"Gets-It" Removes Corns Quickly. Give Your Corns the Laugh.

Pharmacist call it "Joint-Ease" because it's for Swollen, Sore, Painful, Cranky Joints Only.

It took a good many years to get together a combination of pain subducing and swelling reducing agents declared to be the one remedy that almost instantly penetrates through skin and flesh and starts right in to make swollen, inflamed, cracky, pain racked joints as good as new. They call this new and wonderful preparation "Joint-Ease" because the medical man who turned the trick worked for years to discover a low priced remedy that would really benefit the millions of people who have one or more joints that need "helpful" attention.

So "Joint-Ease" is prepared only for people who have a swollen, painful, cracky, distorted or stiff joint, whether it be in knee, elbow, shoulder, ankle, neck, or finger and whether it is caused by rheumatism or something else. Of course, it can help but quickly put an end to such superficial ailments as lameness, neuralgia, neuritis, sciatica, etc. It is applied to the side, crack in the neck or sore feet because of its penetrating action, but what it is really recommended for is joint ailments of any nature whatsoever.

Ask for a tube of "Joint-Ease." You can use it several times in one evening for quick results, because it goes right through the skin, where only a few seconds rubbing. It surely is a swift penetrator and whereby it gets under the skin and starts right in to clean up all joint troubles.

All drug stores dispense it daily for about 25 cents a tube. Always remember, when "Joint-Ease" gets in joints, it gets in quick. Mail orders filled, cash or C. O. D. Price, LaSalle, Torrey, Havelock, Main.

Castelford and October 21 at Hansen. On October 25, Congressman Addison T. Smith, and H. C. Baldrice, Idaho lieutenant governor, will address a meeting at Dubl.

Big Crowd at Haller. One of the largest crowds that ever attended a political meeting in Idaho gathered last night to hear the candidate and other citizens public issue from a democratic point of view. Most of the candidates were present. O. L. Garrison and T. E. Garrison showed the economy program of the commission and the saving to the county. W. F. Alworth defined his position on many public questions and pledged to vote for economy in public affairs. Judge A. W. Carlson, candidate for prosecuting attorney, spoke on the state laws and county administration in practical economy, contrasting the administration of Alexander with those of his successors and pointing to the Canyon county experiment with executive commissioners. A. H. Hicks spoke of national issues and candidates, while Chairman John E. Dwyer spoke in absentia. Candidates for sheriff, J. D. Barnhart, candidate for treasurer, J. L. Finch, candidate for sheriff, J. D. Barnhart, chairman of the county commission, also candidate, and Dr. W. W. Dwight, candidate for coroner, James D. Whelan, the last speaker, attacked the republican contention that farmers get better prices for their products as a result of the tariff. It said that Addison T. Smith, in March made a great speech seeking to prove that farmers were prosperous under republican tariffs, and on May 20, after many years, in congress denounced the tariff as the cause of their trouble and that while the manufacturing trust were prosperous the farmers were not. His successor, Andrew H. Wilson would not be so slow as the present official of the United States consulate in service, will address meeting on stand. He criticized the republican tariff, and said that true farmers are shifted and noticed the election of Coolidge and a republican congress meant relief for the rich as proposed in the Mellon bill.

While disinterested with the La Follette stand on the courts, the speaker said that while republican judges and judicial candidates openly violated the code of judicial ethics of the American Bar association, their talks on the immediate character of the courts would be discounted.

Let all get out and have a justification at Halloween. It will do the people good and make the old young again in spirit to see the kiddies cavort.

It is not surprising that Twin Falls county produced the finest seeds shown at the Milwaukee exhibit of dairying. It has the goods. The seed and ban production is no longer confined to the Twin Falls tract. It extends to the Salmon where some great yields of the finest quality are reported and to the Milner lawfert irrigation district.

Governor Moore is careful not to say in his weekly advertisement that he will put into effect the demands of the fish and game organizations of Idaho, but will favor any legislation that experience and knowledge of fish and game conditions will point out as increasing the efficiency of this department. He adds, "deputies are retained because of the records they make."

Senator Borah has made it quite clear, so far as it lies within his aid with his wonderful command of language, that he is within him that he is running as a republican and not as a progressive. It looks as if it is up to the progressives to say what they think of it. Is it a case of "even though he may say, yet will I love him" with the progressive gubernatorial candidate and his manager?

With the opening statement, "You may call this propaganda," two columns of attack on the democratic party's attitude on the tariff question, is contained in a sheet received today by the city editor from C. H. Allen of Defiance, O.; in which the progressives are also assailed on the same ground. Mr. Allen has a perfect right to present his views to the public for what they are; namely, the views of a man spreading republican propaganda; but he should not camouflage as a scientific non-political lecturer while doing so. In order to lay the foundation for disarming criticism—James D. Whelan.

BURLEY EDITOR IS MISTAKEN

We have read with considerable amusement the editorial which appears in last week's Burley Bulletin concerning the coming election. In this brainstorm the new editor states that the contest for president of this nation is between Coolidge and LaFollette. This young republican quotes as his authority for such a statement the straw vote taken from the Literary Digest but an editor should not allow himself to be carried away with straw votes and after a few years' experience he will learn how straw votes can be made to show almost anything you wish to make them prove. Straw votes can be mailed to republican voters and Will H. Hays manipulated this trick splendidly in 1920.

We would like to call the Burley editor's attention to the fact that in 1912 the straw vote was altogether against Woodrow Wilson and yet he was elected president and just so will John W. Davis be the next president of the United States. Those who take stock in the straw vote should take some stock in Mark Sullivan's diagnosis of this campaign as he has analyzed previous campaigns and hit the truth pretty definitely. He states in a careful analysis that LaFollette cannot possibly get more than 40 or 50 electoral votes and states that Calvin Coolidge cannot get a majority. If the Burley editor wished to quote something authentic, why did he not quote these figures? He is like the majority of the republicans; he quotes only what pleases his own idea and hope. Any one who sits down and analyzes the situation realizes that LaFollette has a ghost of a show either in the electoral college or when it comes to a popular vote.

In the first place Davis already has more electoral votes in the solid south than LaFollette can possibly obtain in the electoral college and for an editor to publish such political bombast shows clearly that he is not fair in his analysis or else he is trying to fool the people. The race for president is between Coolidge and Davis and if we were betting we would wager this newspaper against the Bulletin, which would be tremendous odds, but we would do this to show the inconsistency of said editorial.

IDAHO SENATOR STANDS BEHIND U. S. PRESIDENT

Borah Considers Coolidge Has Courage to Battle Against Corruption and Special Privilege in Official Life.

H. A. LAWSON, Editor Capital News, Boise, Idaho, Oct. 14.—United States Senator William Borah's address given this week at Idaho Falls...

In this address Senator Borah took no room for doubt that he stands unequivocally for the re-election of President Coolidge...

Senator Borah's address is to be placed in every book and corner of the state that his arguments may be reviewed. He said in part: "This is an exceptional campaign..."

some of obligation, for their expression of commendation and confidence. The progressive party in this state is made up very largely of farmers and workmen from whom for 20 years I have had the most constant and selfless support...

I presume I owe something more than this in the way of a personal statement, especially to Republicans. I am not ungrateful of the feeling upon the part of many of my political associates that I am indifferent to party lines...

It would be sheer deception to lead you to expect anything different from the future that there are times when I vote and express views out of harmony with your opinions or unpopular party policies.

GOLDEN BEAR ISN'T EXACTLY CONFIDENT THESE DAYS

BERRISLEY, Calif., Oct. 16.—The Golden Bear is going to find foraging tougher this year. Unbeaten for four years, even the most optimistic admit that only a midwinter scavenger rabbit's foot can save the Bruins from one or more defeats this season.

The "wonder team" which the skillful hands of Andy Smith have whitened from the wealth of material at the University of California, are at a temporary end. For Andy's canine habit of building strong reserves and leaving them at the disposition of crucial moments presupposes the wherewithal to build the reserves.

The first string line-up should be formidable enough, with a nucleus of three of last year's "wonder team" and a batch of 1923 reserves and freshmen.

Star Center Back "Duke" Horrell is greatest center on the coast, equally good at passing in offensive and defensive play.

Donna Carey, 116-pounds guard last year has been shifted into tackle position in order to spot—rather than back up—Kerrigan.

"Snookie" Moll, is playing nose the best—his main span is 1,615 feet long—its towers are 455 feet high.

For the remaining backfield position, Franking Captain Horrell, in the guard position, will be first, a 23 reserve, and Lewis, of the freshmen, according to early season indications.

This team, equalling last year's in weight and speed, looks good. But then comes the question of reserve strength.

COURT MEETS HARD ISSUE ON FILINGS

Easily Decides That Law Prohibiting Appearance of Names on Two Ballots, but Cogitates Long Over How to Make Selection of Place by Nominée Hold Water, Judge Babcock Returns.

While the supreme court in proceeding on the constitutionality of the law forbidding the printing names of candidates on two ballots, the court arrived at the conclusion that the law would stand, a more difficult question arose with reference to the matter of how the candidate might go about selecting the ticket on which he or she desired to run. It was apparent that the law did not stipulate it was pointed out that a candidate might decline, of course, but that might not only imply that he did not want the office at all, but also to some extent might be construed as a direct reflection on the party whose nomination he declined. On the other hand, the law did not state that he could designate on which ticket he would run, and the court was divided as to whether any such designation would avail. At last the court came to the conclusion that the candidate might decline, and that this information might be transmitted to the county auditors acting as an advisory up to them. The auditors would, perhaps, have the right to disregard the advisory statement, though he, it is thought, would hardly do so. Unless designation should be made, the auditors have the right to select whichever ticket they chose on which to put the name. Hence, a candidate who did not desire to discriminate between the parties, might let the several auditors use their own discretion. Senator W. E. Boring, however, has specifically designated the republican party and it is assumed that the auditors will follow his suggestion and comply with his request, that his name appear on that ballot.

All the business occurred in the decision, which was written by Chief Justice C. P. McCarthy. In concurring Justice Dunn indicated that he favored making it clear that it would be the duty of the auditor to comply with the request of his candidate.

Judge W. A. Babcock, who sat in the court as substitute for Justice Alfred Budge, returned last night from Boise.
