FILER TEACHERS ARE REELECTED

George Demman Re-elected for Fifth Year of Idaho of Salary George Tucker and Others Re-elected Chairman Davis Resigns

FILER, Idaho, March 16.—George N. Tucker was re-elected superintendent of the Filer Rural high school at a meeting of the board of trustees Monday evening. Mr. Demman was employed for a period of two years at an increase in salary but $150 a year. He is now completing his fourth year at head of the system.

A number of other elections were made including the re-employment of George N. Tucker, agricultural instructor; James Tomlin, mathematics; Esther Felton Byrne, history, latin and public speaking; James W. Ellis, home economics and English; Ernest T. Byrne, commercial subjects and music; and Ruth S. Hoyer, history, biology and general science. A vacancy of two on the teaching staff for next term will be filled at a later board meeting.

None of those employed have as yet made formal acceptance of the offers of the board, which in some instances show salary increases, and in other cases decreases. It is stated, John Walker, veteran caretaker of the buildings and grounds, was re-employed in the position which he had held since the high school building was erected seven years ago.

Chairman Offers Resignation.

At the close of the meeting, A. D. Tucker resigned as chairman of the board of trustees. Mr. Davis was asked to reconsider his action, which he consented to do.

In a statement to The Record yesterday, Mr. Davis asked that announcement be made of his final decision to tender his formal resignation at the next meeting of the board of trustees. "Inasmuch as a resignation will have to be named to fill the vacancy," said Mr. Davis, "and the fact that he will undoubtedly be named from the Washington district, I wish this announcement to be made at this time to give ample opportunity for the choosing of my successor."

Mr. Davis resides in Washington common school district west of Here.

AT THE THEATRES

McKinley's Inauguration and Zane Grey's "The Thundering Herd" at the Idaho Theatre

Joe-K says: I am going to celebrate the first anniversary of my arrival in Twin Falls to take over the management of the Idaho theatre and I think that the first step is to show the people of this town the picture of Zane Grey's "The Thundering Herd" next Wednesday at the Idaho theatre. This is the best picture I have ever seen in the United States. It will be the first showing in Idaho and Utah and several of the other states. In fact, the picture has only been shown in about a dozen cities in the country. As this is another of the big pictures produced by Paramount Pictures, you are assured that "The Thundering Herd" combines all these pictures into one making it of the greatest and best picture that Paramount have ever released. In addition to the feature picture the International News reel contains views of the inauguration of all presidents from William McKinley to Calvin Coolidge, inclusive, covering a span of 28 years. This comedy is one of the funny "Out Gang" variety, "Circus Fever," with the Hal Roach "Komedie Kida" at their best. Joe-K will spring a new song from the house of Irving Berlin, "All Alone." George Dunlap has arranged special music for the whole show which will be played by the Idaho orchestra of six symphonists. This is positively the best entertainment that I can offer for my birthday party. Yours merrily, Joe-K, manager of the Idaho theatre.

KEARNS SAYS POST FOREFEIT AND LETS FIGHT

Jack Dempsey is ready to fight Harry Wells on April 15th. The contender, but Manager Jack Kearns says "let the dough on the table and fight is on."

By HENRY L. PARRELL.

NEW YORK, March 15.—(By the dough on the table, give us some assurance that there will be no interference, and Jack Dempsey will jump into the ring with Harry Wells for any other heavyweight in the world.)

Kearns, manager of the heavyweight champion, said here today that Dempsey will go to London to fight Wells on the 15th.

"I don't care if the champion signs a three-year agreement with the commission," he said.

"The commission stopped the fight at the time," he said, "and before we go very far now, I want the commission to assure me that Dempsey will be allowed to fight three years before any more papers are signed."

William A. Muldoon, member of the commission, who was chairman at that time, said he had called off negotiating for the fight three years ago because Kearns was taking money in terms that were impossibly high.

"I didn't call the fight off," Muldoon said. "Kearns practically did it himself. He signed an agreement to accept the terms of a promoter to fight Wells but he demanded so much money that no promoter could stage the fight. He will do the same thing now."

When asked what kind of a purse Dempsey would demand, Joe Meek said, "Kearns said he was doing nothing but listening."

"Several promoters seem to want that fight," he said. "They'll get it by bidding higher than the other fellow. You know how much we got for fighting Firpo and Willis out of the pocket of Tom Gibson and Firpo did."

Dempsey got approximately $475,000 for fighting Firpo.

Tom Richard, who will get the fight if it is staged in New York, said that Kearns was talking through his hat when he suggested a half million dollars for Dempsey's fight.

"The day of those big purses is past and Kearns knows it. If he fights for me he'll have to accept a fair percentage," Richard said. "I don't know why he's demanding assurance from any one. It's always better to come out and take all the chances in the fight than that I've had with him."

Richard said that he might fight Jack Bennett and Bub-Roper in California or Michigan City, Ind., and he intimated that Dempsey would not be ready for a big fight before Labor Day.

GRAND JURY PAGES

The municipal court, who will tell the grand jury of the "fatal" McClintock fortune. Judge Wilson, who initiated the inquiry into Billy's death, claims Shepherd plotted to obtain the million dollar estate and also knows how Billy's mother met her death several years ago.

Through these four witnesses Cripe says to build up the following case against Shepherd:

1.—That Shepherd drew up young McClintock's will, making himself the chief beneficiary.

2.—That Shepherd feared he would lose his fortune if Billy married Miss Wilson and so tried to block the wedding.

3.—That before the young couple could go through with the ceremony, McClintock died of typhoid fever, at the Shepherd's home.

4.—That Shepherd had secretly studied germs, particularly typhoid, and he used to draw a considerable sum of money in an attempt to hide the fact that he had studied germs.

5.—That Shepherd actually had recourse to typhoid germs while he studied at the National University and three tubes of germs disappeared when he discontinued his lessons.

MOTION PICTURE PRODUCTION

NEW YORK, Mar. 15.—Clarence J. Parker Reed, a motion picture producer, with failure to meet a promissory note in London, today filed suit for $100,000.

Miss Gorman alleges Reed gave her the note in December, 1921, and that he was to pay her $100,000 in 420,000 instalments. She claimed to have paid her a penny and that in October 1923 he and his wife left for Paris, where they have been since.

Health Hints

Physical activity means life—abundant, enjoyable life; inactivity means stagnation, sickness, premature death. What a difference there is between a fully developed and alert man and an undeveloped, nervous man! When I speak of undeveloped, I mean the man who is a person with huge, knobby muscles, for muscles do not necessarily indicate vitality. But one reason that his muscles have been produced, by exercise—muscles that will stand a strain when put upon them—and one of those counter-indications of vitality is that he is not vital. There is no true, lasting health without exercise. Stop exercising and health immediately commences to fall, perhaps not at once perceptibly, for one draws first upon reserve strength and vitality, but he will become aware of his declining condition later. Accordingly if you would enjoy greater working capacity, would attain a higher mental level, you desire maximum earning power, freedom from disease, and the healthiest, happiest existence, stick to your exercise.

The young man who starts in the serious business of money-making after school life may find it in position to do so, but unless devoted to athletic exercise and sports. He may have the toilsome walk to business, and he may have to walk to exercise in their rooms in the evening and morning.

The exercise and sports program, development of all the muscles of the body, is not exercise to develop groups of muscles instead of single muscles. Each exercise should be at a given time and the mind should be concentrated on each movement. It is not good to exercise every day about ten minutes morning and evening, and increase the length of time gradually as you gain in strength and health. Thirty minutes in the morning and thirty minutes in the evening is about the maximum amount of time to spend in exercising every day after you become used to it. If you will keep up exercises morning and evening and at the same time live hygienically, you never will become subject to a hundred per cent of the ordinary ill. Remember after ascending to take a cold sponge bath and a good rub.

It Wasn't Here.

"I was on a chair one evening. A big awkward looking suitcase fell into the aisle just beside my seat. I caught and going madly many unkind remarks to me about my baggage being in the way. At last I determined to make the first remark to the next person passing my way.

"A young man stopped and looked in a displeased manner at the suitcase beside me, so I said: 'If that were mine I would move it, but it isn't!'

"I was much embarrassed to have him reply: 'Well, it's mine and I can move it.'—Chicago Tribune.

The growing scarcity of specimens in every department of zoology has led to the setting apart of large game preserves in the wilds of Africa and putting them in the charge of experts. There was to be no animal that cannot be partly tamed if a feeding ground and water in plenty are given it. Attendance is vouchsafed into the enclosure and stroll among the animals to ascertain them to the sight of human beings. Gradually the beasts are herded into smaller paddocks, where any civilization that they may have is observed. In that way healthy specimens for the zoological gardens are assured.

ANDREW JACKSON

One hundred and fifty-eight years ago yesterday (March 16, 1767), Andrew Jackson, American general and seventh president of the United States, was born near Waxahatchee, Lancaster county, N. C.

In his boyhood, the future president was a leader among the wild youths of his neighborhood, surpassing them in quick temper, quarrelsomeness and enthusiasm for such sports as cockfighting and horse racing.

The declaration of war against Great Britain in 1812 brought Jackson his opportunity. As soon as he heard the news he offered his own services and the cooperation of 2070 militia under his control.

Jefferson, Madison and Monroe had been affiliated with the Democratic-Republican party, but they had been trained statesmen who administered the government in the interest of all classes.

SYNOPSIS

Malone, a London newspaper reporter, rejected by the girl he loves, because he has no heroic deeds to his credit, is assigned to a dangerous assignment, and is sent to interview the invincible Professor Sumner...

These were those Lord John had found himself some years ago in that no-man's land which is formed by the divide between the town of Paria, Brazil and the town of Manass.

Professor Sumner came to a halt as he picked up the note which he had just found. "What can it possibly matter whether we open it now or in seven minutes?" said he.

"Time it is," said Lord John. "You can blow the whistle. I'll look up the envelope and strike it with my penknife. From it he drew a folded sheet of paper. This he carefully opened and directed his attention on the table. It was a blank sheet. He turned it over. Again it was blank. He looked at the other in a bewildered silence...
