MORTIMER'S WIFE DRAWN INTO TANGLE

Star Witness Declares He Would Not Have Revealed Crookedness If Colonel Forbes Had Not Broken Up His Family.

FEDERAL COURT ROOM, CHICAGO, Dec. 11.—Col. Charles R. Forbes hadn't broken up my family, the star witness of the criminal trials here told yesterday. H. Mortimer, the government's star witness, declared from the stand today in the Forbes-Thompson graft trial.

Mortimer, whose tales of graft and bribery in high office were responsible for the present trial, admitted he was "equally" guilty with Colonel Forbes, and would have kept quiet but for "Forbes' bad influence" on Mrs. Mortimer. Mrs. Mortimer, a prominent witness charges Colonel Forbes alienated the affection of his wife.

"I'll do anything to protect a friend, but when he tampers with my family and ruins my home life, I'll go to you and tell the truth," Mortimer shouted.

It was during cross-examination of the witness by Randolph Launihlin, attorney for J. W. Thompson, Forbes' co-defendant, that this testimony was given.

Launihlin asked Mortimer if it was not true that his testimony was prompted by his personal feelings against Colonel Forbes.

"I know it is, but that you once said 'I'd risk the chance of going to jail for ten years if I could take Forbes with me,'" Launihlin asked.

"No, it isn't true," Mortimer replied.

"It is true that if Colonel Forbes hadn't broken up my family, the story of his crooked deals never would have been told."

CLEAN PRESS IS REQUEST VOICED BY BUSINESS MEN

Woodlawn, Ill., Association Launches Vigorous Protest Against Publication of Crime News.

CHICAGO, Dec. 11.—Publication of sensational crime news in the press has suddenly evoked a protest from a group of Chicago's chief journalists.

John Woodlawn, one of Chicago's most influential residential residents, this stand has been taken through Woodlawn Business Men's Association, an organization of leading business men, and said to be the most influential, and said to be the largest, of Chicago's existing business groups. It purports to broadcast demand for more wholesome news stories in the public press.

The following resolution, adopted in full, is to be sent to every civic betterment organization, business association and church in Chicago, it is announced:

"Whereas, certain newspapers are exploited, untrue, and criminal, to damage our country and discourage the average citizen; and,

"Whereas, said newspapers have the habit of publishing the names and addresses of unfortunate women and girls, the names and home addresses of criminals. Therefore, be it—

"Resolved, That the Woodlawn

Business Men's Association in regular meetings Nov. 25, 1924, urge a cleanup of the daily press that will assure that the names and addresses of the infortunate women and girls be eliminated from reports in the newspapers. Further be it—

"Resolved, That the Woodlawn

Business Men's Association in regular meetings, to be held in the parson of its president, shall be appointed a committee to co-operate with such newspapermen as cooperate in show business to draw a disposition to cleanse their pages."

Hilt was all a shroud and mit mutual questions at writing and he replied in writing.

On Sunday he invited me to lunch with him, his two youngest sons and

A short business session was held during which plans were made to have a tea party for the annual dinner for the husbands of the members, which will be held the second week in January in the Hundred Women's club room. The program was planned by Mrs. Edna Pardee, and consisted of several Christmas readings.

'WATCHMEN OF THE REPUBLIC' IS NEW ORDER

New Organization Founded by Ex-Governor Agnew of Kentucky to Promote Harmony in United States.

Plans for a national organization of the "Watchmen of the Republic" to promote understanding and racial equality among all Americans in order to eradicate race, class and religious hatred and prejudices were made known Saturday by Dr. J. M. McElveen, president of the watchmen of the United States and author of the plan.

Edwin G. Morrow, former Governor of Kentucky, was announced as general captain of the board of directors.

The organization, incorporated under the laws of the State of Illinois, has its headquarters in Chicago, plans subordinate bodies called "Watch Towns," in every city and town in Indiana, Illinois, Michigan and Ohio, with extending branches.

Edwin P. Morrow of the Illinois branch has announced that the "Watchmen of the Republic" hoped to "remove the group animosities now existing in this country, but was "not anti-Klan."

"We want to pull oil on the trouble waters," said Mr. Morrow, who is chairman of the executive committee of the Watchmen. "We are in no sense organized to oppose the Ku Klux Klan or any other group, but rather to promote the principles of justice and the faith of tolerance instead of hatred, friendliness instead of trouble, and the protection of the constitution in the protection of the rights of every citizen."—The Commonwealth.

This picture shows, as well as today's crossword puzzle, Rev. and Mrs. George F. McElveen, Pittsburgh (Pa.) minister and wife. The pastor used this puzzle in his Sunday sermon. Every word in the pastor's text, except one, is to be found in the puzzle. At the congregation guessed the words, his wife, while in the pulpit, on a folding five foot stool. The definition of minaret, she said, is just as plain as she had in her construction. Although Rev. McElveen thought ministerial license with his crossword construction this is an unusual one, you adults.

SOPHOMORES AND JUNIORS WIN IN OPENING GAMES

The junior and sophomore basketball teams won their respective opening games of the interclass series at the high school gymnasium yesterday. The second year men conquered the seniors 19 to 6, while the sophomores were beaten by juniors 16 to 10. The junior-sophomore clash was a remarkably fast game and kept the spectators on edge every moment.

The sophomore team, Ross, Gandy and Kelly started at three points fast and securely. The senior team was unable to score except very infrequently or to break up the "sophies" offense.

Freshman Fight Hard.

The freshmen had no match at all for the juniors in the first half but the experienced coach harangued them and the juniors had to use all their experience and strategy to outwit them.

Oliver and Matthes were the stars of the freshman with Navin, Kriek and Robertson the leading佐士 for the seniors.

The scores of the two games follow.

It is indeed encouraging to know that the work train on the Rogerson-Wells railroad has started laying rails from Rogerson to Contact. This new road has been the dream of the early settlers here and should mean much for Southern Idaho.

The delinquency problem would be much less if mothers and fathers refused to allow their girls to work in certain Greek candy stores in Idaho and throughout the west. The conditions surrounding such a place of work are always likely to contribute to delinquency and utmost care should be exercised by parents in seeing that their girls have a suitable place of employment. This may be a hard problem to solve but nevertheless it is an important part of the juvenile question throughout the nation.

"Formation is cheaper than reformation" is a remarkable axiom but verily true. This statement was made yesterday before the Twin Falls Rotary club by a representative of the Playgrounds and Recreation association. Another of his trite statements was: "The playground is the cradle of democracy." It is on the playground that the child and youth have their first vital connection with one another, and many racial and religious prejudices are broken down if this play is properly directed.

There is rumor that a new bank is to be opened in Twin Falls but we are not placing much confidence in this report, because we are inclined to believe that the present banks can handle the business pretty well and we would much rather see a big packing house or a large factory of some sort. A bank does not really make money for a community. It cares for this medium of exchange and loans money if you offer gilt-edge security and sign away your birthright. The banking business is much different from what it was a decade ago and it will be a long time before money will flow as freely from these institutions as it once did, and we are of the opinion that our banking business is on a sounder basis than it has been for many years, but the bank is not the asset to the community that a big factory would be.

THE GOOD WITHIN OUR HEART

So many just feel thankful
For the worldly things they own,
And others feel like giving thanks
For honor they are shown;
There is something more enduring,
Would we choose the better part;
It is that thankful feeling
For the good within our heart.

The merchant may be giving thanks
For profits he has made,
The farmer for his well filled barns,
The tradesman for his trade;
Next year their business may be gone,
Or it may fail in part,
But we can still be thankful,
If there's good within our heart.

The people that are honored now
Because of some success,
Have good cause to be thankful,
And should be, I confess;
But honors are like riches,
They both so soon depart,
And leave us really nothing
But the good that's in our heart.

The man who measures his success
By the money he can save,
Has missed the higher things of life,
And makes himself a slave.
His savings only mean to him,
A better worldly start.
How then, can he be thankful,
With so little in his heart?

If we can have the memory
Of kindly deeds we've done,
Of struggles we have had with self,
Of victories we have won;
Of the sacrifices we have made,
Of the sunshine we import,
We every day can celebrate
Thanksgiving in our heart.

AT THE THEATRES

BEBE AND RICARDO CORTEZ
DANCE TANGO IN ALLAN
DWAN'S "ARGENTINE LOVE"

Bebe Daniels and Ricardo Cortez, featured in the principal roles of the Allan Dwan production of "Argentine Love," are to appear Saturday evening at one of the finest exhibitions of the Argentine tango as it is really danced by the Argentine's best shown on the screen.

The picture, adapted from the original story of the same name by Max Uhley, Spanish-American writer of "black romance," was, as the title indicates, one of South American tango in the role of 5 individual scenes. Story, art direction and two musical numbers were directed by James Reimel, and the editor June Martin, a local Indian power in the little old-world town of Abraira.

The scene of the picture, set against a background of high spirits, romance and dancing, is presumed to have been with Martin in the public square.

The dance is one of the many 16 spots in editorial power.

"Argentine Love" comes to the Idaho theatre today for a one of three days, is a big special production by the man who made "Robin Hood" and the man of the "Paramount" films, and is presented with music by a company of young Spanish girls who do not yet know that she might marry the man of her own choice.

There is a cast of well known players in support.

HOLD ON TIGHT, HERE COMES THE CYCLONE RIDER!

All the world is racing hither and thither to see it better than James J. Carter, author of "The Cyclone Rider," a special production lifted at the Orpheum today as a "thriller drama." Lincoln J. Carter has been writing plays for a great many years, in many cases making up a household word when the moving picture industry was in its infancy.

ROBE DANIELS AT IDAHO
Robe Daniels and Ricardo Cortez are featured in the principal roles of the Paramount picture, "Argentine Love," which opened at the Idaho theatre this afternoon. It is an Allan Dwan production, written especially for the screen by Vicente J. Blasco Ibáñez.

Mrs. Dwan has the role of a beautiful Spanish Teniente who thinks all the old traditions of her race to be a young American white beret Spanish lover. Gilda especially in her.

of these local crime stories."

Concerning Justice, the acting

John D. B. Dill, president of the Wood-law Business Men's Association, said to a representative of The Christian

Science Monitor:

"This is only a beginning and it is too early to forecast what it may lead to. We are continuing to do our best to do the resolution of all other organizations interested in preventing a better moral atmosphere in the hope of waking them up to what ought to be done in this situation. This association with a number of other groups, we are bringing the representatives of the newspapers together to talk things over."

"The papers have no sense of responsibility whatever. It looks like it is more honor to be a bandit than a decent man."

"The kind of stuff that is written in the newspapers every day, we think demoralizing. We feel it is particularly bad for the children at large. And for the children it is the possibility of much harm."

Mr. Doubtby added that all of the members of the Woodlaw Business Men's Association felt the way about the newspaper's methods of news reporting, and that, informed clean newspapers such as The Christian Science Monitor and the Chicago Journal of Commerce, a local newspaper devoting itself to the public welfare.

Newspapers are overprinting crime news for the benefit of a minority of their readers, according to the conclusion the association reached.

George E. Dill, executive secretary of the association, said:

"The question was brought to a head by the arrest display given the funeral of Dean O'Banion, with the report of his $10,000 coffin, thousands of dollars in jewels he had, and so forth. Whether newspapers published such news because the people wanted it or because they did not want it, or so much, it had to have it because it caused passes out to them by the newspapers. We came to the conclusion that the newspapers much overdid it."

"The point was then made that passing resolutions against such newspapers was like going up against a stone wall, and that by co-operating with each other, the association should not exploit them, might do both harm and accomplish more."

"Crime news is all right. Bringing a criminal to justice is good news. But most of the minor news is not extreme and it is necessary that people in this neighborhood are becoming much armed. A certain percentage of the population are more likely to look for the kind of excitement that is typical of those that they are in the minority, and that the newspapers do not need to play up so much to the minority."

"In this locality the people are not of a morose turn of mind. People in another neighborhood may be. We feel, however, that the majority of the people in Chicago are not interested in the current exploitation of crime news."

The resolution culminated in the closing of the post office on Sunday over the nation started with the Woodlaw Business Men's Association, Mr. Fleming said. He added that it has prompted in Woodlaw what he believes to be the largest private fuel lighting in the country.

Rule of Assassination Is Checked in Egypt

NEW YORK. Dec. 11.—The quickness and decisiveness with which Great Britain met the threat of "moslems" to impose a caliphate upon the Moslem world, has been a decided factor in the future relations between the Christian and Mohammedan religions.

The pan-Islamic leaders in north Africa, Turkey, Arabia and India have been attempting to cause a united Moslem front against the West, and especially England, since the movement in Egypt has been increasingly necessary of late, unless Moslem civilization, were prepared to retire before Mohammedan aggression.

In no quarter of the world where the Moslems are in power is there world predominance. On the contrary whether left to themselves or not, Islam leaders have shown little capacity for beneficial rule or for maintaining a Moslem state.

Egypt, however, rejected the leadership of the Moslem world, and was destined in pass to Cairo and the ancient glories of the pharaohs to be ruled by divine fiat, leaving the Moslem world to the responsibility developed by a group of fanatical extremists who wanted to see the frontiers of Islam extended. Our own assassination developed thus producing the Egyptian crisis.

The natives are nearly 100 per cent Moslem. They live in desolate villages, trust to Kismet to do things for them instead of doing things for themselves. They are in this position, of having no real independence from Turkey granted to them by Christian powers, and not having won it by their own exertions. This makes them particularly liable to reaction, for people do not thereby avoid the self-delusion and sense of responsibility which struggle.

Ever since receiving their Hukum, the Egyptians have developed a sense of impulsive self-satisfaction. They have demanded complete power, the kind of which is not Egyptian at all, which owes none of its prosperity to Egyptian initiative. Their characteristic of sudden grandiose overstatement which came near to being the undoing of a number of small European nations that became independent after the world war and at once began to develop plans for imperialist rule or control.

The Moslems steadily grind of developing education and technical productive skill in a nation call for a kind of material which does not exist in the Moslem world, and which postwar leadership, in inner circles, especially, great dreams of what Kismet had in store for the Moslem world. The demand for revision of the Turkish treaty of peace to the advantage of the Turks, because they are in a minority, and that they are in the minority, and that the newspapers do not need to play up so much to the minority.

"In this locality the people are not of a morose turn of mind. People in another neighborhood may be. We feel, however, that the majority of the people in Chicago are not interested in the current exploitation of crime news."

HALL FILES AN ANSWER TO CASE OF FRANK CAUDLE

President G. M. Hall of the Salmon River company offers seriously from Frank Caudle on the question whether he owes the $1,000 and $200 in legal expenses and in attorney fees judicating from the answer filed in his behalf this afternoon by his attorney, Judge James L. Buttell, of the First District Court and Chamber. In doing so, that Caudle paid 100% attorney fees, states that he signed the complaint charging him with appropriating millions of his stock without the presentation of the facts to the prosecuting attorney and on the advice of his lawyer; and deems that the public opinion was well and favorably known and that he suffered in reputation by reason of such publication.

The Salmon Company, the sole party which filed an answer was filed some time ago. Mr. Caudle, yesterday, by his attorney, H. C. Mills, brought suit for $100 and $200 against the Salmon River company, the directors thereof and the People's Trust and Savings company, trustees, for damages which he claims were suffered by reason of failure to deliver the full pro rata share of available water for the tract.

A similar suit at 3762 was filed by Charles E. Salter. Some time ago the supreme court held that the district water should be distributed according to shares of stock held and that the amount accrued thereon would appear to be against the contention of the plaintiffs in the case filed yesterday, but it is noted that the suit is now before the court on the law which they hope to present to the court and on which they hope to get judgment.

FARM FACTS

The best time to fix the farm machinery is before it needs repair.

During summer the gardener needs to cultivate his pop along with his pepper.

The average sheep is ready for market between ten and twelve weeks at which time individuals of the Pekin flocks should weigh between five and six pounds.

There is absolutely no danger approaching here now as long as they are pregnant. Stormy broad soaks with crude oil after they have been put in a thoroughly clean surpassing pen. This prevents the pigs from getting lice from their mother.

The time to set trees and shrubs is in early spring, as early as the ground is fit to work. They may be set up to the first of June if kept dormant. It is just as well to remember that the later the planting the less likely the success, within certain limits.

Boys and girls have often got started with good stocks of sheep by raising such orphan lambs on cow's milk. As ewe's milk is richer than even Jersey milk, there is no need to dilute cow's milk for feeding, though a little lime water is sometimes added to prevent indigestion.

The old wood may be cut from the raspberries and blackberries, and new ones are making a very strong growth. They will be ready to eat in three feet. In the case of red raspberries, it is unnecessary to cut them back, and experience has proved that it is a better practice to keep back only black caps and blackberries.

NEW TRIAL IS DENIED TO ATKINS

Court Declines to Again Submit to Jury the Question of Guilt of Man Convicted of Manslaughter for Killing Basque Herder at Salmon Dam; Appeal May Be Taken; Other Court News.

Motion for a new trial in the case of a man accused of killing his wife and child by drowning her in the killing of his fellow sheepherder, Frank Blasuerter, near the Salmon dam last June, was denied by Judge W. A. Babcock this morning. Appeal will be taken. The prosecution Attorney, J. W. Taylor, represented by Attorney P. M. Wolfe, had charge of the prosecution. Atkins was sentenced to a term of from one to 10 years. Judge Babcock also ruled today in a motion filed by the defense that the Idaho Republic that a mortician will take precedence over a personal property tax where such taxes are not collected when due as provided by the statute.

The case of the state against Bert Cox and Uda Cox, taken into custody some time ago on a charge of complicity with H. Blasuerter for alleged killing of his wife, was dismissed. Blasuerter was dismissed because of lack of evidence, and the same reason held good in the other case, where the prosecutor declared he had no testimony which would warrant conviction. Preliminary in Idaho.

Prosecutor Taylor went to Boise today to conduct the case for the state against C. E. Daylene, charged with assault of a deadly weapon on the person of O. D. Williams, who claims he acted in self defense. The hearing is before Judge Chester C. A. Divelbas. Captain J. W. Parter of the First Corp. & Witman is in charge of the Parter & Williams.

Fine Is Imposed. Probate Judge O. P. Duvall today imposed a fine of $50 and costs on Peter Georgopoulos whom he found guilty by overhanging of charges of being a habitual offender of a minor. The girl in the case and the defendant both testified that there had been no illicit relations between them and there was no evidence that there had been. He received a fine of $50 and the defendant showed a degree of impropriety which was dangerous in the circumstances of the case, and placed the action within the statute.
