Spuds Crash Out 16 Bingles and Defeat Bruins, 15 to 8

LEAGUE LEADERS FIRE TERRIFIC BARRAGE FROM FARRELL'S SHOOTS

Ruedy, Twin Falls Outfielder, Is Local Hero with Homer, Double and Single; Krasovich Clouts Out Two Bagger; Play Again Today.

By WILFRED PHELIMADER.
Sixteen home knocks, eight of which were for extra bases, rang out from the Spuds bats yesterday as they trounced the Bruins 15 to 8 for the second straight victory of the series.
"Although Twin Falls has not been a hit-as Idaho Falls, the locals could manufacture only a third as many tallies."
It was a grand afternoon for batting averages, Coleman, Thompson, Ruedy, Krasovich and Krasovich firing theirs, a big bomb, Ruedy and Coleman each airplane one over the fence for a circuit.
The visitors started their barrage in the opening inning when they got to Farrell for five runs, including three doubles in a row, John Krasovich, however, not satisfied, they came back for three more in the second when Coleman sent Hutton and Collan, both of whom had stroled, across ahead of him on his homer over the left field barrier.
The locals counted one in the second as Ruedy propelled a terrific drive over the right center field.
Their next tallies came in the fourth, which was the pivotal inning, hitting the Spud hurler hard as Coleman, Krasovich and Pfahler and then Ruedy came through with his second smack, a clean single, plus a homer, which his mates scampering home.
After scoring one in the sixth, the league leaders riddled the Spuds with assault in the seventh that netted five runs. Three doubles one each, by Hutton, Burke and Coleman, and singles by Fedelevich and Callahan, coupled with Farrell's well thrown to second, accounted for the five.
Nelson for the Spuds was not invincible, but adding his tightness in the pitcher's box, he kept the powerful clubs, except for his victory, Farrell was well, issuing eight walks, and laid them in pretty fat at times.
Both outfields continued to display fast baseball, while the infield, admittedly not as tight as Tuesday, showed well on the large number of chances.
The clubs play north today at 8 o'clock. Canfield will likely hurl for the locals, who are due for a win. If they are to break anywhere near even on the series.
The box score of yesterday's game follows:

TOPOCER'S HIT ENABLES CARDS TO WIN, 10 TO 9

By United Press.
Yesterday's home "Spuds" Topocers, St. Louis' Carlisle shutout, who doubled in the eighth inning to bring the run that defeated the Pirates, 10 to 9.

The win advanced St. Louis one full game closer to the National League leader ship. But it was an uphill fight. The Pirates had led up to the seventh eighth when St. Louis made a five run rally.
Bob O'Farrell, manager of the world champions, made his first appearance behind the plate since May 18. He has been out with a sore arm.
The Chicago White Sox and Cleveland Indians divided a double header, Chicago winning the first 5 to 0 and losing the second 8 to 6. In the first game Blankenship permitted Cleveland only six hits. Manager Schmitz was not able to guide the Sox. He was suspended following a ruin with umpire Brick Owens Tuesday.
Picks' strike followed by Webb's scorching double in the tenth inning gave the Chicago Cubs a 2 to 1 victory over Cincinnati. The victory gave Chicago an even break in the series with Cincinnati.
Boston dropped the 11th consecutive game yesterday, the winners being the New York Yankees. The score was 8 to 2. Buster Gable, Yankee first baseman, hit his 24th home run of the season in the Babe Ruth for the leaders.

Detroit made a clean sweep of the series with the St. Louis Browns by winning 9 to 2. Buster Gable, Yankee first baseman, hit his 24th home run of the season in the Babe Ruth for the leaders.
Washington won its sixth consecutive victory, defeating Philadelphia 7 to 2. The victory of Washington sent Philadelphia into fourth position. Four hits and two errors in the

HELEN WILLS IS LONE AMERICAN LEFT IN PLAY

By United Press.
Helen Wills, Wimbledon victor over Joan Fry of England on the center court at Wimbledon this afternoon, 6-2, 6-1, and became the only American left in the first round of the women's tennis championships.

Mae White, victor of the defeat of two competitors who had been looked upon as probable finalists, Elizabeth Ryan of California dropped her semi-final match to Suzanne D'Alvarez of Spain, 6-0, 6-0, 6-4 and then William F. Tilden was eliminated in the gentlemen's event of the tournament by Henri Cochet of France, 2-6, 4-6, 7-5, 6-2, 6-5.
The latter match was one of the most sensational in the history of tennis. Cochet's "jumpy" style, his older opponent whose strokes completely dominated the court until the seventh game of the third set, when Cochet was apparently supplanted down at 1-5.
But Cochet thereafter showed Tilden's superb service and rifled 8 bravely to tie in the last six games of the match but won 25 points while losing only five.
Tilden's defeat dealt a blow to his hope to regain his tennis fortune, lost in 1925 when he was beaten by the American amateur champions. He swept through his early matches at Wimbledon but lost only one set to Jacques Brugnon of France, in reaching the semi-final round.
Fourth inning gave the Phillies four runs and enabled them to win over Brooklyn 5 to 4.

LEE VENEMONIS ADDED TO STAFF

Another hurler joins Corps of Manager Apperson. Mrs. Good Avenue for 1926 season.
Announcement has been made of the signing of Lee Venemonis, right-handed pitcher, formerly of Burlington in the Mississippi Valley league, by the Twin Falls baseball association.
Venemonis, although a resident of Wendell, is a graduate of the Good-John Fry of England on the center court at Wimbledon this afternoon, 6-2, 6-1, and became the only American left in the first round of the women's tennis championships.
The new Bruin addition was given a chance by the Pittsburgh Pirates this spring, but he developed a severe case of flu and was forced to return to the Gem state. While with the Huntington club, Venemonis won 13 games and lost 8. He batted in 24 games. "Swede" Nelson, who flourished prominently in Idaho Falls, who figured prominently in the Bruin's batting record with Huntington shows 12 wins and 9 defeats.
It may be too late for the Bruins to get far in the first half of the first league season but all the new strength that has been added will add them in the last ball stretch, which begins July 12.

Columbia Rows to Great Victory Over Washington

By HENRY L. FARRELL, United Press Staff Correspondent, POKKINGHURST, N. Y., June 30.
Columbia's sophomore crew, coached by young Dick Glendon, looked forward today to two more years of triumph on the Hudson river.
The Glendon system, as transplanted from Annapolis to Columbia by the Glendon, Dick senior and Dick junior, and the brown of the "variety" crews, established yesterday to win the formidable climax of the intercollegiate regatta by three quarters of a length from the University of Washington crewers.

Not since 1914 had Columbia won on the Hudson course; not since 1929 had a member of the Intercollegiate Rowing association come home in the boat. Syracuse was the victor in 1929. Since then the crew has had to row away with the classic while at Columbia the art of propelling a shell seemed to have been added to the list of sports.
which long has attended the endeavor at the biggest university north.
California, rival of Washington, all sports and counted with western shell as a likely winner on race, was third. Maryland, which lacking in experience, seemed of dangerous potential, finished fourth. Cornell was fifth and came was sixth.
Columbia's sailing team, which put a broken boat for three miles to finish a badly damaged seventh. A log had the delicate fabric of the main in the first quarter of a mile from the finish line. They overcame the log by heaving against their oars. The record for the Hudson is 18 minutes, 53 1/2 seconds, which Columbia did not come close to. The record for the Hudson, established by Cornell in 1926, was 18 minutes, 53 1/2 seconds. Yesterday's time was 20 minutes, 35 seconds.

—the national joy smoker—

P.A. says "Come again!" in every puff

THERE'S a warm invitation in every cool puff on a pipe packed with P.A., if you get what I mean. You sort of look forward to, each intake, the way you watch the nails for a letter from your best girl. Good old Prince Albert Never wears out its welcome.

Why, the instant you open the tidy red tin and get a whiff of that wonderful P.A. fragrance, your mouth waters for a taste of such tobacco. Did I say "fragrant"? I hope to, tell you! The flowers that bloom in the spring have nothing on Prince Albert.

And when you load-up the old jimmy-pipe and open the drafts—say, Mister! Cool as the blast of a traffic-cop's whistle. Sweet as his words: "I didn't mean you." Mild as the Gulf Stream, yet with that full, rich tobacco body that satisfies to the very limit.

I'm getting mine with a pipe and P.A. every day. I want you to get yours. All you have to do is step around the corner and tell the man-behind-the-counter you want a tin of Prince Albert. He hears that hundreds of times a day, from men like yourself. Try P.A.

P. A. is sold everywhere in this and other parts of the world. It is a pure and mild pipe tobacco. It is a pure and mild pipe tobacco. It is a pure and mild pipe tobacco.

COUNTY ROAD CONDITIONS

Considerable work now is being done on various highways in Twin Falls county and the roads in this district compare favorably with any area with similar population and income.
There are, however, several spots in the paved highways which are developing holes and which should receive attention at an early date to eliminate the possibility of larger expenditures later.
The grading and gravel work on the roads south of the city will furnish a much needed improvement and should not the farmers of that district in moving their crops to the sugar factory and to Twin Falls.

THE CO-OPERATIVE MOVEMENT

Indicative of the advances being made by the co-operative movement during the last few years is the recent survey covering the Washington Co-operative Egg and Poultry association which started in 1917 with 150 poultry producers who banded together to raise the standard of their product and establish a scientific merchandising system. At that time about 170 cars of eggs were shipped annually into the state. The business of the association that year totaled $234,000.
Headquarters of the co-operative unit now occupies a new building in Seattle, designed especially for the association's business. It contains 87,000 square feet, and is the last word in fire-proof construction, fitted up with special handling devices to expedite receiving, grading and shipping.
Last year the business in excess of $4,000,000. Its membership has grown to 4,500 producers. The association owns a fleet of 71 trucks, which gather eggs from farmers and deposit them in 15 receiving stations in Washington. These trucks also deliver food to the farms.
Such is the remarkable story of 10 years of co-operation among Washington poultry farmers. It is a valuable lesson in the ability of producers to help themselves.

AIR LANES ARE CROWDED

The Pacific, or at least a large portion of it, has been defeated and spanned by American fliers. Yesterday the United States army's airplane, "Bird of Paradise," piloted by Lieutenants Maitland Earl Hagenberger, landed in Hawaii, 2,048 miles from Oakland, Calif. from where they started completing the trip in slightly more than 25 hours. The feat wrote another chapter in aviation and saw another triumph for Americans.
Following in the trail of Colonel Lindbergh, American aviators who have the first to make a non-stop flight between New York and Paris, Commander Byrd, taking with him in his plane, "America," three other birdmen, yesterday hopped off for the Pacific. The balloonists started completing the trip in slightly more than 25 hours. The feat wrote another chapter in aviation and saw another triumph for Americans. Byrd's feat, if successful, will mark another victory for Americans in that the transportation of four men in one airplane will demonstrate the feasibility of air passenger lines.
With the sky lanes thus crowded with craft, it will be only a short time until trans-Pacific flights will come to the "story of the century." The Balloon remembers distinctly how the papers of 1910 told of the flight of Wright from Albany to New York under big headlines and that the people of that time were just as interested in the feat as we are today in the history-making flights which recently have been made and others which are scheduled this summer.

The next attempt will be to cross the Pacific from California to China with only one stop. A prize of $25,000 has been offered and several American aviators are preparing for the trip.
IT LOOKS EASY
An exchange editor, who was flooded with applications for positions on his staff, believes that newspaper men must be of peculiar temperament to be successful. Replying to the letter of one ambitious writer, who wanted to know the qualifications necessary to a successful career in newspaper work, this editor wrote:
"You can run a newspaper easily and happily if you can listen with a smile to someone things you've heard before; if you can refuse to do what three or four people want you do without making them mad; if you can write in a way to make people laugh when they feel like sneering; if you can keep silent when you feel like you'll burst if you don't talk; if you can refuse a woman's request for a lot of free space for her pet animal society without making the whole congregation sore; if you can explain a typographical error without using up more than two or three lines; if you can explain why Mrs. Smith's poem on 'Spring Flowers' did not get into the paper; if you can take a four line item and spread it to a whole column when your best advertiser threatens to quit you if you don't; if you have a nose for news and an itch for writing and have trained yourself not to get drowsy when called to work about 18 hours out of every 24; if you can make your subscribers understand that you have a good thing for them and that they should get into the paper; if you can go to church on Sunday and see a man drop a dollar bill in the contribution box when he is nine years back on his subscription—and yet not begrudge that dollar to the Lord—if you can do these things you ought to get by in the newspaper game."
Cynical? Yes, but truthful, too.—Idaho Falls Post.

ABIE'S IRISH ROSE & Anne Nichols

THE ANTI STORY GOES

The Armistice has been signed and peace is now being declared. The world is rejoicing, but behind him Rose-Mary Murphy, warlike author and publisher, who has done for him he considers worth all the letters he has won through advertising the war. He has followed his chance meeting at a "v" entertainment and a later one, when Abie, coming out of a delirium, found Rose-Mary smiling at his story.

When Rose-Mary was finally relieved from her confinement a few weeks after Abie had pulled for America, she hurried to Paris in hopes of getting quick passage back home.

But she found this a bit more difficult than she had imagined. It was impossible for underdogs to sail for several weeks. The official, who had arranged his ticket, suddenly twisted his short wavy mustache as he beady eyes appraised her. Rose-Mary was forced to depart without having accomplished anything more than the filing of her request for passage.

Paris was still in a state of blissful chaos. Half the army seemed to be A. W. O. T. and soldiers as well as civilians were straggling off all restraint, while they gave themselves over to a long-remembered freedom.

At her hotel on her return she found a letter from her father, with the usual enclosure in the shape of a traveler's check.

"I hope this war will be over soon," she wrote. "That means you can get back to your home town father. I'll bet some Irish milk will be coming by to take you away from me again. All I ask is, be sure it's not one of them A. P. A's. I want you to be happy anyway."

Rose-Mary smiled as she read with its details of life at home—the new building contracts he had received, the work he had done.

She glanced at the check. It was for five hundred dollars.

"You yourself a few of those Paris lettres I read about, but save some for 'dear father,'" read the postscript.

voice, which seemed to throb with an inner conflict.
"I must write him that. I will see him in a few weeks. He said to be sure not to let him down in his writing desk without even taking off her hat. 'I'm going to cable you at your office just what but I am going on.' He wrote him, 'I imagine that you appeared with a silver turban on which were three cards.'

She read the cards.
"Miss Cecelia Roberts," she read. "The young man takes comfort from Abie's father's farewell letter with the name of his brother. He writes to me perfectly sure they can find a way to make their ends square. 'You're both motherless.'"

Knall Boys Go to Scout Encampment

Special Dispatch to The Times
CANTON, June 20.—Twenty-five Knall boys went to the Scout encampment on Sunday to spend that week. John Anderson, Leon Wright, Raymond Long, John Lee and Mike Holloway, Mrs. Frank Thomas and son returned Sunday from the Twin Falls Scout camp.

At the former Miss Abby McCarthy threw her arms affectionately around her old fiancée.
The other two arose at once, and there was the usual hurried discussion of the evening's meeting place and program. Then more almost more hands good-byes—and they were gone.

Somehow, once again, "the troop of the meeting is here waiting."
If that was the best proof of a moving picture western in how it is received in its own sitting—the good nature of the great open spaces.

Whichever a Universal-Jewel product starring Hoot Gibson is advertised to appear in one of the smaller towns of Texas, Arizona, or New Mexico, it is a blessing for almost universal turnout of the populace.

MOVIES TO TWIN FALLS
J. W. Wilson, who has been in the employ of the Idaho Trust House in Boise for the past 11 years, moved to Twin Falls Sunday to take charge of the local branch of that company.

It is great to have a clear skin

A clear skin means everything to the popularity of men and women. You can get it with external applications.
