CHICAGO.—A "big" world's fair of transportation, demonstrating man's handiwork in progress in every field of the 20th century, will be held in the twin leviathans of today, are the plans of Mayor William Hale Thompson for Chicago in 1930.

Completion of the steel superway
from Chicago to the gulf is expected in three years, and the mayor would make its opening the center of the exhibition. The aircraft industry

CHAMPIONSHIP GAME TONIGHT

Juniors Win Right to Meet Sophomores by Defeating Freshmen 11-3.

Sophomore and junior teams of the Twin Falls high school will meet at 5 p.m. today in the championship game of the interclass basketball tournament which has been conducted this week. Last evening in the semi-finals of the tourney, the junior team won from the sophomores, 17 to 7, by defeating the freshmen, 11 to 3. The sophomore and junior girls finished the tourney undefeated, while the juniors have won all their games, 17 to 7. If the juniors should defeat the second year men this evening, the other game, played after the half-time, will be necessary to determine the champions.

For the winning team last night, Taylor at center was the star player, playing a steady game. He was joined by his brother, Tom, who substituted for Wood. They were no special stars among the first year men, though, but they did their best to hold up the team before the sophomores, 17 to 7. If the juniors should defeat the second year men this evening, the other game, played after the half-time, will be necessary to determine the champions.

JAKE SCHAEFER MASTER OF CUE

(This is the third of a series of articles written by Maurice Daly, noted billiard authority on the Cochran-Schaefer 18-2 billiards world's championship match.)

By MAURICE DALY

NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—It is but natural that the public should be interested in the final game of the world's championship match between Jake Schaefer, champion, and Willie Cochran, his chief antagonist, to determine the marvelous style of his father's triumph over Welker Cochran in the final block of their 18-2 billiards match for the world title, now held by Cochran.

Schaefer, who has won the first three blocks of this 18-2 pool struggle, after a hard-fought battle, has a chance to keep his crown will come this afternoon, and evening when the final two blocks will be played. The champion faces a man of steel.

The game last night was applauded thickly with different shots by both men. In the 21st inning, Cochran, who had been the aggressor throughout, with a thrill after thrill—billiards, snooker, nuring, which many billiard neophytes would learn or have given up, a year or two later, was the aggressor, with a series of bluffs of applause, all reminiscent of old Jake.

On and on drove Jake, his features fixed in a grim mask of perfect concentration, his eyes fixed on his cueing, but only after he had made the high rate of the audience, a string of 13.

Cochran tried determinedly, but it was useless. Seven points, a molehill to this "mountain of 1800, and he was back in his chair while the challenger reached off, four fast points, 27, 14 to 24, 4-7 for the champion.

Rain Bars Work For Grid Classic

By United Press

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 21.—The all-western football team, here today for its game with the mid-western stars, Monday, was greeted by a steady rain which threatened to put a damper on the affair.

Andy Kerr's eastern All-American team and Hollingshead's squad from Washington participated in yesterday's startling Shrine football classic.

Four boys from Texas, Hunt and Main, in the mid-west, and Montana, in the west, were welcomed yesterday by the western players, who are rated as underdogs against the easterners. Western coaches anticipated a hard fight Monday.

The game developed into a blocking and passing attack almost exclusively.

A varied and well-chosen aerial is anticipated.

attack seems to be awaiting the southerners.

Western coaches anticipated a dry field Monday.

But the rain did not yet restrain the westerners, as it will in practice today, a fast running attack built around Jimmie marvel kick.

Hunt's 100-yard run, which started the game, was followed by a 40-yard run by Main.

Both teams were held to 10 points.
