KNOW YOUR COUNTRY—THE BEST

Many southern Idaho people, particularly those who live in the cities and towns, believe they know this part of the state. Many, no doubt, do know, in a general way, but unless they make a tour at this time of the year, they absolutely do not comprehend just what southern Idaho is.

A trip from Twin Falls to Jerome yesterday convinced the editor that what south Idaho is, indeed, the garden spot of the nation. Traveling along good roads, the irrigated fields of wheat, alfalfa, beans, then the orchards, beautiful homes, contented people—the beauty of the whole scene was a little more than he could grasp in a few hours. The writer has been through this tract recently and several years ago, but this particular time is the most impressive of all.

While the agricultural districts of Illinois, Iowa and other mid-west sections are more extensive, they do not begin to compare with Idaho now. Better prospects of bumper crops of everything never have existed. Business men and others who believe, they are acquainted with conditions should go out and make a survey NOW if they want to see a revelation. It is the greatest in the history of any land.

STATE AUTHORITY IS UPHELD

The supreme court of the United States, in a decision May 3, sustained the right of a state to tax and control a motor transportation business, although the line may be engaged in interstate commerce. The case came up in a suit against the public utilities commission of Ohio. In a short decision the supreme court engaged exclusively in interstate commerce, are subject to regulation, held that the highways are public property, and users, although entitled by the state to insure safety and also may be required to contribute to their cost and upkeep.

This is a decision of nation-wide importance. It will clear the legal atmosphere here in the Pacific northwest, where stage and truck lines operating across the state have been attacked by unscrupulous and destructive anti-state control. The decision will make easier the difficult task of regulating them for the public safety and in justice to other tax payers it demolishes the false theory of some of their legal advisers that, under the plea of their rights under interstate commerce, they could play fast and loose with the state's authority.—Spokesman-Review.

WHY DO YOU LIKE SOUTH IDAHO?

Believing that a general discussion of the advantages, future development plans, conditions, relating to health, property and other points about southern Idaho will promote a feeling of friendship and tie this part of the state, The Times is starting a daily column, "Why I Like Southern Idaho." Everyone under the plan is eligible to write about this subject. The only rules will be that letters should be of no more than 100 words, free from harsh or other objectionable language and that the writer sign either his full name or initials to the letter. When the writer wants only his or her initials appear the desire will be complied with if indicated in the letter but they must sign their full name and address under the initials. These will be kept for the editor's file. Replies may be made by any writer to the suggestions or proposals contained in a previously published letter.

NOTED SLEUTH

ence. This must mean, he must go the way of all flesh, material or imaginary.
Sterling, fittingly, had two lives and he was his second Sir Arthur.

Dr. Caldwell's 3 Rules Keep You Healthy

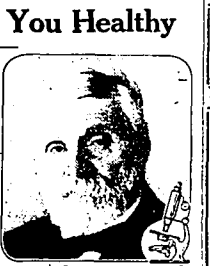

Dr. Caldwell watched the results of consumption for 47 years and believes that no matter how careful people are of their health, diet and exercise consumption will occur in their system, in regard to how much one tries to avoid it. Of next importance, then, is to treat it when it begins. Dr. Caldwell always was in favor of getting as close to nature as possible, hence his remedy for consumption, known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is a mild vegetable compound. It can not harm the most delicate system. It is not a habit forming preparation. Syrup Pepsin is pleasant-tasting, and youngsters love it. It does not grip. Thousands of mothers have written us to that effect.
Dr. Caldwell did not approve of drastic pills and purges. He did not believe they were good for human beings to put into their system. In practice of 47 years he never saw any reason for their use when a medicine like Syrup Pepsin will cure the disease, how to use it promptly, more clearly and gently, without griping and harm to the system.
Keep free from constipation! It robs your strength, hardens your arteries and brings on premature old age. Do not let a day go by without a bowel movement. Do not eat and get out of a drug and get out of a drug. Generous bottles of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Take the proper dose. That is what you want. You will feel like a different person. Use Syrup Pepsin for yourself and mem-took from him today. The first time Sherlock died with his boots on. He long had mired his skill against the criminal cunning of Dr. Moriarty, one of the basest of villains, and finally the pair met in combat on the edge of a cliff.

Before the eyes of Watson, of course, he remembers Watson, the pitiful fug and fell to their deaths.
But Sherlock's friends had not had enough of him. His death was sought to resurrect his master character. And, finally, Sherlock came back to life, having escaped death on the cliff in a miraculous manner common to super-human sleuths, to continue his career as the terror of wrong-doers and the envy of the slow witted kendermane from the yard.
Now Sherlock has died again, or rather, he has been murdered and by the hand of his creator. Perhaps his violent end was the final gesture of defiance to the yard; let them solve it if they can.

WHY I LIKE SOUTH IDAHO

Here is a real story about southern Idaho. It is the second received by The Times in line with the request for material for a special column on this place. Others are welcome to write. Let's have some every day. The southern Idaho story received today, follows:

There are no many reasons why we like southern Idaho we hardly know how to enumerate them. First of all, the climate is ideal most of the time. The altitude is neither too high nor too low. The winters are mild; in fact, we have never had any great need of overcoats, heavy overcoats or woolen garments of any kind. Many people wear sweaters instead of overcoats during the entire winter.

"Furthermore, we do not have the ordinary heat of California and Oklahoma to contend with.
"As to location, what could be better than an rich valley surrounded by mountains and free from storm-mountain winds that are not only beautiful, but useful, too."
"The birds on these mountains feed our rivers and lakes, hence we have plenty of wonderful bird life. It may, however, as we often do, about our fine game and wonderful land of American Park, but if you wish to see the rain or snow or beautiful sunshine for one season, we would all wish to see it. Let us not forget that the ingenuity of man cannot be compared with the providence of God."

"Next in my estimation would be the people of southern Idaho. Where will you find a better class of citizens than in this state? The Twin Falls tract? Oh, yes, many are narrow and would have everybody else do as they do. But the majority of the people of this tract are anxious to see the other fellow succeed and believe in life and let live."
"Those of us who have cleared our places of sage brush and plowed up much rock to build a good sized nucleus, have acted sympathetically for the new comers who are looking for a home. We once were strangers in a strange land."
"It is about wonderful part of the Twin Falls tract, perhaps, is the agricultural district."

"When we first came here we could see nothing for miles and miles, except alfalfa hay. What a difference now. To alfalfa, sugar beets, corn, wheat, oats and barley. We cannot take the time or space to mention all the different kinds of fruit and vegetables that are grown here, but on our own place alfalfa, peas, apricots, apples and nearly all kinds of cherries and other small fruit and almost every kind of vegetable."
"While beans are the principal crop in our district, the other crops have yielded wonderful seed; sugar beets have made good in other localities and potatoes have made the small fortunes in other areas."

"I have forgotten to mention the fine cattle and poultry which are making the farms of this tract look like the rich farms of Iowa and Illinois. The United States has no state or territory grown so fast in agricultural lines as sunny southern Idaho."
"I have forgotten to mention the fine scenery; also fishing and hunting like to write about those things."
"Respectfully,
"WIS. F. W. SNOW,
"Rural Route No. 1, Twin Falls."

You can win your choice in the next three days

The Big First Period Ends Forever at 10 o'Clock Next Monday Night

Ordinarily, that may not mean much, but to the wide-awake and ambitious worker it can mean the choice of gifts in The Times' $8,000.00 Gift Distribution. The one thing to remember between now and the night of June 20, is that when that time comes the biggest vote schedule offered in this mammoth offer will be gone beyond recall. In the last three periods of this great business campaign it will take two, three and in some instances, thirteen times the amount of subscriptions to acquire the same vote value as it does between now and Monday, June 20. Just what that date will mean to you, as a worker in this campaign, or as an acceptor of the offer between now and then, is up to you. It is the real big test that can spell SUCCESS. Is the gift list worth the effort?

If You Would Participate You Can

To participate in this big free gift offer means that all workers will be compensated. Starting with a basis of 10 per cent commission on all the business turned in, The Times will give much more valuable gifts to those who do better than enough to earn a commission. It is a fair and square business offer and those with a business vision will see in it their opportunity of a life time. Just mail in the nomination blank at the bottom of this page.

NOW is the time to win, not later

Here Figure It Out for Yourself, Compare These

	Votes Given During First Period Ending June 20		Votes Given During Fourth Period, July 11th to July 16th
	New	Renewal	New	Renewal
6 months	19,000	4,000	1,000	1,000
1 year	40,000	10,000	3,000	3,000
2 years	90,000	30,000	15,000	15,000
3 years	165,000	75,000	30,000	30,000

The Times Will Pay You Big

It does not cost anyone a single cent, now or ever, to enter, participate and receive the biggest of the wonderful array of gifts which are offered in the Twin Falls Daily Times' Free Gift Distribution. They are for honest effort well expended. For those who accomplish more than just ordinary there is more than an ordinary gift. Anyone will be proud to claim success for each and every one of the gifts listed are well worth the time and effort necessary to acquire them. Between now and the middle of July scores and scores of subscriptions to the Daily Times will fall due and many more will be sold as gifts to friends. That is why the Daily Times offers to pay, and pay well, all who are thinking to spend their spare hours in a pleasant and remunerative manner within the next few weeks.

Voting Coupon Reduced

With today's publication the Free Voting Coupon is reduced to 75 votes. This coupon has been good for 100 votes ever since the campaign was inaugurated, but with The Times' plan of decreasing votes as the campaign progresses, the first reduction is made today with the promise of more reduction in the very near future.

To the coupon chasers—those candidates who owe practically all their present vote standing to the free coupons—the reduction in the coupon today will seem like a serious blow. But to the REAL candidates—those who realize they must get subscriptions to win—it will only serve as an extra reminder to get every possible subscription by 10 o'clock next Monday night, at which time the big first period comes to a final end and the voting value of subscriptions is due to undergo a drastic reduction.

The coupons printed last week are due today. The ones being printed this week are not due until next Thursday night. The wise candidate will place all their stress on subscriptions from now until next Monday night.

BELIEF THAT DEAD MAN MAY HAVE MET FOUL PLAY GROWS

Coroner Grossman Says That Life Was Extinct from Body Found Wednesday Afternoon in Rock Creek Before It Entered the Water; Announcement of Result of Post Mortem Awaits Analysis of County Chemist.

"Everything indicates that the man whose body was found yesterday afternoon in Rock creek was dead before his body reached the water, and on the other hand, there is no evidence so far developed that indicates that he met with foul play," was the statement this afternoon of Coroner F. J. Grossman, at the conclusion of a post mortem examination conducted by Dr. John F. Coughlin and Dr. J. L. Langenwiler. "I intend to go out with officers this morning and look all over the ground," he continued, "and may summon a coroner's jury later this afternoon to hold an inquest. County Chemist Homer L. Sakon indicates that there may have been foul play."

One man identified the man as Carl Nelson, but Carl turned up alive. Although the lower part of the body was entirely submerged and the face partly so when the discovery was made Wednesday afternoon by Frank, the instructor of medical men says that the death was probably not due to drowning when superficial examination was made. Difference of opinion existed in regard to whether there might have been foul play following early examination. Dr. J. E. Langenwiler, former county physician and acting in that capacity, saw no evidence in identifying this on first examination. Dr. C. A. Jones who saw the body this evening told a Times representative that he would say from cursory view of the body that foul play was probable unless post mortem examination would show presence of poison in the stomach.

Doctors Are Believed.

Neither Dr. Coughlin nor Dr. Langenwiler would make any statement following the post mortem, although the latter made tentative statements before, without resorting to a positive way. Dr. Coughlin said: "We have not reached any definite conclusion on anything, but the fact that the man is dead; and will not until after the chemical tests are made at St. Francis hospital, and tests might require two or more days. Hundreds viewed the body this morning and today seeking to identify the man. The sheriff's office and police are trying to find what laundry or clothing the man had, and the marks found on his shirt."

LIBRARY CASE COMES BEFORE BAKER FRIDAY

Motion to strike the second answer of the city and of the Elks lodge and John H. Fox, in the suit of C. A. Brewster, to set aside judgment of the judge to the city for part of the Elks building was filed today and will be argued before Judge H. A. Hines at 10 o'clock tomorrow. The motion of the defendants to have the library bonds made partly defendant will be argued by E. V. Larson for the plaintiff. The defendants and the library bond maker will be represented by Senator M. J. Sweeney and A. J. Myers. Two cases set for this morning were continued: one because of absence of a material witness, the other because of unavoidable absence of an attorney. This afternoon, the case of Hackman vs. Sonner was called at 2 o'clock.

BOULDER DAM WOULD HELP IDAHO STATE

Congressman Smith Tells Kiwanis Club It Would Greatly Increase Demand for Our Products; Sources of Opposition Given.

The construction of the Boulder dam across the Colorado river would prevent the floods which from time to time devastate the Imperial Valley of California; would furnish Los Angeles with needed irrigation water supply which would permit indefinitely increase in population; would generate 200,000 horsepower of electric power, furnishing hydro-electric power to all cities of the southwest; and would increase the irrigated area of a part of the country which would in time increase demand for Idaho Falls products, it was stated today by Congressman Addison T. Smith, in his address before the Kiwanis club at its noon luncheon. Mr. Smith, chairman of the irrigation committee introduced the bill which was presented in the last congress.

Mr. Smith said people of Idaho sometimes fail to realize that the products raised on the land irrigated from the Boulder reservoir would not compete with ours, but are needed here and that the development of that country would greatly increase our markets. Our future markets will be to the west.

Opposition to the proposal which has been before congress six years, comes from various sources. One source of land in Mexico who want to increase their irrigated area oppose it. Arizona opponents of the dam stated that since one end of the dam is in that state though an government land, it should have a royalty on all hydro-electric net receipts from the government plant. Senator King, of Utah, on which the other end of the dam rests, opposes on the ground that the other end of the dam rests, and not by the government, which is in line with his state's rights principle. Congressman Leatherwood, of Utah, actively opposes, unless the dam is built on the land owned by the government.

TINGWALL'S

Quality, Value, Service

Electric power should be developed by private contract. Senator Smith takes the same ground though less actively. Congressman Cotton of Utah, favors the bill. The opposition by hydro-electric interests to a government electric plant is probably the strongest single source of opposition, Mr. Smith said.

ESTABLISH BRANCH HATCHERY

A branch hatchery of the Hi-Grade Hatchery, will be established soon at Rupert, with equipment sufficient to handle 47,000 eggs, with H. C. Harvey in charge, it is announced by H. G. Hayes, general manager of the company. The Twin Falls plant has a capacity of 94,000 eggs and has handled 200,000 since March 1. The

LONG HUNT FOR FOX

REDDING, Calif.—It took two years to locate seven holes and complete the probation of a $38.82 estate here. The seven holes of Albert H. Shaw were found near Littlefield, Ill., after a protracted search.

Checks for a little more than $5 each will be mailed the seven, who are "quail" of Shaw.
