH

OAK HARBOR, O., July 25.—Just as the state of Ohio was completing its first big step toward eliminating the grade crossing accidents at a "safety" conference of state, county and city officers meeting in Columbus, 10 homeward bound picnickers were hurled to death near here last night when the bus in which they were riding was crushed by a speeding westbound New York Central passenger train. The party had been at Lake Erie. All were members of Seneca county farm clubs. Survivors said the driver had stopped as he approached the crossing, got out and scanned the track. A train eastbound, on a far track, had just passed. He stepped back into his car and drove on to the track in front of the train, speeding toward the west.

WHY AM THEY TRY TO ROCKET TO BLACKMAN, FRANKS

CRIMINAL COURT ROOM, Chicago, July 24.—The bills were returned by the Cook county grand jury today charging two 19-year-old boys with attempting to "shoot" their way out of Blackman, Illinois, the fourteen-year-old boy murdered by Nathan Leopold and Richard Loeb. The two boys, Walter Horger and Janeta Chubb—sent a letter to Frank on June 21, one month after the shooting. Horger, threatening to kidnap Joseph, Robert's 16-year-old sister. They demanded $30,000. Horger and Chubb admitted the letter because of the publicity since the Frank murder case, involving the elder Frank was a terror-stricken by his earlier husband that he would pay.

MAGEE GOES BEFORE HIGH COURT TODAY

M., July 21.—Carl Magee, who has served two years of his life in prison for a crime more than a year ago, will appear before the high court of the state of New Mexico today. Magee was arrested at Santa Fe. Hearing on a writ of habeas corpus filed by the editor of the Albuquerque State Tribune before the state supreme court, will be held in Santa Fe at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Early morning occupants of the street during the demolition of Sheriff DeLoach and a deputy in the street. A corrected pardon from Governor Hinckley to take the place of one on which Sheriff DeLoach refused action, was served on the sheriff for Magee this morning, but the sheriff declared he would defer action on this pardon until after the court action and until he could hold a conference with attorneys in Santa Fe. You may also Magee printed a signed editorial in his paper, the New Mexico State Tribune, a newspaper publication, describing his predicament. The editorial followed: "Next Tuesday I must face Judge Leahy in the district court of San Miguel. I have just the same chance with Judge Leahy that I have with a butcher. The worst trouble is that I cannot recognize Leahy's mockery as a court of justice. Leahy's court isn't a court, it's a slaughterhouse. I doubt whether any civil or criminal law has been decided there in its martial law days. When I attack Leahy my ene-

HERY FORD NEW FINANCE WORLD PEACE

London Paper Hopes That Five-Maker Will Come Across with Loan Bankers Refuse; Conferees Hopeful; Germany Expects Invitation to Take Part.

LONDON, July 24.—"Perhaps Herby Ford will take a loan for the sake of world peace." This idea, said the Morning Telegraph today, is being seriously considered in some quarters here. "Mr. Maclean, Ford's brother and the bank of England interest remain adamant regarding a German loan," the newspaper said editorially. "It is expected in some quarters that Ford might save the situation."

DETROIT, Mich., July 24.—"Henry Ford makes no loan" was the terse and only comment forthcoming from Ford's office today when attention was called to the suggestion made in London that he might make a loan in Germany. "If the present negotiations to that end fail at the conference of premiers now in session here. "It was said to mean that any reports he might take such action were outside the realm of possibility. Optimism Rampant LONDON, July 24.—American and British participants in the inter-allied conference maintained unshaken optimism today despite the surprise of the inter-allied conference on the subject of international bankers on the subject and the French government on the other have brought the parity. Confusion was expressed that a week-end of rapid inter-Allied negotiations would solve the difficulties which still center around the subject of international bankers. "This morning the informal conferences at Downing street were resumed, with Ambassador Kellogg, Premier Herriot and Thomsen and Premier De Stefan "fitting in" with French demands for security for the German loan with the French demand for sanctions. Germans Walk Out LONDON, July 24.—The German government officially expected a formal invitation today to attend the inter-allied conference in London. All ready the delegation has been named and details of the journey to London worked out. "Governmental circles are putting out propaganda concerning the visit, already hinting to emphasize that Chancellor Strosser is going to discuss the experts report with the allies, not to listen to dictation of terms."

DAVIS PLAYS GOLF ON EVE OF BATTLE

PAUL HARBOR, Md., July 23.—Hollister today on a vacation here today 24 and 25, a day before the trial of John W. Davis, democratic presidential candidate. "Major Hollister today played golf for over two days. The golfing date began to lose of his golf when he was challenged to a game by the attorney for the state. The trial was today to begin.

While he was to make a second start on the acceptance speech this morning, the trial was today to begin. It was said that he would not be able to leave after the champion hit was settled. No far some of the democratic leaders here indicated that on the basis that he be left alone while in here.

Honor Committee voted here today to accept the proposition as a result on, complete committee appointments will be announced after the Davis returns to New York. "The action of the democratic leaders, which looked the specter of a 'taboo' board hearing on the contract to testify before the Senate of the nation, the board assumed authority. The union men refused to testify before the board, under the provision of the transportation act, to permit the U. S. district court to hold the leaders in contempt. Donald H. Hollister, counsel for the defendants, informed the board of the leaders' decision. Officers refused to testify before the Senate of the union men and their brotherhood and to accept chairman of the two unions. The union men accuse the differences can be traced out between the board and the workers without the intervention of the board, but the railroad maintain no separate negotiations will be held.

KEEPING WELL

THE HUMAN MACHINE

DR. FREDERICK H. GREEN

Author of "The Human Machine"

The human body is a machine. In order to get the best results, it must be used intelligently.

A human being is like an automobile. One has a forty-horse-power engine. One has a fifty-horse-power engine. One has a seventy-horse-power engine. One has a hundred-horse-power engine. One has a two-hundred-horse-power engine. One has a three-hundred-horse-power engine. One has a four-hundred-horse-power engine. One has a five-hundred-horse-power engine. One has a six-hundred-horse-power engine. One has a seven-hundred-horse-power engine. One has a eight-hundred-horse-power engine. One has a nine-hundred-horse-power engine. One has a thousand-horse-power engine.

Patience has much to do with the effective working of the human body. If the body is properly developed, the parts are all in balance, if there is no undue strain on any part. If the vital organs are properly developed, the heart, lungs, stomach, and intestines will be strong and steady, the breathing will be easy, and the full power of the body will be developed.

If the abdominal organs are properly supported and with the least friction, digestion and nutrition will be good. But if the body is not properly regulated and if the ash and cinders are not removed, then you cannot remain healthy.

The position most favorable for health and efficient work is that in which the body is in the position of greatest ease and comfort, at or near a right angle of standing, at or near a right angle of sitting.

Supreme Progenitor—A body that is not only the greatest virtue, but the parent of all the other virtues—Clean.

There Is No Condemnation

By REV. JOHN C. PAGE
There is therefore no condemnation to them that are in Christ Jesus...

Mountain climbing is a difficult task, but the return for the exertion is rich and satisfying...

Condemnation is the result of guilt, if unrighteousness of a certain nature...

He met and satisfied forever everything involved in our sin...

He is removed through the vicarious atonement of the Son of God...

There is therefore no condemnation. But Christ is made unto us righteousness...

It is the third place, a new life is imparted. Those to whom a divine righteousness is imparted...

It is the fourth place, power is provided. Condemnation may result from righteousness as well as from guilt...

There is therefore now no condemnation to them that are in Christ Jesus...

Seems So

On the very day that a man has set to incorporate his plan of personal improvement something happens to prevent
it. He has to begin some other day.
