COBB-SPEAKER CASE IS NOT PASSED ON

Investigation Into World Series 1922 Started; Cobb and Speaker Case Not Being Settled by Judge Landis; Yankee-Giant Game Called on Account of Darkness in 1922

CHICAGO, Jan. 14.—A quiet investigation of the world series of 1922 is under way it was disclosed at the office of Judge Kenesaw M. Landis here today. The series was played between the New York Giants and the New York Yankees. The Giants won in five games.

The most peculiar feature of the series was the second game, which went on from 10:30 a. m. to 3:30 p. m. when it was called by Umpire Hildebrand on account of darkness. More than 35,000 spectators violently protested at the umpire's decision, asserting that there was sufficient light to finish the game.

Judge Landis awarded the $120,000 gate receipts of that game to charity following the fan-violent protest.

CHICAGO, Jan. 14.—The fate of Ty Cobb and Tris Speaker, perhaps the greatest of baseball's hits, will remain in doubt despite the decision of Commissioner Kenesaw M. Landis affecting the White House-Detroit scandal of 1917.

Landis disappointed many baseball followers when he expunged the players accused by Chick Gandil and Swede Hoseney of "throwing" games in 1917 and again in 1919 but failed to make any mention of Cobb and Speaker or the charges brought against them by Hubert "Dutch" Leonard. He had been hoped that Cobb and Speaker also would get a nice, fresh coat of whitewash.

When it was noticed that Landis had avoided mention of Cobb and Speaker, he was asked particularly on that point but refused to make reply.

All that remains, therefore is the testimony Landis made public several weeks ago, his declaration that no action would be taken "in view of the fact that all the accused are already out of baseball," and the statement of Dan Johnson, American league president, that "Cobb and Speaker have been dropped from baseball."

In the face of this silence, the sports editor of the Chicago Tribune questioned "one of organized baseball's leaders" who refused to permit his name to be used. This man said:

"Tris Speaker and Ty Cobb never again will play ball or manage an American league club. They were given positions of trust and they failed to keep that trust. No matter what Landis rules, the American league won't have them."

Reports have reached here that Cobb was planning to visit Landis again in the company of his own attorney and argue for reinstatement. But to these reports Landis merely says:

"I have no appointment with Mr. Cobb or his attorney."

Shortly after expunging the White Sox and Detroit players of the charges Gandil and Hoseney made against them Landis issued another statement suggesting a number of rules intended to prevent similar scandals in the future.

KIMBERLY PLAYS DOUBLE HEADER WITH T. F. BRUNS

KIMBERLY, Jan. 14.—Students of the Kimberly high school have put on a basket ball season ticket sale primarily to get an idea as to how the fans are going to line up in support of the team and incidentally to get a little ready cash.

Quite a heavy schedule has been arranged for both the boys' and girls' teams. The schedule is as follows: January 14—Twin Falls at Kimberly; January 21, Twin Falls at Twin Falls; January 28, Hollister at Kimberly; February 1, Filer at Filer; February 4, Buhl at Kimberly; February 8, Hazelton at Hazelton; February 12, Elgin at Kimberly; February 15, Filer at Kimberly; February 18, Hollister at Kimberly; February 22, Filer at Elgin; February 25, Hazelton at Kimberly.

Each team is composed largely of new material and for this reason neither Coach Hobson, of the boys' team, nor Coach Beckwith, of the girls' team is inclined to advance any predictions other than to say that each team has snapped out of it quite mentally since their recent away with Buhl.

The double-header here Friday night of this week with the two teams from Twin Falls will afford an opportunity to look over the two aggregations from each high school. The girls' team will stage the curtain raiser on Friday evening at 7:30.

SPORT TABS OF EVERY KIND

NEW YORK.—John A. Heyler, president of the National League, announced he favored Commissioner Landis' four recommendations governing conduct of baseball players. "The commissioner's best players," he said, "each common sense review," he said.

NEW YORK.—The New York Rangers and Toronto St. Patricks battled through extra periods to a 1 to 1 tie.

NEW YORK.—"When the boys were nervous I made them sing and they went out. It was music, not milk—that made them victorious," said "Tus" McLaughery, coach of the Brown football team, at a dinner of Brown alumni here.

Big Munn. Loses to Toots Mondt in Mat Encounter

KANSAS CITY.—Tonto Mondt, the heavyweight wrestler, beat "Big" Munn, before 5000 fans here last night.

Munn, who was only one fall, Mondt's first win in 27; his was a Japanese earthquake; Munn's win was in 17; 15 with a crutch and half Nelson, Mondt took the deciding fall in 10:30 with a head scissor and arm lock.

Queries Upon Law Changes Are to Be Made by Gardner

The matter of a zoning law permitting the city to more thoroughly regulate construction work within its borders, and the question of whether time for paying taxes should be changed, are to be brought into the bureau of the Chamber of Commerce of which R. W. Gardner is the chairman and will be reported on later.

The matter of zoning has been before the city council several times and has been discussed by Commissioner S. Keen. He has made a study of the subject, yet it has not been acted on, partly because the law is applied to cities of the second class, and not to cities of the first class. The payment is discussed from various angles and definite recommendations on the subject is asked.
