heard several witnesses he had on the stand yesterday. Some of the prosecution witnesses, including Mrs. Franklin, the telephone operator, Mrs. Blazer, and the two men who were expected to be called this morning were put on the stand.

The action of the prosecutor came as a surprise to everyone who has been following the case. Last night the prosecutor had said Mrs. Bishop was the stand-in court attendant and she could testify.

The only tense moments in the case so far have occurred when Prosecution brought Mr. Blazer's own "phone notes" into the case.

At the time the notes were read of course left, afraid of being taken suddenly and leaving Hazel. I know my mind and pressure is very high. I'm afraid I may be a good many years ago would not leave her behind to be a witness and make one else," read one of the notes.

in this Amazing JEWETT

Only those who know from actual experience the thrill of sweeping over the crest of a hill in a Jewett—with no more apparent effort than that of coasting down—can fully appreciate the dash and sparkle of this amazing car's performance. There is scarcely a bad hill the country over, or a big going that tests the mettle of a motor car, where Jewett has not again and again met and decisively conquered competing cars of all sizes and types.

Such performance, backed by a car so substantially sturdy that it is not a new law of motor car construction required, has resulted in sensational popularity for this fine sedan-bulldog Jewett Coach. Sales have more than doubled those of a year ago.

Left nothing to be desired in having the approved Jewett very first car.

Note its many new features that make it even greater comfort, driving ease and mechanical efficiency. Then you'll understand the sensational popularity.

PATE CASE PRODUCES FIREWORKS

Attorney Hackman, Representing Defendant on Robbery Charge, Withdraws After Protests Judge Hodgins Sustains Several Objections to Questions Asked in Cross Examination; Hearing Date Not Reset Yet.

Fireworks started in the state of the produce court this morning as Attorney Turner K. Hackman withdrew from the hearing of Pate case, who is charged with robbing Mrs. Dora Hamilton, of $125.00, in a store in Piler during last November. The issue between the attorney for defense and Prosecutor J. W. Taylor whose objections the court sustained arose over the relevancy of certain questions which Mr. Hackman asked on cross-examination.

Mrs. Hamilton's Story.
Pate was arraigned late Wednesday afternoon and the case was set for this morning. According to Mrs. Hamilton (the Mrs. Dora Hamilton) who is charged with robbing Mrs. Dora Hamilton, of $125.00, in a store in Piler during last November. The issue between the attorney for defense and Prosecutor J. W. Taylor whose objections the court sustained arose over the relevancy of certain questions which Mr. Hackman asked on cross-examination.

First Misstatement.
The first disagreement between attorneys arose when Mr. Hackman introduced the witness asked her if she saw the defendant at the Hines farm on the Saturday afternoon after the Laverling; who said she did, but denied asking him for the money there. Mr. Hackman wanted to know who were at the Hines farm and the prosecutor objected on the ground that it was immaterial since the witness denied asking for the money there. After some debate the court, over vigorous protest of Mr. Hackman, sustained the objection. Mr. Taylor objected to the question whether she would have prosecuted had Pate returned the money but the court overruled this and the answer that she would not have done so stood. Further testimony along a line similar to that which led to the objection which was sustained, was prevented by the court, on objection of the prosecutor. The final question that proved the withdrawal was that of Mr. Hackman, who when Mrs. Hamilton had denied seeing the witness on a certain date asked her if she had not seen him at the house of her father-in-law, since the objection to this was sustained.

Mr. Hackman then asked a series of questions which he would withdraw from the case. After a brief rest, he announced his withdrawal, and added that Pate would stand time to rest an attorney. "You are not representing the defendant any more," said Mr. Taylor sharply. The court said that time would be given. Mr. Taylor asked Pate if he would be ready for hearing today and when the defendant answered in the negative, said that it not, as the new term would begin in district court Monday, the preliminary could not be held until later, and it would over, his case would not be reached before January. Judge Hodgins said he could not hear the case this afternoon. "I have till for an hour for asking," said Pate to some of his companions as he turned to deliver himself up to the sheriff.

Dora Hamilton on July 25, this year, married E. L. Hamilton of Piler. The complaint in the case was sworn to by her father-in-law, G. W. Hamilton. Pate was out on bail on appeal of his case from conviction on a charge of burglarizing the Golden Rule store.

Part for next hearing was not set.

May Hear This Evening.

Before going to press it was learned that Stephen A. North had been arrested for asking the defendant to evaluating to test it before next court term.

Evangelistic Services Opened at Christian Church Last Night

Special evangelistic services began at the Christian church last night under the leadership of Mr. Carroll Prudden, director of service. The evangelist, Mr. Glen W. Burton, was unavoidably detained by the serious illness of his wife, but expects to be here by Sunday. In the meantime announcement has been made that the services will continue each evening at 7:30 sharp.

A moving song service was the chief feature of last evening at which Mr. Prudden proved his efficiency for such work, he directed. In his sermon, the speaker more directly to the members of the church, urging full cooperation during the period of the meetings. In case the evangelist does not arrive today the pastor will speak on the topic, "The Christ in Piler." The notes for the evening will be, "The Tenderly Looked at Man." The public is cordially invited each evening.

Flier Arrives to Take Air Mail Test

Capt. William Gilson, Canadian flying ace of the world war, arrived in Twin Falls today to undergo an examination for the air mail service, to be conducted by Robert H. Steady of the times, a reserve officer of the army air service.

Gilson recently came from Canada where he was engaged in a flying club where he has been on business for six weeks. He is living with his son, O. J. Caldwell, on North Hancock street.
