NAVAL PLANES FAIL TO FIND LANDING PLACE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Drifting an Arctic sea over the perilous ice fields of the North Pole, two naval planes of the MacMillan polar expedition were unable to find a landing place in the 120 miles of coast, Lieutenant Commander Byrd reported to the navy yesterday.

The unsuccessful voyage will result in the explorers attempting a 730 mile landing on the north coast where MacMillan believes there is a landing place. The expedition, which left on Saturday in the brilliant Arctic night and the adventures of the trip were described by Byrd as follows:

At 10:30 a.m. a spectacular opening to view. All the birds were covered with ice and the land showed around and beneath us seemed to be nothing but deep water.

NEW ELECTRIC LOCOMOTIVES BOUL BY FORD

Railroad Transportation Will Be Revolutionized By This Powerful Engine Which Weighs 372 Tons and Has 5,000 Horsepower; It Is Longest Engine

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 10.—The locomotive that Henry Ford believes will be the next step in world railroad transportation is about ready to make its first test on the Detroit, Toledo and Ironville railroad.

It is the longest locomotive ever built, is electrically driven and produces enough power to pull a train of freight cars a mile and a half. Outstanding features of the train engine are:

It weighs 372 tons; develops a maximum of 5,000 horsepower; is 117 feet long and will run on six miles per hour. A single high tension, alternating current of 22,000 volts will be taken directly from the line and 'stepped down' to supply 600 volt direct current driving motors by means of transformers and motor generators on the engine.

KIMBERLY WINS FROM BUHL IN SNAPPY GAME

First Four Innings Were Airtight Baseball with Neither Team Scoring; Kimberly Took Two in the Fifth and Lowery Hit a Hard Drive Between First and Second in the Sixth, Scoring Two.

Buhl Grays ..... 0
Kimberly ..... 4

KIMBERLY, Aug. 10.—By hitting in the pinches and taking advantage of the bases, Kimberly won a snappy, contested game from Buhl on the local ball last Sunday afternoon. Each pitcher did good work and while the number of hits was about even, Kimberly hit at more opportune times and thereby made all counts count as is evidenced by the fact that one man was left stranded while Buhl had five failed to find the fastener.

No. 1 of "Red" Jerry's warriors reached the initial sack until the fifth inning when Thompson connected with one of Buhl's benders and a pass to Foster followed by a clean hit by Milton registered two runs and one to win the game. Not content with a two-run lead Captain Chalmers maneuvered a run back in the sixth frame. Watson then hooked one on a single and Lowery cleaned up between first and second. Buhl then pitched two more runs, but failed to deliver the necessary punch to put a run across though they had a man at the three-quarter bases and one on the half way stop with but one away in the third. In the first and third a lone hit in each case was whacked away between two hurler's creases and did little good.

Three more errors were made in the game which is quite unusual for amateur teams. Some excellent plays were made by both teams—the outstanding one being catches by E. Puller of a Texas lagger and a long fly off the right side lateral, all hot, cranked back of second by Lowery.

Watching the Scoreboard

Yesterday's home, Illinois' Thurston, White Sox pitcher, tied the record in the seventh inning with a triple and drove in the run with a single in the eighth inning that beat the Yankees 4 to 3. Menck's homer in the ninth freed the game into extra innings.

Parrell's double in the eighth, a pass to Young, Menck's double and a single by Terry scored three runs and gave the Giants a 6 to 1 victory over the Reds.

Two homers by Hornsby and one by Simmons and Blanton helped the Cards defeat the Phillies 8 to 1.

The Indians squeaked over a run in the twelfth inning and beat the Boston 7 to 1. Walter Johnson was relieved in the tenth inning after he had been hit freely.

Heavy battling enabled the Cubs to take a double header from the Braves 8 to 1 and 13 to 3.

Nebraska Slayer Must Die in the Electric Chair

LINCOLN, Neb., Aug. 10.—Walter H. Simmons, sentenced to death by the electric chair here tomorrow for the murder of Frank Pahl, of St. Joseph, Mo., led his fight for a 24th retrial this afternoon.

Governor Adam McCallen refused to issue another 30 days respite until the strength of statements made in a letter received today from Dr. H. V. McDermott, Glenrock, Wyoming, who claims that a half breed Indian party confessed murdering Pahl a short time after the murder three years ago.

Simmons' attorneys will appear before the supreme court again this afternoon to make a final plea with a retrial for (additional) gain to secure the retrial which Dr. McDermott has been fourth attempt to win the electric chair.

After five hours of listening with a favorable tilt, Miss Harrison had reached a point more than two hours before the quarter of two when the trial was forced to quit.

An advertisement worth looking over is never overlooked in this newspaper.

A Monument To A Woman

Mount Edith Cavell, more than 11,000 feet high and situated in Jasper National Park, Alberta, in the heart of the Canadian Rockies, is probably the first monument to a woman the world has ever seen. It is named in honor of Edith Cavell, the British nurse who was executed for her performance of her duty during the World War.

On the side of the mountain rises a glacier, which from a distance has the appearance of an angel with outspread wings. The photograph shows the mountain and part of the glacier.

Island Is American

Pohna Island came under American sovereignty as a result of the Hawaiian Islands in 1898. It was originally known as "Eneanea" and was discovered by Captain Paul of the American vessel Felina in November, 1802. An expedition conducted by Capt. Zenas Leonard took possession of it in the name of the Hawaiian Kingdom in 1842. It was annexed by Great Britain in May, 1880, and later became a possession of the Hawaiian Islands, being included in them when those islands with all their dependencies became a part of the territory of the United States.

Head Times Want

LINCOLN, Neb., Aug. 10.—The fate of Walter Jay Simmons, sentenced to die in the electric chair here tomorrow for murder, rested today in the hands of a jury of twelve men.

Governor McCallen has refused to grant further clemency to the condemned man unless established strong enough to cast doubt on Simmons' guilt as produced.

Legend and Mystery About Nevada Lake

From the earliest settlement of Nevada the legend of a gigantic serpent inhabiting the depths of Pyramid lake has been told. The serpent is said to enter the lake through a vast underground passage extending from the Pacific ocean and is supposed to exist since prehistoric times.

Basking in the depths of the lake, it lies in wait for luckless adventures, drags down boats and canoes and devours its victims. The legend has been investigated by many scientists and some contend that the serpent is really a large mass of ice, or a large breed in the usually placid waters. But this opinion is favored by Indians and the old white settlers who have caught fleeting glimpses of the mammoth snake.

Pyramid lake is an inland sea of mystery. Situated 200 miles from the ocean, its idea swarms with vast flocks of waterfowl and pelicans. The lake receives the discharge of the Truckee river but has no outlet and the waters are fresh and abound in trout and other fish.

The best way to mind your own business is to tell others about it through this newspaper.

McAdoo Says Bryan Quits Cabinet Because of Passion for Peace

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., Aug. 10.—William Jennings Bryan quit the Wilson cabinet in 1915 because of his passionate love for peace, William Gibbs McAdoo declared here Sunday.

McAdoo said that the reason Bryan quit the cabinet was because of his passion for peace and his belief that if the steps which the administration felt bound to take with respect to Germany it was a fight worth to war that cost him to resign as secretary of state.

"The best Wilson and Mr. Bryan ever committed by president of the United States were differences were merely of opinion as to the best method of accomplishing the end."

Four-Beamed Clover Has Long Been Luck Symbol
That a four-beamed clover will bring luck to the owner who finds it is an ancient superstition that has been in no way of learning for a certainty long it started. Old writers suggest that its resemblance to the form of the cross is the root of the notion.

"The person who carries a lot of the four-beamed clover about with him is considered to be successful in any and all of his business, or the sudden joy, by slipping a leaf into her lover's shoe will bring him good luck, as it is about to get out on a journey, wears his sure and safe return to her embrace."

It may be noted that the three-beamed clover also had some virtue, because it symbolized the Trinity, and was used by the monks. It was used to protect the whole Irish people to Christianity by showing them, through the trifoliate leaf of the shamrock, how the three persons in the Godhead might exist and yet be one.

Grammatical Slips

"Educated men don't say 'don't,'" remarks a great lawyer of New York, now gone to rest. "But they do, and it, even then. They also say 'ain't' when they are not thinking about it, and may get come as saying 'definitely.' While they are about it, they may even take 'it's me' under their protecting wings.—New York World.

ADOPTED GIRL

had told the millionaire he would be unable to permit her to stay at Kew Gardens.

On advice of the district attorney, Browning had engaged Miss Virginia Glendon to act as companion to the millionaire.

Her moral shattered by the district attorney's grilling, Mary was hysterical and wept almost constantly. She sat at a corner of the living room for an hour, refused to move from her chair. She was more cheerful Sunday morning, perhaps realizing that her brief but exciting career as Glendon's near neighbor was over.

Let in the day a man who described himself as a movie agent, arrived at the house, accompanied by Brownling. He urged the young woman to allow him to place her in the movies, saying he could assure her a most enviable position.

Browning urged Mary not to accept the agent's proposition. But in vain. He urged the young woman to allow him to place her in the movies, saying he could assure her a most enviable position.

Byrd S. Coler, commissioner of public welfare today planned to enter with consent for Mrs. Anne St. John of Rye, N. Y., former lover, mother of Dorothy Sunning, Brownling's daughter, to be adopted by St. John in a letter to Coler last week sought the custody of 9-year-old Dorothy.

TO THE PARENTS OF SCHOOL CHILDREN

The District Dental Society of Southern Idaho wishes to call attention to the fact that little or no dental work is done for children during summer vacations, and as soon as school starts dentists are flooded with after-school appointments for months.

This puts an extra burden on the child and dentist alike, and could be avoided by having all dental operations leisurely done during vacation when dentists are not so busy.

Published Every Evening Except Sunday by the Times Publishing Company, Twin Falls, Idaho.

Twin Falls county looks like the Garden of Eden as you drive from one end of the county to the other these days. Crops never looked so wonderful and with the exception of a small belt where the hail did some damage, the tract is a real bonanza as far as production is concerned. We feel that this land never produced a larger yield than it has today and the farmers on both sides of the river should "clean up" this fall.

There is danger of going to the extreme in this doctrine of fundamentalism by some of our ardent church folks. It seems to be a failing of human nature to feel that unless you believe as I do you are all wrong and should be worked over. Yet we should remember that there are thinking people on both sides of this question and in our zeal for our particular side of the issue we should be careful not to offend some of those who differ from us. Because a man believes in evolution is no reason why he should be denied the privilege of worshipping with other folks regardless of his opinion on this subject. If the issue is drawn too tightly then those who differ will be driven from the church organization and that body will be less able to combat the evil forces. Of course if you class those who believe in evolution as belonging to the evil crowd then perhaps the better plan is to force them out of the church or compel them to come over to your way of thinking. But this last process is hard to arrive at because men have differed for ages on this and other religious questions and to try to bring them together on this issue is almost hypothetical.

Billy Sunday has come and gone and has left his imprint on this community in a sense. Some will continue to curse and many will bless his name and his message as the human race have always done since we came on the earth and began expressing opinions on things secular and religious. The theory that Billy preaches is that he is trying to make it easy for men to do right and hard for them to do wrong is worth while. This is or should be the theory of the human race and the more men we can get to doing this the better off we will all be. Whether we agree with Rev. Sunday does not count for so much but the message which he brings should linger in the minds and hearts of Twin Falls county folks for days to come. Whether we remember him as a spectacular preacher or whether we forget his peculiarities and try to remember the good he is trying to do and teach is the main issue. We believe that Billy Sunday is perfectly natural in his acrobatic stunts on the platform and while some may declare he is crazy and mad and so forth, yet nevertheless this is being said of about half the human race daily.

WE SWIPED THIS

Dear Subscriber: A few days ago we sent a letter to ten of our most valued readers, reminding them that their subscriptions were in arrears, and gently hinting that an early remittance would be appreciated.

Five of them promptly paid up. One replied that he would pay "next week"—but he died the following Saturday. Another said he would pay "the next time he stays." He went blind, and yet another replied that he would "run down and pay some time." He has the rheumatism now and can't even walk. The ninth said he would "see us in h—l first." He got religion that night and will not be able to keep the appointment.

We have not heard from the tenth one yet, and the tenth one happened to be you. We have not taken your name off the list as yet because it seems "sporter" natural to see it there. We have been pretty good sports to leave it there all this time. Won't you be an equally good sport and see that it stays "put"? We are sure you will. Let us hear from you.

WASHINGTON DAILY NEWS LETTER

BY CHARLES P. STEWART

WASHINGTON—Where North American citizenship falls down in South America is being tried in the United States. In trying to make South American respect what North Americans think they ought to do, instead of offering them what they really do want.

South American's always have resented the Monroe Doctrine's value to them as a guarantee of the strong protection of the United States, but they also always have been a little suspicious of it as possibly amounting to what they call "the Monroe Doctrine" might some time consider a way to interfere in their affairs.

American protection we've enjoyed. All their suspicion of the doctrine vanished. Threatened with the loss of the United States, they are now learning that the benefits of such a change are greater even than they had thought, because a change of some usually means a change of climate as well. Temperature, the amount of moisture in the air, the light above, and all these things can affect our health.

Just at this point the then secretary of the United States Hughes took occasion to state that the doctrine was exclusively in North America's interest and applied to the United States only. It was immaterial whether the United States was to be benefited or not, it was only of their business. That settled everything. It is now known all the South American central suspicion, only this time they had learned to harbor them. Hughes had been told that Secretary Hughes had confirmed them in their worst form. And straightaway they are trying to bring themselves as lightly as possible to the League of Nations.

The "Squid Ball"!

With one hundred beautiful girls and one hundred beautiful boys, dancing horses prancing to the strains of the famous "Squid Ball" band, it is no wonder that it is called "The Art Beautiful."

The spectacle with more handsome boys and more beautiful girls than has been dreamed possible, will charm you when the A. G. Brown Big Four Ring Circus comes to Twin Falls Friday, August 11.

COLLEEN MOORE ENACTS ROLE OF "SALLY" IN LATEST PICTURE

Those who enjoyed the stage version of "Sally" and its musical success, "Sally," in which Marilyn Miller made her permanent success will find added joy in First National's screen version of the same piece, starting this evening. The picture, "Sally," which comes to the screen this evening, is a beautiful picture. Colleen Moore brings to the role of "Sally" a genuine sympathetic interpretation that unquestionably will make this role an outstanding bit of her long list of successes. "Sally" calls for much human interest, pathos, fine temperament and delightful acting.

Weather and Health

Different kinds of weather affect different people in different ways, but the same thing being true when the sun is shining. Many by an ordinary day, a cool, bracing day, a friend, factors frequently order their patients a "change of scene," and they are now learning that the benefits of such a change are greater even than they had thought, because a change of some usually means a change of climate as well. Temperature, the amount of moisture in the air, the light above, and all these things can affect our health.

BUHL NEWS

Board of Education of Buhl delays school opening until after Fall Week.

The public schools will not open this fall until Monday, September 14, through action taken by the board of education at their last meeting according to M. M. Van Patten, superintendent of schools. The reason for this Mr. Van Patten says was on account of conflicting dates of the county fair, which will be held on Sept. 8, 9, 10, 11. The school board had found that school attendance during the fair week is very irregular and un satisfactory and it was deemed advisable to try the plan of beginning school a week later.

The school buildings are being cleaned and repaired and made ready for the opening of the next term. An expert from the factory which built the heating system in the school buildings has been here and examined the plants. He has suggested some repairs which it is hoped will prove effective in more economical operation of the system. The janitors are making the repairs asked for. A full course of teachers began on Monday.

ROAD BUILDING

BETTER HIGHWAYS AID TO BUSINESS

The business value of getting people into their stores is appreciated by all merchants. That is the reason for which they advertise. Once a prospective customer is inside a store there is opportunity for a sale. A merchant who may have a good line of merchandise, his prices may be reasonable, his display may be attractive, but the people must be brought in with a good road to his store or they will not come there. The merchant who does not make the fastest use of his streets if they are muddy or dusty, and the merchants will not enjoy the trade they should have if their prospective customers cannot find good roads to their stores.

Any street in any community can be made attractive by the simple expedient of paving it properly, and it is to the advantage of every taxpayer to help highway officials or the town council put through improved high-class street improvement programs. People who own business or residence property are learning every day that civic improvements that call for the proper paving of streets are the best kind of investments—investments that pay many dividends.

The well-paved street is worth money to every merchant on it, as well as being highly convenient for shoppers. A well-paved business street will impel customers to the door, with consequent increase in business as the opportunity is offered customers to make their purchases without the inconvenience of muddy, dirty, dusty pavements.

Clean, pleasant, healthful surroundings are most attractive in any real estate district. This condition is provided in a well-paved street, besides making it safer for children as well as for the motorist. Property values go up where a well-paved street replaces a rutted, impassable thoroughfare. Cities are judged very largely by the attractiveness of their streets. Strangers looking about for locations are quick to judge the business and social standards of the community by its streets.

Potato Crop of U. S. Reduced

Unprofitable prices for most of the 1924 potato crop induced growers to cut the main crop during this spring, and the prospective yield has been further slashed by frost and dry weather, according to the Sears-Roebuck Agricultural Foundation index for July. Prices probably will average higher and the total income for the present crop should exceed the receipts of last year when prices frequently were below cost of production. Prices on old potatoes had a sharp advance in the first half of the month, but the final advance from the bumper 1924 crop averaged cheaper than for the previous year. The market for southern and western market grades of Idaho, Idaho, Idaho. The market outlook is promising from intermediate sections now starting to ship.

Roadway Will Run to Old French Port Toulouse

Tulsa are under way for the building of a highway to the old French Port Toulouse, which was an Indian town nearly 400 years ago.

Fort Toulouse is in Blaine county, near Montgomery, Ala. A short distance from one of the principal highways leading into the city and it is the intention of historical experts to make this site available to tourists.

The plan was launched by Peter A. Brannon, curator of the Alabama Department of Archives and History, who was only recently that a marker was placed at old Fort Toulouse, near Montgomery, Ala., which Lafayette is to sight-on his way to Montgomery.

Fort Toulouse is rich in history. A grant was made to the State of Alabama to commemorate the old French Port of 1714, which is a miniature replica of the fort erected to General Monro on the plains of Alabama at Quebec. The old French cemetery is at Fort Toulouse, and here some of the men who were buried there place becoming known as Fort Jackson. The treaty of 1814 by which the Indians ceded all their lands south of Fort Jackson to the United States was signed there.

Prisoner's Fate Left to Trial by Jury. As recently as the beginning of the battle of Iloilo, the gallant old hero, General Duguesne, plunged into the sea an old woman reputed to be a sorceress, who on persistently being asked by boiling water was pronounced guilty and beaten to death. Criminal men may instance of battle of Iloilo, Saratoga, and the battle of Bunker Hill. It was in use in Ireland from a very early period. In the primitive jurisprudence of Rome, accused by boiling water was enjoined in case of minor importance, in the Mosaic law we find burning iron ore used where the matter at stake amounted to more than half a grina of gold. A curious survival of ordeal especially prevailed all over the peninsula of India, and it was in use in southern Russia. When a theft was committed in a household the servants were summoned together and a sorcerer was sent for. Should a confessor be found by the jury, the accused rolled up as many little balls as there were suspects; each person present took one of these balls and, addressing the nearest servant, used this formula: 'If you have cooked the thief the ball will sink to the bottom of the vase; but if you are innocent it will float.' The accused then threw the ball into the water. The accuracy of this trial, however, was seldom tested. The guilty person usually confessed before the balls were cast, and the innocent were saved.
