

OLD MEXICO BUYS PLANE IN GERMANY

Airplanes Are Being Purchased by Mexican Government in Berlin. It Charge and Grave Situation Arises Between U. S. and Southern Republic.

BERLIN, Jan. 7.—Mexico is buying airplanes in Germany, according to information which today reached high diplomatic officials here.

Although details regarding the extent of the alleged purchases were not available, it was understood that Mexico had obtained some of the latest model Junker machines.

Reports of these sales to Mexico synchronized with unprecedented unanimous newspaper condemnation of the United States' policy in Central America as a result of the dispatch of Nicaraguan naval reinforcements.

Information regarding the number of planes involved in the alleged purchases was contradictory because the planes would not be shipped direct from Germany there. In 1926, only 12 airplanes were exported from Germany, while 47 in 1925. Subsequent to 1926 German factories were constructed abroad, it will be recalled, that the Veracruz treaty-circumscribed German airplane production, thereby causing German manufacturers to erect plants in Sweden, Russia, Switzerland and elsewhere.

Whence German built planes have been shipped to foreign purchasers from non-German countries. Where production "and sale" was unhampered. All the newspapers today emphasized that the German minister to Nicaragua had resigned from joining the British and Italian ministers in their appeal to the United States for protection.

The local Anzeiger went further and cheerfully refers to the possibility of a Latin-American boycott against United States' "machinations." "A nation could well be a dead-weight," said the paper. "We are vitally interested in observing its coming developments in Central America."

Christian Woman's Missionary Society Holds Good Meet

The Woman's Missionary society of the Christian church held a very successful meeting, Thursday afternoon at the study of the pastor. Thirty members were present. The meeting, which had to do with missionary work in Mexico, was in charge of Mrs. John C. Giese.

"Mrs. John C. Beauchamp spoke on 'Controversy or Evangelism.' Mrs. W. A. Patrick on 'African Teachers.' Mrs. Juniper on 'African Evangelism.' A vocal selection was given by Mrs. Larson.

Mrs. Johnson, of Rupert, president of the state organization, gave an inspiring report of the national meeting in Tennessee.

"Refreshments were served.

ALBERT FALL IS GROWING WEAKER FAST, REPORT

EL PASO, Texas, Jan. 7.—Albert Fall, former secretary of the interior, sick with pneumonia, was again admitted to a hospital and the anticipated improvement in his condition failed to materialize today.

Although the disease has practically run its course, Fall is growing alarmingly weaker. It was admitted by his physician, Dr. H. T. Davis, that a drop in blood pressure of 35 millimeters was considered significant by the physician.

"The quiet danger now is Senator Fall's heart," Dr. Seaford said. "Rumors that Fall would make a rapid recovery again to public life through the United States senate were declared 'bold and ridiculous' by his secretary, H. C. Conn. 'Such a thing is out of the question,' Conn said.

Volstead Law Is Fool Legislation Says Gen. Butler

OAKLAND, Calif., Jan. 7.—The Volstead law is a "fool piece of class legislation," believes General Smiley D. Butler, president of the National Farmers' Union, who made a speech to the prominent when he started antitrust proceedings against the late Col. Alexander S. Williams for infringement.

The court martial secured for General Butler the reputation of being extremely strict. The speech he made on the Volstead law, delivered at an address before the Lions Club here, accounted for the remark:

"I think the dry law in the silence of class legislation that has ever been passed, Butler said.

"I thought it was fitting for everybody but I find out that it wasn't."

GOVERNOR'S BALL IS GAY IDAHO AFFAIR

Governor's Grand Ball Is Enjoyed by Both Branches of Legislature; Solon Seeks Permanent Pay of Other State Officials Which Would Give Them Salary Raise.

BONNE, Idaho, Jan. 7.—Idaho citizens paid their respects to Governor and Mrs. H. G. Baldwin and the newly-installed state officials at an inaugural reception and ball held Thursday night. The reception, which had been delayed by the sudden arrival of the state legislature where two hours earlier the legislative officials stood in receiving line to attend their appointments.

Following the reception in the capitol, the inaugural ball was held in the "Elks Lodge room."

The hall at the Elks club was said by many present to have been the most brilliant affair ever staged in that ballroom. The only decorations were footloose, green, pink and white streamers, a peacock's feathers, and a mounted peacock, a peacock's feathers, and a mounted peacock.

The orchestra, the Blue Bell orchestra, was on top to top to outdo each other. There was not a minute's intermission between numbers. First the orchestra, then the band. Then the band, then the orchestra.

Lieutenant Kelly started home last evening from the trip to the United States by steam, clouds forced him to land near Pilot Rock, 15 miles south of here.

The grand march was led by Frank W. Engen and his aids, followed by the "Apple Blossom Girls," the Bonneville Singers, the Blyden, Blyden, Blyden, Singers, Rhythm Knotters, Helen McGee and Mary King, wearing the hoop skirt costumes made famous at the main line celebration. Following these maidens came the state officials.

Former Governor Charles C. Moore, Lt. Gov. George H. D. Cole and Mrs. Baldwin, Lieutenant Governor O. E. Hatley and Mrs. Hatley, Chief Justice William E. BOISE, Idaho, Jan. 7.—A theory by which legislators can get an additional $5 a day will be tried by the house to support committee chairmen before the 19th legislature opens, carried through B. W. Oppenheim, representative from Ada county, expressed the opinion, which was backed by a number of other legislators.

According to Jones, Rickerhson told him two years ago he had two with other men, one woman planned the kidnaping while Rickerhson was in Wyoming.

Besides, Mrs. McPherson, others to be kidnaped, and held for ransom were Mary Pickford, Jackie Cogan, Mrs. Brooklyn, N. Y., woman whose husband is a lawyer, and Mrs. Eddie Dickerson, Indian heiress of Oklahoma.

MUSKOGEE, Okla., Jan. 7.—Information relating to an alleged plot to kidnap prominent persons, including Almon Semple McPherson is on route to Ada Keyes of Los Angeles, California, for investigation by Oklahoma authorities in the state prison that he was one of the kidnaping conspirators.

Rickerhson, who is serving a sentence for robbery, told of the plot in a conversation with Roy Jones, undersheriff.

TALK ACROSS ATLANTIC BY WIRELESS IS NEW STUNT

Wireless Communication by Telephone Across the Atlantic Ocean Completed With Satisfaction; First Great Achievement of Its Kind During This Age.

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—New York talked to London today.

From a common telephone booth up in an office building here Walter S. Gifford, president of the American Telephone and Telegraph company spoke to Sir G. Evelyn Murray, secretary of the British general post office, who was sitting in his office in London.

Without the aid of wires, the voice of Gifford was carried some 2,000 miles across the Atlantic and Murray's voice was carried back in response.

It marked the beginning of a new method of communication by telephone between the two ends of the earth.

Farmer's Torso May Have Been a Hoax; Wife Gets Insurance

BUTTE, Mont., Jan. 7.—An investigation is being conducted to determine possibilities that H. K. Sibley, former wealthy farmer, may not have burned to death when his home was destroyed several months ago.

A charred torso was found in the ruins of the home and it was believed to have been that of Sibley. Since the widow, made efforts to collect $80,000 in insurance from six companies, Insurance investigators after an examination, however, bemoaned they followed the trail of the dead found was that of a sheep and this re-opened the investigation.

Sheriff W. D. Taylor is enroute to Los Angeles today where it is reported a man greatly resembling Sibley is under arrest.

THIS COUNTY RANKS SECOND IN GAS TAX

Ada County Ranks First and Twin Falls, County Second in Idaho Gas Tax Returns; Twin Falls County Paid $3,414.21.

BOISE, Jan. 7.—Ada and Twin Falls counties rank first and second respectively in the payment of gasoline tax for the first 11 months of 1926, it was learned today by the head of the state's office.

Ada county paid $38,116.16 while Twin Falls county paid $33,414.21. Cayon was third with $30,909 and Bannock fourth with $24,000.

The total amount collected during the 11 months is $111,626.65, representing collections on 3,270,266 gallons.

Idaho Copper Denied Second Trial, Says Judge Dietrich

BOISE, Idaho, Jan. 7.—The Idaho Copper corporation will not be allowed another trial in United States district court here on its charges of libel against Stewart Campbell, state mineral inspector, it was decided today by Judge S. S. Dietrich.

Stewart Kelly started home last evening from the trip to the United States by steam, clouds forced him to land near Pilot Rock, 15 miles south of here.

The grand march was led by Frank W. Engen and his aids, followed by the "Apple Blossom Girls," the Bonneville Singers, the Blyden, Blyden, Blyden, Singers, Rhythm Knotters, Helen McGee and Mary King, wearing the hoop skirt costumes made famous at the main line celebration. MOSCOW, Jan. 7.—The fossil fish and shellfish remains recently found near Boise are unfortunately of fresh water origin, which cannot be altered as fast as the fossils of oil in the Boise sediment, according to a statement issued by Dr. Francis A. Thompson, secretary of the Idaho Bureau of Mines and Geology.

"Early in October we received from Dr. N. D. Cook, former mine inspector and from the Geological Survey of the Western Mining Company of Boise, some fossil remains from the vicinity of Boise which appeared to justify further investigation, and Dr. F. B. Laney was detailed to make a mineralogical study of the specimens contained in two letters and a telegram written by the defendant about the corporation.

Judge Dietrich stated that he is fully satisfied that the oil which contaminated Campbell last fall in the first trial of the case was abundantly supported in its conclusions by the evidence.

POWERFUL DRUG GIVEN UTAH GIRL

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Jan. 7.—Discovery by state chemist of traces of a powerful abortive drug in the urine of a pregnant woman, 18-year-old girl, was held yesterday morning.

The girl was examined in the hospital laboratory and were then sent to the pathologists of the U. S. Geological Survey at Washington from whom a report has recently been received.

"The drug remains were identified by Dr. G. C. Moore, medical examiner of the state prison, probably of the genus Amatoidea was also identified.

The amount of oil contained in the urine was approximately 100 millionths of a cubic centimeter per cubic centimeter of urine.

"Some 15 to 20 feet stratigraphically above the sediments in which the drug remains occur is a persistent stratum of fine calcareous dolomite four to eight feet thick. Such limestone, which in structure resembles sandstone, is found in the same place in which the drug remains are found.

"Consequently, the drug remains cannot be regarded as diagnostic and the fresh water or marine character of the oil cannot be determined from other evidence.

TWIN FALLS DAILY TIMES

Published Every Evening, Except Sunday, by The Times Publishing Company, Twin Falls, Idaho.
H. MASTERS, Editor and Publisher.

Entered at the Twin Falls Post Office as Second Class Matter as a Daily Publication, April 11, 1918.

The action of the committee promoting the Moroni Olsen players' engagement here in donating all proceeds of the play Tuesday night, above the guarantee, to the public library should secure for that company at its presentation of "Outward Bound" Tuesday evening the fullest and most enthusiastic co-operation not only of the library board, but all of the citizens who are interested in the movement for new library. Twin Falls not only needs a new library, but it needs more new books in the old one, pending the securing of new home. The city appropriation is necessarily limited. There is a larger per capita circulation of library books in Twin Falls than in any other Idaho city, with the result that the volumes wear out more rapidly. The Moroni Olsen players need no introduction here so far as the merits of their productions and presentation are concerned and in this case deserve the fullest co-operation on these grounds, as well as because of their friendliness and public spirit.

Water storage is increasing rapidly in the Jackson lake reservoir. At the beginning of the season it is stated that there was a total amounting to about 25,000 acre feet, against nearly 450,000 last year. This has increased to 92,840, as of January 5, against 480,020 last year, an increase of nearly 68,000 feet this year; less than half that amount was reported on the same date last year. In addition there was stored at American Falls January 1, a total of 407,030, while none was stored there last year. This, however, does not tell the whole story since the main source of satisfaction lies in the unprecedented depth of snow with unusual water content, which is reported over the entire watershed.

ABSTINENCE NEEDED TODAY IN IDAHO BY THE YOUNG AND OLD

The problem of the age is, what is the matter with the young folks of today, or in other words, the rising generation? Some great thinkers and theologians have speculated time and again and have given us voluminous exhortations, but thus far there has been nothing given out which really reaches the issue clearly and concisely. Some times as we sit and think this over and speculate we are led to wonder whether it is due somewhat at least to the fact that the average boy and girl are not compelled to practice ABSTINENCE as we were when we were their age or when our fathers were at their age. How many boys and girls of today in Idaho would sit down calmly to a supper of mush and milk and eat same in contentment? Not many, we predict. If fathers and mothers tried to force such a bill of fare on their children of today there would be an uprising in the home and signs of bolshevism would be manifest. In fact we feel that many a youth would deem such a meal sufficient cause for leaving home and seeking his or her fortune on the streets or up and down the by-ways and yet such a diet is perhaps the best thing for some of the suffering stomachs of Twin Falls, which are gorged as it were with candy, sweetmeats and rich, savory dishes that tend to create a disturbance in the digestive system which is far from wholesome and for the upbuilding of bodily strength and comfort. But suppose these children were forced to abstain from all sweets for a given period each month or week and compelled to eat plain, wholesome foods would not their health be greatly improved and their strength of mind and body greatly multiplied? The lack of such abstinence is the key we believe to much of the trouble in the family life and to the physical discomforts or even causes of sickness.

The tendency nowadays seems to be to throw down the gauntlet to both young and old and allow them to go scot-free as we say, and then expect our young people to grow up into the proper kind of citizens. Is it any wonder that the boys and girls are leading a sort of harlot-scarren sort of existence and indulging themselves to all the luxuries of the age and also partaking of all the posse which come along regardless of their ill effects on the mind and body. Just the other day we noticed more than one member of the Twin Falls high school football squad of last season puffing cigarettes on the streets and yet the training season has barely been forgotten and if it was good for those boys to train and abstain during the training season why should it not be a fine thing for the parents and teachers to show the boys and girls why such abstinence is a good thing throughout the year? They are going to play football several more seasons and on stronger teams perhaps than the Twin Falls Bruins and if abstinence is essential during the season why not for future athletic and mental processes?

In this connection we would like to suggest what the world champion, Gene Tunney, did just after winning the world's championship belt as being the best fighter in the world. He celebrated this great event by ordering a glass of milk while many of the fans and sports ordered something a great deal stronger to drink. The secret of Tunney's success as a fighter lies in the fact that he trains twelve months in the year and continuously throughout the 265 days. This training requires a great deal of abstinence and we feel that if the present generation are to amount to much in this world they must be taught this great lesson or they will go down in the maelstrom which is whirling thousands of young men and women into the whirlpool of indulgence every year because they are not taught right habits.

Improved Uniform International Sunday School Lesson

(© 1927, Western Newspaper Union.)

Lesson for January 9

THE STANDARD OF CHRISTIAN LIVING

LESSON TEXT—Luke 6:27-40.

GOLDEN TEXT—“Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which art in Heaven is perfect.”

PRIMARY TOPIC—How Jesus Wants Us to Live.

SECONDARY TOPIC—Matching Orders for Christians.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—INTERVENING PROBLEMS AND ADVICE TO CHRISTIAN PEOPLE AND EXAMPLE FOR US.

The context (v. 20) simply implies what is elsewhere positively declared (John 12:42-52; Luke 21:17) that the followers of Christ will be hated and persecuted, yet the Master and his apostles, and the church, will reward the sincere, honest, upright lives of the Christian people.

1. “Love Your Enemies” (v. 22).

Love here means a natural affection.

To love friends is easy, but to love those whom it is only possible to think the other loves may partake of the difficulty natural to born sin.

2. “Do Good to Them Which Hate You” (v. 27).

Love is positive in its nature. The true Christian will not merely refuse to do evil to others, but will hate them, but will seek to do good to them.

Jesus’ love is manifested in his actions according to its own essential nature.

III. “Bless Them That Curse You” (v. 28).

It is difficult to speak well of God’s love without appealing to history.

God’s love is to us all.

IV. “Pray for Those Who Despitefully Use You” (v. 29).

We should pray for those who abuse us. The best commentary on this present is Christ’s own example (Luke 23:34), “Father forgive them for they know not what they do.”

V. “Patiently Endure Wrong and Injury” (v. 30).

The Christian is not to christiate in defense of his rights but rather to suffer insult, injury and even loss. This expresses the law which should govern the individual’s actions, but does not give the law of the nation. It does not go unchecked. Rightly constituted government has been ordained of God for the protection of the innocent and the punishment of offenders (Rom. 13:18).

VI. “Give to Every One That Asks You” (v. 31).

“God is the supreme example,” he gives freely and generously but intelligently. This text does not authorize indiscriminate giving. There is a giving which injures the one who gives and which injures the one who receives an uncheckable. Rightly constituted government has been ordained of God for the protection of the innocent and the punishment of offenders (Rom. 13:18).

VII. “Do as You Wish to Be Done” (v. 31).

This is called the Golden Rule. It is the moral law of Christian duty to the non-Christians.

“The Golden Rule is the rule of life.

“God is the supreme example,” he gives freely and generously but intelligently. This text does not authorize indiscriminate giving. There is a giving which injures the one who gives and which injures the one who receives an uncheckable. Rightly constituted government has been ordained of God for the protection of the innocent and the punishment of offenders (Rom. 13:18).

IX. “Concordant Judgments Concerning You” (v. 32).

This means that we should not seek out the evil or faults in others for our satisfaction. We should not sit in judgment upon the actions of others. However, it does not prohibit us from judging the character of others by their deeds.

X. “The Compensation of Right Living” (v. 33).

This means that we should not seek out the evil or faults in others for our satisfaction.

We should not sit in judgment upon the actions of others. However, it does not prohibit us from judging the character of others by their deeds.

XI. “The Compensation of Right Living” (v. 33).
