The Brigham City sheriff called the officers here late Tuesday night and asked that they keep a watch for the men, who were headed this way and were last seen going through the Snake Valley. A watch was kept on the leading through Twin Falls but the men failed to come through, having stopped on the way.

They reached here some time Wednesday and were arrested last evening. They refuse to waive extradition papers, so these papers will be prepared and brought here by the Utah officers. Thrilling Action in Thomas Meighan Film

The banking of a bullet, the intermittent rattle of automatics, the excited howls of a mob gone wild, are some of the thrilling highlights of Thomas Meighan's latest starring picture entitled "The Tracker," a story of a feud between a police captain and the leader of a gang of love runners, the attraction at the Idaho theatre tomorrow and Sunday.

An Captain Meighan, Thomas Meighan gives one of his greatest characterizations in "The Tracker," a melodrama of the underworld, adapted from the famous stage play by Bartlett Corback, a newspaperman, hard-boiled and fearless of all deception. Meighan fights the same leader, Snake Scars; which part is portrayed by Louis Wolheim, one of the most able character actors in motion pictures today.

Marie Prevost, as Helen, the nightclub entertainer, who is the principal figure of a romance with John Darrow, a reporter, also gives an outstanding performance.

"The Tracker" is a colorful as well as a powerful melodrama. Its author, a newspaperman, has written a vital picture of metropolitan gang life, told from the observational point of view. The story was first presented in play form in 1916, and since that time for several months and which was followed by a successful road production. Mr. Meighan personally directed.

BIBLE VERSES AND PRAYER

PRAYER—Blessed are they that hunger and thirst after righteousness, for they shall be filled.

THE AMERICAN WORKER IS GENERALLY WELL PAID.

If figures furnished by the Statistics Bureau of the United States Department of Labor are to be accepted as reliable and authentic, and there is no reason to do otherwise, it is apparent that the worker in this country is generally well paid for his or her service.

And this is as it should be for wage earners who receive adequate compensation as an asset to the community in which they live, are able to function as good citizens, and take their place in the activities that are or ought to be the inherent right of every individual.

And it is further apparent that the wage scales have increased more rapidly since 1913 than the cost of living, which is another good thing for the worker who is much more fortunate than are his fellows in other countries throughout the world.

A comparison of certain lines is interesting. Here are some of the items in detail:

Brick layers—Austria $1.39; Belgium $1.32; France $1.57; Germany $1.84 and United States $12.56.
Carpenters—Belgium $1.36; Czechoslovakia $1.12; England $2.96; Germany $1.86; Italy $1.82; and United States $10.16.

Laborers in building trades—Austria $1.42; Belgium $0.91; Germany $1.47; Italy $0.80; Norway $1.88; Sweden $3.09 and United States $1.04.

Coal miners—Great Britain $2.02 to $2.65; United States $6.20 to $9.65.

Farm hands—France $1.05; Germany $0.56; Great Britain $1.27; Norway $1.28; and United States $12.36.

Rolling mill heaters—Germany $1.81 to $4.57; Great Britain $4.36; United States $7.60.

Rolling mills, common laborers—Germany $1.40 to $2.07; Great Britain $1.61 to $1.64; United States $3.28.

Monthly wages of able seamen—France $17; Germany $22; Great Britain $44; Italy $20; United States private vessels $60, and United States Shipping Board vessels $62.

Wages in the United States reached their peak in 1920 but were still more than twice as high in 1922 as they were in 1913.

Cost of living also was highest in 1920, but hourly wages bought 12.2 per cent more of necessities of life than in 1913.

In 1926, with wages per hour 129 per cent higher than in 1913, cost of living was only 76 per cent higher. Thus in 1926, for his hour of labor the worker could buy 30.7 per cent more than he could in 1913.

PREPARING FOR BEAN HARVEST

W. H. Smith and J. A. Smith have purchased the building formerly used by the Electric Milk Company and have installed new and up-to-date machinery capable of handling two carloads of beans daily.

In addition to extensive cleaning facilities they purpose operating a hand picking plant so that all beans in connection with preparing the beans for market may be carried on under the most favorable conditions. For those who wish to avail themselves of storage they offer the use of their bonded warehouse.

Varying reports are coming in as to prospective yields in this vicinity and the consensus of opinion seems to be that the Kimberly-Hanson section of the tract has the best outlook in the county, but even so the growers are modestly refraining from claiming a large yield as last year although some are predicting better than 40 bushels for exceptional fields.

It is anticipated that the new crop will begin to come into the warehouse by the latter part of next week and an excess of 60,000 bushels is now in readiness for the growers of the vicinity by this company.

TOKIO STANDS FIRM AGAINST PACT REVISION

Maintain "Unequal" Treaty Must Stay in Effect Until 1936

By United Press

BEIJING, Aug. 29.—The Japanese government has taken the lead in declaring clearly and firmly to the United States, Nationalist government its attitude on the revision of treaties. Japan, according to the official statement by the Japanese legation in Peking, takes the stand that the Japanese "unequal" treaty with China remains in effect until October, 1936. Unless Japan herself is willing to negotiate a new treaty, at that time the legation indicated that Japan will object to treaty revision if the Nationalist assume a responsible attitude.

Considerable excitement was aroused in the Legation in Peking by the Japanese government's announcement that treaties which had already expired were considered abrogated, and the steps would be taken to cancel treaties those not yet expired. It has been commonly supposed that the Japanese Legation had waived its time in amending the treaties and government did not take this view.

Japanese viewpoint, as outlined in this communication by the legation, is that the Japanese treaty with China automatically was renewed on October, 1936, when the former Peking government did not effect any communication to the legation.

The Japanese treaty, it is pointed out, differs from all others in that it contains a clause whereby the parties, which reads as follows: "If no demand for revision be made on either side and no revision be effected within six months after the end of the first year thereafter the treaty and tariffs in their present form shall remain in force for ten years more."

The clause "and no revision be effected" is not included in the treaties of other powers with China. The Japanese Legation takes the view that this clause may be interpreted to mean that the Japanese treaty was automatically renewed on April 21, 1927, six months after the ten year period expired.

Two Men Caught For Forgery; to Be Sent to Utah

Police here arrested Dab Smith and Samuel Colt on charges of forgery at the request of the sheriff at Brigham City, Utah. Smith was arrested late yesterday in Jerome while Colt was picked up in Twin Falls both having come to Twin Falls from Drummond City in a heavy sedan, bearing license 317-272 of Hilma.

The Brigham City sheriff called the officers here late Tuesday night and asked that they keep a watch for the men, who were wanted this way and were last seen going through St. Snowville. A watch was kept on them, leading through Twin Falls, but they slipped on the way.

They received here some time Wednesday and were arrested last evening. They refuse to waive extradition papers, so these papers will be prepared and brought here by the Utah officials. The local officers were pleased to be able to help the Brigham City men in their effort to apprehend the murderer, who held up Mr. Lucas here during last spring.

Thrilling Action in Thomas Meighan Film

The highlight of machine gunned the intermittent reports of ammunition; he excited howls at a mob scene with one of the thrilling highlights of Thomas Meighan's latest starring picture entitled, "The Racket," a story of a feud between a police captain and a leader of a gang of beer runners, the attraction at the Idaho Theatre tomorrow and Saturday.

As Captain McQuillan, Thomas Meighan gives one of his great characterizations in "The Racket," a picture of the underworld, adapted from the famous stage play by Bartlett Cormack, a newspaperman, Harold Lloyd, who is one of the most able character actors in modern pictures today.

Marie Prevost, as Helen, the night club entertainer, who is the principal figure of a romance with John Meighan, also gives one of her outstanding performances.

"The Racket" is a colorful as well as a powerful picture. It is written by a newspaperman, has written a vital drama of metropolitan gang life, drawn from his observations and experience. The story was first presented in play form in New York, where it ran for months and which was followed by a successful road engagement. Mr. Meighan personally edited the picture, so his individuality is seen in his ability, and critics have hailed him as a "wreck" wherever the picture has been shown.

Among others who contribute to the success of the performance are: Lee Moran, Skeets Gallagher, Jackie Perrin, Tony Harris and G. Pat Collins, who also appeared in the stage presentation. The picture was directed by Allan Dwan, who directed Meighan in "The New Klondike" one of his most successful pictures.

FARMERS HOLD UPPER HAND OVER POLITICIANS AT PRESENT TIME

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—Farmers hold the upper hand over the politicians just now. More articulate than ever in their appeals for relief, they have threatened to use the vote as a weapon to get what they want, and for the first time in many years they are a considerable factor in a presidential campaign.

Numbering several millions, and normally Republicans, many have expressed discontent with their treatment under two Republican administrations.

Now they have many problems closely paralleled by some respects both sides and on the face thereof decision would seem to depend on whether they think livestock raising is a better business than agriculture.

Each has held out the hope of relief through tariff revision. Each also has favored the completion of water transportation systems.

Rebelle Nurses Settle Troubles

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Aug. 29.—Thirty-one under apprentice nurses who rebelled against 'strict' restrictions of the Alabama hospital were Wednesday stipulated in plans for a walkout when Dr. E. P. Hooper, superintendent, refused to listen to their ultimatum.

Just as differences with the nurses were settled, however, it was learned that 22 internes had called an indignant meeting for this afternoon to discuss a proposed 'strike' over all the points of the Dr. E. P. Hooper.

The afternoon had voted to strike because hospital authorities—initials, their number of strikes out per week in two and because they objected to giving the names, destination and purpose of every "date."

If figures furnished by the Statistics Bureau of the United States Department of Labor are to be accepted as reliable and authentic, and there is no reason to do other wise, it is apparent that the worker in this country is generally well paid for his or her service.

And this is as it should be for wage earners who receive adequate compensation are an asset to the community in which they live, are able to function as good citizens, and take their place in the activities that are or ought to be the inherent right of every individual.

And it is further apparent that the wage scales have increased more rapidly since 1913 than the cost of living, which is another good thing for the worker who is much more fortunate than are his fellows in other countries throughout the world.

A comparison of certain lines is interesting. Here are some of the items in detail:

Brick layers—Austria $1.39; Belgium $1.32; France $1.67; Germany $1.84 and United States $1.25.

Carpenters—Belgium $1.36; Czechoslovakia $1.12; England $2.96; Germany $1.86, Italy $1.82, and United States $1.46.

Laborers in building trades—Austria $1.12; Belgium $0.91; Germany $1.47; Italy $0.80; Norway $1.88; Sweden $3.09 and United States $4.00.

Coal miners—Great Britain $2.02 to $2.65; United States $6.26 to $9.65.

Farm hands—France $1.05; Germany $0.56; Great Britain $1.27; Norway $1.28, and United States $2.36.

Rolling mill heaters—Germany $1.81 to $4.57; Great Britain $4.36, United States $7.60.

Rolling mills, common laborers—Germany $1.10 to $2.07; Great Britain $1.61 to $1.64, United States $3.28.

Monthly wages of able seamen—France $17; Germany $22; Great Britain $44; Italy $20, United States private vessels $60, and the United States Shipping Board vessels $62.

Wages in the United States reached their peak in 1922, but were still more than twice as high in 1922 as they were in 1913.

Cost of living also was highest in 1920, but hourly wages bought 12.2 per cent more of necessities of life than in 1913.

In 1926, with wages per hour 129 per cent higher than in 1913, cost of living was only 75 per cent higher. Thus in 1926, for his hour of labor the worker could buy 30 per cent more than he could in 1913.

PREPARING FOR BEAN HARVEST

KIMBERLY, Aug. 30.—Munson and Smith have purchased the buildings formerly owned by the Electric Milling Company and have installed new and improved machinery for the cleaning two carloads of beans daily. In addition to extensive cleaning facilities they purchase operating a hand picking plant so that all produce in connection with preparing the beans for market may be checked in under the most favorable conditions. For those who wish to avail themselves of storage they offer the use of their hand-dumped warehouse.

Varying reports are coming in as to prospective yields in this vicinity and the consensus of opinion seems to be that the Kimberly-Hansen section of the tract has the best outlook in the county, but even so the growers are modestly refraining from estimating as large yields as last year although some are predicting better than 40 bushels for exceptional fields. It is anticipated that the new crop will begin to come into the warehouses by the latter part of next week and an excess of 60,000 bushels is now in readiness for the growers of the vicinity by this company alone.

Mrs. C. Strova is enjoying a visit from her father, M. Anderson, who is here from Creighton, Iowa.
