SENSATIONAL SCENES THRILL BIG CROWD AT START OF PRIZE DASH

Art Gabel, master flyer, whose "Washers" plane hopped off from the runway at the San Francisco municipal airport.

at the controls started next at 12:21 p. m. The three were crawling on each other's heels to make up as much as possible of the half hour delay. Captain took the air one minute after starting.

Captain William Ewin started next at 12:22 p. m. He rose successfully, thirty later, the "Alpha" was flying very low, worrying spectators.

The American pilot, Miss Doran, returned to the field at 12:41 p. m. Nancy Peller, pilot, brought the ship to a safe landing.

Ewin's plane was returned to the head of the runway at 12:42 p. m.

Peller stopped from the "Miss Doran" and explained that his motor had been haphazard.

"We don't want to make the trip that way," she said. "The motor will have to be given a thorough re-overhaul before we start again."

"It is doubtful if we can get away again today," he added.

WHILE EWIN waited his "Beta" left for the field at 1:10 p. m. The crowd, which had gathered in all places of his monoplane was torn loose in the air.

"I'm sorry," Ewin said, "but I can't take off, returned to the field, two minutes behind Ewin. It also made a safe landing.

The "Oktahoma" in returning flew very low over the heads of the crowd. People scattered in all directions. Bennett Griffin brought his ship down without accident, however.

Flying started again at 1:21 p. m. This start, like the first, was unsuccessful. A minute later he was flying low. The right wing was observed to strike the ground, inducing clouds of dust, over and above the landing.

Two ambulances left the head of the runway for Ewin's plane. Ewin was not hurt. It developed, he returned to the head of the field in 30 seconds.

Major Irving's "Beta" left for its right landing wheel in the soft earth on landing. The wheel supporting gear was broken. The left wheel was torn off a moment after it left the ground and the plane pitched to its right side. The right wing was smashed and torn loose at its junction with the fuselage.

Major Irving's machine lands were open, the fuel running, over the ground.

It is expected that by 12:30 p. m. the flight will be completed. Irving, uninjured, except for a sprained hand, said he would return to his home.

Can You Answer All of These Questions?

- CATHEDRALS OF THE WORLD
1. What wall known American has contained the restoration of the cathedral?
  2. What cathedral, with building will be the most expensive Protestant cathedral in New York?
  3. Where were the "mass windows" of Notre Dame, Paris, placed for a member German air raids during the war?
  4. What cathedral has the largest area in square feet in the world?
  5. Name the London cathedral whose the great men of England are buried.
  6. What is Germany's largest cathedral?
  7. Name New York's famous Catholic cathedral.
  8. Name the two men in charge of New York's two largest cathedrals.
  9. What is the only cathedral in the world which will survive the next great cathedral in New York, in height?
  10. Name the cathedral ranked among the wonders of the world, although not among the seven first wonders.
- (The answers to these questions will be found elsewhere in this edition.)

the Shady Hill river. It was hoped, however, that the rise would cause some reaching into the city.

SEE KNEW TRAIL

HUNTING, Aug. 16.—Nicola Savoni and Bartolomeo Vanzetti, who have six days to live under their last sentence, returned to the Supreme court with a plea to let them prove their innocence of the murder charge at a new trial.

Twice before their attorneys asked the same justices for a new trial and both times a new trial was denied. But today the circumstances were somewhat different.

The full bench of the supreme court were based on exceptions to Judge Webster Taylor's rulings. Today's plea was to be based principally on a charge that Savoni and Vanzetti were denied fair trial on appeal.

Judge Taylor's alleged prejudice against the two immigrants, technically today's grounds were from the rulings of Justice George A. Sanderson.

Sanderson's supreme court denying a motion for a writ of error and from the rulings of Justice Taylor in denying motions for a new trial, revocation of sentence and stay of execution.

WATER AT HATFIELD

Low river and the Kansas river swept into Hatfield, covering an area of block squares. The area will spread further it was reported. The "Shady Hill" rising rapidly above Hatfield, enhancing all property in that village.

Nickerson, north of Hatfield, is completely flooded.

The Nevada is carrying added damage on a half dozen towns. Iowa and Fort Scott were hit by the high water, with farmers in that vicinity having little or no crops.

Train service is at a standstill in the home area. The tracks of the Missouri Pacific, the Santa Fe and the Union Pacific have been washed away, some of it being carried away by the impact of the water. Trains into Kansas City from the west were from 15 to 12 and 12 hours late, being routed to the north and down to enter to get through.

and here I want my names to be listed when I am gone," they said.

Members of his family, satisfied with the death of the master, business man of America, recalled this motto buried in a manuscript on the side of the road, looking out of "Winnetka".

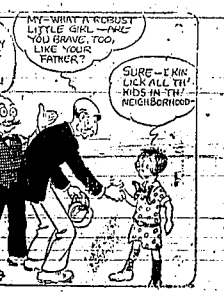

The funeral will be Thursday.

Judge Gary was the first mayor of Winnetka, shortly after the town was incorporated. Later he became county clerk of DuPage county and thereby earned the name of "Judge Gary" which has been followed by him through his years of spectacular success as head of the United States Steel corporation.

THE BEAUTY OF THE LORD—Let the beauty of the Lord our God be upon us; and establish Thou the work of our hands upon us; yea, the work of our hands establish Thou it, Psalm 90:17.

PRAYER:—Lord, make us beautiful with the beauty of holiness.

CLERICALISM IN POLITICS.

When clerical or religious organizations enter the political arena to bring about or resist legislation, they act necessarily as clerical organizations and not as citizens.

A clergyman has all the political rights and duties of a layman and there is no objection to his taking an active part in political affairs if he acts as a citizen and not as a representative of a religious order or organization.

The church engaged in politics cannot function effectively save by becoming political. By so doing it imports into political action discriminations which are religious or denominational and in a system of government such as ours are fatal.

This is by no means to say that moral principles have no place in our politics nor that the clergyman has no concern to maintain righteousness prevail. But his clerical function is that of the teacher of religious and moral truths and not that of the politician.

It is that of awakening the conscience of the individual and thus inducing him to take his proper part in the government of the state to which he is called.

The influence of the church in enlightening and purifying the consciences of men and so bettering the common concerns of the nation is the most important and the most effective.

WASHINGTON LETTER

BY RODNEY DUTCHER: "Whether the benefit or damage accomplished by prohibition, the great and deep political situation of the republic."

Whether he is running for the presidency or is merely a candidate for office today must not be the issue and declare himself a candidate for office today.

Thus, a man may be a perfect ward at catching stray dogs and show his position at the point to a party, blind and lame follow him who is better adapted to the pursuit of tortoises than who otherwise.

Attack by Farmers Against Tariff Without Full Study Would Be Unwise; Says Jardine

(Editor's Note: This is a continuation of a series of articles on the tariff which appeared in the Times for the week ending August 1, 1927. The first one will be found on the inside of the home market for the farmer.)

TAMPE-SMITH, LE. FAIR: It would be in the highest degree unwise for farmers at this time to launch an attack on the tariff without carefully considering the possibilities in the near future.

Touching Up a Few Fences

When Colville had no sooner announced that he did not want to run for reelection in 1928 than Frank O. Lowden, former governor of Illinois and considered an outstanding candidate for the U. S. P. presidential nomination, hurried to Chicago from his summer home and went into conference with political leaders. Here he is shown at the telephone getting reports on political prospects.

IDAHO'S GRAVEL ROADS UNABLE TO STAND HEAVY TRAFFIC LOAD

Joe D. Wood, State Commissioner of Public Works, Reports That This Type of Road is Heavy Financial Drain; Urges Oiling.

State Commissioner of Public Highways, Mr. Wood, works Joe D. Wood, in connection with the state commissioner, makes the use of gravel roads and the total cost of the situation, makes it clear that the present system of gravel roads in Idaho is impractical, inefficient and too expensive.

"The worst travel and traffic on Idaho highways," which is growing daily worse, is due to the fact that gravel roads are not properly maintained.

"Construction of a more permanent road on the main traveled highways will have to be done. It is not possible at the present time to build permanent and paved highways in every direction so the next best step will be to oil them."

"Experiments have shown that this highway road bed is permanent paving is an added cost in traffic on Idaho roads. This is a number of experiments with character of road surface, material used, and the amount of surfacing of which about 100 miles will be done this year."

GARDEN OF EDEN—KANSAS

Farmer Spends 30 Years Making Cement Model

By SEA Service.
 LUCAS, Kan.—The thick hills of South Dakota may be the best place for a president to spend his vacation. California may be the next thing to Paradise, and the Garden of the Gods may be in Colorado. But the Garden of Eden, flanked by electricity, come to Kansas.

Adam and Eve are here, also Cain and Abel, the serpent, and the apple. You can smell and see them for your sins.

Bill on Moses' Plans.
 When Moses saw the book in Genesis where description of the famous garden where Adam fell and Eve sinned him, Moses may or may not have had an idea that his description would be used as plans and specifications for a beautiful country, rustic structure of the garden, but that is just what has happened.

THE HOST AND HOSTESS OF KANSAS CONCRETE EDEN

Blissmore, his youthful wife and their daughter, Emily Jane.

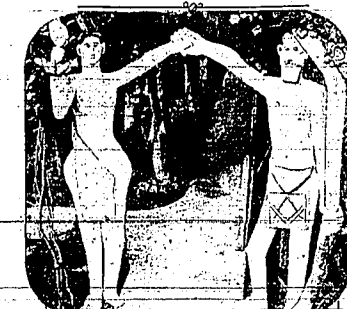

The cement limbs of the concrete trees look for concrete insects which are not there.
 "This was the building of this Garden of Eden a good idea."
 Just ask Blissmore.
 Married July 20.
 Blissmore attributes his health to the fact that he lives in the Garden of Eden.
 Three years ago, when he was 81, Blissmore was married to a beautiful young lady of 20, who is now hostess of the Garden and shows visitors about, pointing out the snake and other properties.
 The Blissmores have a lovely little two-story-old daughter, Emily Jane, who has never known a day of sickness and has never taken a dose of medicine, because, you see, she lives in the Garden.

Blissmore, here, where there is no snake, Adam and Eve are Emily Jane's playmates.
 In fact, says Blissmore's contractor and builder, "The wife is no younger than I am, for we live in the Garden of Eden where youth is perpetual."
 Blissmore originally set out to follow exactly the notion of Moses, but on the work went along, he realized that the great project may have contained a few things.
 Recreation Blissmore has put them in.
 There are, for instance, two swings instead of one. The second snake is to tempt Adam.
 Adam, you may meet in the "Heaven" and better Eden of Kansas wives of Cain and Abel, who Moses forgot to mention.

The Lost Needle

There's an old English play known as "Gammer Garton's Needle." Its plot is woven around the loss of the family needle—no trifling misfortune in the days of old.
 Today, in this era of ours, life is so rich in comforts that we seldom wonder how folks got along in the ancient world. And we sometimes forget what an important role advertising has played in making life pleasant and altogether livable.
 Advertising has one of the leading parts in the eternal drama of dollars. To it is directly due much of the multiplication of products and services which has come about during the last half century.
 It has smothered the mechanics of existence—made life easier and more pleasant by bringing countless necessities—once considered luxuries—within our easy reach and into continuous use.
 Think of this when you read these columns. You owe much to advertising.
 And you miss much when you fail to read it in the.

OGDEN NOT OPPOSING IDAHO RATE

Chamber of Commerce There Fighting for Chance to Retain City's Market in View of Reduction From This Area West Via Wells

Ogden is not opposing the proposed five-cent per hundred freight rate which freight rates to San Francisco via the Wells-Ogden route, provided the Ogden chamber of commerce has no objection to the application to apply an equivalent via Ogden. That is the gist of a letter received yesterday by Arthur H. Wilson, president of the Twin Falls chamber of commerce, from Jesse S. Richards, secretary of the Ogden chamber of commerce, and of a statement made public by James A. DeVine, president of the Ogden chamber of commerce.

Mr. Richards stated that he is certain that Ogden is not opposed to the Ogden route, but that he does think that the Twin Falls chamber of commerce should be notified of the matter.

DeVine stated that he is certain that Ogden is not opposed to the Ogden route, but that he does think that the Twin Falls chamber of commerce should be notified of the matter.

URGE SCRUTINY OF NEW USERS' RATE SCHEDULE

General Impression About Twin Falls in Not Increase to West From Wells

An urge to investigate the new rate schedule of the Idaho Power company came at the regular meeting of the city council last evening. Arthur H. Wilson, president of the chamber of commerce, and several other members of the board of directors, declared that the rate should be made to determine whether or not the new rates actually resulted in a higher cost to the utility consumer. If so, they urged that a new rate be made with the rate of southern Idaho to have the new rates reduced.

Each member of the city council was for letting Everett M. Swezey, city attorney, look into the matter. It should be a brief check-up not a very elaborate one, he stated.

Wilson stated that the matter be referred to the city council for a formal report to be made.

The chamber of commerce representative stated last evening that people all over Idaho are discussing the new schedule and that the general feeling is that the new rates, when in actual operation, will result in a net increase in costs.

Dry Leader Faces Jail

Shumaker, for 25 years superintendent of that state's Anti-Saloon League, has been found guilty of contempt of court in a decision last handed down. It is shown here in a new automobile with his license presented him yesterday before the decision was made public.

FARMERS MAY EXCHANGE TRUCK WORK WITHOUT BUYING LICENSE

What Arthur B. Wilson has heard of the recent lawyers' convention to speak to Fred E. Lukens, secretary of the trucking industry, is that he has been told that the law passed at the last state legislative assembly was put into effect to force those hauling for profit to get licenses.

"The law does not apply to farmers exchanging work with trucks," they have explained. The law is such as they wish, states Mr. Wilson, as long as there is no pay for hauling.

WOMAN HURT IN AUTO CRASH

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Hammesgaard and three children, of Effie, were injured by Mrs. A. B. Brown, Mrs. Hammesgaard's mother, were victims of a bad auto crash on their way home from the south Idaho state fair yesterday afternoon on the highway near Harley.

The car coming in from a side road and being driven by a woman, who was coming from the north, was lost control according to the report.

The Hammesgaard car tipped the machine completely over causing Mrs. Hammesgaard and one of her children to be badly injured. Mrs. Brown sustained a broken collar bone and a severe head injury.

The injured lady was taken to the hospital in Harley and the rest of the party came on home to Effie in another car, both cars in the south being badly wrecked.

The Hammesgaard family is from South Dakota to attend the funeral of Mr. Hammesgaard's sister.

Bandmen to Play for Celebration

One of Twin Falls' regular band concerts will be cancelled upon completion of the Hunsdon-Hill bridge as the band is going to the celebration on the 10th for the completion of the bridge. The concert on the 10th was made at the council meeting last evening by C. E. Lind, Sewell S. Willis and Arthur B. Wilson, committee in charge of the celebration.

During the city council meeting Mr. Wilson presented a letter from the Hunsdon-Hill bridge committee of Idaho regarding Twin Falls, but attributes that Twin Falls is not and will not be a part of the celebration. Although the appropriation for signs is small, an effort to get money will be made.

Permit to construct a 10th addition costing $200 to his residence at 200 Walnut street was granted to D. L. Lynn.

A large number of bills were allowed at the meeting. The general fund took $4,533.75; refilling and interest on bond, improvement districts, $200.75. Improvement on the waterworks system took $125.49 from the general fund.

READ SCORES VIOLATORS OF TRAFFIC LAWS

Police Magistrate Declares Discard City's Ordinance Must Stop Traffic Violations

Police Magistrate H. H. Reed, this morning has read the scores of traffic violators of certain city ordinances, including those on the wrong side of streets, speed, running at places other than in lanes, and those on the wrong side of the road, and declared that the ordinance must be discarded.

"It seems to be quite generally felt by motorists that these three regulations are 'dead letters' which are on the books, but will not be enforced. Violations of these or other traffic ordinances are common, but an active campaign has been started which will put a stop to this kind of thing," declared the magistrate.

All persons guilty of violations will be brought into court and fined, said Magistrate Reed.

"These laws governing the operation of motor vehicles have been passed in the city of Twin Falls with an eye to safety and the good of the many. The co-operation of every motorist is asked in seeing that they are observed."

Magistrate Reed called attention to the fact that the ordinance is a dead letter which is on the books, but is not enforced.

"At times laws are inconvenient, inefficient, and in such cases, should be eliminated. These laws are for the general good and the individual should willingly comply in the interest of the public."

BAND CONCLUDES CONCERT SERIES

Twin Falls' municipal band will conclude its series of regular Thursday evening concerts, given in the park during the summer past.
