Prisoners Lashed in Montreal Pen; Backs Are Raw

MONTREAL, July 23.—Three men, two of who were convicted of robbery, the other of attacking a woman, were flogged on the sole in St. Vincent detail confinement after the first instalment of ten lashes out of a 30-lash penalty of the ancient punishment—cat-o'-nine-tails.

Their backs were raw from the first lashes, followed by an application of salt, and they writhed, unable to stand.

The three are James Miller, William Martin and Henry Dumont of this city—the first two robbers, the other a felon of women.

Pinched and crooked, tilted forward so the jailors holding the vicious knotted leather thongs could get better "play," the men were flogged until their backs bled when they were taken to a hospital the wells across their bare backs were inflamed by the stinging action of the cat.

Two more instalments of the "cat" will be administered before the two go free.

CLEVELAND, O.—Pete Sarmiento, Filipino bantamweight, won a popular decision from Eddie Anderson in a ten-round bout. Each man scored twelve knockdowns.

BAYVILLE, OHIO, July 23.—"He was the most affectionate boy. He wouldn't even hurt a dog, and now that he's been hanged for killing his mother, I can't believe it."

Struggling to keep back the tears, Mrs. Wills Scott, mother of Russell Scott, who was sentenced to hang to death for the killing of his mother and man, said when asked if she still loved him.

"I'm still here to help him through his last moments of life," she said.

She declared her belief that the Chicago courts were unjust to Russell.

"They never proved he actually fired the shot. They can't, because he didn't," she said.

FATHER'S SLAYS WHOLE FAMILY CHASED BY LONG JANICE

GLENCOE, Ill.—"Big Bill" Tilden, national tennis champion, was still in the running today in the Illinois championship tournament at the Skokie club here, but only after one of his best efforts in recent years had been marred by a personal and somewhat ungentlemanly kind of conduct.

Mr. Tilden, who has been a champion in the Chicago Open tournaments, was forced to withdraw from the tournament because of an injury to his knee.

He likewise has predicted that a new earthquake would strike the coast of Japan on the 30th.

"They never proved he actually fired the shot. They can't, because he didn't," she said.

FATHER'S SLAYS WHOLE FAMILY CHASED BY LONG JANICE

The two children, who were safe when the next shots were heard, only two points to win a final game, the third set and the match.

At this point, Mr. Tilden, who was serving, appeared to be losing. But he completed a series of brilliant strokes giving direct connection to the east, will greatly increase the travel into the west next from both the east and west next

ANIMAL SHOWS NO LONGER PRINCIPAL CIRCUS FEATURES

In his statement that animals have become old stock and are not wanted, the human actors are after the actors and managers, so that if they give a show in the afternoon and night, it may be the last show of the rest of the day straightening the matter out as they can show at night. What is involved in any thing may, natural breeds, and the animals are out of it, hence the conclusion above.

Mr. Shuler has 120 actors up every night. The Shuler Bros. also, are 1-2-3, who have learned new tricks, and he says he has plenty of new things to show the public. There will be a show tonight, and matinees and night shows Friday and Saturday.

Violet Wood

Violet Wood is my kind of hand wood. The trees are often made to service, back and sides of amphitheater finger wood, tall pieces, and pegs, but they are not all made in this way, though many good modern instruments are made. I am a woodcarver, and the amphitheatre were bound by the the hummocks—those craters which are natural and man-made, and except the fact that they did not have to meet the restrictions and criticisms of humane societies. The animal circuses were built on hillsides, and the same old tricks that they have today, more in fact, since history would indicate that they were built on the basis of a donation to the "Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals." There is no record that such donations were ever made, and if it did, probably it led to the demolition and dismantling of the manger from his mind.

Get After the Managers.

Mr. Shuler did not say all this in so many words but it was all implied.

Dover, Ohio.—"After my last baby was born I was up and around again, but I was sickly all the time and did not know how to get my work done. I had wanted a heavy car and a boat, and that was the cause of my trouble. I went to several doctors, but nothing helped me. I did not do any good.

I asked what the trouble was and he said, 'You could hardly walk and always had such pains in my left side and then in my right side.' He told me that he had a case of it—one of over 200 cases—and was reading it, and I thought, 'That's what I need.' So I bought Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and began taking it. I began to feel better, so I took three bottles without missing a dose. That winter I took a boat trip down the Mississippi River and I still have it handy now."—It surely did put me on the right track again.—Mrs. James Miller, 1000 Main, Dover, Ohio.

Dover, Ohio.—"After my last baby was born I was up and around again, but I was sickly all the time and did not know how to get my work done. I had wanted a heavy car and a boat, and that was the cause of my trouble. I went to several doctors, but nothing helped me. I did not do any good.

I asked what the trouble was and he said, 'You could hardly walk and always had such pains in my left side and then in my right side.' He told me that he had a case of it—one of over 200 cases—and was reading it, and I thought, 'That's what I need.'

So I bought Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and began taking it. I began to feel better, so I took three bottles without missing a dose. That winter I took a boat trip down the Mississippi River and I still have it handy now."—It surely did put me on the right track again.—Mrs. James Miller, 1000 Main, Dover, Ohio.
