MAJOR LEAGUE PENNANT RACE NECK AND NECK

Pirates Are Leading the Giants by One Game and the Athletics Are Less Than a Half Game Ahead of the Washington Senators; Athletics Snap Out of Slump.

(By HENRY L. PARDELL.)
NEW YORK, July 21.—Leaders of the major league pennant races are still running neck and neck at the turn into another week that is bringing them to the three quarters pole.

Baltimore-Pirates are leading the New York Giants in the National League by a margin of one game and the Philadelphia Athletics are less than a half game ahead of the Washington Senators in the American League.

The interest in the pennant races has become so keen that baseball has subordinated almost every other summer sport.

The Athletics came out of their slump last week and played the best ball in the two leagues. They won seven out of their eight games and went back into first place after having enjoyed a short stay in second place.

The Athletics are still being forced hard to win their games as evidenced by the flustering victory over the Browns Sunday. This strain, many critics of Connie Mack fear, may make his young team blow up in the stretch.

The Senators lost four out of their seven games last week. The club has missed Walter Johnson, who has been in poor health and they will have more power when he is able to work in his regular turn. Coghlan, the Cleveland catcher, has been the biggest surprise of the season and has proved to be the backbone of the team.

The Cleveland Indians moved into the first division and the Detroit Tigers, losing four out of their seven games, dropped into fifth place.

The Cincinnati Reds, who are making a season's record for ups and downs in the National League, moved up to third place. The Reds won four out of their six games and displaced the Brooklyn Robins.

The Chicago Cubs, who are making a season's record for ups and downs in the National League, moved up to third place. The Reds won four out of their six games and displaced the Brooklyn Robins.

Game's Largest Pitcher

Most Mr. Garland Daugherty, an outfielder called "Big Boy" by his teammates, is the Cleveland Indians' largest pitcher. In his last four starts he has thrown in as many victories, allowing him to run and 27 hits in the 36 innings. This is the total season with the Indians. He has pitched the largest pitcher, weighing 225 pounds.

Washington to Conway.
The only letter Washington wrote to Conway was a note in which he pointed out that he had discovered Conway's discontent and malice against Washington. It ran: "A letter which I received last night contained the following paragraph: 'In a letter from General Conway to General Gates he says, "Heaven has determined to save your country, of which several and bad counselors would have ruined it." I am, sir, your humble servant, etc.'" Washington did not ask Conway for help; on the contrary he had no more opinion of that officer that he wrote, "His merits exist more in his own imagination than in reality. His proposition would be a real act of injustice."

CHRISTIANS WIT FROM METHODISTS

Springers Lose Game Because of Inability to Hit in a Pinch; Trueblood Hits Homer and Davis Strikes Out 11 Men.

Methodists 0
Christians 2

In a fast game on Lincoln field just before the Christian church team was from the Methodist church by the score of 2 to 0. Neither team scored during the first three innings and it began to look as if they would fail to cross the last stake. Neither hit up to standard and while the balling was fairly held the lack of ability to hit in a pinch was very noticeable. However, it must be taken into account that this is an amateur league and these young fellows are not expected to hit like the veterans.

Manager "Bill" Patrick sent Wilson up as lead off batter. Taylor walked and Paulsen hit a grounder to short and Wilson was thrown out there. Davis filed to short and hit a grounder to short.

Manager Harry Dinkler led off with Cron at bat. He hit a single and second and third, Taylor fanned, McDonald struck out, and Joe K. struck out.

Porter struck out. Trueblood filed to center. Hoesel hit a triple and Taylor was thrown out at first. Porter fanned. Joe K. was put out.

McConnell walked and was thrown out at second. Wilson got on and Taylor and Wilson fanned out at second and Taylor doubled back in first and caught Paulsen in a pretty double play.

And This One Didn't Get Away!

You never have your nerve along with you when you are fishing in the Sacramento River, California. F. Holland Dutton of Los Angeles said it and showed a 44-pound bass that he couldn't haul into the boat. So, handing the line to a friend, he jumped in the water after it. Even then it took him 15 minutes before he had the fish where he wanted it.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Journal for Peace, which was published after the judgment had been confirmed by the United States circuit court of appeals.

Ribborn Starts Suit.
In the instance Ribborn had also instituted suit against Henderson and the Gazette, claiming that they had defamed his character. Henderson's answer to this, he alleged, was that he was the reasonable and legal limit of a reply by a public official to the charges made against him and the Gazette.

Henderson's answer, he declared, was to state and untrue as to cause the health and impair the business standing of the Journal.

The Journal also brought suit against Henderson and the Gazette in which it claimed heavy damages for libel. The Gazette, according to the suit, was equally guilty along with Henderson, because it gave circulation to Henderson's libelous story.

Bummers Asked by Ribborn.
The Ribborn suit against Henderson asked damages to the extent of $75,000. His suit against the Gazette was for a smaller amount.

The Nevada State Journal Publishing Company asked for damages against Henderson in the sum of $100,000.

Attorney judgments were asked in the sum of $50,000.

TWIN FALLS DAILY TIMES

Published Every Evening Except Sunday by the Times Publishing Company, Twin Falls, Idaho.

Entered at the Twin Falls Postoffice as Second Class Matter in a Daily Publication, April 11, 1918.

LYNCHING RECORD FOR 1925

The following is the record for the number of lynchings in United States as recorded for the first six months. This shows that there were more for the six months of 1925 than for the same period for 1924. This is too bad and we hope that conditions will show an improvement for the last half of 1925 over 1924. This record compiled at Tuskegee institute in the department of records and research shows that, in the first six months of 1925 there were 15 lynchings. This is four more than the number five for the first six months of 1924; six less than the number 15 for the first six months of 1923 and 21 less than the number 30 for the first six months of 1922.

All of the persons lynched were negroes. The offenses charged were: Murder 4, rape 2, attacking woman 1, attacking child 2.

The states in which lynchings occurred and the number in each state are as follows: Arkansas, 1; Georgia, 1; Louisiana 1; Mississippi 3, Utah 1, Virginia 1.

OUR CHEAP SURPLUS

Defenders of the present tariff system and the big corporations always tell how these industries, aided by a tariff, sell their main product at home and in order to keep their workmen employed, happy, fat and contented, sell their surplus abroad at a price much less than the home consumer pays. This is always done in the interest of the greatly beloved American working man. The industrial captains have no desire to gauge the people for their own benefit, they simply want a well fed, contented and skilled laborer and want to keep him employed.

If this is true, why not go farther? Why not start every factory that is manufacturing something that the American people must have, keep a tariff that will absolutely prohibit the importation of a competitive article, keep the factories running day and night, sell as much of the product as can be sold to the American consumer, public at prices which will show a profit on the entire output and then take what cannot be sold and dump it in the ocean!

This plan will surely keep the factories going full tilt, keep the American workman employed and happy and is a grand scheme. Of course, there is just one little drawback, someone has to raise the money, somehow, to pay the bill.—Exchange.

IDAHO WILL HAVE PLENTY OF CARS

"There will be no car shortage this year in Idaho," according to a statement made recently by D. J. Gormley, chairman of the car service division of the American Railway Association, speaking to a number of Idaho shippers recently in Boise. This is encouraging news and we hope that this official will be able to deliver the cars when the bounteous crops in the Gem state begin to roll in. We hope that this official has calculated properly on Idaho's crop because it will be several times larger this year than previously and if this gentleman has not been apprised of this fact, he should be at once.

Here is what Mr. Gormley in his own words and we trust that he will not forget and we are sure we will not: He made one proviso and that was that there would be no shortage if the equipment was unloaded promptly at market terminals and returned. He said all the energies of the association would be concentrated on getting the cars unloaded.

From the standpoint of the number of shippers present, it was the largest meeting the board has ever held. Before it closed, 95 shippers coming from practically every shipping point in southern and eastern Idaho and from points in the states of Colorado, Utah, Wyoming and Nebraska had registered. In addition approximately 75 railroad representatives were present. Among them was E. E. Calvin, vice president of the Union Pacific system, who spoke at the banquet for the visitors in the evening.

WASHINGTON DAILY NEWS LETTER

BY CHARLES F. STEWART

NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON—Comparison of last year's internal revenue collections with the previous year's shows that the Treasury department has received more money—more than $100,000,000 more—than last year.

THE present law under which taxes are levied on income is being collected more than $100,000,000 more than last year.

When passed, it was estimated the new law would result in an increase of $100,000,000 in the Treasury's income.

It will pay last year's expenses and still have $100,000,000 left over.

As a result, Secretary Mellon has said that the country will not be so much in debt as it was last year.

He said that the country will be in a better financial position than it was last year.

parade of the waiting world and the gray shadows.

"Jack, young hellion! he gritted through his teeth, "you have killed my best man!"

"Have you?" said Nance, still in that gut voice. "Yes, I have. He is dead."

"Oh, what's the use of fool with her," cried Kate Cathrew, impulsively.

"I'm done!"

With a gasp of her unbridled terror, she snatched her gun from the floor, slipped loops and fired it.

As her finger curled on the trigger, Arnold plunged his horse against Blaine's.

"No!" he cried, "the report rattles out clear and sharp in the air and down the hill, the bullet strikes the 'devil's paw' in the air and a little rain of rock dust falls on Nance's hair."

From his side of Rainbow's path that shot came back in echoes, a roaring fusillade—and Blaine, waiting in his clump of pines straightened in his seat, the finger of his right hand on his gun, and spoke in low voice.

"Ready, ready!" he said, "then let's go!"

Cattle Kate had fired her own shot of fate and her spouse heard it.

"Blaine!" she cried, "it is strange dark power, the dark coming out of Mystery, Ridge!"

Blaine, standing the stiff stoop, heard it, and so did the little "devil's paw" in the air.

Blaine's horse came back in echoes, a roaring fusillade—and Blaine, waiting in his clump of pines straightened in his seat, the finger of his right hand on his gun, and spoke in low voice.

CANAL DROP MAY SOLVE POWER ISSUE

Settlers on murrumbidgee
Project Friendly to Project
Development of Municipal Plant, but Want Power Generating Place in Exchange;
Canal Company May Relinquish Claims in Lowline Site.

Agreement between the city and the murrumbidgee irrigation company, otherwise known as the Hansen Bitter population, with reference to utilization of the power at Angus Falls and Rock creek, following the commissioner meeting last evening, seemed as possible as at an informal discussion between Mayor L. T. Ashton, Arthur L. Swin and Captain J. W. Porter, of the firm of Porter and Witham, who represents the irrigation district. It was pointed out that this might be expedited by cooperation of the Twin Falls Canal company.

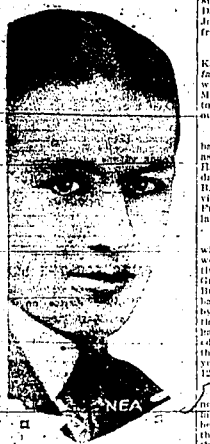

This conference was the result of the question raised last night at the meeting of the city commission, relative to the attitude of the district toward the relinquishment of its rights. It developed that at a recent meeting of settlers interested in the Angus falls, that they were unwilling to let go such rights as they might have unless assured of power. It was suggested that the power drop on the low line canal would furnish very feasible power at Hansen lands, where it is hoped to reclaim about 45,000 acres and that if this could be obtained on some basis might be affected.

Last year an elaborate report on the power at the drops was made and a report on the feasibility of the project by the attorney for the company, Judge James L. Bothwell, of the firm of Bothwell and Chapman. After deliberation the canal company decided against development at this point. This would, it is pointed out, seem to indicate that cooperation might be secured between the canal company, the city and the irrigation district.

Does This Dam Menace City?

Salt Lake City is more than usually interested in the condition of this dam, which some engineers declare unsafe. It is under construction at Dell Mountain, Utah, 16 miles from Salt Lake City, and if it should collapse it would turn 200,000,000 gallons of water on the city. New tests of its strength are being made.

Throw Away False Teeth.

Some one pulled the bell cord of a modern train in England the other day and the engineer put on the brakes. The conductor went through the cars, inquiring the reason for the sudden stopping of the train. He noticed an old woman, who appeared highly excited. She explained to the conductor that she had been eating popcorn and had been throwing the bits out the window one by one. The next thing she had when had caused her false teeth to become dislodged, and reaching up for the bit, the teeth, instead of the bit, came out her mouth. She had thrown the teeth out the window, and would the conductor kindly hold the train until she went back to retrieve them. The conductor, however, pulled the bell cord and the train went on to its destination.
