'Loan' Made to Forbes When He Was Broke Is Described by Mortimer

SENSATIONAL STORY TOLD

Pair Never Expected to See Money Again Says Star Witness.

FEDERAL COURT ROOM, CHICAGO, Dec. 12.—John W. Thompson, millionaire St. Louis contractor and his partner, the late James W. Black, "loaned" to George Charles "Bugs" Moran $6,000 when he was so poor they "didn't know where to see the money again," Ellis H. Mortimer testified today in the Parker-Thompson fraud trial here.

Mortimer, the government's chief witness, said he offered to pay back the $6,000 loaned to him by the government through the building of veterans' hospitals, gave this testimony on cross-examination by Randolph Laughlin, attorney for Thompson.

Laughlin tried to get the witness to admit money paid to Parker was accounted as "loan," but Mortimer, who admits he was a party to the alleged conspiracy, held firmly to his story that Thompson and Black borrowed the $6,000 from him in order to get hospital contracts.

RULES FOR MAIL FOR CHRISTMAS ARE GIVEN OUT

Christmas Mail
WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—If you want your Christmas mail to reach its destination in time, the Postoffice department suggests:

"Send letters and packages 'air mail' within one day's travel not later than Dec. 20."

Addressed to points within two days travel not later than Dec. 20. "Mail in 2½ days" travel not later than Dec. 20.

For inter-district points not later than Dec. 14.

For local delivery not later than Dec. 22.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—"Pack well and mail early" is the advice of the post office department to all who want their Christmas presents and greetings delivered in time and in good order.

Year by year the Christmas mail rush reaches its peak so late that in spite of every effort to expedite the work it can not all be delivered by Christmas day. The post office department here has made public instructions which if followed by the majority of those who use the mails, would put the Christmas mail dieseling up in an efficient place.

The first and last of the department's instructions is to mail early.

Put "don't open until Christmas" signs on packages if it is the desire to have them early. Address them to those who want their Christmas mail delivered before Christmas are.

1. Wrap parcels securely with heavy paper and strong twine. Christmas parcels are very liable to damage and should be prepared to undergo the ordeal.

2. Fragile articles should be marked "FRAGILE" and surrounded with heavy cardboards.

3. Mark address and return address plainly. Enclose the postage is fully prepaid.

4. No parcel may be more than 84 inches in length and girth combined. Each parcel must not weigh more than 70 pounds; the maximum weight beyond that 50 pounds.

5. All Christmas cards and parcels should be mailed from 4 days to two weeks earlier than mid-December, depending upon the distance to the destination.

6. Christmas stickers of any description must not be placed on the address. Address labels shall suffice.

7. When names of any article must not be written on the address, if you want to have a note to accompany a parcel, put it in a stamped envelope attached to the package.

8. Special delivery postage will hasten delivery, but it does not mean the package is delivered earlier.

Execute Ohio Lad for Murder of His Sweetheart of 13

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Dec. 12.—"I want to die because I will see my sweetheart."

With these last words, Alexander Kuczik, nearly twenty, was led into the electric chair today for the murder of his 13-year-old cousin, sweetheart, Elizabeth Nagy.

In executing Kuczik, the state did for him what in the beginning he had sought to do for himself.

Kuczik, first with a faltering rate, lattered Elizabeth to death because she had rejected his attentions and then attempted suicide, hoping that in death they would be united as lovers.

Samuel Gompers' Condition Described As Much Better Today.

LAHOGO, Tex., Dec. 12.—Samuel Gompers' condition was "very much better" and there is "absolutely no cause for alarm" according to a statement issued by his son, Dr. J. P. Cockrell, his attending physician, when the 75-year-old man reached Nuevo Laredo at 7:45 (Mexican time).

The veteran leader of the American Federation of Labor was staying at the special car in which he was rushed from Mexico City following a fatal heart attack, created over the border.

Enrollment and Control of All Visitors Arranged for Alarming Increase of Crooks Worries Gay Capital of France.

PARIS, Dec. 12.—Alarmed at the increase of criminals foreigners in the capital, Parisian war veterans, taking into account the enrollment and control of all visitors, regulations announced in the "Journal Officiel" are so exacting that tourists will be greatly annoyed, by comparison with the usual regulations, and ship keeping for the law will discourage travel and injure business.

The Ministry of the Interior has ruled that all visitors remaining more than fifteen days in France, unless they are staying in a hotel or residence, must take formal application within 48 hours of their arrival for an identity card. The application will consist of the usual certificate of identity, four full-face photographs and documentary proof of name, the names of father and mother, nationality, profession, and names of children under fifteen years old.

Two foreign policemen must appear if the foreigner is to remain in France more than two years. It is compulsory for landlords, boarders, houses and hotel keepers to report the arrival of foreigners. All identity cards more than three years old must be renewed, which means that remnants of old foreign residents must be out of the state at the time they are issued by the girl.

Paris, Dec. 12.—Samuel Gompers, ranchman, and one of the principal witnesses for the prosecution who was accused by the girl at yesterday's session of the court of helping the father of her baby, after the baby's birth, maintained he was out of the state at the time the girl.

LaFollette Group to Be Barred from Caucuses of Party

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 12.—Republican leaders in the house of representatives definitely decided today to bar LaFollette supporters from party caucuses and in addition to this, to enact a discriminatory measure for holding the party in the last election.

In the same fashion that Senator LaFollette, Louis Fricker and Frank Murphy were excluded from the party by republican senators, it was decided to omit house independents from future house republicans caucuses, the first of which is to be held Feb. 12. The author, Wisconsin representative Reuben Kellar, Minnesota, and Sinclair of North Dakota, were included in those omitted.

NOTE ON WAR CLAIMS SENT GREAT BRITAIN

America Refuses to Recognize British Objections to Payment of U. S. War Claims Out of Reparations Fund.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—The United States has dispatched a full delegation to Great Britain which will before long, endeavor to recognize British objections to payment of American war claims out of the German reparations fund.

As a result of the American stand and that of the other allies in favor of the payment of American war claims out of the German reparations fund, Great Britain has agreed to accept the American stand.

The United States will oppose such a request but France and other allies will insist that Great Britain is probably willing to accept it.

It will appear to mark this conference as a victory for Great Britain.

PARIS, Dec. 12.—The United States government will refuse to submit to arbitration life insurance rights which were given up by the United States in exchange for satisfaction of war reparation claims, as it indicated England will propose, the United Press was authoritatively informed today.

"The attitude of American members of the reparations commission and committees is such that a proposition would be arbitrating whether the United States fought in the war,"

Mrs. Ferguson's Husband Replies to Church Action

Senator, After Conference With President, Confirms Sugar Tariff Will Not Receive a Cut.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 12.—Senator Gooding, after a conference with President Coolidge Thursday on the sugar tariff, expressed the opinion that no cut will be forthcoming in the sugar tariff.

Thus James E. Ferguson, husband of Georgia's First Lady, Margaret Ferguson, told reporters here that he expected no cut in the sugar tariff.

Gooding said that in his opinion the Coolidge administration had no reason to fear that the sugar situation.

Gooding pointed out that except for the present year, when the capital of the United States sugar duty on the beet sugar industry of the west, whenever the American beet crop came on the market, and was immediately beaten when the beet sugar was sold. He also stressed the point that the beet sugar would be raised, as the reduction would be absorbed, as it had been before by the refiners or by producers of sugar in Cuba. It was indicated that there would be no benefit for the refraction for the reduction of the sugar situation.

Ferguson is here for pre-nuptial conference called by her to discuss trade and taxation.

Asked when the president will act on the tariff commission report on sugar, Senator Gooding said that the matter had not been considered at the conference but he looks for early action.

Markets of New York Closed to Western Poultry

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—Kid McCoy, pugilist and lady's man who may have been responsible for slaying of Mrs. Morris, his sweetheart, saved a jail mate's life today.

The Kid was awakened in the jail just before dawn by the death struggle of George Waterman, prisoner in cell next to his. Waterman had slipped his hands through the bars and a pair of suspenders fastened to the ceiling and jumped off a chair.

Jumping into the men's cell, the Kid declared the unconscious fellow was his friend and rushed him to the prison hospital.

Police Hold Theory That Robbers Took Prospector's Life

PUEBLO, Colo., Dec. 12.—Police leaders here believe that the theory that Mr. A. L. Kirby, 70-year-old prospector and prospector found dead in his isolated cabin near here yesterday, was killed by robbers who believed he had gold hidden in his cabin.

Kirby was found dead by his neighbor woman with his head split open by an axe and his back full of ducktail fire at close range. Evidence showed he had been dead more than 24 hours.

Authorities today were admittedly baffled in their efforts to find a successful clue in the crime.

Formation of New Cabinet Troubles Chancellor Marx

BERLIN, Dec. 12.—Throughout the day Chancellor Marx received party leaders, hoping to obtain some confirmation to how a new German cabinet would be formed. THE RAISING OF LAZARUS

LESSON TITLE: John 11:1-45.
"I am the resurrection and the life."

PRIMARY TOPIC: Jesus Confirms a Miraculous Power.

JUNIOR TOPIC: Lazarus Raised From the Dead.

TEACHING: AND REINFORCING TOPIC: Lazarus' Power Over Death.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC: "Work Among the Miners." Mr. C. J. Finch speaks with the miners.

1. The Revelation of Christ's Love (vv. 1-30).

The Bethany family held a meeting place for the affections of Jesus. When the doors of other homes were closed against Him, the door of this home stood wide open to receive His

Lazarus Sick (vv. 3, 21). Even those who are in close fellowship with the Lord are not immune from sickness.

2. Martha and Mary Send for Jesus (vv. 37-40).

Because they had come to know Jesus more fully, they sent for Him when Lazarus died. They knew that

He could raise Lazarus from the dead.

3. Jesus Raises Lazarus (vv. 41-46).

A Jesus Strange Death (v. 41).

Martha and Mary sent for Jesus because He loved Lazarus. When they were told that Lazarus was dead, they were grieved.

4. Jesus Meets Martha and Mary (vv. 38-47).

Martha and Mary knew the grief to which He would be exposed and therefore did not request that He come, but merely gave Him notice. They were willing that His coming should be left to His own discretion.

5. Martha Met Jesus (v. 27-27).

As He was nearing the village, Martha who with her sister had passed through the awful ordeal of the sickness and death of a dear brother met Him at the gate and said, "Behold, because of His love I implored her to complain and taught her concerning the resurrection and life. Martha, like many today, had a strong belief that God would raise Lazarus some time in the future. This is the reason for the compelling declaration, "I am the resurrection and the life."

The great truth to be apprehended is that here and now we are united to the living Christ, the source of life, and that this is the place of bodily resurrection and eternal reunion.

(2) Mary Met Jesus (vv. 28-35).

Mary came with the same words, but with a different voice. She was filled with love and desire for her Son. She had been sitting at His feet in the days of sunshine. Therefore she knew where to go when sunshines cast their shadows across her path. Her words were unanswered by His tears. "Jesus wept."

6. The Resurrection of Lazarus (vv. 38-46).

The great sympathy now expresses itself in supernatural power. "Sympathy would be useless without its connection with divine power." In this statement we find we are in the atmosphere of the quickening into life of that dead in trespasses and sin.

Observe:

1. He Was Dead. This is a type of the sin, death, and trespasses and sins of every man.

2. She Said That He Had Lived Again. This is the part the human must play.

3. In Embryo. Martha Protests Against the Name Being Reborn. She insists that Lazarus had already undergone putrefaction.

4. Christ's Intimacy and Fellowship With the Father as Revealed in His Prayer.

5. His Manner of Dealing With Lazarus. It was by a call. He is calling men and women today by His Spirit. His Word and His presence.

6. The Effect of Lazarus' Resurrection. With the call goes the power to hear and obey, even though he be dead in trespasses and sin and therefore helpless.

7. The Effect of This Miracle (vv. 45-47).

The mighty work caused division of sentiment. Some believed in Jesus and some went to the Pharisees with the news.

The new plan of pumping gasoline into airships at sea which the navy is to try is the more important because the use of helium in place of oxygen reduces the supply of fuel that can be carried. ZR-3 carried 30 tons and arrived with over six tons, but with helium she could have carried 22 tons and would have run short by a ton or two in crossing the Atlantic. If the proposed method works this deficiency will matter much less.

Stainless steel, which is to be used instead of duralumin for the monster airship to be built by the British government, would seem to be ideal for that purpose except for the expense. The ship will be 720 feet long and 140 feet high, and the amount of steel needed for so many girders will represent a considerable expense, but their strength and durability will be all that could be asked.

Neither President Harding nor his wife lived through the term for which he was elected. They were a happy pair in their domestic relations, and the ascent to glory and power from the small town beginnings must have seemed to them like a romance. They had certain qualities in common, especially the ready adaptation of socially-gifted people and an unusual capacity for friendship. The Hardings, too, always kept their friendships in repair. She suffered the harder fate in the end, being forced to survive her adored husband and witness the stormy exposures of the scandals connected with his administration. But she accepted the situation that compelled her sudden retirement as mistress of the White House on account of Mr. Harding's death, with fortitude and serenity, revealing admirable poise and courage. If the grapes turned into thistles in her hands, she still kept a smiling face for the world.

A man who would steal from the wounded Veterans' Hospital fund would stoop to almost any level, and yet this is what the testimony showed in the trial of Colonel Charles R. Forbes on a conspiracy charge before the Federal court in Chicago. If such skulduggery continues our boasted democracy will soon cease to be a government of the people and by the people, but will degenerate into a government by the crooks and for the grafters. It is surely time for housecleaning in several departments of our government and if we are to hold our heads high among the nations of the world we must get rid of much of this trickery and chicanery which is being worked by men in office. If this veterans' scandal and this Teapot Dome stuff continues our downfall is imminent. We look to the men in high places to cleanse our government of such corruption and to show to the world that we are not a nation that is money mad, but rather we are following the ideals set forth by the founders of this great nation, viz.: "Equal rights to all and special privileges to none."

CAN YOU BLAME HIM?

A certain Westerner—name not given—was asked to contribute to the Technology Endowment Fund. He responded in two ways. First by sending a good-sized check and, second, by writing the following letter now reprinted in the Voo-Doo, the Institute's humorous magazine:

"For the following reasons I am unable to send you the check you request:

"I have been held up, held down, sandbagged, trampled on, sat on, flattened out and squeezed. First by the United States government's income tax, federal war tax, excess profits tax, Liberty loans, thrift stamps, capital stock tax, and every other tax the mind of man could invent to extract money.

"Next by the Society of John the Baptist, the G. A. R., and W. R. C., the Red Cross, the Black Cross, the Purple Cross and the Double Cross, the Doreas Society, the Y. M. C. A., the Y. W. C. A., the Boy Scouts, the Jewish Relief, and every hospital in town. Then on top of all these came the Associated Charities.

"The government has so run my business that I don't know who owns it. I am inspected, suspected, examined, re-examined, informed, required, and commanded, so that I don't know who I am, what I am, or why I am here. All I know is that I am supposed to be an inexhaustible supply of money for every known desire or hope of the human race, and because I will not sell all I have got and go out and beg, borrow or steal more to give away, I have been cussed, discussed, boycotted, talked to, talked about, lied about, held up, hung up, robbed and ruined, and the only reason I am clinging to life is to see who or what in h—— is coming next!"—Ex.

SEA HAWK

by RAFAEL SABATINI

CHAPTER XXVII (continued)
He was answered by an old rover whom fear had rendered greatly daring.

"We are trapped here in Dragut was trapped at Jerba."

"Thou hast," he answered, "Dragut was not trapped, for Dragut found a way out. And against Dragut there was the whole navy of Greece, whilst against us there is but one single gallion. By the Korma! that shows fight, have we not been with the navy? And we have won—twice! But we have lost whoresomeness, have we not? But if ye prefer a couplet, I cannot say, 'We are trapped at Jerba'—"

"It is amazing, thou art bold, with a host like ours."

"Not with a host like ours, thy commandant seems to me that that means that I tell you that we do close and shut our eyes, and that you shall never be attacked at all. That she has no notion of our presence is proven since she has cast anchor round the headland. And when we are attacked, I tell you that she doth not wait, and in our flight are we fortunate as not to be attacked at close quarters, and I tell you that we do close and shut our eyes, and that you shall never be attacked at all."

UNION PACIFIC TO ADVERTISE IDAHO COUNTRY

More Money Will Be Spent This Year Than Last, Says Official; Twin Falls Will Derive Great Benefit from Line South; Station Sites Are Being Selected for Standard Road.

"We have the utmost confidence in Idaho, in the Twin Falls traffic," said John L. Ames, assistant traffic manager of the Union Pacific system, who is here from Salt Lake City, when interviewed yesterday. "We spent more money advertising this state next year than we did this year when we expended thousands of dollars. Our folders are nothing everywhere."

"We feel assured that when the road to Twin Falls is completed it will be at the earliest possible moment and we mean a direct road to Twin Falls and the country around it. We are laying out grounds for stations along this line. If the railroad company can't do it, we will. It will be a standard main line road. In fact, the Union Pacific has already laid out roads to stand now even on branches. It is cheaper to do that. Rebuilding a road is costly business."

"I was much impressed by the development of this tract in driving around this morning. It is the end of Illinois. We have had good crops this year on this tract and they're bright."

Mr. Ames was accompanied by his wife, son and secretary, and by E. C. Larkin, traveling freight agent, of Boise.

CHRISTMAS CARDS FROM GEORGE, MARY, AND ED

LODGE, Dec. 12.—If you happen to be on the mailing list of King George of England you will receive this year a Christmas card, which may remind you of the kindred links between England and America.

The King's card depicts Charles I granting to the Pilgrim Fathers the charter for the founding of the Puritan Settlement of New England.

On the back of the card is a picture of King George's two safety to your pouches.

The card of Queen Mary bears a picture of a pyramid, past which Mary, Queen of Scots, and the Christ Child are made to pass.

The top half of the card is taken from the Prince of Wales' device.

They used to say, "Give us the strength of the stars."

In the picture appear the words, "Each day a god wrought in golden setting of happy thoughts and fairest morn-gods."
