

INCREASE IN FARM PROFIT CLAIMS MADE

Former Research Director Declares More Than Five Billion Paid Producer in Year Ending June, 1925; Can. Stand Freight Rate Advanced.

CHICAGO, Ill., Sept. 14.—Farmers made a profit of $5,140,000,000 in the year ending June 1925, H. W. Moorhouse, former research director for the American Farm Bureau federation, testified today before Clyde Allison, chairman of the interstate commerce commission, holding hearings here on the petition of western railroads for a 5 per cent increase in freight rates.

The figure represents an increase of $2,219,000,000 or 82 per cent over the 1924 profit, he said. Moorhouse's testimony was intended to show that the farmers can afford an increase in rates. "When from the farmer not sales there are deducted, their interest must be paid on the land, and they paid their hired hands and their expenditures for farm implements, for fuel, for the various other materials and supplies needed in the business of agriculture, their net remained at the end of the fiscal year, June 30, 1925, $5,140,000,000, or $5,140,000,000," he said. The return has been exceeded only three times in the past 16 years, he testified, all caused by war-time inflation of agricultural prices. "The return is ample and striking proof of the present agricultural prosperity," he testified.

The purchasing power of western farmers, he said, is not only above the pre-war level, Moorhouse said. This compares with a 36 per cent increase for the farmers of the country as a whole, he pointed out.

HONOLULU, T. H., Sept. 14.—Zealously guarded by his friends and friends, Commander John Rodgers and his mates of the zeppelin PN-9 today continued to revel in their experience during their 218 hours drift at sea.

Apparently suffering no ill effects from the strain of the public display Saturday afternoon, the aircraft carrier, at the honor of officers' friends. They spent last night at the Hotel Harker hospital, where physicians pronounced them "almost sure."

Commander Rodgers is to leave for Honolulu San Francisco, in several long messages to Admiral S. S. Robinson which he returned there, from which port they returned here, from which port they returned here, from which port they returned here.

Crews yesterday inspected the PN-9 at Pearl Harbor. The aircraft was apparently still damaged in its battle with waves and wind. After the fabric removed to be used as a sail and the wooden parts torn away to take the place of fibrous under the water still, which made the sail water drinkable, there are few parts which will need polishing, mechanics said.

Next Next, Ward Plans. WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—Commander John Rodgers, of the PN-9 today notified Secretary of the Navy Wilbur that he would prefer to remain on duty with the airman in the present administration of the navy bureau of aeronautics in which Wilbur appointed him last Friday.

In a radio message from Honolulu Rodgers told Wilbur he appreciated the honor of the appointment but that he would prefer to stay with the airplane forces "unless in your opinion my services will be more valuable in the department."

"I have knowledge of certain facts in which I feel certain members of the aircraft board will be interested," he said. "Unless this body calls in persons who can perceive defects in the present administration of the air service, it will be impossible for the board to study thoroughly the major problems involved in it by the president."

DAWA TRANSCRIPT
 Dawa Shoffit in Nibret's (Hannan) the 130, 413,622 pt. NW SW 20, Sec. 24, Twp. 10 N., R. 10 E., Co. 10 W., Idaho. It costs Dawa farmers delivered nearly 1 cent per pound.
 When we sell our hay to sheep and feed it on the ground we already add this 1 cent per pound fertility to the hay, and consider that we are not only increasing our price but also compensating interest in addition. We should not just take the net cash per bushel of wheat and lose that figure as the relative value of the hay.
 We are particularly fortunate in being situated in the midst of many great mountain ranges and forest reserves, which can run in our favor in the winter and dry hay; they run on our sandstone, desert and mountain scenery in the summer, improving them and increasing their value as they go. It is the same mountain ranges which furnish us with an abundance of water to irrigate our lands. The soil which is shipped out has no fertilizing elements in it. The sixteen million pounds we produce a year in Idaho take none of the virgin soil elements that wheat does out of the soil when it grows.
 Wood Brings Big Returns.
 The wood will bring back about 300,000,000 of outside money this year into the state. And as far as the lands are concerned, they are grown almost entirely on ranges. They will bring in another fifteen million dollars of outside money this year.
 The best thing to do is to get our forests and mountains. In other words, they are the by-product of our hay divisions on our waste lands, and a handsome dividend too.
 A chance at the attached map will show the relative portions of Idaho which are waste, public domain, forest, and agricultural lands and will explain why livestock should not be huddled off the ranges by any bureau at Washington.
 It is raising alfalfa in relation to the livestock on which it depends that our farms that will keep up our production, applying just good common business sense, to our operations we can have as favorable and as progressive a people as any district in America.

 So my point in all this is—that the foundation crop of agriculture in Idaho on which it depends, the raising of practically all other crops in the state is alfalfa hay; that alfalfa will not be raised to any extent if there is no local market for it—shipping is too expensive; and that livestock is almost the sole market for it. Therefore livestock in Idaho is the basic industry as far as Idaho agriculture is concerned.

BUHL WINS HOT GAME FROM EDEN

BUHL, Ida, Sept. 14.—The Buhl Grays won a championship game yesterday on Park field from the Eden team. Fans filled the field to see a game of the highest caliber. Buhl and Eden were the best teams in the state. Buhl and Eden were the best teams in the state. Buhl and Eden were the best teams in the state.

Eden opened the game and managed to get two runs in the first inning. Buhl however retaliated in their half of the first inning and also chalked up two runs. In the fourth Eden got a run and again their run was matched by Buhl. This was the last of the scoring by Eden, who from then on were held down by Buhl. Not satisfied with a tie, the Buhl Grays made a run in the fifth. In the sixth they were held scoreless but in the final seventh managed to score one more run. Desperate efforts were made and even up the score was made in both the seventh and eighth innings by the visitors but without success.

A return game is planned for next Sunday. Whether it will be played at Buhl or on the home grounds of the Eden team has not yet been settled. Many fans from Twin Falls and surrounding towns saw the game Sunday and officials declare the attendance was high.

PIRATES AND WASHINGTON SORE TO WIN

Pennants in American and National Leagues So Sure That Tickets Have Been Ordered In Report from New York.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—Pittsburgh and Washington have advanced so near hot pennants in the major leagues that orders for tickets are being taken. This is the best way of admitting that the championships have been decided because it is considered bad luck to sell tickets before you get them.

The Pirates need 11 more victories to clinch the National League pennant and the Senators are within 13 games of the American League flag. The Pirates and the Giants have 15 more games to play and if the Pirates win eleven of them, the Giants could not beat them if they did not lose another game for the remainder of the season.

The Senators have 19 more games to play and the Athletics have 20 on the schedule. If the Athletics won every one of the 20 games which would constitute a miracle as well as a record—the Senators could lose all nine games and still beat out Connie Mack's youngsters.

With the Senators a check for the pennant, the fight between St. Louis, Detroit and Chicago for third place is holding the attention of American League fans. A few points over two games separate the three contenders.

The Browns, playing the best ball in the American League, won six of their eight games last week and took third place. The Tigers did almost as well and won five of their eight games while the White Sox slumped badly and lost seven of their eight games.

Watching the Scoreboard

Yesterday's hero, Darryl Van der Brouck star pitcher, who shut out the Phillies with one hit last week, but then down with a bit of soreness and beat them 10 to 1. Two errors by Jimmy Johnson prevented him from scoring a shut out.

Kann's clutch in the ninth opened the run that gave the White Sox a 2 to 1 victory over the Braves.

At Stimpsonville by 24th inning and the Senators, the game called for the eleventh with a 4 to 6 tie.

Philadelphia's lead over the Giants was cut to six games when the Pirates dropped a double header to the Cardinals 8 to 4 and 6 to 2.

The Cubs couldn't do anything with Pete Donohue and the Reds won 5 to 2.

After tying the score in the ninth inning with three runs, the Tigers dropped a double header to the Indians in the tenth 8 to 6.

Winfield held the banks safe and the Red Sox won 2 to 1.

CONSTITUTION WEEK OBSERVED HERE

Constitution week which started yesterday, was appropriately spoken of in many churches Sunday in this city and throughout Idaho.

The Constitution of the United States is the framework devised for the purpose of preserving the rights outlined in the Declaration of Independence.

EXAMINATIONS FOR MOTOR DRIVERS.

The American Medical Association, through one of its committees, has been making a careful study of the causes of motor accidents.

Inasmuch as there are something like seventeen million motor cars whizzing to and fro in the land, many of them remote from large cities, it is obviously impracticable to enforce through tests of the physical condition of so many drivers.

The medical men who have been going into the matter appear to have been aware of the practical difficulties which surround their task.

The whole report is framed with such obvious consideration for the rights and convenience of the motoring public that it should make many more friends than enemies.

The technical examinations now in vogue in states which require them have much to recommend them; but in many jurisdictions they have been characterized by trick questions, stunt driving and a determined effort to catch the applicant tripping rather than to ascertain how well he can handle his car under all conditions and how thorough is his knowledge of traffic regulations.

WASHINGTON DAILY NEWS LETTER

WASHINGTON - President Coolidge isn't going to have things all his own way when he launches his proposed bill in Congress next winter to force consolidation of the country's rail transportation systems if the roads continue to stall off voluntary consolidation.

NEIGHBORS BY ROBERT STEAD

And the girls: We saw them growing lovelier every day, but with their puny bodies became to take on a strange new charm and competence.

There was just one note that both read me. It was scolded a day or two after we left. Higgins in some corner remark which Marjorie had heard about Jean's Mounted Policeman.

"I believe you're jealous, Marjorie," I said, in tones intended to be severe. "And aren't you?"

"I don't know," she said, looking at me with a look of uncertainty. "I don't know."

"I don't know," she said, looking at me with a look of uncertainty. "I don't know."

could the slightly stirring throb above us wrought their dark tracery against the blue and starry heaven.

"Oh, Frank! You never told me of this! How wonderful!"

"Wait until you see the pond," I whispered, as one who keeps the best to the last.

There was no path between the slim, close-growing trunks of poplar and birch, and we had to make progress as best we could.

Then, suddenly, the still waters of the pond burst upon our view, and at the same moment, as though the very heavens conspired to set the stage to the best advantage, a blooded moon sent its first pinion of light sweeping down from the northeast and splashing burn-orange and ochre across the slightly rusted surface of the pond.

We stood for a time at mortals transfixed, watching the great red globe drawing swiftly first the blue above, until its light painted Jean's face and mine.

"There are certain thrills of accomplishment, certain species of development, which come only once in a lifetime. One of these is the moment when you see the name on an office signboard."

"It looks all right," said Marjorie. "I suppose it is as good as any. But I don't see how you are going to tell it from other people's. It's all alike."

"What do you say, Jean?"

"I don't know," she said, looking at me with a look of uncertainty. "I don't know."
