Expert Cracksmen Loot Three Safes, Steal $500; Bust One Strong Box

Entrance Gained Through Window in Each Instance; Flour Mill, Coal Yard and Lumber Company Are Victims of Marauders.

(Special to The Times.) TWIN FALLS, Idaho, April 29.—Burglars, who were evidently skilled cracksmen, broke into three places of business in Twin Falls this morning, and combinations on two safes and broke open a third, getting a total of about $135 in cash and $400 in checks.

The places visited were the First Flour Mills, where $100 in cash and the checks were stolen; the Farrow coal yard where $22.50 in cash was taken, and the Home Lumber company. In all three instances, the change was found by the owners.

The burglars in each case got into the places of business by prying open a window, evidently with a crowbar or jimmy. Entrance was gained through the front window of the flour mill, directly into the office. In the case of the coal yard, the entrance was in the rear of the lumber company, the combination on the safe was worked. In the case of the lumber company, the combination on the safe was worked. In the case of the flour mill, the safe either failed or the burglars were in a hurry, as a key was used.

As soon as the crimes were discovered the office of Sheriff M. E. Pritch was notified and Deputy Sheriff Charles E. Jones came down and Chief Alvin Wilson of the police force and other local officers in connection with the search, though they had no statement in regard to the cases, if they had found any.

The lumber company had transferred considerable business during the day and it is believed that the burglars expected to make a good haul there. However, the manager had taken most of the money home with him to deposit in the morning, leaving only $10 in small change in the safe, all large payments were in checks of the coal company.

Success, if it comes to the 28-year-old son of one of the country's best-known families, will be doubly sweet because his father, the late General Cornelius Vanderbilt, has refused to advance any more money. More than $1,000,000 already has been put into the newspaper enterprise by the Vanderbilts family, but so far it has not been successful.

Mr. Cornelius Jr. has an intention of failure. He stands ready to pledge his fixed patrimony of $1,000,000 if necessary, to save the business he has built up in less than three years.

TWINS HOLD "AT HOME" IN NEW SUITS

Work Out at Athletic Park; Pete Daglia to Report Saturday; Manager Announces Acquisition of Infielder from California.

The Twins are officially "at home" shortly before noon today, having out in their new suits for the first time they returned to Athletic Park and their pitcher, who has been planned a program of entertainments, planned especially by Manager Zoehf for the "at home."

In the course of the year, members after the little one (and the other) when they have a party at Zoehf followed the custom and spirit of the program, by reading the "Times" all 12 of 'em over the stadium to the rocks.

Pete Wins Press.

"Pete" Thompson won the prize for finding the most socks when he introduced a new string, a game was played to drive made the park. Kinnor led to the rest of the club is going to demand a return game.

The new suits are a shiny looking bunch of material and are a grayish blue with a blue stripe and the boys look right smart in them.

The news was received shortly before noon Thursday from the Oakland club, that Pete Daglia has been released to Twin Falls and will arrive here Saturday.

Zoehf also has named a young infielder of Los Angeles by the name of Beyer. Beyer will report to the club in Laramie in time for the opening game on Tuesday.

Hilliard Waives.

Unknown to the fans, and to many who thought they were keeping close track of the club, a hilliard champion ship has been in process for the past ten days. Matches are played now and then at neighborhood places. It is believed that Hilliard reports to Zoehf and Jua DeHoff for the players' championship and tied with Secretary Bill Bailey for the club championship.

The secretary and the manager played a match of two games Wednesday night and each was so much after the two games had been decided, evenly, that they declined to continue for fear of hurting their opponent's feelings.

Zoehf and the secretary have started a general panhandle and plan to contest in everything from baseball to dominoes.

Sitting pretty and no mistake!

LIKE the chap in the song, I'm sitting on top of the world. And it's not a bad world when you look at it from all sides. I've hit some rough spots, but managed to keep my seat. I want to let it be known that the road has been a heap smoother since I discovered Prince Albert. Here is tobacco!

My old jimmy-pipe and Prince Albert and I go along just singing a song from morning to midnight. Whenever I get to feeling low, I take out my pipe, tump a load of good old P.A. into the mouth and light up. Old Man Trouble takes French leave the minute that wonderful smoke starts up the stem.

Prince Albert is friendly in spirit and friendly in fact. It never bites my tongue or parches my throat. They tell me the Prince Albert process fixed that for me and millions like me. I only know that P. A. is cool and satisfying as spring water on a hot afternoon and that it suits me to a T.

You're welcome to this leaf out of my book. If you're not smoking P. A., you're not getting full enjoyment out of your pipe. Just get yourself a tidy red tin of Prince Albert. Load up your old jimmy-pipe and light up. Nothing complicated about that, is there? Well, that's my formula. It always works for me.

It never pays to take the other fellow's word as law and gospel when his case is at stake. The best of men will talk and present their side of the case just a little stronger than the other fellows regardless of how honest they try to be. At least give the other fellow a hearing and perhaps the lie may not be where you think it is.

Approximately 60,000 men and women in 122 colleges and universities of the United States, 39 per cent of the entire enrollment are working their way through college, according to information furnished the Interior Department, Bureau of Education. About 55 per cent of the men and 22 per cent of the women in these institutions are supporting themselves in whole or in part.

The National League is behind a movement to increase the tariff on foreign grown seed with the object of removing injurious competition. Recently Fred Sherman of the Emmett bench wrote Congressman French, urging him to support such a measure. In his reply, Mr. French says he is in favor of every measure for the protection of the American farmer, but doubts the possibility of securing such legislation at this session. The object of the proposed legislation is praiseworthy.

Camas Prairie is to have hydro-electric power within 60 days. The Wood River Power company has a force of men at work now constructing a line from Halley to Fairfield. This will run directly west from Halley through Camas Creek canyon through the town of Soldier and on to Fairfield. It will give Fairfield and other points on the prairie service of this kind for the first time in their history. General Manager Purlum of the power company says the work will be carried forward as rapidly as the other demands crowding on the construction force will permit.

We understand that ball players from Southern Idaho in general are not getting much encouragement to try out for the Utah-Idaho baseball team which is being formed in this city. The announcement was made when the league was suggested that local players were to be given an equal chance with the outsiders and this rule should be followed out. It is true that players coming here from California have had several weeks more practice than the local players and are naturally in better form. But the baseball league will not be the success it should be unless the Southern Idaho players are given an equal chance with the outsiders.

DEVELOP IDAHO PHOSPHATES

A foreign corporation is to develop an Idaho asset and product, and as a natural consequence will make a profit on the investment, as they have a right to do, and it is better that a foreign corporation make a profit than the asset be not developed.

The great beds of phosphate rock in southeastern Idaho and partly in Bonneville county, are to be developed, according to the best information, and by a Portland Oregon, concern, which will export the fertilizer to far away Japan.

Had Idaho had the opportunity and the financial ability to develop all of its natural resources: its timbers, mineral, water power, without having been obliged to depend so much on outside capital, this would be one of the richest states in the union, for the assets are here, but who are here have been obliged to content ourselves with seeing the greater part of the profits built up on competitive states and trade territory.

North Idaho built Spokane through its timber, an mineral wealth and the state has been a big contributor to the coast cities of Seattle and Portland. Salt Lake City has been largely built up and supported by the agricultural wealth of southeastern Idaho.

Had Idaho been able to develop its own resources and retained in the state the result of that development, we as a state and people would be far better off than we are.

The phosphate rock which is to be taken out of Idaho will be used to make a commercial fertilizer that will build up the productivity of competitive neighbors. It is true that Idaho has phosphate rock to spare, but a close study of the situation would develop the fact that Idaho could do right well by using some of the fertilizer on its own soil. It is a proven fact that rich as the soil of Idaho is, it is young, and the soil of foreign countries which has been farmed for a thousand years yields more because the soil is built up by being kept alive with fertilizers. Idaho has millions of tons of the very best within its borders, and while it is being shipped out it might be just as well to use a little of it at home.—Exchange.

Miss Nobody

by TIFFANY WALLS
Published by arrangement with Mutual National Pictures Inc.

"And you suppose right," said Bravo. "If the fool had any brains he would have discovered that long ago. And by the way, you, my dear comely friend, not to be confused in your mind, some day you will find yourself paying off the taxi driver who took the guy who stuck her under the chin in kissing the girl and you." "You are doubtful," heard Barbara, "a chin sucker."

"I am," grandly announced Bravo, "a chin sucker."

"Not," he added, "that I can't do my thinking on occasions—when the chin is doubled or the tobacco is dry."

Barbara etc. of her ears and ad, derived, led the monoglot talk on a stage show. "I am a chin sucker," she had foretold, established conventional subjects remote from topic A. But the ladies had come back for the first time. She talked indignantly with the twin to Bravo's clear and here a marriage monologue. She grew aware of a blazes in the monologue. She closed up to her friend's eyes and followed his gaze.

"A woman was dining alone at the club," she said, "and she saw a man with a camera. He was taking pictures of her. He was taking pictures of her. He was taking pictures of her."

"With R. S. V. P. in her eyes," thought Barbara. Gradually she admitted that the woman was pasty pale.

"Oh, do you know her?" "I played opposite her once." "How do you know her?" "I saw her in the picture."

LEWIS, April 29.—Samuel M. Vanclein, president of the Lewistown Investment company, and William H. Hamilton of the Hamilton Trust company, are leaving for Moscow today, "without a cent," but on a job which might result in the business operations in czarist Russia.

Vanclein merely dropped a hint regarding the potential business aspects of the journey and refused to develop the idea further.

"You will remember," said Vanclein, during an exclusive interview with the "Daily Press," "although the United States has not yet recognized the Russian government, I launched business in a large scale several months ago in Mexico."

OUT OUR WAY—BY WILLIAMS

HEROES ARE MADE—NOT BORN.

AT THE THEATRES

... AT THE ... THEATRES

WHERE WAS I?—Why, at the theatre. Theatrical items, the price of appeal and comedy, and the only weekly program so far. The late Wallace Field, is off in another cloud of mirth and thrills in "Where Was I?" now playing at the Idaho Theatre. Brany will come, then ever under himself to the lovers of the new type of clean comedy drama. In this picture, for it is even more wonderful than his "Callaghan Straight Ahead" or "The Show You the Town". The story, with its amusingly funny situations, starts in the street, where the hero, a young man, is introduced to a "show" and there in a taxi to the open road, where many adventures befall the young man, including Chester Conklin and Lee Moran.

"Home Circus" a Tuxedo comedy, and the Idaho Theatre-Gram complete the bill.

"Thunder Mountain," the production coming to the Oregon Theatre beginning tomorrow is, according to audience polls, one of the most thrilling and true-to-life, as well as one of the most beautiful stories of the Blue Ridge mountains, while Leslie Robinson's little screen art will run away from any show and takes away among the non-theatricals, while Leslie Robinson is seen as the worst boy on Thunder Mountain who later develops into an idealistic lad, ambitious to take his people from poverty and ignorance to prosperity and knowledge.

Chickens in the cast include Art Francis, Emily Petrov, Zsuzsanna Paulsen, Jean Mason, Ole Harlan, Arthur Housman and Mable Geary.

LOU HASCALL SET HIS START IN A FIGHT

"If you are going to ask me whether I ran away from home to go to the stage, I warn you I can't say 'yes,'" says Lou Hascall, the popular comic who plays the part of the senior cop detective, Mr. Mulligan, in the New York Theatre, Chicago and Los Angeles hit, "The Gorilla," at the Oregon Theatre, May 2, "for you see the plain truth about it was that I made so many connections around my town that everybody was glad to get rid of me. That was when I was 12 years old, in Lansing, Michigan. It was the Whitely Family Circus that traveled by wagon, playing the small town in Michigan, that proved my ambition; otherwise I might have gone on just being the clown and enema of my own neighborhood. But from the moment Dave Whitely of the Whitely Family Circus saw me enter through my foot holes in a gingham yard, my fate was sealed, for he found out who I was and offered me $2.50 per week to join the circus."

For years Hascall has appeared in vaudeville, burlesque, minstrel, dramatic and feature films, and has toured with Europe and America, including "The Water Garden Show," "The Rose of Stamboul," two seasons featured by George Hobe's vaudeville productions at Covent Garden, London, with James Daxton in "Dew Drop Inn" and "The Woman with the Crystal Ball," and "The Woman with the Crystal Ball" circuit days always seen the most amusing of all."

It is largely the "indivisible" of indivisibles "married folk, making them unwilling to divide. The sacred matter of money, they contend, should be regarded as a unit, says one of their writing anonymously in the Woman's Home Companion.

ROSEWORTH SUIT IS UP IN COURT

Trial of Wealthy Stock Raisers for Alleged Petty Larceny Is on Trial in the Probate Court Today; Defendants Claim That They Purchased Articles Alleged to Have Been Stolen.

Charles E. Brackett of Roseworth, was found not guilty of petty larceny by Probate Judge J. L. Hedin at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Sarah E. Brackett had been dismissed by the court an hour before.

The case of the state against Charles E. Brackett and Sarah E. Brackett for alleged petty larceny came on for trial this morning in the probate court room before Judge J. L. Hedin, without a jury. The case brought on the complaint of Frank Dry, who claimed that the defendants had taken about $25 worth of lumber and other articles when they moved from a ranch they had leased from the Dry brothers for feeding cattle. The Bracketts claim that they purchased the articles in the course of a series of transactions had with the Dry boys. The case against Mrs. Brackett was dismissed this afternoon upon a motion by Attorney H. P. Pears for discharge.

The articles so described by the state witnesses on the stand consisted of a number of boards, which had been purchased when removed from a flume on Devil creek; a leather shoe, two green shoes, 72 trousers and a jacket for rabbiting a house. The defense claims that the purchases of the articles were small items mixed with other transactions. The defense claims that the flume had been used for 21 years in Devil creek before it was broken up and purchased by the Dry boys, some years ago; that the shoe was an old one, which had been in use 10 years, that it had a broken shoe cap and had been abandoned and that the jacket had been last used some time ago and was left lying in the field months. The complaining witness agreed by much of this relative to the condition of things but said the jacket was in good condition and not abandoned; that the stove was found except for a defective hinge of the door and that the lumber was perfect. They stated this side.
