Borah to Call on Party Treasurers for Reports of Financial Condition COMMITTEE TO MEET THURSDAY

Investigators Have Almost Unlimited Power in Slush Fund Probe.

CHICAGO, Oct. 15.—The senate campaign fund investigating committee will go into session in the federal building here tomorrow, it is announced today on its arrival here from the west. Borah said he was quite confident all members will be in attendance and there will be no delay in getting started.

The meeting was called following a change by Senator La Follette, candidate for president on the Independent ticket, that six Republicans were holding a slush fund of four to five million dollars to swing the campaign.

Every party will be called on for detailed reports on all contributions, Borah said.

Under an appeal, resolution, the committee has almost unlimited power, Borah said.

"We are out to find if there is corruption in the paying of campaign funds or the manner in which the funds are used," Borah said. "We want to know the size of the contributions and the identity of the contributors.

The first step will be the examination of the books of the treasurer of the various parties. The treasurers will be questioned."

Drunken Brawl Ends in Death of Entertainer

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Oct. 15.—Margaret Donovan, 34-year-old entertainer, was beaten to death here early today during a liquor party in which several persons, officers included, engaged in a drunken brawl.

Walter Wolman, 60, was arrested and held for the woman's death. Witnesses stated he became angry at her during the party and attacked her, beat her severely and kicked her unconscious to the floor.

New Era in World Transportation Is Opened by Airship

LAKEHURST, N. J., Oct. 15.—The arrival of the ZR-3 opens a new era in world transportation, and marks the beginning of an economic revolution, Captain Heinrich, noted Zeppelin expert, told the United Press today. "Within 25 years aircraft will be used as commonly as automobiles are today. The dirigible will prove the strongest link in the world link known for world wide brotherhood through improving communication between distant points. It is the most practical of construction of huge air crafters for definite purposes such as the present trans-Atlantic flight of the ZR-3.

STREETS TAKE LA-FOLLETTE ON ASPECT OF BATTLEFIELD

Fighting Breaks Out Once More in Canton, China; Reinforcements Will Be Sent to Scene to Restore Peace in District.

HONG KONG, Oct. 15.—Heavy fighting broke out in the streets of Canton today between troops of Sun Yat Sen, south China dictator, and soldiers of the merchant volunteer corps. The volunteer corps said they were attempting to prevent looting of the city. Dr. Sun ordered large reinforcements to Canton to restore order.

SIAMANGHAI, Oct. 15.—Leaders of Chinese soldiers still threatened Siamanghain as they struggle for the right to loot the city following defeat of General Lu Yung-hsiang by General Chi Hsiang-Yuan and his combined Kiangsu-Peking troops.

Chiang's forces were encountering two rifles from the boundaries of the French concession and the foreign settlement in noon.

Fighting between the rival forces was resumed at midnight near Siamanghain and within eight miles of Shanghai.

Davis on Final Lap of Illinois Stumping Tour

EN ROUTE WITH DAVIS THROUGH ILLINOIS, Oct. 15.—Having aloft the slogan of "honesty in government," John W. Davis, democratic candidate for president, today started on the final lap of his tour of Illinois.

Tomorrow Davis plans to be in Chicago for several speeches and a conference with his Illinois supporters. As Springfield today, Davis reviewed the history of the present administration. The republicans have complained corruption in government without making a genuine effort to clean house, Davis charged.

Davis also stated that many of the country's difficulties were due to the failure of the president and congress to work together.

"Congress has repudiated the president on almost every important piece of legislation," he said.

LA-FOLLETTE OUTLINES 8 POINT POLICY

Third Party Candidate Moves Into Iowa for Many Speeches; Foreign Policy is Described During Journey.

EN ROUTE TO SENATOR LA FOLLETTE TO DES MOINES, Iowa, Oct. 15.—With an eight point foreign policy outlined, Senator Robert M. La Follette speaks today in Iowa, one of the states which his followers believe he has a good chance of winning.

Arrangements were made to have Senator Brookhart, who recently declared his opposition to President Coolidge, board the La Follette car at Madison, Iowa, and ride to Albia. The two senators will be together more than an hour.

Members of the La Follette party said they expect this to be a day of important developments but whether Brookhart will announce formally his support of La Follette was not known.

La Follette's appearance comes chiefly after an invasion by Charles Daves, and the Wisconsin senator just answered the republican vice presidential candidate in his own defense several times.

Radio entanglements loomed in the campaign when La Follette announced that the broadcasting station of the Bankers Life Insurance company in Des Moines had refused him the use of the air tonight. Phil La Follette, son of the senator, also was advised that President H. A. Parsons of the Iowa agricultural college at Ames had refused a request of a group of students that La Follette be invited to speak in a public building. Some of the students were on an outdoor picnic.

After his speech on foreign relations to a large crowd in the St. Louis coliseum last night, La Follette announced his intention, four years hence, of returning to ask re-election to the presidency.

"If I am elected president," he said, "the fundamental doctrine expressed by Thomas Jefferson in his first inaugural address—'peace, commerce and friendship with all nations, engaging alliances with none—shall guide us. To this basic statement of foreign policy should be added recognition of foreign governments without intervention in their affairs, the Monroe doctrine against the American continent from imperialism exploitation and absolute neutrality toward foreign nations involved in war."

VAST THROG GREETS GIANT DIRIGIBLE UPON ITS ARRIVAL AT 9:30

Cheers-Welcome Zeppelin as It Swoops Gracefully to Earth After Penetrating Air for Many Hours; Landing Accomplished Without Difficulty.

LAKEHURST, N. J., Oct. 15.—Completing her 80-hour journey from Germany, the Zeppelin ZR-3 arrived at Lakehurst naval air station at 9:30 a. m. today. In majestic sweeps the ZR-3 settled toward her hangar. On the ground all was activity. A crew of men jumped to their stations, ready for orders. The radio station tried desperately to establish direct communication with the dirigible carrier.

GERMANS PROUD OF AERIAL FEAT

Citizens Stand for Hours Before Newspaper Bulletin Boards

BERLIN, Oct. 15.—German pride of achievement reached a post-war zenith today when news was flashed by the United Press from New York that the ZR-3 had reached the United States.

Crowds which had stood for hours in front of newspaper offices, reading bulletins on the progress of the great dirigible, burst into a mighty "hooray" when word came through the air that the ZR-3 had been over America and after the most successful flight ever made by a dirigible.

"Germany is redeemed," said the Vorkwarts. "The faith of our forefathers in the incomparable German spirit is vindicated once more."

There could be no doubt of the great impression the flight of the dirigible has made on all Germany. The flight of the ZR-3 was almost a subject of conversation.

The press universally hailed the arrival of the dirigible as a "German's great achievement since the war." Only a few of the most extreme pan-Germans fringed over in nationalistic enthusiasm, using the success of the flight for a parchment against France.

The ZR-3 shows what Germany can do, said one of the monarchist newspapers this morning. "What Germany will do in time in the way of creating weapons for revenge against our enemies."

"Some day France will tremble." The claim, however, in every breath and gesture was one of pride in German achievement in the realm of peace.

Brandegee's Death Affects Republican Majority in Senate

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—The death of Senator Brandegee, Connecticut, reduced almost to the vanishing point the margin of the nominal republican majority in the senate, a situation which would become all-important in the event of an electoral deadlock.

Before the deaths of Senators John B. Aldrich and Francis Pickens, 19 republicans, 43 democrats and two farmer-laborers in the senate had fought progressive republican senators from party was often enough to make the republican majority more nominal than actual. It was hoped that under the terms of a vice presidential election in the senate the republican organization could hold its majority.

The deaths of these two republicans senators, however, combined with the loss of both by replacement by election before congress meets in December, will both reduce the republican margin of the house will become 45 republicans, 46 democrats and two farmer-laborers.

The bolt of Senator La Follette alone from the republican party would destroy the nominal republican majority.

Students Walk Out in Protest of Suspension

ANNHURST, N. J., Oct. 15.—Twelve members of the Clemson college were on strike today in protest against the suspension of "Butch" Hollahan.

The entire student body of the South Carolina college has walked out in protest until Hollahan is reinstated.

The striking students also demand the "food" in the college dining room.

Hollahan was suspended after he presented the faculty with a petition signed by members of the senior class complaining against the "food served in the mess hall. The faculty claimed he was intoxicated when he signed the letter with the signatures.

The students charged that the food they received was often "unfit to eat."

Presented to the petition, it was claimed, and caused the arrest of the football captain for alleged drunkenness under the terms of a vice presidential election in the senate the republican organization could hold its majority.

WANT TO SPEAK HERE SAT. NIGHT

Noted Lawyer Who Is Candidate for United States Senate Will Occupy the Platform With A. L. Froehner and Make Active Campaign Place.

Frank Martin of Idaho, candidate for the United States senate, former attorney general and one of the leading lawyers of the international section will speak here Saturday night at the meeting which will be held in this city Saturday night, A. L. Froehner will occupy the main part of the same time.

Mr. Martin was cast at the time of the democratic convention and was later called to Florida from which place he has just returned. He is noted as a student of national and international affairs, and is a planning and especially for was not aware of a movement to make him the nominee.

Mr. Martin will discuss national issues and Mr. Froehner, who is making an active campaign for the governorship, will talk on stable markets.

General Statement: In announcing his attitude during the campaign, Mr. Martin said: "I stand squarely upon the state and national platform of the party and elected will at all times work and vote with the progressive forces of the senate for all legislation in the interest of the people. I shall work with the farmers' union and the country for agricultural relief measures."

Par-Love of National: "I am in favor of the United States adhering to the world court and the League of Nations, and in the mean time cooperating in the solution of the world in all matters possible, directly and indirectly, to maintain the peace of the world and to open the markets of the world for American trade and commodities for our agricultural products."

Has Like Lobbies—Attention of the state representative was called to by Alexander the procurer, to some ironous heads of home grown lettuce, which fitted a big basket in front of his store. The Times man showed up one at random and hid the principles of the party whose nomination he needs. In this instance the old adage that a man cannot serve two masters, I believe applies with great force. The senator has already declared his allegiance as opposed to La Follette. We shall await with interest his declaration as to which state platform and ticket he intends to adhere. The people of Idaho are entitled to know, and I shall join with the citizens of the senator to give us this position.

REPUBLICANS FOR PRODUCER SAYS OHIOAN

President of Sugar Company Says They Are Opposed to Democratic Administration, Which is Plan of the Consumer Aggressive Campaign to Be Won.

That the democratic and republican differ fundamentally in beliefs and are opposed diametrically to one another, were statements urged last evening at the meeting of the republican central committee, candidates and republican women's club at the Roosevelt by Charles H. Allen, head of the Republican National committee of Delaware, Ohio. Mr. Allen said that the republican looked at things from the point of view of the producer, while the democratic seemed to favor the consumer's standpoint. He strongly urged a protective tariff, increased the revenue of the country, standing squarely on the republican platform, and made a scathing criticism of the democratic party and its candidates. His remarks were understood to refer to Senator Brunkhart.

Charles J. W. Graham, Republican District Committeeman (Clermont, O.) Robinson made plans for aggressive action in the election of 1924, the entire republican ticket and especially the state and national tickets. The meeting was held at the home of Mr. Allen, who is a prominent and active republican in the state. Mr. Graham said that the republican party is the only party that stands for the protection of the producer, and that the democratic party is the party of the consumer. He urged the republican party to stand firmly on its platform and to fight for the interests of the producer.

20TH CENTURY CLUB HAS ITS FIRST MEETING

Reports of Various Departments Are Presented at Large Gathering Tuesday Afternoon in La Bessac.

The following is the official report of the first regular business meeting of the Twentieth Century club held at the Justice Inn on Tuesday afternoon with the president, Mrs. H. W. Melcher, in the chair. There was considerable business transacted and Mrs. J. H. Toupin, first vice president, was the delegate to the state federation at Moscow, gave a most entertaining report of the meeting and included much of interest on the life and spirit of the society. Mrs. H. W. Clouchick was also a delegate to the federation and spoke of some of the interesting work held at that time.

The program for the afternoon consisted of a community sing, which the club hopes to make a special feature at each meeting, followed by two capital solos by Mrs. J. C. Macuire, accompanied by Mrs. Nellie Hatley. The topic for the afternoon was "Woman and the Vote in Other Lands." Mrs. H. W. Clouchick spoke of "Woman Proudest in the Present Political Campaign," and Mrs. H. W. Clouchick spoke of "Woman and the Vote in Other Lands." Mrs. H. W. BEAN CROP OF IDAHO FOURTH IN THE NATION

With an average yield of 12.5 bushels of beans an acre, Idaho leads all states in acre yield and stands fourth in total production, according to a statement issued today by Julius J. Jacobson, United States crop statistician for Idaho, Michigan, California and New York.

The alfalfa seed crop (common and Grimm) in Idaho is expected to exceed all other states in acre yield, according to Mr. Jacobson. Approximately 2,500,000 pounds of Grimm seed is estimated to be produced from 10,000 acres, compared with 1,200,000 pounds that year from 6,000 acres. From $14 to $15 a bushel, possibly as high as $16, was being offered for common and about $21 for Grimm seed on October 20, the report says.

Alfalfa seed production in the United States is estimated to be fully one-third larger than last year, mostly the report says, and an increase in acreage. Production in Idaho, Utah, California, Kansas, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Colorado, Texas, New Mexico, Arkansas, Montana, Minnesota and North and South Dakota is estimated to exceed 45,000,000 pounds.

Demand for alfalfa seed in the spring and fall was good, the report continues, and the country was in need of alfalfa seed throughout the country is believed to be smaller than usual. Alfalfa gains in popularity and seed men anticipate a good demand at present level, the report states. Especially in the case of alfalfa seed, crop prices are maintained as at present.

Continuing the report says: "Last year Argentina, France, South Africa and Canada were the principal countries from which alfalfa seed was imported into the United States and of the 32,810,000 pounds permitted entry during the year ending June 30 last, 7,125,000 pounds came from Argentina alone. The 1923 crop in Argentina was estimated to be 40-50 per cent of a normal crop, but larger than that of last year. Entry of old seed, however, was small and the exportable surplus was believed to be somewhat larger than last year. Alfalfa seed crop in France was injured by bad weather. South Africa is believed to have harvested 10 per cent less than in 1923. Canada, on the other hand, is expected to produce a large surplus of alfalfa seed this year, and last season supplied about 8 per cent of our total alfalfa seed imports."
