Good grade full hair flour enters at 62 1/2 square yard. Swift's Store.

July 12.—The large Cadillac car of J. E. Finch slipped from the grade about fifteen miles this side of Jarbidge last Saturday night, turned completely over and demolished the top of the car. Mr. Finch escaped with a broken rib and walked the fifteen miles to Jarbidge and called the Miller garage. Help was rushed to the scene.

Mr. Finch was enroute to Jarbidge to confer with Messrs. Demmer and others, who had been assessing the land-holders' value, back to Bulli.

About twelve o'clock midnight he had reached a place about fifteen miles from Jarbidge. At this place the road passes Jarbidge creek and is very rough and narrow. The side of the road next to the creek is very steep. The front of the heavy car slipped from the road and the car stood on end for a moment and then fell completely over.

Only the willows and quaking aspens bordering the creek saved the car from either the creek or the rocks. It first slipped from the grade when Mr. Finch extricated himself from the wreckage and walked to Jarbidge, north of his site broken by the accident. He telephoned to Bulli and Ted Easton and Kenneth Hyde, both of the Miller Garage, west of the Jarbidge. Mr. Finch was unable to start Sunday evening.

The car was righted and refueled on the road, and after being refilled with oil, gas and water, which had leaked from the broken car, a new battery being installed the car drove back to Bulli under its own power, arriving yesterday noon.

There was also a slight mishap on the aspect of Bulli yesterday when J. H. Sherry abandoned his Oakland sedan when he backed away from the curb and struck a Ford owned by J. W. Easton. Mr. Easton was driving a Buick sedan when Mr. Sherry backed out. The rear fender of the sedan was bent badly and the stop light smashed. The Ford was struck on the front fender, but being of such recent make, no new marks or dents were evidenced.

Economist Endorses the Brother of Twin Falls County Agent

In its recent issue the American Economist, official organ has this to say of E. D. Brown, brother of R. E. Brown of this city, who has been permanently recommended for the position of tariff commissioner, which he has held by re-appointment. President Coolidge has submitted to the Senate for approval the names of E. D. Brown, of Utah and Sherman J. Lowell of New York to be members of the Tariff Commission. Mr. Brown is now serving as Tariff Commissioner under re-appointment. Mr. Lowell is nominated for the position held by Mr. A. H. Baldwin who recently resigned.

Mr. Brown's record with the Tariff Commission is well known to our readers. Prior to his appointment as Tariff Commissioner he had been appointed as Minister to Rumania. Mr. Brown was Special Export agent for the American Government of the Tariff Commission and was active in the investigation of the production costs of sugar.

$100,000 Subscribed to Idaho Memorial Building Fund

MORNING, Idaho, July 13—Subscriptions in excess of $100,000 have been received by the Idaho Memorial Association for the erection of a state memorial on the campus of the University of Idaho, plans for securing the balance of the fifty per cent necessary are now under way and actual construction of the Idaho Memorial will start within the next distant future. This information was made public today by H. P. Leeper, president of the association, following a meeting of the board of directors at Moscow on July 6.

Provisional plans and studies of the building as prepared by Architect David L. Lange were considered by the board. The plans contemplate a building approximately 110 by 220 feet, simple in design, and of the colonial or Georgian style. The most prominent feature will be the memorial tower at the main entrance. This tower will contain the memorial tablets of Idaho's "Immortal 222" and the war records of all those who served in the Spanish American and the World War.

NEWS OF THE SPORT WORLD GO THURSDAY

BRUNNS AND OGDEN PLAY IN 3 GAMES

Series Opens Second Half of Season's Playing Schedule.

Beginning with the Ogdens which opens at Athletic park 7 o'clock this afternoon, clubs of the Twin-Falls league will have a seven game series during the second half of the season's schedule...

Chadbourne, the new Twin Falls base is a veteran of many years' experience and since his recent appointment as manager has been hiring and firing in a manner that indicates that he is out to gather a baseball club.

Larkin may be considered strong and he is expected to be among those present when the race is decided.

From what has been shown during the first half of the season and what has been reported regarding Chadbourne's record this is our best idea of what the harvest shall be.

And the league is expected to finish in the following order: Idaho Falls, Twin Falls, Porterville, Ogdens.

YESTERDAY'S BIG LEAGUE HERO, 'Whit', outfielder for the Boston Braves, who hit a homer in the 3rd inning with one on and beat the Cardinals 6 to 5.

Possibly Twin Falls fans may have an opportunity to see a new version of a "Hit" world's record next September. Who knows?

Saints Defeat Champions, 4 to 3

The L. D. S. also drew a club representing the Christian Church on Sunday afternoon from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. The game was a very close one...

PHILADELPHIA - The crowd thought this was the best they had seen in a long time.

NEW YORK - Frankie Fink, Texas negro, light-hitter, and Rocky Brown, New York, fought a 10-round draw.

Miami's Star Sprinter

Tom Sharkey of Miami University is called "Ohio's fastest runner." Over a period of four weeks he was credited with doing the longest dash in the world record time of 3.6 seconds; set new marks for the century and four-fifth events in the Big Six Conference and ran record to the Great Lakes on the national collectors. He will compete in the A. A. U. meet at Philadelphia next month.

LIGHT-HEAVY GO THURSDAY

NEW YORK, July 12 - A gate between 100,000 and 150,000 is expected for Thursday's night fight between Paul Bernbach and Jack Delaney as interest in the bout suggests that of the first event since the Fitzgibbon-Kempson.

The feeling that boxing history will be written when Bernbach climbs into the ring to do out all the best light-heavy weight championship is certain to back Bernbach up more than the 120-150 ball park.

It is believed that the bout may have a four-fight hearing on the heavy weight situation. Although both men are 155 pounders, the winter may come a bond with Harry Williams.

Bernbach has had a long open secret of the fact that he believes himself fully capable of meeting Dempsey, Tunney or Williams and making his chance for future meetings with these heavyweights in Thursday night's attack.

The betting continues in Delaney's favor at odd of 1 to 10, but it would not be surprising if even money were paid on the night of the fight.

DRY CHIEFS CONFIDENT THAT BOOZE SMUGGLING WILL END

WASHINGTON, July 12 - The Food and Drug Administration officials are confident that the end of the bootlegging trade will be a matter of time.

By that time, according to Frank Bow, acting for General Lincoln Anderson, during the latter's absence, the Food and Drug officials will have been assigned.

IDAHO WATER AND CROPS

Good sense, good judgment, good management and tolerance and recognition of the rights of others; and a spirit of cooperation are all operating to help solve a difficulty that without the afore-mentioned virtues would have left a very complicated problem.

As it is, the exercise of those virtues will result in the maturing of a crop that will be up to the average, and it must be remembered that an average crop and yield in Idaho is equal to a bumper crop in any other part of the country.

All know that this is an unusually hot and dry year, not only in Idaho, but in general, and that care has been called for in the use and conservation of the water supply which is resulting in the helping out of a situation that without good judgment could have been made disastrous.

It is a fortunate thing that the condition as it exists today can never be duplicated in southern Idaho; so far as water is concerned, for the completion of the American Falls dam, which is a southern and an eastern Idaho project, will mean that the water, which in the past has run to the sea, will be impounded and made to do its duty.

Southern Idaho has always been fortunate so far as its water situation is concerned, owing to the fact that in most years there has been an abundance and there is now, provided the water is cared for as it should be and will be. The completion of the dam at American Falls means water insurance, as it will release the water in Jackson lake for the upper country so that all situations will be protected.

With the completion of the dam in question and the storage of the water the title of southern Idaho to the water situation will be written clear and speculation will be eliminated with agricultural production reduced to a certainty.

It is good that the people of southern Idaho have at this time a feeling of regard for one another that will result in an equitable water distribution and an average crop production.—Exchange.

AGRICULTURE THE ASSET

The agricultural production for Idaho the past season totaled $245,000,000. The value of the mineral production of the state totaled about $32,000,000 while the forests of the state brought in $85,000,000.

It is easy to realize from the figures quoted that with all due respect for the other assets of the state, agriculture stands first and always will.

The mines will, in time, be worked out and that source of income will be gone; the forests at the present rate of marketing will be gone within a few years and the wealth produced by these natural assets will have to be replaced by agriculture as that activity spreads over the state, all of which brings up a question vital to the interests of agriculture and the southern part of the state where agriculture is the principal asset and where the bulk of the population of Idaho lives, and that is water, its conservation, use and delivery.

Idaho throughout the south has many available power sites which can, as time goes on, be filed upon in order to secure for the people of the state the power needed to aid development, for there is every reason to believe that as time goes on water will be pumped onto the higher lands for the purpose of bringing those lands under cultivation.

More intensive and more diversified farming will benefit the industry and increase the return from that source; so that the income to Idaho from agriculture will, within the next few years, be doubled.

At the present time the state of California boasts of an income of $450,000,000 a year from agriculture, almost double that of Idaho, but notwithstanding the climatic conditions of California Idaho also possesses natural advantages, among them being, and the greatest of them, the abundance of water.

It is good to live in Idaho, southern Idaho, and it will be better for southern Idaho with its great production of wealth from agriculture, and the next 15 years will show a good gain than that made by the past two generations.

To the present time southern Idaho has permitted the tail to wag the dog in the matter of legislative enactments for the benefit of industry, and mining and lumbering have received more than their share of protection and legislation while it produces, while that section of the state produces less than one-fourth of the wealth and has far less population.

TRIP OF THOUSAND THRILLS IS BEGUN DOWN THE SALMON

Henry Wegler of Payette, Idaho, and two friends, are making unique journey.

BOISE, Idaho, July 13.—A "trip of a thousand thrills" down the "River of No Return," the Salmon, is the object of an expedition headed by Henry Wegler of Payette as a vacation stunt of no little uniqueness. The start was made Tuesday.

The expedition will pass down 250 miles of canyon cut through the backbone of the Rocky mountains, a section not surpassed anywhere in the country for scenic beauty and wild game life. Wegler is accompanied by Harold Miller, Louis Gordon, and Harry Harrison of Fruitland, Idaho.

There is a three-fold purpose behind the expedition. First is the call of the primitive and love for adventure of the party's leader; second is special work for the state game warden's department and the game warden, H. E. Thomas, who gave the party all possible aid in preparation for the start; third, of secure pictures, both still and moving, of the wonderful canyons through which the party will go.

Included in the equipment is one of the finest movie cameras, as well as a number of feet of exposed film. A still view camera also is being taken. The camera is of the animal life will be photographed. It is planned to take photographs of the canyons as they shoot the rapids and the thrilling situations. The voyagers have equipped themselves with pick and shovel, as well as other equipment to pin and stave the stream. The camera have been especially built for the trip. The larger one is out of the ordinary, weighing less than 100 pounds but with a carrying capacity of more than a half ton. It is built of the maple and alpine spruce. The smaller will be made in the Salmon river in Bear valley. This stream has its source in the Stanley basin at the foot of the Sawtooth mountains. It runs several hundred miles east, then turns north and directly cuts the state of Idaho by way of the Snake river valley. It is a mile high in some places.

Only once before has an attempt been made to ride the rapids in canoes. Two resturionne young men attempted this several years ago. They never returned to tell the tale, and the country traversed by the Salmon is practically inaccessible and cannot be reached except by a pack animal. After reaching the main Salmon the voyagers will have about 200 miles of that stream to navigate. They plan to conclude their trip at Lewiston. The time taken will depend upon the luck of the adventurers.

men who are important factors in the life of their time to research, and who could do so only at a great profit to the general public, but we have had such a great increase in our enrollment of students without a corresponding increase in our income that the time has perhaps come when we so definitely taken up with the ordinary routine of instruction and committee work that the research they should like to do will necessarily be stunted. It is difficult to make the taxpayer appreciate the value of research in pure science. Fundamental assistance drawn from those who so understand seems to be the best way out of the difficulty.
