THE GOOD OLD AMERICAN WAY

A long step was taken Monday night at the annual meeting of the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce in bringing about a lasting and mutually beneficial relationship between the business men and farmers of this district. The object was to bring about a union of both groups, if carried out, and there appears to be no reason why they should not be fulfilled, will undoubtedly cause the development of this great empire to take on new life. While there have never been serious difficulties between the farmers and business men of the Twin Falls area, the new understanding will permit of a more active and efficient cooperation.

The second progressive action was the election Monday night of the new board of directors. The nominations were wisely made and the chamber is assured of continued success under the new officials. There was no complaint against the personnel of last year's board, every member did splendid work, but to retain a spirit of general interest in the organization and to take an active part and it is for this reason that several suggestions were advanced. The new board will meet soon and the officers of the chamber of commerce and those selected will undoubtedly serve as efficiently as the outgoing officials.

The main feature of the meeting Monday night, however, was the definite proof that the farmers have gone out in the good old American way with the firm intention of settling their problems by fair fight methods. During the last two years, and in increasing force, the growers have come to the conclusion, and rightfully so in view of events, that they can not depend upon legislation to bring relief in the matter of the vast difference between the earnings of agriculture and those of the manufacturing industry. The main feature of the meeting Monday night, however, was the definite proof that the farmers have gone out in the good old American way with the firm intention of settling their problems by fair fight methods. During the last two years, and in increasing force, the growers have come to the conclusion, and rightfully so in view of events, that they can not depend upon legislation to bring relief in the matter of the vast difference between the earnings of agriculture and those of the manufacturing industry.

Failing to gain help by fair means, the growers have given new support to the agricultural cooperative marketing associations of which the Grange is the largest. These associations permit of greater control of production to the end that large surpluses are avoided and of the holding of crops until more favorable prices can be obtained.

It was the explanation of the operation, the great benefits and the success of the Grange by three of its representatives at Monday night's meeting that impressed the assembly. The farmers have taken off their coats and "propose to fight it out, on the present line, if it takes all summer" or several summers, as had been forecast several times by The Times during the last few months.

The position of the farmers is entirely correct. Certainly as the nation's most laboring group they are entitled to a fair return on investment, the same as any other group. The farmers' conditions depend upon the amount of production and market conditions and their expenses are by no means the lightest.

The suggestion yesterday of Secretary Jardine that the farmers form stabilization-corporations, which would be assisted by the government in the matter of marketing and production, is one more step in the right direction, although it is possible that the with the co-operative associations as a whole it is possible that the desired results could be obtained without the aid of an expensive federal farm board.

Growth of the Grange and the co-operative movement in recent years has, indeed, been remarkable and tends to substitute the well-known statement that Americans, once aroused, can not be balked until they have obtained their objective, which, after all has been said, is the good old American way of doing things, and effective, too.

A REMARKABLE RECORD

A few months ago a few "stiff small viruses" predicted dire conditions for Twin Falls and the surrounding district. Blight, in the words of these persons, was the only possible good which could be obtained.

First, it was said that the blight or white fly had ruined the sugar beet crop. W. G. Swanson, manager of the local sugar factory, last Saturday announced that the total crop this year is only about one-third of normal. Strife, it was said, had ruined the beet crop, the late spring by all means downed the fruit and been trop. Records show that the output in these lines either will set a new record or is near the highest in the history of the tract. Strike two!

Third, business in general would necessarily be poor in view of the first two conditions. This has turned out to be strife three without a shadow of argument.

All of the foregoing optimistic conditions are substantiated by the report issued yesterday by officials of the Oregon Short Line in which it has been shown that a total of 1,177 carloads of merchandise and produce of all kinds were forwarded from the local station during the first ten days of products of all types were received, making a total of 2,033 cars, which set a new record for shipments; and which passed the previous high mark, in 1925, by 200 cars. The contents of the cars were estimated to be worth $2,000,000. In addition to this, it must be taken into consideration that movement of the potato crop scarcely has started and to the low market prices. A sharp decline with the rest of the crop in quantities will bring more, rejoicing, and add to this ill-fatedness of success.

Idaho Among States With Changed Laws

WASHINGTON—A recent survey by the American Automobile Association shows that in at least 10 states the speed limit was increased by specific legislative action during the first session of the legislature.

The association's summary shows that in Idaho the speed limit was increased from 30 to 35 miles an hour in the open country; in Indiana from 25 to 30 miles an hour in the open country; in Iowa, from 20 to 25 miles an hour in residential sections of cities; in Michigan, from 20 to 25 miles an hour in residential sections of cities; in Minnesota, from 20 to 25 miles an hour in residential sections of cities; in New Hampshire, from 20 to 25 miles an hour in open country; and in business sections, from 15 to 20 miles an hour in open country.

E. S. BARNARD IS ELECTED NEW PRESIDENT OF AMERICAN LEAGUE

By United Press
CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—E. S. Barnard, president of the Cleveland Indians, today was elected president of the American league, succeeding Byron Bennett Johnson.

Directors of the league met here in special session to elect Barnard.

William Barnard, for years secretary of the league, was elected secretary of the league.

Today's session of the league president was in marked contrast to those of his meetings in recent years, which have been characterized by bitter disputes between Johnson and other officials.

Barnard, president of the Cleveland Indians, has been connected with that club since 1913. He is a tall, quiet man, contrasting strongly with the fiery Johnson who, a fortnight ago, attacked the new president when he founded the American league early in this century.

Barnard is 52 years old. Like Johnson, he has had his baseball battles.

Barnard was president of the old Western association in 1901; in 1904 he was made secretary of the Cleveland Indians, and in 1905 he became vice president and business manager, and since 1922 he has been president of the club. Since his presidency in the American league, he has had three been elected a member of the American League board of directors.

Club owners pointed out that Barnard is the type of man needed in Johnson's place. While a man of building qualities was needed to organize the league and build it into the great American professional sport the league now seems a man of Barnard's quiet dependence to keep the wheels of the football machine oiled and running quiet.

Barnard's special qualification for the office is his knowledge of the game.

ONE-SIDED WINS MARK HOOP PLAY

Douglas' long jump basketball at Twin Falls high school went into its second phase of games here, evening with two more one-sided victories featuring the play.

Men Relate This Simple Way to Get a New Thrill in Shaving

THE Valet AutoStop is the only razor that sharpens its own blades. A few strokes on its strip restore the blade to new-like keenness. Sharpen it, then shave, then clean—all in a jiffy and without removing the blade from the holder.

This is a different principle. The blade doesn't get duller and duller until it must be thrown away.

A speedy, comfortable shave every time—uniformly perfect. An end to "pulling." An end to wasting time. "There's no shave like it," men say. Why miss this supreme improvement?

WOLVES IN THE STRONG FOR WISCONSIN BADGERS

The University of Wisconsin has been unable to score a victory over Michigan on the gridiron for more than 25 years.

THE PUBLIC DON'T KNOW ALL ABOUT THE BOISE GAME

Coach Felix Plasting was up against a severe handicap when he took his charges over to Boise to clash with the Braves. A couple of weeks ago he left with a squad of 15 Braves, and when time for the game came one was unable to get into uniform because of an infected foot and another could not be used because of a hip injury. That left him with 12 men to go through four quarters of football with what may prove to be the strongest eleven in state high school circles. Two stories of the same old not mention this condition.

When to Suspect Acid Scalp

It is not the hair that is the trouble, but the scalp. The scalp is the seat of the hair, and if it is diseased, the hair will be affected. Acid scalp is a common ailment, and is caused by the use of harsh soaps and shampoos. It is characterized by itching, redness, and the formation of dandruff. The best remedy is to use a mild, acid-balancing shampoo, and to avoid harsh soaps and shampoos.

Mom 'n Pop

It is not the hair that is the trouble, but the scalp. The scalp is the seat of the hair, and if it is diseased, the hair will be affected. Acid scalp is a common ailment, and is caused by the use of harsh soaps and shampoos. It is characterized by itching, redness, and the formation of dandruff. The best remedy is to use a mild, acid-balancing shampoo, and to avoid harsh soaps and shampoos.

FARMERS BUSY IN SPUD FIELDS

Digging Is Excellent After Rain of the Weekend, According to Workers.

With a per cent of the total potato harvest in the field still waiting, farmers were in the fields early this morning, according to the workers. Digging after the weekend rain, according to workers, today's potato market shows a little better than the market of the previous week. Shipments are decreasing and cooler weather the indications point to a fairly slow market.

Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday the local market showed the following: Apples, 10¢; peaches, 10¢; plums, 10¢; pears, 10¢; cherries, 10¢; grapes, 10¢; berries, 10¢; nuts, 10¢; dried fruits, 10¢; and other produce, 10¢.

The cloudy sky and moderate temperature of last night brought a change in the weather. The rain of the weekend did little to damage the crops. It was reported that the potato crop is expected to be a fairly good one.

While the frost has been in the fields since the first of the week, it is not yet in the top of the ground which is expected to be in the ground by the first of the week.

New regulations under the act of the branded apple have been effective yesterday according to Idaho growers. Market makers are expected to be in the market by the first of the week.

While potatoes are packed in the usual manner, the new regulations require that the potatoes be packed in a certain manner. The new regulations require that the potatoes be packed in a certain manner.
