Coolidge's Veto of Postal Bill Upheld by Vote of Senate

CLOSE MARGIN IS RECORDED

Many Prominent Republicans Side Against the Chief Executive.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 6.—The Senate yesterday sustained President Coolidge's veto of the $35,000,000 postal salaries increase bill by one vote. The vote was 55 to 54. The bill, introduced at the last session of congress, had the measure was vetoed by the president because it did not provide revenue to meet the postal expenses.

The president's vote was on whether or not the veto should be upheld and would have required a two-thirds majority to pass the bill over the president's objection.

The voted bill contained no postal rate provisions.

On the bill, the president had no direct effect on the so-called compromise administration measure sponsored by Senator Moses, New Hampshire, republican, which would raise postal rates and the like to raise postal rates to secure additional revenues to pay for the salary increases.

The future career of this bill is now problematical.

Twenty-one republicans voted against the president. They included:

Senators Brookhart, Coopers, Date, Edgerton, Frasier, Gooding, Howell, Johnson, of California; Jones of Connecticut; Kefauver, of Tennessee; Ladd, LeFollette, McLean, McNary, Means, Moses, Norris, Reed of Pennsylvania; Shortridge, Standiford, and Williams.

Thirty-three democratic senators and Senator Shipstead, farmer-laborer, also voted against the president.

Those who stood by the president were all regular republicans with the exception of Senator Dial, South Carolina.

After the vote Moses announced his bill will be passed at the earliest possible opportunity.

Claims Telephone Firm Monopolizes Nation's Business

CHICAGO, Jan. 6.—The American Telephone and Telegraph Company is to be accused of being a monopoly in business of the nation, states a suit on file in circuit court here, seeking to annul the A. T. & T. and T. & T. merger.

The suit was filed by two minority stockholders of the Illinois firm, charged the corporation was an incorporation of the Sherman anti-trust law. It cites recent purchases of smaller companies in substantial amounts.

Company officials answered the suit with a statement, pointing out that the corporation of the T. & T. and the Illinois Bell Company had been upheld recently by the United States supreme court.

Sport Dispute Over O'Connell Ends Suddenly

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., Jan. 6.—The controversy which broke forth between the San Francisco professional basketball league and John A. O'Connell, president of the Northern Basketball League over the participation by Jimmy O'Connell, former Grant Charney, in a basketball exhibition, is closed so far as the basketball men are concerned.

John M. Maher, president of the league, met O'Connell's objections to O'Connell's "with assurance" that he would not play if so doing would endanger his health, and that among those whom Louis George Kelly, the Giant first baseman, was one.

"We will do nothing that might in any way injure the health of the players in organized baseball," Maher said.

Thirty Year Courtship Terminates in Wedding

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 6.—In the candlelight old Inn at Dahlberg, Mo., near here, 390 descendants of the family of the 20-year courtship of Edward Waits and Florence Boone, last night, witnessed the marriage of Daniel Boone, 45, a descendant of Daniel Boone, was married December 31, 1924.

The floors of the inn, which the parents were swaying in the square dances. Boxes of apples, popcorn balls and cider refreshed the dancing couples.

Mountain Home Jury Finds Idaho Slayer in His Right Mind

MOUNTAIN HOME, Jan. 6.—A trial jury here, after a day of deliberation, found James McLaughlin sane. A jury in a district court decided at 12:45 Tuesday morning after seven hours of deliberation that the man accused of killing his wife, Mrs. James McLaughlin, at 9 o'clock Monday morning, at a joint session.

Insanity charges were filed against him November 20, after his wife had killed him in McLaughlin's home.

The trial was 55 to 54. The trial started at 10:30 a.m. on the 20th. The defense claimed the accused was a conspirator in the insanity inquisition. Taylor's attorneys insisted that he was not.

Taylor's vote was on whether or not the veto should be upheld and would have required a two-thirds majority to pass the bill over the president's objection.

The voted bill contained no postal rate provisions.

On the bill, the president had no direct effect on the so-called compromise administration measure sponsored by Senator Moses, New Hampshire, republican, which would raise postal rates and the like to raise postal rates to secure additional revenues to pay for the salary increases.

Claims Telephone Firm Monopolizes Nation's Business

WICHITA, Kan., Jan. 6.—Secretary of the Navy Wilbur and Solicitor General Beck today appeared to be the outstanding candidates for the post of attorney general, in view of the promotion yesterday of Harlan F. Stone to the supreme court, in place of Associate Justice McReynolds.

Both men are jurists by profession, Wilbur having been brought to Washington from the chief justice's office of the state capital, and Beck has a distinguished record as solicitor general.

Other names, however, are mentioned at the White House and various considerations may dictate the choice from among them.

They are:

Charles Warren of Detroit, former ambassador to Mexico.

Arthur Prentiss Rice, chief justice of the Massachusetts supreme court.

Frank B. Dierck, federal judge for the District of Columbia.

John H. Wigand, first assistant attorney general.

Walton McCreman, former associate justice of the supreme court of Oregon, and the second vice-president of the Constitutional nomination for vice-president at the Chicago convention in 1920.

LONDON, Jan. 6.—Japan will adhere to its policy of non-intervention in China and to a continuation of friendship with the United States, Baron Hayashi, Japanese ambassador to England, told reporters here in an exclusive interview today.

Baron Hayashi is one of Japan's foremost statesmen and an all important figure in the Tokyo foreign service.

Japan's S. Varian responded at the hearing, which started Saturday, it being impossible to obtain a jury the first day, the case was adjourned until Monday, and twenty additional veniremen were called:

DIETRICH MAY GET HIGH POST

Idaho Man Is Mentioned As Possible Attorney General.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—Secretary of the Navy Wilbur and Solicitor General Beck today appeared to be the outstanding candidates for the post of attorney general, in view of the promotion yesterday of Harlan F. Stone to the supreme court, in place of Associate Justice McReynolds.

The form of foreign assistance to China should be financial and administrative.

Several thousand people attended the industrial ball at the state capital, given by the chamber of commerce and the Rotary, Kiwanis, exchange and business women's clubs, administration and members of the legislature. A brilliant industrial ball followed at the Elks home.

"It's explained the ambiguous. The only other hope for establishment of order in China is to give the government. I can see no immediate prospect of this and I do not know what to do about it."

"I have known Tuan Ch'ü Jen for years and he was many admirable qualities. Possibly he may prove to be a good administrator," says Mr. S. H. Smith, a well-known foreign agent attempting to establish Soviet government in China will fall completely, in my opinion. The Soviet government is also really incompatible with all Chinese, physical and social traditions."

The Chinese are not a revolutionary people. Their ancient, good fundamental traditions would have to be overturned before they could accept Soviet and Communistic theories. So far, the Chinese public is divided, of China being Soviets.

WELL ONE DAY IN BED THREE

That Was the Life of Mrs. Hollister Until she Began Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Wynadette, Michigan.—"After my husband was born I had to work for six months and could hardly take care of myself. I had a tumor in my right side and it was bad. I was very weak and had to sit down a great deal. I would feel well one day and then feel bad the next. For three days there would be in bed. One Sunday my mother came to see me and she told a friend to tell me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. So I took a bottle and before it was half taken I got relief. After I was well again I went to the doctor and he asked me how I was feeling. I told him I was well taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and he said it did not hurt me. I am now well and I am still taking the Vegetable Compound to others old. They have a bottle of it on the shelf in their house." Holister, F.D. No. 1, Box 2, Wynadette, Mich.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a dependable medicine for all women. For sale by druggists everywhere.

BRAVES TO REPLACE VETERAN MEN WITH VIGOROUS ROOKIES

BOSTON, Jan. 6.—If youth means anything in baseball, the Boston Braves, laughing stock of the National league, should emerge from the shadows this year.

A big crowd of more strapping whose batting averages sound like the "present salary," are coming to town with the idea of giving baseball a place in the sun.

It appears several veterans who used to be heroes have had their pictures on the cards that come with cigarette packages, are headed for the bench to make room for the times may stick, but even men like Stuffy McNamara, who held down first base must go, it is understood.

It is too early to go into mental confessions as to who will play where and who will play there. For outside the pitchers, only three batsmen have been definitely filled.

Of course, Manager Dave Bancroft will be, at short, Mickey O'Neill of the Tamgoons, with him being his right-hand platoon. The other assignment, that seems at all definite is Jimmy Welsh at center-field.

Welsh, who is only 21, came here from the Pacific Coast—league through a $5000 deal with the Seattle club. With him he brought a colorful record and a host of venerable cast members.

Members of the Idaho Legislature

Senators—Republicans—Walter E. Blaine, Boundary county; D. O. Bates, Benewah county; J. L. Adams, Blaine county; K. E. Whitten, Boise county; Andrew Christensen, Bonner county; M. B. Clegg, Bonneville county; F. S. Shaffer, Butte county; V. V. Veldt, La Veta, Colorado county; D. J. Lao, Carbon county; John McMurtrey, Cassia county; E. W. Clark, Cliven county; Charles W. Baker, Custer county; H. M. Hubert, Elmore county; George C. Crockett, Franklin county; G. O. Pugh, Gem county; W. Edwin Nelson, Idaho county; Bach, L. Bennett, Jefferson county; Bert A. Reed; Kootenai county; C. A. Haag, Latah county; W. E. Johnson, Lewis county; E. W. Shielas, Lincoln county; L. T. Conly, Madison county; J. M. Johnson, Gem county; H. G. Johnson, Payette county; Donald A. Gallahan, Shoshone county; Elmira Hansen, Teton county; J. D. Hinman, Twin Falls county; H. R. Johnson, Valley county; Democrats—E. G. Van Hoosen, Adams county; Ola Transtrum, Boise county; W. H. Johnson, Owyhee county; C. O. Harrrove, Washington county; Progressive—H. Reineke, Canyon county; W. W. Johnson, Gem county; George E. Barrett, Gooding county; J. D. Slaney, Jerome county; E. H. Kirkpatrick, Minidoka county; W. R. Riddle, Nez Perce county; Joseph E. Nye, Power county.

Members of House:

House: Republicans—J. H. McNeill, Claude E. Davis, T. J. Atkins, John McMillian and G. W. McClure; Ada Conrad and Fred A. McConaughay; and J. W. Whitney, Bannock county; J. E. Jones, Benewah county; J. E. Adair, Custer county; and Vernon Bingham county; Joseph W. W.

BOXING

BOSTON—Tiger Flowers, Atlanta middleweight champion, Billy Johnson, Kansas City, in the fourth round when the referee stopped the bout. Flowers led from the start.

BUFFALO, N. Y.—Charlie Walpert, Newark heavyweight, knocked out Italian Jack Norman, Newark.

In the second round, Young Bob Fitzsimmons knocked out Kai Johnson in the fifth round.

NEW YORK—Johnny Leonard, Albany, John Coney, Rochester, and Alphonse Kastell, Bronx, in the heavyweight division, expected to land a permanent berth on the mound.

Among the southpaws are Ruth Margolin, John Coney, regarded as the best in the modern game, Joe Datchelder and Alphonse Kamu, both recalled from the Eastern league.

Mickey O'Neill and Frank Gibson, both boxers, will be the first string backstops.

At first base, William T. Burns, drafted from Atlanta, probably will replace McNamara, who will come here with recommendations that probably will be sufficient to throw Cotton Ticer, veteran second baseman out of a job.

Ernie Padgett, another veteran, seems likely to be forced to give way to Bill Marshall of Mobile, Ala., at third base.

Those who will battle for outfield berths include Frank Wilson, former Boston player star; Herbert Thomas, Florida State stand-out; young Eddie Murphy, John Gollie, and the venerable Casey Stengel.

EVERETT TRUE

SPORT TABS OF EVERY KIND

Syracuse—Reigning of Chuck Mehan as head football coach at Syracuse university has been accepted without a murmur. Alfred Thorpe offered the position at New York university vacated by Tom Thorpe but he has not announced his decision.

Twin Falls will grow in proportion to your co-operation.

Wheat world—a surprisingly prosperous year on American soil during which the market, after a year's interval, had reached its highest world production during 1924 was lifted by the early part of June, 1924, and continued to rise through the year, according to the Sears-Roebuck Agricultural Foundation's report.

All countries which had produced the expected result in reduced acreage and increased consumption of surplus grain. On June 30, 1924, the United States government estimated placed the wheat crop at 600,000,000 bushels, as against 780,000,000 bushels the crop in the preceding year. The same estimate further that the export surplus would be very small, and the immediate consequence of the government report was an upward market. Subsequent estimates placed the crop at 610,000,000 bushels, and the export surplus at 100,000,000 bushels.

Market prices, however, have kept a continuously higher level. This rise in prices, however, is due not to the increase in the size of the wheat crop, but to the increase in the foreign wheat crop estimate, which was based on a limited crop in the United States, and the consequent excesses reversed. Canada harvested 500,000,000 bushels less than last year's crop, while Argentina is keeping 50,000,000 bushels less than in 1923. Australia's crop has been estimated at 100,000,000 bushels less than last year's crop, not including the Russian yield, which was too poor to permit of any exports. Indications of the wheat at present point to the imminent reduction of American wheat to a domestic basis only.

WHEN NOTRE DAME DEFEATED STANFORD

When Notre Dame beat Stanford, 27-10 at Pasadena, Layden started on his sensational 69-yard run for the second touchdown of the day. This was the high point in a game replete with thrills. Ernie Nevers, fullback or the Cardinals, tried a pass from the 21-yard line. Crowley knocked it away from the waiting Stanford man's arms into reach of Layden, who grabbed it and outdistanced the field for a touchdown. Crowley, after blocking the pass, gullied two Stanford men. He can be seen on the ground in above picture, feet toward camera.

TWIN FALLS DAILY TIMES

Published Every Evening Except Sunday by the "Times" Publishing Company, Twin Falls, Idaho.

An item in a local paper states that the Ad Club frowns upon the raffle and the pernicious trade stamp as being both against the law and unfair competition. In this we think the Ad Club is right, but it might have gone a step farther and decried the prize-giving for guessing contests and the like. There is little real difference in principle. Get a thousand people to trade with you and give one lucky one a prize. All these schemes are unmanly and the Ad Club is to be commended for the stand it takes. The conservative business man who plods along giving real values for his customers' money, not only retains his customers and gets new ones, but also gets and retains their respect.—Boise, Idaho, Pioneer.

Senator Borah says that it is a disclosure of "remarkable presumption upon the part of anyone, under the circumstances which confront the people of this country, to be asking for increase in salary, particularly public servants and employees of the people at large, who are supported by taxes paid." The senator is covering a lot of territory in that statement. The trouble is that there is an immense amount of inequality in the salaries paid to public officials. Some are getting about ten times as much as they are worth or could earn in any other field of endeavor, while others are notoriously underpaid. What is needed right now is a general readjustment.

A DIRTY MESS

The trial of Charles R. Forbes for graft in building veterans' hospitals reveals a very sordid story of vengeance on the part of the chief witness for the prosecution, one Mortimer, and if the allegations made by the state are true, a lot of grafting in government contracts that indicates some very loose methods somewhere.

Forbes may be guilty as hodes for all we know, but to our mind there is such an evident animus in Mortimer that his story will have to be fully corroborated before much credence can be placed in it. When a chief witness for the prosecution says that he would "swear his soul to hell to get Forbes," he may be doing that very thing.—Exchange.

SHORTAGE OF WHEAT RAISES ALL GRAIN

That the shortage of the wheat and corn supplies of the world has been the cause of the increase not only in wheat prices, but in the price of all grains, is the statement of the American Economist, the official publication of the American Protective Tariff League in its issue of December 26. It denies the charge that wheat prices were increased before election to help the republicans but does not claim credit for the tariff for raising the price of grain. It says:

December wheat has been quoted as high as $1.70 a bushel, and it is now said it may reach $2.00 before long. Discussing this, the New York Sun says:

December wheat at $1.68 a bushel is approximately 60 per cent above its price a year ago; oats at 61 cents are 15 percent higher than a year ago; rye at $1.47 is 113 per cent above its price a year ago. Corn at $1.26 a bushel is 77 per cent higher than a year ago.

It is pointed out that in the case of wheat and corn the advance is due to direct shortages, which shortages have so increased the demand for other grains as to boost their prices, too.

The Department of Agriculture has just stated in its crop report for this year that as a result of the highest prices in five years the total value of farm crops is $9,179,902,000, which is $753,013,000 higher than a year ago and $1,663,882,000 higher than two years ago. The rise since election in wheat has been about 20 cents a bushel, which ought to dispose of the democratic assertion during the recent campaign that the price of wheat was being unmercifully advanced to favor the republican ticket.

The Silent Guest
Hal Cachian's
DAILY POEM

WELL, I've had my little repose and I've done my worldly part—
Now I'm off to the ceiling and I sit here,
I'm down and packed away, and I used my best discretion,
Just as you do, I'll have no heart for I know they would have broken it today.

I was hung up in the ceiling and I stayed there
Just as you do, I'll have no heart for I know they would have broken it today.

When joy was running wild and the daughter
All the time she sang and her voice was loud. And say, to it mildly, few folk knew that I was there.
And yet I played my part, as I had known.

Just as you do, I'll have no heart for I know they would have broken it today.

It happened just beyond me, so I know. A youth, in all his glory, gratified a maiden, fair and gay, and he kissed the bair a thousand times. Of course, he was a good boy, but he parked me up at me and said, "The right to kiss your girl's own."
The reason was unfolded as fast as you see.
And then they left—and left me alone.

Just as you do, I'll have no heart for I know they would have broken it today.

Through much love has made my story set,
Through the silent guest, I'm just a pure Christmas minister.

THE OLD HOME TOWN*DAILY MARKET REPORTSGRAINS GAIN MODERATELY AT CLOSE OF BUYING DAY

CHICAGO, Jan. 6—Grain futures finished with moderate gains on the Chicago Board of Trade today, after rallying from a drastic slump in last trading.

Buying in wheat was mostly short covering and against export purchases encountered on the day.

Barley aggregated 409,000 bushel and corn 1,200,000 bushel.

Corn encountered short covering when wheat turned strong and cash imports displayed minor activity.

The strength of wheat was due to face of heavy sales of aged grain to store. Crop damage reports were received from Texas.

Portland observer bickered.
