

Expect Autopsy to Solve Mystery of Crumpacker Suicide

PROBE REPORT OF POISONING

'I Am Going to Die,' Senator Was Murmuring When He Was Discovered.

By United Press
SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—An autopsy today was expected to throw some light on the strange mortal case from which Congressman Maurice E. Crumpacker of Oregon was suffering Sunday afternoon when he died of his death in San Francisco Bay.

Dr. Babby R. Strano, in charge of the expected autopsy, is expected to examine the stomach to determine what was behind the mysterious incident, elements that he had been poisoned.

Results of the examination will not be available for several days. It was stated in the meantime a coroner's jury was to view the corpse. The body was to be sent to Honolulu this afternoon.

Crumpacker was found by police Saturday night slumped on a dock, down a flight and near the entrance of an emergency hospital and held there for several hours. He apparently received medical attention and was released during the early hours of the morning. Two friends, John N. Palmer, San Francisco newspaper man, and Thomas Smart, Seattle newspaper man, both of whom formerly knew the congressman in Portland, found him later in the St. Francis hotel. They took him to Palmer's apartment and took care of him until the afternoon the congressman expressed his desire to take a walk.

Mr. Crumpacker and Smart set out and when they found themselves near the water the congressman made a sudden stop. He was holding a small bottle. He struck some rocks but was not killed outright. It was about 25 miles before the body was taken from the shallow water, however, and by the time an ambulance reached the shore the congressman was pronounced dead.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—News of the suicide of Representative Maurice Edgar Crumpacker of Oregon, who died Sunday in San Francisco, was received with surprise and sorrow in congressional circles today.

The 40-year-old member of office had attained distinction unusual through his personality and energy, and had been elected for the seventeenth Congress.

Crumpacker was known for his political gifts, being a pianist and singer of note. He was a close friend of Speaker Nicholas Longworth, both being interested in music.

A republican, Crumpacker was elected from the eighth congressional district of Oregon, in Multnomah county, in which Portland, his home, is located. He served in World War I, being discharged with the rank of captain.

REPORTER DIGS UP BIG WORRY FOR PRESIDENT

'Editor' Coolidge Finds Problem for Executive.

By Paul H. Mallory
United Press Staff Correspondent
NEWELL, O., July 25.—President Coolidge sent the United Press correspondent on here on a mission about the government's irrigation project here and the United Press correspondent found the story was that farmers want Mr. Coolidge's aid in extending that work on their debt to the government from $2 to $5 million.

Knowing that correspondents were not to report on the project, the correspondent thought they might wish to know about the Ardmore dry farming project and the Holliston irrigation project.

Mr. Coolidge feels that correspondents write too much about his private life and believes the country would obtain more beneficial results from stories about the suggested subjects.

Had the United Press correspondent who arrived here today found that the farmer have a story for Mr. Coolidge and are holding a mass meeting tomorrow night to protest against the government's refusal to extend the limits for payments upon their obligations.

They have cultivated 60,000 acres of the 200,000 acre project. The water is carried by the icy waters of the Bull forks river, which was harnessed by the government, and the water farm lands out of a private deed.

R. S. Smith, who runs a weekly newspaper at Bellefontaine, says that there is justice in the farmers' demands. Their crops have been gradually improving, but the government still has not made sufficient money.

Dempsey-Sharkey Dispute Goes on Books Unsettled

Dempsey Admits He Does Not Know Whether KO Was Foul; Public Opinion Is Divided; Man Hurt in Ring Cannot Know, Is View.

By HENRY L. FAHRELL
Faded Press Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK, July 25.—As he no longer remains a question about the punches which he knocked out Jack Sharkey. It is an argument that never can be settled. A man has to be granted the right to his own opinion and the best opinion is that of Jack Dempsey. He admitted before he left New York that he did not know if he did not knock Sharkey out with a foul punch.

Sharkey's opinion quite obviously is worth something, and he could settle the argument with an admission that the punch was not foul if he really was not. But in all probability Sharkey would not do so.

When you get a punch in the stomach from a driver like Dempsey you can't be sure just where you're hit. Tom Gillion expressed this opinion in Shelby after Dempsey had been accused of hitting him low: "When you get hit of that you don't know where you're hit."

It is curious that charges of foul play have been involved in nearly every one of Dempsey's fights. They said he left the ring illegally against Jess Willard, that he punched Gillion low on the floor after the bell had struck and now the Sharkey controversy.

It is just as curious that Dempsey never has been charged that he fouled his friends after his fight and those who are not his friends can be found affirming him with the exception of the opinion that if he was guilty it was not intentional.

Regardless of all the arguments and two in the second were partly responsible for the double effort which the Athletics suffered at the hands of the Cleveland Indians. The scores were 9-5, and 6-2.

There were no important changes in the standing of the American League. The pace-setter, Yankees, again defeated the White Sox, by a score of 5 to 2.

Babe Ruth made the afternoon world while for 45,000 Chicago fans by hitting his thirty-first home run of the current season.

CHICAGO LOOMS AS SITE OF BIG TITLE CONTEST

Rickard Is Expected to Make Announcement of Arena Scene Soon.

CHICAGO, July 25.—Dellie's announcement that the heavyweight championship fight between Jack Dempsey and Gene Tunney will be held September 15 in Chicago may mean the expected visit here of the Duke of York, who controls the ring activities of both Dempsey and Tunney.

Although a technicality in the Illinois boxing law provides that only residents of Illinois are permitted to promote boxing shows in this state, and this would prohibit Rickard from putting the championship bout here, it is considered almost certain that Rickard will be ahead with his plans to hold the fight here, merely placing the responsibility for the fight on the shoulders of the Chicago association.

George Getz, a millionaire sportsman, and Edward A. Kelly, president of the Chicago South Park commission which is in control of the box, hold the field against the promoters of the bout. In Rickard's interest.

POSSIBLE CHANGE
ALBANY, N. Y., July 25.—A possibility that Tex Rickard might change his mind and stage the forthcoming Jack Dempsey-Gene Tunney heavyweight championship fight in New York was seen here today.

Rickard has not definitely selected Chicago as the site for the bout, and Secretary of State Moses may force the New York Athletic commission to provide the rule limiting top prize for fights to $25,000.

The promoter could arrest fight once a few top in Chicago, but if the New York restriction were removed nothing could prevent a top prize of $50,000 or more.

Moses, the nominal head of the commission, has expressed the conviction that under a recent decision of the United States supreme court the boxing board has no authority to fix boxing prices.

on the ex-champion's left hand. Dempsey was asked about a report that he had fought off Jack Kearns' $25,000 claim for $100,000.

"It's all bunk," he said. "There's nothing to it."

Don't Overlook Any Diamonds

KIMBERLEY, South Africa, not the prosperous Idaho town, was going back. The farmers were disgruntled. They said the couldn't eke a living from the rocky soil.

And all the time, their ragged youngsters were playing with diamonds!

But the farmers didn't know... Many of them died poor. They thought the priceless gems were pebbles.

Some folks are just like those Kimberley farmers. They seek opportunity in some distant place and overlook the wealth that is daily within their grasp.

THEY AND BREW SEIZED AFTER AUTO HITS HORSE

Special Dispatch to The Times
Twin Falls, July 25.—The highway men, N. Adams and R. W. (Big) Jones, are held in the Jerome county jail at Jerome, following an automobile accident on the road two and one-half miles west here Saturday night and the officers are holding a large quantity of beer from which they say they may be taken from the truck.

The automobile, which struck and killed a horse, was badly damaged by all of the passengers except injury. According to the story which Deputy Sheriff Fred Powers said to the men, they had stopped to pick up a man on the road and after starting the car they were stopped by the deputy when he arrived at the scene. He found two men drinking a hole in a barrel of beer. They were then attempting to conceal several barrels of home brew beer.

They were picked up on the road and released.

STATE HEADS OPEN SESSION

Governors Discuss Problems of Administration at National Meet.

United Press Staff Correspondent
MADISON, Wis., July 25.—Governors of 26 states met here today in their 19th annual conference to discuss informally their common problems of administration.

Prere relief, food control, purity of the ballot, the status of the state and marine, the proper relation of federal and state authority, and state taxation are to be the chief questions before the state executives.

After the address of welcome by Governor John G. Thompson of Michigan, the first important address today is to be delivered by Governor John Hamill of Iowa on farm relief, swimming in the capital of the northwest territory, however a collection of such subjects as the main body of governors arrived by overnight steamer from Detroit.

The governors were taken on sight-seeing trips through the island Sunday afternoon. The journey was made in a motor launch, which is not a comfortable one for the island. After Sunday evening dinner an informal reception will be held at the Grand hotel, headquarters of the conference.

In the list of registration are 15 governors, one lieutenant governor, two former governors and one speaker of a state house of representatives.

Poor Risk
About the worst insurance risk of all is the innocent bystander. Great head trouble.

Credit Association Considers Forgers

Twin Falls Credit association met this noon and dealt with the problem of the numerous check forgeries that have taken place here recently. J. J. Hughes, manager, stressed the need of merchants here exercising care in cashing checks.

To cope with the situation, the association has sent out 11 lists with the names of 10 business places on each, so that in case the local office is notified of a forger working in town it can call these 10 places and have each of them call the 10 names appearing on the list. In that manner it is estimated that the entire town and county can be notified of the danger in about 10 minutes.

FIXED BY BRIVIS (CULT)
Alfred Smith was fined $75 and sentenced to 30 days in jail by the police court on a charge of reckless driving on South Main yesterday. He has not paid the fine and is in the city jail.

G. A. Schumaker, who was with Smith and, according to officers, also drank, was fined $25 for being intoxicated and attempting to excite a crowd.

They also attempted, and were caught, to enter the city jail.

But today the law came into its own. State's Attorney Roy C. Martin, who presided in Franklyn county the case which dealt the most severe blow to the gang, said today that the "supremacy of the law had been established."

BIRGER GANG IS DYING OUT

Leaders Sentenced to Gallows; Members Are All in Jail or Dead.

BY WILLIAM E. SULLIVAN
United Press Staff Correspondent
DETROIT, Ill., July 25.—The leaders sentenced to the gallows, virtually all of its members either killed, in prison or fugitives from justice, the notorious machine gun gang of Charlie Birger was falling over the horizon of southern Illinois today.

Birger must have for the murder of Joe Adams of West City and Art Cowan and Ray Hyland, two of his former allies, must quit their machine gun to spend the rest of their lives behind prison bars.

A year ago and even until the past month, the Birger gang flourished unscathed about the town of "Little Egypt" wearing bullet proof vests and pistols strapped to their waists and sub-machine guns in their hands. They stole automobiles, sold liquor and speared snappers at sea.

But today the law came into its own. State's Attorney Roy C. Martin, who presided in Franklyn county the case which dealt the most severe blow to the gang, said today that the "supremacy of the law had been established."

Birger's attorneys were at work today on a motion for retrial to be presented Wednesday.

Attorneys for Newnam and Hyland had not decided whether they will appeal.

Sentence Withheld

Because of insufficient corroboration, Judge W. A. Babcock today declined to withhold sentence in the case of William Paul Pederson, charged with check forgery in connection with the deal that sent Clinton Smith and David Treasler to the state penitentiary for from one to 14 years, until next Monday morning. In the meantime the record of Pederson will be closely investigated.

Pederson was not sentenced immediately because officers held out a belief that he was involved in the alleged forgeries by the other two young men.

When re-established and machine gun gang is at an end?

With only a skeleton of the Birger gang left, attention was directed to the Shelton, leaders of a rival gang, now under the hand of the law, Carl Shelton, the leader, and his two brothers, Earl and Bernt, were recently released from Leavenworth penitentiary pending a new trial by the Collville, Ill., mail robbery.

They are under heavy federal bond. The gang of their followers have been silenced and the name of the Sheltons is fading into the turned pages of southern Illinois gang history.

Birger's attorneys were at work today on a motion for retrial to be presented Wednesday.

Attorneys for Newnam and Hyland had not decided whether they will appeal.
