ENGLAND OUSTS THE RUSSIAN REDS

The world is scheduled to face a new crisis of more or less serious nature when the question of England severing trade and diplomatic relations with the Soviet Russian government comes before the English house of commons for consideration and action. The proposal to send the Russian representatives out of the country and to recall England's envoys at Moscow has been recommended by Premier Stanley Baldwin of Great Britain and to-day the commons is expected to pass it by a narrow margin. It is being considered certain, according to news reports at the time this is written, that the house will support the premier. The ousting of the Russians and the cutting of ties with Moscow by England follows a long controversy during which it often has been charged that Russia was using her diplomatic and trade offices in England as headquarters for soviet and world revolution propaganda. A raid made on the Russian offices in London last week, according to reports, revealed that the red headquarters there were used mainly to distribute propaganda and carry on activities in the United States, Canada, Mexico and South American countries. Premier Baldwin also charges that his government has discovered evidence to prove that Russia is the power behind the present turmoil and war in China and that a continuation of relations with the soviet government would only serve to endanger Great Britain.

While most of the world will support the British government in the action against the plots of Moscow, the fact remains that there is a power in the world which is not so easily intimidated. Lightly. She has the direct support of many neighboring countries and the indirect backing of radical groups throughout the world. A Russian scientific organization yesterday is reported to have issued a warning to Great Britain that the cutting of the trade and diplomatic ties might mean war but Premier Baldwin undoubtedly has considered this possibility and England is likely to be prepared to meet any such threat.

Reports from London indicated that the papers seized in the recent raids there showed considerable activity by the soviet government in the United States and it was said at Washington that those reports revealed the American government. The only thought the United States has in connection with the regulations brought out by the London raid, is that recognition of the Russian regime by this government now is further away than ever, according to official announcements at Washington.

Sooner or later, it is going to be necessary for the world powers to enter a period of international cooperation. Propaganda, direct and indirect, for a world revolution cannot be allowed to go indefinitely without some countervailing move. Under present conditions no aggressive step can be taken unless Russia actually moves and the chances are that the soviet, after bringing the situation to the brink of a clash, will back out as they have done in every case of a threatened conflict thus far.

SEVENTEEN YEARS AGO

In the early summer of 1910 the nation and the world were agog over the marvelous performance of Glenn Curtiss in flying from Albany to New York, a comparatively short distance as we rate aviation flights today. It was a nine days' wonder, even though it was not a non-stop trial for convenient landing places was provided. The feat of Lindbergh in flying from New York to Paris impressed, in this pioneer effort a pioneer, though interesting, contrast.

The New York World had offered $10,000 as a prize for the first one to make the Albany-New York flight. Curtiss built a hydroplane to insure a measure of safety in case he should drop into the Hudson. A long time was consumed in the preparations. Finally on Monday, May 22, 1910, the machine was ready for the last trial. The landing places had been supplied with gasoline and oil. Large crowds gathered along the route. A train was ready to take the flyer to the metropolis but Curtiss did not start. The air currents were not exactly to his liking. Finally after four delays, Curtiss set off to the goal, first passing the train down the Hudson, at his first landing he had to be helped to the shore. He was not on the job. He had given up the idea that Curtiss was coming. The spectators rushed fast and Curtiss clapped off again. New York millions watched him land. It was a signal victory for aviation, this little trial, analogous to the first attempt, the first biplane to stand out persistently as a puny effort, but it marked the air course for many more important events leading up to the Lindbergh performance.

We have only commenced to fly. The world has brought many improvements in airplanes, but none advanced as far as the modern airplane. It is now a machine of maximum maneuverability. The dynamo now is for safety, endurance, stability and other elements necessary to successful commercial navigation of the air. The United States has been behind in some respects. That it will lead as it has in all other directions is a question which every patriotic citizen should be proud to answer, particularly the New York Press. (Flight - Peoria, Peoria Tribune.)

The person polling the greatest amount of votes in the campaign, regardless of which district he or she may be in, will receive his or her choice of the four big prize cars. Then, the three persons who have received the highest number of votes in the three respective districts (outside of the winner of the Grand Capital prize) will be given the three remaining prize cars—the highest of the three district leaders taking his or her choice; the next highest district leader than getting his or her choice of the remaining cars, and so on. Then after the four cars have all been awarded, the three persons in the three respective districts with the next highest number of votes to the car winners will each receive $100.00 in cash. All other active non-prize winning candidates (those who do not win one of the above gifts) in each and every district, will each receive a cash commission equal to 10% of all money he or she has turned in for subscriptions, according to the rules of the campaign.

This plan assures that each district will receive at least one of the cars; that each district can win two of the cars; that each district will receive one of the $100 cash prizes, and that each and every candidate who does not win one of the big prizes will be well paid—on a basis of ten percent—for every effort he or she puts forth in the campaign.

Bruins Lose Close One, After Game Seventh Inning Rally

LOGAN DUPLICATES FIRST DAY FEAT BY SCORING 3 IN NINTH FRAME

Gardner's Men Battle Against Five-run Handicap and Tie Count on Seventh on Horton's Homer Only to Lose Out at End; Play Again Today at 5.

The Bruins lost another hard game yesterday to the Logan squad, and after pulling it out of the fire by a great rally in the seventh inning when Horton, who won the first game here Tuesday with a single, crashed out in a home run with the sixth inning populating with Bruin runners, being the count at five all.

Logan then duplicated their feat of Tuesday by scoring three runs in the ninth while Twin Falls fell short in their half of the same frame when they scored only one, the score being 8 to 5 in favor of Logan.

The Colleagues started the game with a run, getting a homer from first lining for five runs. Sumner was allowed by Dolan, lone hurler, who pitched a fine game until he was first out of the ninth when Green, the Colleagues' pitcher, annoyed a home run, which he pitched over the head and before the dust had cleared away, three Logan runners had snatched victory on the bases.

Pahlson, made his first appearance as a batsman for the Bruins and played a brilliant game, hitting extra bases leading the local attack with two hits out-of-four times-up and scoring—two, by made five runs, while Horton made two base walks while Green made the other extra base hit for the victors, the fatal homer in the ninth.

Twin Falls made a total of six hits here, which they scored five runs on, while the victors made 10 singles to gather their eight counters.

Three Major Pilots Are Slated for 'Neck-Knife'

BY HENRY S. FAREWELL, United Press Staff Correspondent.

NEW YORK, May 26.—No baseball season can be considered really opened until the death-struggle on the side lines begin to give the air to the managers.

Along these traditional lines the 1927 season has been opened offensively. Three managers are being given the neck-knife by the customers.

IDAHO'S STARS MEET BEST IN WEST FRIDAY

Special Dispatch to The Times

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, Moscow, May 26.—Idaho athletes will compete with the cream of the northwest for track and field honors at the annual conference now at Corvallis, Ore. May 27 and 28. The greatest group of track and field stars the northwest has developed in several years will make competition known in nearly every event.

Chief among the 13 or 14 entries from Idaho will be Donald Cleaver, Caldwell, who is looked upon as set an intercollegiate record for the two-mile run; Jack Mitchell, Parma, who has been winning the hurdles events in Idaho needs this year and Clayton Pickett, Moscow, who has placed first in nearly every event in the javelin throw district and high jump. The only potential record holder among the Idaho crew is Cleaver who has sworn to beat Arnold Gillotto Montana, holder of the intercollegiate record for that distance.

The runner that Bubblis Hargrave is to replace Hendricks seems out of place and unfair to a very good baseball man.

The same applies to Busky Harlin. He didn't send a batter out to break Walter Johnson's ankle with a line drive. He didn't deliberately break his own hand and he didn't advise Busky Myer not to play ball for him.

Cleveland may drop in seventh place, but has been another disappointment and the blame is being placed upon Jack McAllister. They say whoever "they" are, that George Buran is to take his job.

They don't come any better

I DIDN'T know it, but Prince Albert was the just tobacco I had been looking for all the time. I hate to think of the time we lost getting together. But let that go. We're all set now—me and the pipe and P.A. We've been pals from the very first puff.

Cool as a customs-inspector. Sweet as the thought you have nothing to hide. Mild as a milk-shake, yet with that full-bodied flavor that satisfies your smoke-taste right down to the ground. That's Prince Albert, Fellows. They don't come any better.

I had a hunch I was going to like P. A. the minute I got that breath of Nature's noblest gift to pipe-smokers. What a treat! It made me think of a hike through the woods, when the trees and the vines are in full leaf. I found the taste "as advertised" by the aroma.

Cool as a customs-inspector. Sweet as the thought you have nothing to hide. Mild as a milk-shake, yet with that full-bodied flavor that satisfies your smoke-taste right down to the ground. That's Prince Albert, Fellows. They don't come any better.

No matter how set you appear to be on a smoke-program, try P. A. I give you my word, no other tobacco that ever came down the pike ever brought so much downright satisfaction out of a pipe. "That fellow knew his groceries," you'll say, or words to that effect.

PRINCE ALBERT

STUDENTS TELL KIWANIAS OF FLOATING UNIV.

Miss Patricia Wilson and Harold Barrett, Elizabeth Kiviana (lady at luncheon with Miss Doreen) and Miss Patricia Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wilson and Miss Hayward Barrett, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Barrett, who recently returned after their trip on the University.

Miss Wilson gave an entertaining description of the Orient and the tropics, and the wait in St. Sophia's picture. Mr. Barrett took up the story at the Holy land, where the building up of Jerusalem in the night movement is under way, the visit to Bethlehem and the birthplace of Christ and the trip to Solomon's quarry were told.

In the trip through the Dardanelles the hulls of three battleships were seen. The cosmopolitan city of Constantinople was entertainingly described and the wait in St. Sophia's mosque was set forth with interest. Greece, with the monuments of Athens and the wait in St. Sophia's church, the students met the Vatican and St. Peter's were also mentioned with their sunny cinn and airy fashions proved attractive and the battlefield smothered interest and satisfied patriotism.

Both declared that after all that they had seen home was "sweetest."

CRIMINAL CASE MUST TAKE ITS TURN IN COURT

Judge W. A. Babcock, accompanied by H. C. Brant, court stenographer, returned Wednesday afternoon from Rupert where he conducted court during the trial of W. C. Mulholland against George Seaman, for libel in a child which was attacked by him in his column in the Coeur d'Alene man. The jury in the case returned a verdict for $5,000 for the plaintiff.

Judge Babcock announced that the child case would be taken up first and that the case of the state against Robert Amey, C. B. Colvagan and W. A. Lott, for alleged burglary, would have to await its turn.

The first case on the docket was that of Edith Oliver, one of the late C. E. Oliver and one of the heirs in his estate who charges that she learned her husband's whereabouts through the father, through an undue influence to convey his land to her a short time before death, as represented by Edward J. Stannard, Miss Oliver's attorney.

Both the Stannard & Swezey, attorneys, declared that the property involved is worth $5,000. The defendant in a cross-complaint alleges that she learned her husband's whereabouts from her own property and that the deed was acknowledgment of such obligation.
