SWIMMER IS HERO IN HOMETOWN

Winner of Wright Marathon and the Millionaire's $25,000. Seventeen Year Old Swimmer Lives in Luxury in Contrast to Former Surroundings.

THORNTON, Ont., Feb. 24.—George Young, 17-year-old champion of Canada—champion swimmer of William Wright's $25,000 prize and pride of the young of the continent, is playing hero in his home town, this week.

In contrast to his former humble home in a rather poor section of the city, George now occupies the royal suite at the Elms Edward hotel. He is appearing three times daily at the Elms Edward theatre, where his star work consists of only a short talk on his great achievement. For this engagement he draws $1000 weekly.

Manager Edith Levy says and tells audiences, how all night during the swim, Gene O'Brien cheered George on by shouting "In a Little Spanish Town."

Honors in regard to luncheon invitations appear about even now, between Young and Thomas Foster, mayor of Toronto. Each has been absent from an affair, given by the other where he was to be an honored guest; each has given his own reason for his absence, and as regards future satisfactory arrangements between these two rivals it appears "all bets are off."

Saturday club officials prepared a huge banquet to welcome George and his suite of the plenitude of Golfs Across U.S.

Los Graham of Mobile, Ala., has started a cross-country golf tournament of his own. After the 3000 miles from Mobile to the Pacific coast Graham is to take his driving a golf ball in front of him. He figures his score will be around 3,000. This plan of Graham, taken as he started out, shows him with a trophy he recently won.

Mayor Foster, declined to attend when he learned that Bill Hastings, his former club and side-car companion on the trip to San Pedro, was to be present.

Tuesday, George was host at a luncheon, and Mayor Foster declined the honor, owing to "press of business."

There is no reconciliation between Young and Bill Hastings. They have not even spoken to each other. Neither has Miss Betty Young, aunt of the swimmer, been reconciled to the boy.

"He told me of lunch in California. That's about for me," said Aunt Della.

FILER DEFEATS TWIN FALLS IN HOOP GAME

Wildcats Win Decisive Game, Which Makes Them Eligible to Represent This Sub-District at High Tournament. Twin Falls wins Twin Falls Filer by 19 to 17 scores.

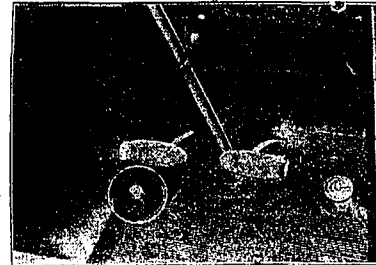

By E. W. BURCH
The Twin Falls Bruins closed their season last night by defeating a double header with the Filer Wildcats. The girls saved the day for the Bruins with a 19 to 17 victory over the Filer girls, while the boys lost in a hard fought game, 24 to 17.

The girls' game was packed with thrills and dramatic incidents, of which the most dramatic was the appearance of Louisa Smith at the beginning of the last period after everyone thought she was out for the game with an injury received in the previous quarter. The whole game seemed to hinge on Smith, who was the star of the Bruins side. The Twin Falls girls took an early lead and the first quarter ended 6 to 4. Just before the half interval Smith was injured and carried off the floor. The score at the half was 9 to 7 in Twin Falls' favor, but in the third period the loss of Smith was greatly felt and Filer crept up until the end of the period the teams were tied 9 to 7. Then to the surprise and jubilation of the Bruin fans Smith appeared on the scene ready to play. The Bruin girls took new heart and after a hard fought quarter which was all for Twin Falls the game ended 19 to 17.

Smith's injury was responsible for most of the action and her basket-shooting was the outstanding feature of the game. So to speak, the work of her play was outstanding. Bowditch played very effectively. Filer was especially effective in getting the ball down toward the Bruin forwards. The centers, Weaver and With, played the fine game and covered their part of the floor very well. Gatterer, who played the whole game at forward, also did very effective work and was responsible for several of the Bruin points. Caldwell and Newman, guards, also played very good games.

The third quarter was even, but in the final period the Wildcats pulled ahead and the game ended 24 to 17. Filer showed a fine brand of basketball with very good team work and ability to make the counters. The Bruins were handicapped by the fact that their two veterans, Forbach and Kelly, were both suffering from injuries. Herberich's foul and recent lack of practice because of it, handicapped him, while an injury to his knee in practice two nights ago handicapped Kelly. Both, however, put to the game and played a good game for the Bruins. The work of Nelson was outstanding, and was well up to the high standard which he has shown in the last several games. Baber, who played a fine game, and James, who did this in his senior year. For Filer Hanson was high point man with 15 points. He and Smith played outstanding games, for Filer, but the work of the whole team was on a high level.

WALL ST. FINANCIAL REVIEW.
NEW YORK, Feb. 24.—The Wall Street Journal in describing the activity of the market today said:

Further indications that the nation's business machine was picking up momentum appearing to assure a general program year gave impetus to the forward movement in industrial stocks today. Various representative issues like U. S. Steel, Westinghouse Air Brake and General Motors Standard reached the highest prices at which they have ever sold while new highs on the present recovery were reached by General Motors, DuPont, American Smelting, General Asphalt and various agricultural.

It is shown by their action that they had experienced no lasting effect from the abrupt break which followed the supreme court decision in the Salt Lake valuation suit.

Personally, I smoke for pleasure!

ON THAT basis alone, I select the tobacco that gives me pleasure in the greatest measure. (I wasn't deliberately trying to make a rhyme.) That tobacco is Prince Albert... good old Prince Albert, known as The National Joy Smoke—and for good reason!

Have you never known the thrill of opening a tidy red tin of this fine old favorite and inhaling that wonderful fragrance? Have you never sat at one end of a pipe with P. A. at the other end and tasted that marvelous smoke? Then it's high time to start!

Buy yourself some Prince Albert today. Fill your pipe to the brim and light up. Notice how refreshingly cool it is, no matter how fast you feed it. Notice, too, that it is mild without sacrificing that full, rich body which you demand in a smoking tobacco.

I tell you in all sincerity: If you have never smoked Prince Albert, you simply don't know how good that old jimmy-pipe can taste. No matter how satisfied you think you are, try a tin of Prince Albert. No friend ever gave you a straighter up.

PRINCE ALBERT
—the national joy smoke!

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, packed and held in the hands of the smokers, as a good crystallized smoke with long-continued burning and with every bit of bite and punch reserved by the Prince Albert process.

The art show at the high school is an affair that deserves patronage. The high excellence of the reproductions and their variety are praiseworthy and the purpose to which the net proceeds will be devoted, namely, purchase of pictures for the school, are worthy of support.

Practical assurance that the sugar factory will run again this year is welcome news to the people of both town and country. Sugar beets constitute a cash crop and help diversify. The prompt payment for beets is a matter of interest to merchants and the employment of a large number of men during the summer and fall helps laborers and everybody else.

Confirmation last night of the story published in the Times Wednesday to the effect that the Segco company would start a condensary at Bull emphasizes the importance of the west end city as a dairy center. The magnitude of the proposed plant may be gathered from the fact that four acres near the depot have been purchased as a site and surrounding grounds and that erection of a structure at a cost of $150,000 is contemplated, on which work is expected to begin following the arrival of the eastern manager. A fine casein plant operated by the Twin Falls Co-operative Dairymen's association and a cheese factory operated by the Segco company, besides production of a great amount of cream, all indicate the importance of the industry on the west end. Twin Falls was later in turning attention to dairy products and the Bull country forged ahead, though the vicinity of this city is rapidly gaining in importance in the dairy business.

The incompetency and willingness of the Idaho legislature and the governor of this state to allow the bosses to dictate to them what legislation shall be passed and what shall not pass is galling to the citizens of Idaho, to say the least. The Twin Falls delegation in the legislature have fought long and hard for an equitable distribution gas tax measure but the machine as a continually turned a deaf ear to their protests. There is just one remedy left and that is a vigorous protest from the citizens of Idaho in the shape of petitions to the governor and the legislative assembly to pass a measure which will stop this gigantic steal and distribute the gas tax money, which rightfully belongs and from the source from which it arises to a certain degree at least. Never in the history of Idaho has such a deaf ear been turned against the people of this splendid state as the present administration in Boise has turned to South Idaho.

WILLIAM B. COURTNEY'S "DON'T TELL THE WIFE" starring Irene Rich, in a Warner Bros. production.

The hot and stubborn temper of Danny Forbes, star polo player, and his beautiful wife, Joan, could not be reconciled. The story follows the life of the couple as they struggle with their differences. Joan is a socialite with a chic taste, while Danny is a polo player with a different set of priorities. The story is a classic tale of a man and a woman who cannot seem to get along.

CHAPTER I—Continued. "Yes, with Abner Gratman no less," went on the millionaire, a partly contemptuous and wisely calculated smile on his strong mouth. "I imagine that, if your imagination is lively, you can picture it. It is lively, it is lively, it is lively," he said, looking at the man who was sitting next to him. The man looked back at him with a steady gaze, his face showing no emotion. The millionaire continued to speak, his words flowing out in a steady stream. The man listened intently, his eyes fixed on the speaker. The millionaire's words were full of meaning, and the man knew that he was being tested. He knew that he had to give a good answer, or else he would lose the respect of the man who was sitting next to him.

Livingstone Silver met his brother-in-law, Abner Gratman, at the hotel. Gratman was a man of great wealth and power, and Silver was a man of great talent and ambition. They had both made their money in the same way, and they had both become successful in their own right. But there was a difference between them. Gratman was a man who was content with his wealth and power, while Silver was a man who was always looking for more. Silver was a man who was always looking for a way to get ahead, and he was always looking for a way to get ahead. He was a man who was always looking for a way to get ahead, and he was always looking for a way to get ahead. He was a man who was always looking for a way to get ahead, and he was always looking for a way to get ahead.

It was Gratman's head he saw as he drove the ball. The ball was in the air, and it was moving towards the goal. Gratman was looking at the ball, and he was trying to figure out how to stop it. The ball was moving so fast that it was hard to see, but Gratman was a man who was used to playing polo, and he knew that he had to be ready for anything. He was a man who was used to playing polo, and he knew that he had to be ready for anything. He was a man who was used to playing polo, and he knew that he had to be ready for anything.

Speech and Action. Action brings as it were, individuality. In speech, in thought, in action, it is the shadow and projection of the self. The self is the center of the universe, and it is the self that makes the difference between a man and a woman. The self is the center of the universe, and it is the self that makes the difference between a man and a woman. The self is the center of the universe, and it is the self that makes the difference between a man and a woman.

A MESSAGE TO READERS OF THE TIMES

During the past few years we allowed quite a number of our subscribers to pay for their paper at the end of the year after they had read it for 12 months or thereabouts. This was done because times have been hard and money has not been as plentiful as it might be. During these years that we allowed some of our subscribers to have time on their subscriptions we have sacrificed very heavily on advertising contracts from out of town advertisers. Now we are planning to re-enter the A. C. Bureau and we must ask our readers to pay in advance for this reason. Some have been doing this in the past but some few others have not. Now we are asking all to come up to the standard of the majority which is only fair. Nearly all newspapers demand that their subscriptions be paid in advance. We have their subscription rates of 60¢ in advance basis. When we lowered our rates from $0.50 per year to $0 it was with the understanding that this amount should be paid in advance. Please come forward like real sports and pay hereafter in advance.

Freak Storm Brings Refreshment to Long Island Coast Town

BAVILLE, N. Y., Feb. 23.—A freak of the storm along the Long Island coast was welcomed by several residents of Bayville. The two-masted schooner W. L. Bell was blown ashore and members of the local fire department rescued the crew of six. The crew, following the vessel, proceeded to salvage the vessel. It consisted of barrels of 25 cubic feet kegs of stiffer blended whiskey, New Brunswick.

Houseboat Colonies Disturbed When Raft Breaks from Moorings

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 23.—Heavy ice hurried into Willamette river houseboat colonies, and 20 to 30 boats were not afloat in the swift current early today when a large raft broke loose from a boom and crashed into one island moorage.

The boats were fastened together on some of those on the river from the time they were pulled from their moorings without alarming the inhabitants.

Those were rescued in their night halcyon, few of them having time to jump up any additional clothing.

The big raft first struck a moorage in the lower end of the moorage and tipped away five boats. Those caught in the current, pulled out 20 to 25 hours and all head down toward Vancouver Island reefs.

Those were rescued in their night halcyon, few of them having time to jump up any additional clothing.
