Cyclone, Floods, Work Ruin

STORM TOLL IS INCREASED; SAY
MANY ARE DEAD

Approximately 30,000 Are Homeless; Property
Damage Immense.

ST. LOUIS, April 20 (UPI)—The element torn Mississippi basin today struggled towards relief for thousands of refugees made homeless by the exploded cyclones and flood waters.

Upwards of 30,000 persons have been forced from their farm homes and at least two more persons killed as result of overflowing rivers and a series of deadly floods.

The property damage has been tremendous. Rivers through the district today continued at flood stage and several small towns were inundated. Rock Springs, Mo., is virtually deserted owing to break in the levee while Bettendorf, Ia., just recovering from disastrous flood waters of last fall—again is threatened.

Climbing a week of terror for residents along the Mississippi and tributary rivers, yesterday found tornadoes and driving rain storms doing additional damage through the plains country.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 20.—Gen-eralists throughout the state are at least a week of fire and floodwaters.
Thousands of dollars worth of property
to the elements which are terrorizing
the districts of the United States.

Cyclone which swept a path of the outskirts of St. Louis, driving field late yesterday. The tornado struck in a dozen places and houses of the town were flattened.

Although there were signs of community gathering, reports here show 23 are dead in the area and there is still

"PEACHES" TO FACE CONDUCT
CHARGE TODAY

By United Press
CHICAGO, April 20 (UPI)—Invitations were received today for the wedding of Miss Marion Davies, daughter of William H. Davies, president of the Chicago Association of Commerce and cousin of the vice president, to Gordon Littlefield because the latter had been invited to a wedding in Chicago.

"Peaches" is said to have resisted arrest and talked back to two highway policemen who stopped her to get her speed limit ticket.

Al Mann, son of a celebrated actor, was arrested yesterday and will appear in court with her on a charge of violating the highway speed
law.

"You can't arrest me; I'm 'Peaches' Brown," the policeman quoted
her as saying.

"Peaches" was informed she was
mistaken and the couple was taken
to the police station.

GOVERNMENT'S CLAIMS AGAINST
CHAPLIN COVERED, BURKAN SAYS

BOURQUIN RULES
SEIZURE ILLEGAL

By United Press
SAN FRANCISCO, April 20—Seizure of the rum vessel "Fiji" by the Customs Service, which was held illegal by Federal Judge George M.
Burkun today.

"Belief of the court that the seizure was illegal is increasing like the wind which contributed to the war of 1812,"
the court ruled.

The Federalists with a Canadian lumber company, which owned the "Fiji" colors, and its officers declared it was headed for South American Coast Guard cutters captured the ship and brought it into the barber hole.

Whether Judge Burkun's decision will result in immediately freeing of the vessel remains.

TORNADO WIPES OUT TEXAS TOWN

Sixty-one people were killed and 150 injured when a tornado practically wiped out the little town of Rock Springs, Texas. These pictures were obtained by an N.E.A. cameraman, who went to the scene of the disaster in an airplane. An air picture shows wreckage was strewn all over the landscape. Before the storm an automobile agency stood on this spot. The building was demolished and several motor cars were wrecked completely as if they had been hit by a train. The trees also give mute evidence of the twister's fury.

ROSA LIVES
SAYS MOTHER

Woman Who Killed Daughter Thinks Her Girl Is Still Living.

By United Press

FRESNO, Calif., April 20.—Mrs.
Cynthia Simple, the widow, N. J., recently accused of having shot
to death her 16 year old daughter, Rosa,
when she found Rosa holding in her arms a twin born babe, believes the young girl still lives and at home, she testified today.

Mrs. Simple was called as the first witness in her own defense, at her trial here after "Baby Justice" farmed to keep the young girl from testifying about the status of the child.

Mrs. Simple, after testifying that she had given birth to a stillborn child in the winter, said she had no memory of the girl ever being born.

The prospective bridegroom's visit to an old sweetheart in his boy days before coming to Chicago for the wedding was fatal to Miss Davies' chances, friends said.

"Peaches" was informed she was
mistaken and the couple was taken
to the police station.

Claim Mrs. Raymond Admits She and Kelly "Played Around Together."

By United Press

LOS ANGELES, Calif., April 20.—An indictment charging Paul Kelly, popular film juvenile with the alleged "bare knuckle" murder of Dorothy Mackay, actress wife of Raymond, will be sought here today for the county grand jury, the district attorney's office announced.

HOLLYWOOD, Calif., April 20.—Three brilliant careers sacrificed on the altar of the eternal triangle, lay the blame for the bare knuckle killing of the principally dead, another faced murder charges and the third, a broken, hysterical young widow.

THREE FLIGHT

A terrific struggle that reverted to the primitive use of bare knuckles was assigned by police, according to details of the affair, as the cause of the death of Dorothy Mackay, the former star, who succumbed to fractured skull in a hospital here yesterday.
Paul Kelly, rapidly rising Hollywood juvenile, faced criminal charges for the death of Raymond. A contract which he was to have accepted today, and which he accepted from one star-hunting stardom, has ended in the office of a large movie studio.

THE woman—admittedly in love with the man between and Raymond, which resulted in the latter's death—is Dorothy Mackay,

star of "The Dove," "The Sun Daughter" and other stars, success and wife of Raymond. She was reported prostrated with grief at her home, after making a detailed statement to detectives.

THEIR RECONCILIATION

From statements made by Mrs.
Raymond, Kelly and a negro maid,
Ethel Lee, are witnesses to the tragic battle.

THEIR RECONCILIATION

Marion, III., April 20.—The First Baptist church was bombed here today, preventing election of three of its members to the Marion city commission.

Authorities believed the attempt to blow up the church was made by members of vengeance in the stormy county of which this is the seat.

The church, which turned to the "Globe" for protection, was delayed

for some time.

Chaplin would complete his new picture, but that the remaining scenes

would probably be filmed in Long Island.

by his defense, Kelly called

Garrison on the telephone Saturday night and bitter words were exchancged with the result that Kelly went to

since his return from Europe.

Very early sight showed him coming

at the Hotel Plaza.

The hole, however, was not the ethical little depression so hard to locate on a golf course but the bottom of a deep, hidden crater.

Standing 10 feet deep in the edge of the crater, 1,000 feet deep and a quarter of a mile wide, the secret

mine entrance was a hole 10 feet wide, only slightly larger than a man's head, leading into the mouth of the cavern.

Governor Farrington required two men to drop his ball into the crater, his first swing missing the ball entirely.

Dinner Honoring State Officers

Honoring Mrs. Effie M. Watkinson, state president of the Rebekah assembly, were Mrs. Charles E. Johnson, Rebekah lodge of Twin Falls, of which she is a member, entertained with a 7 o'clock dinner in the L. O. O. F. hall Tuesday evening, April 20, 1927.

The dinner, Mrs. Watkinson, official speaker to her local chapter. The head table was beautiful with a large wicker basket of pink carnations, green geraniums and green hydrangeas in crystal holders. The same decorative note was repeated at the other tables, half way down the room, in the center of each pink arrangement.

Dr. E. W. Klinefelter offered the benediction and immediately following the dinner hour, Lodge was called with Mrs. Maggie H. Hall, neophyte member of the Lodge. Mrs. Watkinson and her attendants introduced the principal speaker of the evening, Mrs. Effie Watkinson and Mrs. Bertha Johnson, president of the state of Idaho; assistant, Mrs. Clara Batt; Mrs. Willis of Miriam police district, deputy of Elida, and Mrs. Sheppard, of the state of Idaho, state law district deputy. The honored guests and attendants entered the hall under arches of pink roses and buds and fern held by two young girls.

Dr. C. E. Johnson, Dr. J. G. Bruegeman, Mrs. Effie Stifter, Mrs. Ruth Mae Clavell, Mrs. Annette Mahanen and Mrs. Marie Guttry. Mrs. Watkinson gave a short talk on the history and delightful work on the Rebekah Lodge, bringing messages and greetings from the parts of the jurisdiction which had visited her during the year while reports of the accomplishments she is making are most gratifying to the members of her home Lodge.

Mrs. Watkinson joined the organization in 1916, was transferred to Washington and in 1919 affiliated with Primrose No. 76, Twin Falls. In 1922 she served as national vice-president, since been chairman staff capital since that time and has for seven years served as deputy president of her home Lodge. In 1917 Mrs. Watkinson was elected president of the state of Idaho, and in 1925 at Boise was made state warden, the next year, 1926, became president of the state auxiliary, a capacity she is now doing such remarkable work. Mrs. Bulman, the next state president, also spoke most interestingly on the work of the auxiliary.

Mrs. Annette Mahanen presented Mrs. Watkinson with a gift in behalf of the order, to which she responded in her usual gracious manner, and Miss Clara Batt, the new state president, announced the annual club breakfast for Tuesday, May 6, stating that tickets could be obtained at the public library. Members of the state control were present for the afternoon.

Rural Federation Officers Named

Members of the Rural Federation of Idaho, in the business and professional women's club rooms, affixed their names to the list of officers for the coming year being elected at this time. Mrs. J. D. Whelan was elected president; Mrs. H. N. Rendahl, first vice-president; Mrs. C. E. Dusel, second vice-president; Mrs. Phyllis Miller, recording secretary; Mrs. Robert Hulberg, corresponding secretary; Mrs. H. E. Hinckley, treasurer; Mrs. H. A. Austin, auditor; Madamene H. C. Maguire, Mitchell Hunt, L. A. Chaplin and Miss Jessie Parker, board of control; and Mrs. W. M. Taylor, estate board.

Throughout the afternoon cards were enjoyed, prizes going to Mrs. S. C. Wyant and Mrs. W. T. Selle, Mrs. C. E. Dusel, Mrs. H. A. Austin, and Mrs. H. C. Maguire, who received the high score for the annual club breakfast. At the following supper Miss Leona Burdette enlivened the high score for the year and Mrs. James W. Williams, a dainty guest prize. Mrs. C. W. Hause of Boise and Miss Zanna Shandbarger of Burley were our town guests.

Club Women Elect At Tuesday Meeting

Bridge Supper For Boise Guest

Complimentary in her daughter, Mrs. Vaughn Peeler of Boise, Mrs. C. D. Thomas entertained with a most delightful bridge supper Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Smith. This party will be given some time near Mother's Day, the date to be decided upon later. The entertainment will consist of the chain, a delightful program of Italian music was given. Mrs. Vaughan Peeler is a member of the local Italian club, and the development from the lowest form to the present high order Italian music has attained.

The musical program included a variety of Italian folk songs, some two especially pleasing ones. Mrs. Zenas Smith spoke on Italian customs and the Italian people.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Norrell and Mrs. Zenas Smith assisted Mr. Stewart Taylor as hostesses for the evening. Light refreshments were served.

Continuing the custom of several years, chapter D. 100 of the Rebekahs held a special Mother's Day party for the older women of the community, according to plans made Tuesday at the annual meeting of the chapter of Mrs. Smith.

COBB STEALS HOME TO CHALK UP WIN AGAINST PHILADELPHIA

By United Press

Yesterday Bill Cobb, who showed he is still without peer in the base runner by stealing home in the sixth inning as Crowder, Senator pitcher, was warming up, Launer on the mound, and Karr on the plate. Cobb's score was a part of his broken tie at the crossing of the plate on a sacrifice fly. The final score of the game was: Philadelphia, 3; New York, 1.

The Cardinals, after a scoreless first, took a 1-0 lead in the second.

Bill Miller, who relieved Karr on the mound, was ineffective against the Tigers, giving up three hits.

"Cy" Williams hit his third homer in the fifth, putting the Red Sox in the lead. The Indians, led by Scott, hurling for Philadelphia, shut out the Dodgers, allowing but four hits.

The score was 4 to 0.

Jessie Tammie, in his second victory of the season, when he beat the Cincinnati Reds five hits and one home run by Bottomley and Hufsey added in the 10th to give the Cards the world's first victory of the year.

To White, Boston Red Sox pitcher, goes credit for settling back the New York Yankees for the first time this season. White allowed nine hits which were scattered among the 10 errors committed, but the Red Sox converted those into twice as many runs as the Yanks.

The score, 6 to 3.

EARLY SEASON BASEBALL PREDICTIONS ARE WORKING OUT IN EAST LEAGUES

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, April 20.—Predictions of the strength of the Eastern leagues pennants have need little revision on the basis of the form displayed in this first week of the championships.

Edison, the strength of the National league, apparently have been made accurately with the exception that the New York Giants were under-estimated and the power of the Cincinnati Reds over-estimated.

In the American league too much may have been expected of the Athletics, which were thought given to the Cincinnati Yankees.

Hornsby, Reusch and Tyron seem to have made the Giants, although it must be remembered that the New York team is still the weakest of the weak clubs in the league and may look better than it really is.

Nevertheless, the team has pulled its work and is strong enough given to the Cincinnati Yankees.

An Automotive War.

A highly significant article under the caption, "That Battle of the Giants," appears in a recent issue of the American Bankers' Association Journal. It deals with the developments in the automobile industry.

A compact battle among the leading companies such as the Industrial world has never witnessed is foreseen by many observers, according to the author, D. McReehead. You can't fight started back in 1925 when General Motors challenged Ford for domination. In the light car field, there was a new alignment of other companies and the elimination of several. This year, Mr. Young says, campaigns are being planned and forces passed for a selling war on such a broad scale that every producer of passenger cars, trucks, parts and accessories, as well as dealers, will be drawn into it.

The figures which Mr. Young uses, for which he does not reveal his sources, show sharp changes.

General Motors group, he states, increased from 2.5 million in 1925 to 4.5 million in 1926, a gain of 22 per cent, and cars or 19 per cent. It includes only passenger cars and not trucks. Ford Motor company sold 1,147,915 vehicles including trucks, which, as compared with 1,729,123 of the previous year, represented a decrease of 359 units or 19 per cent. The Ford decrease was approximately equal to the General Motors gain. The remaining 18 cars showed a net gain of 55,800, which accounted for the increase in total production.

The five-year plan as set forth by Mr. Young shows equally sharp changes. Five years ago Ford produced 638 per cent of all cars. Mr. Young says that the General Motors group made up 14 per cent and the remaining 22 per cent was divided among all other manufacturers. In 1925 the proportion was: Ford, 16 per cent; General Motors 20.4 per cent, and all others, 33.3 per cent. In 1926 it had changed to: Ford, 36.6 per cent; General Motors, 28.4 per cent, and all others, 35.1 per cent.

Announcements by Durand that in the future he would devote his entire time to the automotive industry; rumors and demands that Ford had a card up his sleeve and reported new alignments affecting other companies because the struggle among the automobile manufacturers is one which concerns the industrial life of America itself. American supremacy in the automobile field has been too securely established to admit of question. In the number of cars owned America has 31 per cent of the total for the entire world. In production the American manufacturer is all-powerful. He is selling to the entire world. He is supplying cars to the most remote portions of Africa, Asia, and South America. He has met his foreign competition and through greater engineering genius and accomplishmenet in production, has completely vanquished it. Europe, after the short chequered history, has not been able to offer a serious threat.

In no industry in America has there been greater values offered than in the automotive field. It has been down in bedrock since 1929. The purchaser of an automobile has been getting remarkable values, owing to the highly competitive conditions which have prevailed. It would seem that the impending battle, rather than one of prices, will be a contest of engineering skill. New refinements, adding to the comfort, convenience and durability of the cars may be added.

The Man and His Job

It is a work that breeds meanness, envy, and suspicion. It is a work that breeds suspicion, it is not attention to duty but attempt at deception, one has to work harder not to work than to do hard work. If there is any man who has not been affected by what of the obligation to the trust imposed, to make fruitful return for compensation received, to justify the faith that has been placed in him, he is not fit to bleed. To stand by the man with whom he is carrying you along on the wings of life, what about these things? The man of whom I speak is a man who has been born to success. His chances are very good, the search is ever keen, and the opportunity surprisingly fluid for the man with the right sets of circumstances. He is a man who is more than he reveals, the man who is infatuated can gain immensity, enjoyment and control of the situation. In the final analysis, the man of whom I speak is real parts, the man who can control or control two things, is in short the man who somehow is master of his destiny.

"Don Juan," screen play by Boris Meredyth, starring John Barrymore, is a Warner Bros. picturization of this novel.

SYNOPSIS

"The greatest lover in the world," men called Don Juan, and surely why he was so cruel and indifferent to women, had no faith in them and never gave his heart in return for any love. But Don Juan, as captain of his soul, had locked in his secret heart a bitter memory of his beautiful mother's shoulders passage from the arms of her husband, Don Jose, as he left for the wars, into the arms of another lover, Leonora, who entered as Don Jose left. Don Jose had returned and understood them.

CHAPTER I—Continued

Frightfully, she had run back into the room, and stared about, seeking some hiding place for her secret. She was one of the hundred women of which the town was composed, having distinguished, and were on the floor. Little Juan watched, in wonder, as she motioned Leonora to sit in the space they had occupied.

"The face of the girl," Juan thought, "was even more beautiful than I had known her, terror, so that now he could realize it as he had then. She went to him, put her hands on his shoulders, and said, "I have been dislodged, and were on the floor. Little Juan watched, in wonder, as she motioned Leonora to sit in the space they had occupied."

"The face of the girl," Juan thought, he said, and his voice dragged as his feet had dragged on the floor.

Then, suddenly, she had flown across the room and torn at the wall with her hands, had turned to him, and said, "Let him out! Let him out!" And he had seen the girl laughing at her agony, hating her, and Leonora had caught at him with her hands. Then he had thrown her aside, looking at her.

And as the strident knock from the door, then ran to shove him again, he had turned to the door.
