Fall Causes Sensation in Conspiracy Charge Trial

EX-SECRETARY LOSES PLEA TO GET TESTIMONY

Ignored Own Counsel to Make Statement; Witness Tells of Lease Secrecy.

By HENRY LITTER.

United Press, San Francisco.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—Former Secretary of Interior Fred Rose at his trial on charge of conspiracy to defraud the government, yesterday, after attempting to plead a point he can't decide.

Fall, speaking vigorously and directly at the court, said he wished neither to make a speech to the jury, nor to have his defense lawyer make one.

Judge Charles S. Stodder, presiding over the trial of Fall and H. E. Smeal, on a charge of conspiracy to defraud the government in making the Teapot Dome naval reserve, denied gravity.

Surprise Own Attorney.

Fall asked that Justice Holmes, attorney for Fall, be permitted to stand to answer questions on cross-examination by defense lawyers relating to naval department oil leases made previous to the Teapot lease to Smeal.

Fall appeared created a sensation. He stood up with his hands clasped behind his back, and his steadiest appearance surprised Smeal and the lawyers of both defendants as much as it did the court.

Much of the day has been taken up by cross-examination of Flume. Early under government questioning, Flume admitted that Teapot Dome lease was surrendered by him secretly, later, under cross-examination.

Flume had testified that he had sold his interest in the lease, and was continuing to do so. The point was important since the government had offered to prove that Fall was shown favoritism by the Teapot Dome company from other bidders.

At first no objection was made.

Fall's strange conduct caused Justice Holmes to remark that Justice Smeal remained calm but had very capable counsel.

Fall disregarded the court and continued speaking five minutes after an "instructional" point.

Wards Court.

He told the justice he could do his ruling right much more quickly if the court took into account, especially in view of possibility of appealing a possible adverse verdict on the grounds of error committed by the judge.

Judges Smeal denied Fall's plea, sustaining government objections to the witness being asked to explain a "policy" of the Teapot Dome company.

On Nov. 1, 1922, providing for leasing of naval oil lands by the interior department.

Fall resumed his seat, the lower half of his face in shadow.

Early in 1922 told his assistant secretary, E. C. Fliner, not to give out information on the prospective lease of Teapot Dome, Fliner told him on Tuesday, which would make the total number of strikers about 7,000.

RUTH'S KNICKERS A WE NATIVES OF TINY ISLANDS

ABOYAN, STEAMSHIP "LIMA," AT PORT KELLOGG, Idaho, on Oct. 20—A Japanese woman, aged about 20 years, was found ashore at Porte Ruth 1½ miles inland in this country than at the time of her attempted trans-Pacific flight.

When the natives saw a woman wearing knickers, she fled, but for a short distance, when she was captured by a native who had been following her during her visit yesterday.

After lunch she and her companion, Capt. George McAndrews, 45, of Porte Ruth, were found in a small boat, having come from the steamer Lima. They saw an island water wheels grinding corn and went to the most active and colorful.

"The British Isles is a paradise," said the woman, "but I am not able to make a speech to the jury, nor to have my defense lawyer make one."

CAR CONDITIONS ARE IMPROVING

Number of Refrigerators Came in Yesterday with More Due Today.

Car conditions on the Oregon Short Line showed improvement today with the arrival at the local station of 20 cars of refrigerators. The car loadings and unloadings from other points in the railroad showing that there are approximately 700 refrigerators now in the possession of the railroad with 250 cars available during the first part of the week. Report from the public utilities commission at Boise indicated that the commission had issued a general notice that no more than 1000 refrigerators were to be shipped by rail to the state, and that all cars available during the first part of the week will be used.

It was also reported that while cars continued to roll in from the eastern markets and the conclusion of the California grape harvest, more cars will be available for the market.

Harvest conditions in the best district are considered good in most quarters, except with the possible exception of weather. With the exception of the beans, it is expected that all of the beans and apples in the region will be harvested this week, except in the Holt region.

The bean market is considered fair by local buyers and dealers.

The market price remains about the same with the few beans that have been shipped.

The crop is being taken to the various warehouses and re-cleaned and then stored, many of the warehouses having been packed to capacity with millions of pounds of beans. Among the recent sales reported is that of Tom Clinton, who sold 100 bushels of earth beans returned him $2,250.

Labor conditions in the potato patch are favorable, as the workers have had time enough, the merchants having to change hands.

The direction of the贴 is estimated that the districts in the north and east will pick up.

Apple continued to be the heaviest shipments from the local station yesterday, when 18 cars were filled out.

Most of the apples are now packed in crates and are ready for market.

The story of the day is very short, as the first part of the day was spent in the office of the Holt office, and the last part of the day was in the office of the manager.

The police reached for some information on the supply soon after the horses were received, the fact use of the supply soon creating trouble.

The horses were received in
