MAROA NEWS

Bridge Party. Mrs. William T. Leslie was hostess at a bridge party held last Saturday evening at her home on Sixth Avenue east Thursday evening. From the four tables at play Mrs. R. Johnson was the winner. The money was distributed among the charities in favor of late summer garden flowers, amphorae and other garden.

This is the second of a series of parties given by Mrs. Leslie, the first of which will be given Monday evening.

Business Women's Interclub. Thursday day evening the business women's club entertained in their club room in home of Alice Emma Holmquist. A new member married to Wayne Penner was given a warm welcome. A mock wedding made up the main feature of the program. The bride was in the ballroom in Oklahoma. The honored guest was presented with a piece of silver by the club. Late in the evening the delightful members present enjoyed a sumptuous meal.

Thursday afternoon Mrs. H. J. Youngs assisted by Madeline, Priscilla, Helen and Dorothy, sons of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Youngs, were present at a meeting of the Presbyterian missionary society. Mrs. A. G. Peterson was the featured speaker. A sketch entitled "A Walk on the Belle Vue conference by Margaret Owens, Mrs. Simpson, Mrs. Churchill and Mrs. Lee" was a talk on the work of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Wilson, missionaries from Presia, Mrs. Hall and a vocal solo by Mrs. Owens. After the program delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses.

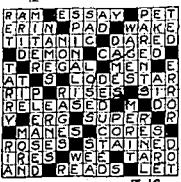

Thursday afternoon Mr. Robert W. Long, of the county attorney, and friends of his son, Robert Jr., in honor of his third birthday. The afternoon was spent in telling stories and games. Party refreshments were served at the close of the games by Mrs. Long, assisted by her sister, Mrs. Helen, and Miss Virginia Krikorian. The cake, adage of milk and white was carried out in the delectable birthday cake and in the individual cakes. The children and adults were delighted by unusual favors of small wheelbarrows containing dolls for the girls and horns and frog shaped for the boys. Mrs. Long, Mrs. Mary Haynes, Elizabeth Bracken, Claire Bracken, Barbara Cavanagh, Peggy Cavanagh, Nellie Johnson, Edna Johnson, Shirley Stewart, Joanne Sutter, Tommy Woods, Betty Brown, Harry Henon, Charley McVay, Alan Fletcher, Edward Brumley, Charles Langford, Anna Peever, Alene Durval and Albert Bonnot.

The Highland Club dined at the country home of Mr. C. W. Hudon Wednesday afternoon. Roll call was answered with greetings for school days past. The most popular suggestion was that daily refreshments should be served by the hostesses.

Thursday afternoon Mrs. A. D. Fletcher was hostess to the Ensign Lodge bridge club at her home on Second Avenue north, at which time were two initiates. Mrs. Fletcher and J. W. Williams won high score, and Mrs. Fletcher was low. Decorations consisted of a profusion of适宜ly arranged and delicious refreshments were served. Mrs. Fletcher was a guest of the occasion. The next meeting will be with F. Fletcher on Fourth avenue.

THE U. S. BUREAU OF STANDARDS is the "Supreme Court" in matters of lubrication. It is the highest authority there is. From its decision there is no appeal. In a recent test of 13 brands of motor oil, selected by the largest refineries as the very cream of their motor oils, the Bureau of Standards reported that VICO possessed the highest flash point of all—525 degree Fahrenheit.

The flash point is the temperature at which oil gives off enough vapor to momentarily ignite when a small flame is applied to it. Oil has to reach its flash point before it will burn.

What This Means to You—

VICO'S high flash point insures a safe lubrication at all temperatures. The oil retains a sufficient viscosity, or "body," to protect bearing surfaces and cylinder walls under all conditions. Yet Vico costs no more than other oil! Why he satisfied with anything less than the best oil for your motor!

Consider the Experience of the BLUE STAGE LINE!

As for actual performance under different conditions, read the following extract from a letter written by the Blue Stage Line, which operates a 105-horsepower Eagle Coach between Boise and Twin Falls, Idaho, on a daily schedule:

"In a careful check during 620 miles, our Eagle Coach has used only two gallons of Vico motor oil. This, we think, speaks for itself. To us, the performance of Vico motor oil conclusively proves its ability to stand up under heat and high pressure. The above record certainly shows that Vico has the 'body' to withstand the grueling work demanded of it."

TWIN FALLS DAILY TIMES

PUBLISHED Every Evening Except Sunday by the Times Publishing Company, Twin Falls, Idaho.

Entered at the Twin Falls Post Office as Second Class Matter as a Daily Publication, April 11, 1918.

The Twin Falls Lodge of Elks are planning to take a big delegation to Burley for the annual reunion and they should be given every possible encouragement in this undertaking. Our city will be judged somewhat by the showing we make in the parade. The Twin Falls band will be ample evidence that the Magic City has some of the best musicians in the state.

The ram sale at Filer this week was one of the big events in livestock circles of this section of Idaho. The demand was far greater for this class of stock than anyone had expected and the sales topped the market in many instances. Of course the price did not come near the remarkable Detweiler ram which sold for seventeen hundred dollars a few years ago in Utah, but no one was expecting such a spectacular bid as that happened to be.

The rim to rim bridge is a project which should not be overlooked by the citizens of Twin Falls and we hope that this project will be pushed hard in the near future. This bridge will tend to make possible greater co-operation between the two tracts and anything which brings about more co-operation and makes it easier for people with like problems and aims to get together should be encouraged.

The West Pearl Oil company is getting quite a little encouragement in Twin Falls county and this is proper and right. The people who are backing this oil well are putting the proposition up purely as a test case. They say, let's sink this well down to four thousand feet and then if we don't find oil let's forget it and turn our attention to other affairs. In other words, investors are invited to put up a small amount of money to determine whether there is oil bearing sand in southern Idaho and if after a careful test it is found that there isn't then the plan is to forget it and charge off what we have invested as expense.

We agree largely with our county auditor that the last legislature should have made Twin Falls county a county of the first class. The fact that it would have meant a slight raise to some of our county officials is of little importance because we feel that those officials are perhaps worth more than they are getting. At least none of them are getting anything like union bricklayers in Chicago and we feel that it takes just as much mentality to serve this county as a thorough going officer as it does to lay brick or perform some other similar task. There are a good many other reasons why this county should become a first class county and especially so since other counties were thus classified with less population and a less valuation.

ARBITRATION AND COAL

Beneath the glib sarcasm of President Lewis' letter to the anthracite operators lies a fact which the public will not be slow to grasp if the miners call a strike on September 1. From the start the operators have urged the arbitration of all questions. Mr. Lewis has contemptuously "declined." That sounds ill fit a world that is learning to designate as "aggressor" the party to a dispute who refuses arbitration. His ostensible reason is that, in 1920, the operators brought to bear upon the arbitrator inducements other than those of reason and justice. As a result of their "previous arbitration treatment," he writes, "the final decision of the arbitrator was changed between twilit and dawn." No one knows better than Mr. Lewis the hollowness of this insinuation. The miners' real objection, often tacitly admitted, is that an arbitrator regards the public as having a legitimate interest in the dispute and decides accordingly. Mr. Lewis wishes to make the conflict a duel with the operators.—N. Y. Times.

WASHINGTON DAILY NEWS LETTER

By CHARLES P. STEWART,

U.S. Service Writer
Washington, D. C.
When Frank Murphy selected him last March everybody thought he was going to make his own ideas of what a cabinet ought to be. Up to that time he never had been in the Cabinet, as nearly as he could, the whole President Harding had started him.

On his own election to the presidency, however, he generally was taken for granted he wanted an "old-line" cabinet. Murphy's utterances on money matters were much admired. He was a man of means. More's the author, so goes the way.

Today the Secretary of the Treasury, who is absolute head of the treasury, has nobody's advice. He is a statesman and his detailed statements are well received. Codding's utterances on money matters are much admired. He is a man of means. More's the author, so goes the way.

Yester evening the president gave a glance down the list of his cabinet and said, "I am not satisfied with the cabinet as it stands. I am going to make a single change. The president could have avoided making this change if he had not been so anxious to retire. After the election, or before, he was to be secretary of the Navy Dept., his resignation was forced on him as a result of the fact that he was assumed the buckup had begun."

THE MACEDONIAN CALL

LESSON TEXT—Act 16:15.

GOLDEN TEXT—"Come over unto me, all ye that labor and are沉重 burdened."

PRIMARY TOPIC—Paul's Wonderful Vision.

SECOND TOPIC—Paul Called to Labor.

INTERMISSION AND BENCH TOPIC—The Macedonian Call and What It Teaches Us.

YOUTH TOPIC—Adult Topic.

IDEAS FOR CHILDREN—God in Adults.

1. Forbidding by the Holy Spirit to Preach.

The inclination of Paul and his companions was to tarry in the provinces of Asia Minor preaching the Word, but contrary to their inclination they were hurried along. There were reasons enough in themselves to move the Gospel. They might have reasoned, what difference would it make where we preach if the Gospel is preached? We have here a fine lesson on Divine Providence. The Holy Spirit is an omnipotent and faithful teacher, and as we obey him we open our hearts to the "shut-out" of the "spirit of opposition."

2. The Call of Macedonia (v. 12).

The Gospel having broken the confines of the Jewish city and country, the middle wall of partition having been abolished, the time has come for us to break through the boundaries of our狭隘的 thought and begin our conquest on another continent. Christianity thus ceased to be an oriental religion, and through the centuries has been gradually accelerated.

3. The Advance (v. 10-12).

An soon as the Divine way was known, the Macedonians reacted directly. Visions must be quickly translated and aggressive action taken or else they are blotted from our skins. Paul never questions the wisdom of God in his divine action. This is a lesson for our youth.

4. The Advance (v. 10-12).

The Macedonians first went to Thessaloniki and spent several days in studying conditions there. The Jewish element in this city was comparatively insignificant. So much so that the Macedonians were surprised to learn that the converts were mostly Gentiles. Therefore, the devout people were accustomed to worship by the river side. To this humble gathering Paul came and preached to the women assembled there. The Macedonians then returned to their homes. The name Jason, a proselyte, believed his message and was baptized. The steps of Lydia's conversion are worthy of note, for they are typical:

With Public Library Is Planned

Shelves in the high school library in its new location have already been erected with the exception of one section which is still being installed. The 2,300 books will be in place and ready for use within a few days. New shelves have been added and placed on the shelves in the additional section before the beginning of the school year. This step which enables the school administration to make available much to the convenience of students of both the high school and the junior high will be one of the several changes that will be made during the present fall in this and other schools.

In Former Study Hall

When constructed with the junior high part of the building the No. 102 room in the library is now being used for the purpose. However, it was found that at that time the old library room was too small. Hence the new room was used as a study hall while the old one was retained for its former purpose. Due to the smallness of the room the increased patronage of the library made the situation altogether unsatisfactory. The seating capacity was then reduced to 100 because of the lack of room. Under the new system, the reading room will be as large as the original room and the additional shelving installed, but there will not be space for the shelves but ample room for two more rows of seats. Miss Stella Gibbons who spent the summer in California planning library work, will have charge.

Use Public Library

Under a system being worked out with Miss Steele, plans are being made to open the library for the city, the library will be patronized more than ever before by students during the coming year. There will be ample room for the teaching of mathematics for which Twin Falls is noted, and the room will have enough seats on three sides, it is especially fitted.

From library to athletics seems something of a jump, but the students are no less interested in the alterations in library facilities than the students are in athletics for regularity. The removal of the stables will be followed by the rounding of corners at the northwest and southwest of the building with much of the possible trouble of car collisions, of which complaint has been made and the whole field will be larger than at present when the alteration is completed, owing to the removal of the stables.
