Marketing Corporation Fall Attributed to Illegal Armour Dealings.

By United Press
CHICAGO, April 12.—Action of officials of the Armour Grain company, to prevent complete dissolution of the organization as a result of an order of the Chicago trading privileges of the Chicago Board of Trade was anxiously awaited today. That the company probably the largest firm of grain traders in the world will not yield position in the order, which would have the virtual effect of stopping the company's operations, was believed. The order is effective Saturday.

Officials of the Armour concern maintained silence today. A brief statement from John F. Mellon, president of the concern, was that he was forthcoming. It said that the company's position was that it was coming effective so quickly caused the Armour grain company to advise that it was not a participant in the Armour company's action against the Armour company, that it caused failure of the Grain Marketing corporation, a farmers' organization through illegal dealings. Evidence of this effect was brought out before the Illinois state legislature and in chamber proceedings brought against the Armour grain company and the Illinois state legislature to gain a monopoly of the world.

BOY, 4, KILLS MOTHER

IDENTITY OF 'MYSTERY MAN' IS UNCERTAIN

By United Press
HONOLULU, T. H., April 12.—The four-year-old boy who shot and killed his mother, the mysterious passenger who boarded her in San Francisco after an airplane trip from Los Angeles, is more of a mystery than ever. He denies that he is Horace E. Dodge, son of the late automobile manufacturer, who was reported to be seeking a reconciliation with Mr. Dodge, now residing in Illinois. Although known to passengers as Harold Dodge, the mystery killer was identified that his name is not Dodge at all. He frequently takes assumed names in his travels. He is also frequently mistaken for Horace Dodge. A woman, a confidential search of the steamship failed to reveal any one likely to be Horace Dodge. "Harold Dodge," of whatever he may be, told passengers he was from San Francisco. He declared an aerial hero that he was from Hollywood, but told little more about himself. He said he had descended Horace Dodge's plane in San Francisco when the Willamette was called. Mrs. Dodge told inquiries she doubted her husband would return to Hawaii as there was no reason for him to come here.

Members of Methodist Temperance Board, Senators Lead Opposition.

By United Press
WASHINGTON, D. C., April 12.—The fight within the government against prohibition organization and in dry societies, for and against Roy A. Haynes, secretary of the United States prohibition bureau, gained momentum today. Some members of the Methodist board of temperance, prohibition and public morals, one group of senators headed by Curtis, Republicans, and high treasury officials, are leading the opposition against Haynes. The secretary of the Treasury Mellon has full power to appoint the prohibition commissioner, he is expected to favor Haynes, and is expected to make it his business to avoid a conflict with the powerful dry campaigner.

President Enjoys Baseball Although He Exhibits Little Emotion.

By Thomas L. Stokes.

(United Press Staff Correspondent)
WASHINGTON, April 12.—President Coolidge takes his annual baseball game much as he takes other matters—quietly, unemotionally, but with considerable curiosity. For he has performed his duty at the opening game here yesterday before the Senators and the Red Sox by tossing out the first ball—an excellent throw, it was—settled down in his chair in the box beside Mrs. Coolidge and sat solemnly through the game. Outside of formal handclaps for the few home centers of the Senators, he displayed no other action of the average baseball fan. Occasionally, he may be seen looking at his eyes fixed intently on the field. Despite the president's lack of outward emotional display, he apparently enjoyed the game as he appeared to relish the spectacle. At one point he leaned over the side of the box for several minutes and observed carefully the distance in the Washington diamond, as if determined to see everything there was to be seen. He cared on no conversation. "The president arose yesterday for the first time in the half of the seventh inning, according to custom. At one opening game he rose at the end of the seventh, but this time Mrs. Coolidge at the time tugged at his coat sleeve and finally he sat down. "If the president would buy a hot dog every day here would buy one." "If the president bought no hot dogs and no peanuts, he really missed his cue yesterday. The first half of the eighth inning he got up, apparently thinking the game was over, and he sat down again, staying in his seat until the game was over. Mrs. Coolidge is a spirited veteran of baseball. She kept a score yesterday, and she showed a keen interest.

By United Press

The Ford counsel said the present injunction against the return of the books had been granted. They asked the court's order for the return of the books in each case daily where the accountant could inspect them under the eyes of the court. Judge Raymond denied the motion when the Tappin attorneys declared that the books were not in the hands of the Ford-Tappin accountant. A disagreement over the account, including certain totals in his books, was understood to have caused the return of the books. The Ford counsel said that the books would remain open for inspection but would not be brought into court each day.

100,000 SEE 6,708 INCHES TORCH BURN

By United Press

NEW YORK, April 12.—A 259-foot torch, from which flames branched at times nearly 100 feet higher, attracted a spectacle which drew 100,000 New Yorkers from theaters and night clubs last night. Itroon, which lasted for more than an hour in five other buildings, stood by and watched the flames and through the building, inside and outside of the 15-story tower of the 38-story, American apartment hotel at 41st street and 5th street. The flames had consumed all the inflammable material by 11:30 p. m. and only a thin column of smoke curling up from the search by fireproof tower was left of the burning torch of a few hours before. In the center of the flames, only a few feet from the top, a torch blew the curtain of fire aside for a moment, an American flag fluttered for hours, apparently untouched.

BULGIN TALKS ON EVOLUTION AT TABERNACLE

Evangelist, Says Spontaneous Generation 'Lacks Proof'

Will Have Farmer's Program Attendance is Large

Last night the Tabernacle was filled again almost to capacity tonight. A large attendance of high school students, except the center block fully 600 strong, The High delegation occupied the block to the speaker's right. Dr. Bulgin spoke on "Thinks Worth While."

In speaking of a materialistic condition, Dr. Bulgin said that spontaneous generation of life had never been proven. He illustrated this message with the picture of a modern locomotive engine in all its mechanical excellence and the absurdity of anyone claiming that it came into being by spontaneous generation. He outlined the absurdity of thinking that the making of the engine could come by spontaneous generation. He said there is no evolution except by the process of evolution from above.

The process of evolution with in the limits of species told the story of God's creation, the healing "King God" Dr. Bulgin traced the processes of God's creative work from the lowest of the highest and revealing the Creator always at the life-giver who has finally given man the ability to worship, not have the ability to worship, but discriminate between right and wrong, to know God.

Dr. Bulgin outlined the essentials of success and failure illustrating his points with examples he had met in his long experience of 35 years as an evangelist.

The high school group stood together and sang some of their school selections and gave several cheers for their school.

Tonight the subject will be "The Lean Cow" taken from Joseph's dream of the seven fat cows devoured by the seven lean cows.

Tonight will be farmer's night. A prize will be given to the parents who are present with their own children.

On Thursday night Dr. Bulgin will speak on the subject, "Show Your Faith to the World."

A total of 25 including many students gave public manifestation of faith. Preference to evolution was part of the development of Dr. Bulgin's theme, which covered various other points.

Time-Saving Way of Tinting

(1097145) 1927

For perfect tinting of drapery, undergarments, etc., the easiest way and by far the best way is by the use of real dyes. It has in fact, as you know, just dip the material and it takes whatever shade you wish to give it. A matter of minutes and you are done. Real dyes will not fade, and are just as strong as the "dyeing" which is done by the use of artificial dyes in original product from 25 to 75 cents at the store. The best you can get. Then up to you to use or not. You'll have an effect that's beautiful. If you want the tint permanent, just use boiling water.

Diamond dyes do a perfect "spot-dyeing" job of dyeing. Job the dyeing is done in simple shades and simple directions. For a look of color, see our color chart. In full color, request free copy of Color Chart of DIAMOND DYES, Dept. 522, Birmingham, Ala.
