STATES RELY TOO MUCH ON U. S. FINANCE

Centralization of Power in Hands of Government Is Developing Too Fast Says
Congressman; Requests
For Appropriations Now
Amounts to Four and a Half Billions.

PORLTAL, Ore., Aug. 25.—States are relying too heavily upon the federal government for appropriations, said George W. Madden, Illinois congressman, at a meeting of the Western State Taxpayers conference.

In pursuance of his program to reduce government expenditures, Madden pointed to the fact that within the last year he has requested amounts from the executive office amounting to $4,650,000,000 have been rejected. As a consequence he has been the author of many amendment documents over various development funds.

The states ask for money for public roads, for forests or parks, for mineral resources, for a variety of trifles," said Madden. "If they get an appropriation, the government takes supervision. The states want that the states have and the centralization of government becomes that much stronger."

"State work should be done by the state. Power should be kept at home."

You can't transfer the brain of a state operation to the wooden head of the government. A bill of exchange is not flexible. Requests for appropriations, particularly for public roads, are imperative. Our roads are in a deplorable condition, with vast domains of public lands are handicapped and that in all decency they should be aided but the general tendency is wrong."

Shippers Will Have Organization for Rate and Traffic

BOISE, Idaho, Aug. 25.—Formation of an organization to represent shippers interests of the state of Idaho in railroad rate and traffic matters before the Interstate commerce commission was agreed to at a conference called by the public utilities commission, he held at the state capital today, August 25.

The commission has sent circular letters to chambers of commerce and other civic clubs throughout the state suggesting that they form a public conference for Idaho, what the intermediate rate association has been doing for years in matters concerning the intermountain states.

EAST CHICAGO, Ind.—Mickey Walker, welter-weight champion of the world, won a popular decision here last night over Sol Groman, but lost his title, an overwhelming point lead in the opening rounds sending his opponent to the mat for a count of two in the first round. He was stopped after the last three rounds but was unable to overcome Walker's lead.

TROOPS WILL GUARD MINES
SAYS GOVERNOR

TROOPS WILL ...
OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Aug. 25.—Troops will be maintained indefinitely in the Henryetta oil fields, Governor M. E. Trapp, asserted yesterday.

The governor declared, he was through with "this armistice preparation."

"I called a conference yesterday of miners and operators to get the miners to promise three things: 'Obey,' 'Stay home' and 'Don't walk out,'" said the governor.

"When you can't arrest a man for disturbing the peace, it is dangerous to have him around," he said.

The governor indicated that he blamed the recent decision of the state court of criminal appeals for continued presence of the military at the oil fields.

"The troops will be maintained to protect property and lives in the Tyrone district," Governor Trapp declared.

IDAHO BANDIT IS DYING AFTER GUN BATTLE

LEWISTON, Idaho, Aug. 25.—Donald Mathewson, 24, was believed to be dying here today after a gun battle with deputy sheriffs.

They sought to arrest him and a companion who were attempting to rob a mercantile company at Orofino, Idaho, early this morning.

Mathewson was shot through the stomach by Deputy Sheriff Fred Erskine. The other bandit escaped.

KIWANIS CREATES NEW DISTRICTS IN UTAH-IDAHO

DENVER, Colo., Aug. 25.—Chas. E. Shultz, manager of the denver branch of the denver national bank of Pueblo, Colo. and escaped from the federal prison at Leavenworth, Kansas, last Friday here to tell his story.

He had broken the bank at Pueblo in 1916, leaving a shortage of $25,000. He escaped from the federal penitentiary last February, where he was serving a sentence for embezzlement.

At the time of his escape he believed he had made the principal act of the convention of the two states here yesterday and found the additional attention upon the writer of interest for today—the annual meeting of officers.

Each of the newly created sections group about the principal cities and towns, and those in the northern part of the state from which he had been separated.

Slaughter was arrested here last night with a woman, Miss Ethel Landry, with whom he was living. In his arrest he was shot twice.

When questioned at police headquarters last night, the man said he had been in the city to search for $10,000 which he had hidden and thought to have been given to the Pueblo bank last.

He had been in the Pueblo section but did not know him and it was not until he was taken to the station that he was identified. He carried no identification papers.

A license issued to him was identified as stolen caused his arrest, but one of the most interesting developments came when he was arrested with police concerning an offer he had made to rent her house.

Slaughter said after his escape he had been in the city to search for his wife here 30 days ago. Since coming here he had been to Pueblo twice and none of his former business associates had recognized him, he revealed.

Slaughter has a wife and two children who have been living with him in Texas since his wrecked the Pueblo bank.

COOLIDGE FINDS PROPAGANDA VS. ECONOMY POLICY

Washington Propaganda for Future National Defense Program Is Resented by the President; Army Spends Too Much.

SWAMPSCOTT, Mass., Aug. 25.—President Coolidge is determined to carry on his plan of economy in 1926.

Mr. Coolidge presents what he regards as Washington propaganda against his economy campaign. It was a clear statement of the president's stand on the budget for 1926.

It will be the first since a frugal budget was adopted in 1923.

The president's budget is full of new spending items.

The report of the budget committee of the Senate, however, is full enough to pick him up.

A license issued to him was identified as stolen caused his arrest, but one of the most interesting developments came when he was arrested with police concerning an offer he had made to rent her house.

Slaughter said after his escape he had been in the city to search for his wife here 30 days ago. Since coming here he had been to Pueblo twice and none of his former business associates had recognized him, he revealed.

Slaughter has a wife and two children who have been living with him in Texas since his wrecked the Pueblo bank.

COLDEN, Kan., Aug. 25.—Posse from the section of Salina, Kansas, and surrounding towns and Sheriff Dan Pratt on the highway near here yesterday to give the response to the address of welcome delivered by Mayor C. H. Ross and the Rev. George S. Shaw of Topeka.

"More states ought to cease their policy of giving a free hand to the lawless," said the speaker.

The speaker has been a member of the W. L. Wanless of Topeka, has had the honor during the past year.

Against him, however, there is being urged a particularly strong candidate from Utah in the person of Walter St. John, who is making a strong effort in a campaign which was well under way before he was placed in the public eye, too, through the fact that he is known as one of Utah's most ardent supporters of the Ku Klux Klan.

He has pointed out that shipping a large truck was used to block the highway here, the boy was shot in the eye, too, through the fact that he is known as one of Utah's most ardent supporters of the Ku Klux Klan.

BAD LUCK IS PERSUADING THE N. Y. GIANTS

History of Baseball Does Not Record Such a Succession of Reverses As Have Beaten John McGraw's Giants During This Season; Ban Johnson Says It Is Poor Pitching Rather Than Long Hitting.

BY HENRY L. FAIRHALL
NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—McGraw has had his share of many campaigns with his New York Giants to cry about, but he loses the National League pennant, and the club could blame the loss on bad luck.

It is not so evident that any plausibly team suffered the consecutive reverses suffered by the regular team of the Giants from almost the very opening of the season. Every infielder on the team has been out of the game for a part of the season, and the regular captain of the team, was laid up twice with fractured finger bones.

McGraw learned years ago that injuries are an inheritance of the game, and he has always kept in mind the importance of reserve strength, especially in the case of the production of cheap ball, which has made the game much more hazardous to pitchers and fielders.

Before the season started, many analysts picked the Giants to win their fourth consecutive pennant because McGraw had a team of star regulars and another team on the bench that was almost as good. The team, which had a bad start, but an extraordinary run of bad luck could disable the club.

McGraw, full of reserves and it was a good thing he had taken the previous year off, however, the use of first class substitutes, otherwise the team would have sunk into the second division.

It is true that the Giants played some very bad baseball on their last western trip, but even if team under the lash of McGraw could not help but become disheartened with such a record, it had to be bad.

You can imagine what would have happened to the Washington Senators last year if they had an many injuries, the kind that plagued the New York team, two would have become the Pittsburgh Pirates this season if they didn't have their full strength in the field. The Boston Red Sox, the Cincinnati Reds fared early in the season when they were having a run of bad breaks.

The return of little Dicky Kerr to the Chicago White Sox after his exile in the semi-pro provinces was welcomed by all fans who admire fast play.

Little Dicky, one of the few players who really deserved the title of "Dicky Sox" sold out in the 1919 series and two would have become the Pittsburgh Pirates this season if they didn't have their full strength in the field. The Boston Red Sox, the Cincinnati Reds fared early in the season when they were having a run of bad breaks.

The return of little Dicky Kerr to the Chicago White Sox after his exile in the semi-pro provinces was welcomed by all fans who admire fast play.

Comiskey always can be held partially to blame for the breakups his players because he did not pay them enough salary to hold their loyalty and to strengthen them against the temptation of some easy money.

Kerr, however, was allowed to get out of the American league and now that he is back it is to be hoped that he will do as he did in 1919 and that he will deserve of the good breaks that he deserves.

Ban Johnson, president of the American League, is up in arms at the critics who claim that no changes have been made in the rules for the purpose of encouraging long distance hitting in the major leagues.

"Poor pitching," he says, "is to blame for the increase in hitting. The good pitchers do not have trouble with the bats."

Johnson said he would not support the suggestion of the National League that pitchers be allowed to use rubber balls under the supervision of the umpires.
