Arrests for Intoxication Approximate the Same As in 1923, According to Figures Gathred by the United Press.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—Prohibition has little headway in driving alcoholism as far as their blotter records go, and they considered this a good indication of the extent of public drinking.

Philadelphia's authorized police force led the country in arrests, but it was emphasized the sobriety of citizens can not be judged from the number of arrests made, owing to the difference in police methods in the various municipalities.

In the Quaker city, 49,691 intoxicated persons were taken in custody during the year, while the five boroughs of New York with a far greater population showed only 30,782. Even Boston, with 25,828 drunks and 100,000 with 12,300 more ahead of the metropolis.

The same condition prevailed in the middle west where Cleveland with a much smaller population than Chicago, with 20,828 drunks and a greater number of arrests.

Arrests in 37 cities, by districts included:

Chicago	39,264	39,264
Columbus, Ohio	2,157	4,192
Charlotte, N. C.	1,718	1,543
Canton, Ohio	1,773	1,543

Says U. S. Owes Big Debt to Red Man and Negro

CHICAGO, Jan. 3.—Southern culture owes a great debt to the negro; the culture of the South is largely a result of the negro, according to Alexander Goldenweiser of the New School for Social Research. He spoke here today before the American Statistical association on the contribution of various races to American cultural development.

"Whatever the Southern may say about the negro," he declared, "he has passed practical judgment on him in his character, his habits, his education, his children. It is like the attitude of slavery, with the amiable, dignified master and the happy serf living in mutual love, provided one of the finest forms of living known to man."

Dr. Goldenweiser also paid a tribute to the American Indian: "Among the many 'foreigners' to whom Americans owe a debt of cultural contributions, a race standing high in the list is the American Negro—a race to whom Americans owe themselves 'foreigners.'"

It was a demonstration that only Lloyd could bring to pass and in this his latest success, he outdoes anything that he has done before.

the constitution and by-laws in connection with standardization will be held until next week, according to Dr. D. L. Alexander, the president. He says it will be impossible to get together for a meeting next Saturday. Chairman J. D. Darnhart of the county board said today that unless the staff should present the rules today, it would probably not be taken up for another week; an hour would be necessary to discuss the matter.

Congratulations on Wedding Are Given by Friends

Mr. and Mrs. Harriet Smith, formerly of this place, are receiving the congratulations of their friends upon their marriage at Twin Falls. Thanksgiving day was their wedding day and it was made public through the newspapers that the bride had obtained in Jerome county. The wedding ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Simpson of the Christian church of Twin Falls. The bride was formerly Miss Pearl Hogue, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hogue of Ellettsville, and a graduate of the Ellettsville high school. She also had a course at the Albion state normal and at the Grace lutheran college at Twin Falls and at present holds a position in the office of the Twin Falls Daily Times.

Mr. Smith is a well known building contractor and several years ago was associated with his brother-in-law, E. E. Thomas in that work.

Twin Falls will greet in proportion to your cooperation.

Junior Farmers Need Club Leaders

GROWTH OF BOYS AND GIRLS AGRICULTURAL CLUBS

That club leadership must be increased properly to train the boys and girls of the nation who decide to remain on farms and become the backbone of American agriculture is shown in a survey of the club work of the Junior Farmers just completed by Aloysius H. Burner, director of the boys' and girls' club work of the State School of Agriculture. According to the report of the Foundation, based on a count by the Department of Agriculture, 722,085 projects were begun in 1923 by 426,071 boys and girls, a number which is less than 51 per cent of the farm youth of the nation that year. Of these projects 227,643 were completed by 243,416 club members. Girls completing their work outnumbered boys from 1920 to 1923, there being 100,116 girls and 102,222 boys. The report also indicates that 674 per cent of the enrolled girls finished their projects, while only 624 per cent of the boys completed theirs. The high point reached in 1915, as shown by the accompanying chart, was due to the expansion of club work in connection with the slogan of the day: "The girl will win the war." After the crisis was over there was retrenchment and club work suffered.

Many of the 8,000,000 boys and girls engaged in club work hope to leave the farm, said Darrow, "but 80 per cent of them will remain in the country, experience has shown. All who stay on the farm should have the benefit of the inspiration and training that can be afforded. If we are to provide this for the junior farmers of the nation, we must rapidly increase the number of club leaders."

Throgs Witness Engineering Triumph When Radio Message Encircles Globe In Five Seconds

ROCKY MOUNT, LONG ISLAND, N. Y.—The highly atmospheric radio telegraph station here reported tonight in an impulsive jargon at the Third Annual Radio Exposition and Technical Congress that a message which, reinforced at Paris, France; Saigon, French Indo China; and San Francisco, Cal., returned to its home station 74,000 miles from New York City in five seconds later.

This is the first time in history that engineers, using the high power radio stations scattered in strategic quarters of the globe, have completely encircled the earth with radio waves. Engineers of the Radio Corporation of America claim considerable practical information was gathered from careful observations of the behavior of the apparatus.

The diagram above shows the four points where the waves stopped to rebound their way back to earth on their split journey. The four operators who are responsible for the actual act of transmission and reception literally, joined hands around the world.

BARON GEDEON'S FLIGHT

This will be a sight worth seeing: Baron Aladar von Gedeon will move to western Canada from Hungary next spring. He will bring with him his 5,000 tenants who have been living on his European estates—1100 families in all.

We Americans have closed our gates, to considerable extent. But Canada, hungry for settlers, is like what we were years ago when hordes of Europeans moved into the Mississippi valley and other districts, eager to put the soil to work.

A greater inducement, we imagine, is the prospect of escaping from European war debts, which imposes a terrific tax burden on peasants in particular.

This newspaper occasionally has predicted big-scale migrations of debt-ridden Europeans to other countries. It stands to reason that, especially in the former Central Powers, the people will not placidly continue to reside indefinitely where the economic pinch is so tight.

As time goes on and Europeans waken to the truth of their predicament and begin to depart in multitudes, governments will take drastic measures to keep them at home.

BOOZE IN THE HIGH SCHOOL

Federal, state, city and county authorities all over the nation have been unable, notwithstanding all endeavors, to stamp out booze in their several fields of endeavor...

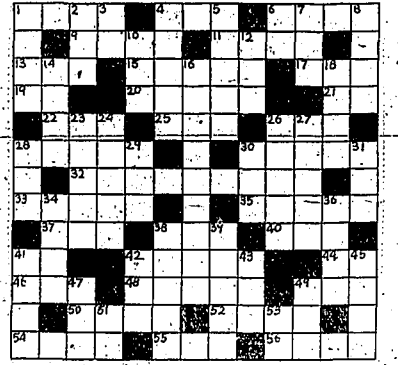

We don't like to publish things of this kind and would not were it not for the contagious angle of the situation. Two or three groups of boys drinking moonshine will quickly gather to themselves others and the first thing you know there will be a bad situation to cope with.

In Seattle the high schools are today in a similar condition—only worse. There the students of the high school are alleged to have quite recently staged a real "booze party" with students of both sexes present...

ANCIENT TREASURE SOUGHT
 Mill City, Ore.—The excavation of a large pile of rocks, which would appear to be an ancient tomb with buried treasure, and possibly contains the remains of some noble ruler, is attracting much interest on the hill north of the Santiam river, about ten miles east of Molalla. A large tract has been deeded for the purpose and the workers expect developments any day, having been rewarded with various signs of ancient life. No admittance is allowed to the site at present, for considerable dynamite is used in trying to reach the supposed burial place.

TRANSCRIPTS
THE LAWYERS

Twin Falls Bar Association Appoints Committee to Endeavor to Secure Change in Statute to Conform with Those of Other States; Adjourned Meeting Set for January 9.

Appointment of a committee of three consisting of Justice E. Walters, E. M. Sweetser and S. L. Hedin to endeavor to secure an amendment to the statute in preparation of transcripts was made last evening's adjournment by President James R. DeWeyer at the meeting of the county bar association. The association deferred final action on proposed changes until a meeting to be held January 9, for that purpose. Other matters discussed were authorization of the appointment of a committee to attend the forthcoming meeting of the Idaho State Bar association and a committee on grievances by the president.

Transcript Delay Refused. The situation with reference to the transmission of transcripts is the same one and the danger of delay and grief. Unlike all other states, Idaho has a statute which provides that transcripts shall be turned over to the state. In consequence there is no inducement to the reporter who is busy in court all day to either stay up and work overtime to help the lawyers or to have an assistant to get out the transcripts. In all other states the fees for drafting a transcript go to the reporter who is held responsible for getting them out on time.

The Idaho law also provides that in case of appeal, the transcript shall be filed within 90 days of the appeal date unless extension should be granted. This results in many non-suits and further results in the terrible delay to the plaintiff for the legislative committee and the committee which is yet to be appointed to study the bill.

President Bothwell announced that he would appoint a committee to study the bill. Attorney Harry J. Bennett reported on the banquet given in honor of Harry J. Bennett on the occasion of his departure for Portland. More of discussion on general legislative matters took place.

"The Cinderella Man" is said, is a joyful tale of youth and love, of life and laughter. It was written by Edward Childs Carpenter, and in no doubt he brought forth one of the best romantic plays in years. It was first produced in New York, where it ran for five hundred weeks for seven months. Those who like romance, charm and a play as brightly as the ever written will find "The Cinderella Man" very much to their liking. The play will be presented by an excellent New York cast.

The following credits are taken from the New York Press:

The Morning World: "Fanciful and pretty. Absorbing in sentiment. Alexander Woolcott, The Times: "Simple and pretty and gay. The Sun: "The audience absorbed its approval. A way first-nighters seldom do." The Herald: "The play is a gem. The night sort of pathos that I felt a lump in my throat." The Herald: "Fragrant and full of life. The best romantic play in years."

MORONI OLSEN
PLAYERS MAKE BIG HIT HERE

Play Sponsored by Business and Professional Women's Club Makes Record Hit Last Evening at Laverne.

"You and I" scored a great hit last evening at the Laverne theatre. The members of the Business and Professional Women's club of this city. The interpretation and presentation of this play was unique and reflected great credit upon every member of the cast.

Moroni Olsen played. The special music to be played by these artists is well suited to the play and the great credit was reflected on the whole company.

The vehicle for the evening was very well suited to the cast and roomed to the opinion that "Temp" was better adapted to this troupe than "You and I." However, each play was presented in a high class fashion and the large audience went away fully satisfied with the production.

The play itself gives one something to think about and makes you meditate more deeply on the realities of life.

Following the play the cast was given a reception by the Business and Professional women in their club room at the Hotel. Mrs. Olson conducted the club on the success of the two presentations.

It's the Same Car - In All But Price

If any responsible party offered you a brand new automobile - one you want - at half the market price, you would buy it if you had to beg, borrow, or steal the money.

The same car - with a few thousand miles on the speedometer - is just as good as the day it left the factory. But because it is a USED car you get it for about half the retail price. Come in - look over used cars and see that that isn't true.

The "Hayes High-Grade" Hatchery will open for business early in February, and will do custom hatching as well as hatching chickens for sale. It was announced last evening by H. C. The very latest model of the Buckeye Manifold incubator has been installed with three tiers, both sides capable of taking care of 10,258 eggs. The mechanism is so arranged that the required turning can be given all the eggs within a few minutes.

It is planned to set one-third of the number of eggs which can be accommodated once a week, so that there will be a hatch weekly about the business gets under way.

Ventilation is secured by three large fans, which force the hot air water pan thus securing the required moisture.
