GREECE WILL DEMAND FULL REPARATION

Asks $80,000, From Bulgaria
As Result Clashers of Troops on Frontier; League the Governing Intervenor in Strike.

LONDON, Oct. 24.—Greece, before the league of nations council, intends to insist upon fulfillment of her demands for compensation in the Greek-Bulgarian conflict.

This word came today from one of Athens' leading lawyers, George Vassilakis, who told the assembly that "occupied territory" until Bulgaria accepts the terms of Greece's note will be uprooted.

The note demanded of the Balkans, uprooted, was written by the League of Nations' intervention committee.

The note demands that the border shall be the vicinity of Demirhisar.

Greece will hold her forces on Bulgar's frontier, President Venizelos said.

Meanwhile, the League of Nations' council reported that the Greek government has accepted the demands of the League of Nations' council, intended to insist upon fulfillment of her demands for compensation in the Greek-Bulgarian conflict.

BOISE, Oct. 24.—Gladys Hollingshead, 22-year-old wife who came here to sue her husband's parents for $100,000, was granted a trial date by stipulation and a settlement out of court when attorneys for both sides suddenly terminated the suit yesterday and reached an agreement.

The conference was called after Dr. Homer Tuttle, the girl's father, suffered a heart attack.

By the stipulation of judgment for $100, damages will be entered, and $100 costs.

The suit, which was filed in the name of Gladys and cattle of peasants along their path.

An indication that Tangier, three days ago, had been captured, were not only words, the Sofia messages announced that the Greeks were digging in a 20-mile front running four to eight miles deep.

VIENNA, Oct. 24.—Sofia messages today claimed a new Greek advance was made, and that the "marchion of Salonicci" is on the Gulf of Salonicci, 50 miles or more from the scene of the Greco-Bulgarian conflict, and maps showed the front line around the fighting zone.
