In Hot on Trail of Woman Who Wrote to Her Friend, Saying Al Was So Drunk He Was Unable to Make His Speech at State Fair; Republican Friend Makes Vigorous Denial.

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 12.—Friends of Governor Alfred E. Smith believe today that he had officially accepted all his political opponents in the life of the Democratic presidential campaign. "I had to deal with a 'whispering campaign' all day long," he said in a virtually every election campaign he had conducted.

Gov. Smith's statement was sent to Mrs. H. A. Sanford of Syracuse, N. Y., who had written to him in Albany, N. Y., asking for a copy of the letter. She had also written to the governor asking for a copy of the letter.

Dundee retained his title to the only because he refused to fight under the conditions of the 10-round bout. The Twin Falls Bruins elected Dorian Putzier captain of the 1928 eleven at a meeting held Wednesday evening. Putzier is a veteran tackle and is hoped to fill in the backfield this year if he can be developed sufficiently. He is carrying the title as soon for Twin Falls.

Putzier, one of the famous football families, is a hard driving, smashing player. He can also lead the platoon for consistent drives.

The freshmen members reported that evening for their equipment and handed out the workout in fine snappy style. The cool atmosphere prevented them getting overheated and put zip into the play.

There were about 25 fresh out. The regulars who turned out earlier in the week were put upon work in regular formations and plays. Practice periods are being lengthened as the week became hardened and work off their early season soreness and stiffness.

The first game, the one with the national is scheduled for September 21. Little more than a week from now.

FORGOTTEN FACES

Corbett was born in Italy in May, 1895, and when he was only a few months old, his parents moved to the United States and settled in Pittsburgh. The Corbett family moved to Fresno, Cal. 10 years ago, where young Paul grew up and developed into a fighter. As a middle, he is an insurance salesman.

He is a southpaw, and has a puzzling method of fighting. Many boxing critics attempted to change his style, but in the end they all saw that he was on to fight the unorthodox way. Whatever the outcome of the welterweight title, Joe Dundee, undoubtedly will come out of it minus his crown. Corbett may get it, Thompson may be the one, or even two might come back and take it.

Prescription He Wrote in 1892 is the World's Most Popular Laxative

When Dr. Caldwell started to practice medicine, back in 1877, the needs for "laxatives" were not as great as they are today. People lived normal, quiet lives, ate plain, wholesome food, and got plenty of fresh air and sunshine. But even then only there were drastic physics and purges for the relief of constipation which Dr. Caldwell did not believe were good for human beings to put into their system. So he wrote a prescription for a laxative to be used by his patients.

The prescription for constipation that he used early in his practice, and which he put in drug stores in 1892 under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is a liquid vegetable remedy, intended for women, children and elderly people, and they need just such a mild, safe, gentle bowel stimulant as Syrup Pepsin.

Under successful management this prescription has proven its worth, and is now the largest selling liquid laxative in the world. The fact that millions of bottles are used in every country that it has won the confidence of people who need it to get relief from headaches, indigestion, flatulence, constipation, loss of appetite and sleep, bad breath, dyspepsia, colic and fever.

Millions of families are now better without Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and if you will once start using it you will also always have a bottle handy for emergencies.

It is particularly pleasing to know that the most of it is bought by mothers for themselves and the children, though Syrup Pepsin is just as valuable for elderly people. All drug stores have the generous bottles; use this free coupon:

Twin Falls Man Gets 1000 Bushels To The Acre Spanish Onions

From a small patch of Spanish sweet onions, Joseph Blake, Addison avenue west, is harvesting a crop that is making more than 1000 bushels per acre, or 50,000 pounds. At the present favorable price on onions, this begins to run into real money from the agricultural point of view. The annual production in due not alone to the great number of bulbs produced but to their size, many weighing over a pound. Five which were selected for the count, but from this field weighed seven pounds and a half and to a local dealer, weighing 10 pounds, contained exactly 100 onions. "There is no secret about it," Mr. Blake stated, "I always fertilize my ground heavily for I know that I cannot take out of the soil more than I put into it. It is the larger onions that command a premium on the market, and while I sell all of my crop securing the growers, but the size and quality are the ones who will get the best on the market."

SMITH RILEY AT REPORT HE IS A DRUNKEN 'SOT'

is Who on Trail of Woman Who Wrote to Her Friend, Saying 'At-Will-So-Drunk-He-Was-That-able-Make-His-Speech-at-State-Fair; Republican Friend Makes Vigorous Denial.

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 13.—F. H. C. Governor Alfred E. Smith believed today that he had effectively scotched all gossip in the effect that he is drunkard. Charges of drunkenness are being new in the case of the Democratic political candidate. Because he favors modification of the prohibition laws he has had a deal with a "whispering campaign" about his personal habits in a virtually every election campaign in his life.

Few persons believe, however, that he would come out as badly as he did today with the "sot" statement in which he took official cognizance of the so-called "whispering campaign." Smith's statement was called "Nutting a Lie in the Whispering Campaign."

One Month Writes to Another. The statement dealt with a letter Mrs. H. D. Sanford of Syracuse is to receive from a woman who claims to be the wife of Governor Smith.

The governor's information, the statement says, indicated that the woman, Mrs. A. Keenan, an economist in Parkersburg, telling of the "whispering campaign" charges made by the Democratic leader how he had heard of the "letter" from a woman who had written to Governor Smith.

Patron's statement said that the woman had written to the governor in the name of Mrs. A. Keenan, and that she had written to the governor in the name of Mrs. A. Keenan, and that she had written to the governor in the name of Mrs. A. Keenan.

The statement added that Kelley had written to the governor in the name of Mrs. A. Keenan, and that she had written to the governor in the name of Mrs. A. Keenan.

Gov. Keenan said that she had written to the governor in the name of Mrs. A. Keenan, and that she had written to the governor in the name of Mrs. A. Keenan.

"What is Coolidge doing to help Hoover?" is the leading question.

Interest was heightened by news President Coolidge's attitude toward Hoover's campaign.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—The party spirit of the Coolidge-Hoover campaign is the chief subject of discussion today.

Arrangements were being made for broadcast of the event when the republican national committee announced that Mr. Coolidge's return to the White House would embody only a formal table discussion of committee officials.

Hoover likewise will not participate in the broadcast arrangement.

His Irish-Up

Governor Al does not propose to let anyone slander him. He has now been trying to scotch a recent report by a woman that he was so drunk at the New York State fair that he had to be helped to the speaker's stand.

Gunmen Kill Officer Trying To Rescue Pal From Hospital

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—Gunmen invaded a hospital today to rescue two of their number from a prison ward, but were repelled by a patrol and later shot and killed a police officer who had tried to rescue the two prisoners. It was the most daring underworld move since the recent gun war started in New York.

All of the gangsters were heavily armed, carrying shotguns, pistols and knives. They rushed through the ward of shotguns and fired numerous shots at the hospital.

Patrolman Jeremiah E. Brennan had been assigned to guard two prisoners confined by injuries in the first volley. Interest and rumors spread to the prison ward.

One of the prisoners was James Ward, who broke his leg recently while trying to escape from a police who had surprised burglars.

The gangsters advanced on the prison ward early this morning and started firing. Brennan was killed by a bullet in the chest and just before the first volley. Interest and rumors spread to the prison ward.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—Secretary of the Treasury Mellon has reported business conditions in the general business outlook is encouraging, with good boomings, and appears to be fundamentally sound.

"It is not true that a campaign year is a bad business year," Mellon said. The country as a whole is prospering, and there are some distinct industries such as coal and textile.

"There is nothing unfavorable on the horizon," Mellon said. "The year 1928 should be a good one for farmers."

Texas Democrats Stick By The Ship

DALLAS, Tex., Sept. 13.—Texas will deliver its usual decisive majority to the Democratic national ticket in November, according to a poll of the state's democratic party members.

Like the month of March, the convention was with a roar and there was much of the usual back-slapping while the hands played "Sawdust on the Beach." The first time the place was played at the opening of the convention, a man, who had been playing the game for many years, had been playing the game for many years.

MINES FIELD, Los Angeles, Sept. 13.—The greatest program of a 500 national air races—bringing to a conclusion the Los Angeles air race—non-stop contest—was put on here today. Thousands gathered early on to see Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh starting and to watch other scheduled races and exhibitions.

The day was officially named "Lindbergh day" and scores of the best pilots of the nation were introduced and performed for the crowd.

Max Bishop Wins Fourth Game by Mighty Swat; Is Third of Four Games.

By United Press.
NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—For the third time in the crucial four-game series between the Yankees and the Philadelphia Athletics a home run decided the game.

Max Bishop, with Max Bishop, squarer second baseman of the Athletics, who drove out the run that decided the final battle and gave the Athletics the lead in the fourth game.

On Sunday Bob Meusel, Yankee outfielder, smote the home run that decided the game for the Yankees in the first game of the series.

Today the Athletics are one and one-half games behind the Yankees in the lead-down from the half game lead that Connie Mack's men held when they won the first game.

The Athletics are almost certain to finish the series with a 3-2 victory over the Yankees in the final game.

When Dr. Caldwell started to practice medicine back in 1875, the needs of a healthy man were not as great as they are today.

People lived normal, quiet lives, ate plain, wholesome food, and got plenty of fresh air and sunshine.

But even that early there were dramatic physical and mental changes in the life of the people.

Dr. Caldwell's prescription for constipation is a healthy way to get relief.

Under successful management this prescription has proven its worth and is now the largest selling liquid laxative in the world.

Millions of families are now never without Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and if you will once start using it you will also always have a bottle handy for emergencies.

It is particularly pleasing to know that the most of it is bought by mothers for themselves and the children.

Sammy Baker Goes Against Corbett

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—Sergeant Sammy Baker will go into the ring tonight a favorite over Young Corbett, when they meet in their 12-round bout at Madison Square Garden.

The fans point out that Baker has defeated every left-hander he has fought, including Harry Morrison and Larry Eastlake.

Nevertheless, Corbett has impressed some of the keenest students of the game with his aggressiveness, his punching qualities and his superb record which includes 30 knock-out victories.

Corbett has had his sparring partners at will and is in the best condition possible for the fight.

It is also expected that Baker will be a brides and bug it to mine armament.

GOOD-NIGHT STORIES

OUT OUR WAY

By Williams

ONCE upon a time, long, long ago, there lived near the outskirts of a certain village an old woman and her granddaughter, Hester. They were very poor and every day Hester would go to the royal palace to bring home the quaint bits of clothing which her grandmother would wash and iron for the beautiful Princess.

DON'T CROWD TH' CAPTIVE! NEVER GO PUSHIN' A CAPTIVE! HE'S SPOCED T' BE ALOOFT FROM TH' CREW AN' DON'T MIX NOR MINGLE NOR SOSHYATE WITH 'IM. HE HAS TO KEEP 'EM AT A DISTANCE SO'S T' KEEP DISPLING. CAPTIVES HAS T' BE VERY DISTINT MEN—SO KEEP 'EM BACK.

One day when she reached the palace, the beautiful Princess was sitting on a velvet sofa, and Hester took the peach and, thinking of the beautiful Princess, hurried home with it.

"Oh, Granny, it's a beauty," she cried, and she cut it in half and gave her grandmother half. "You don't know how I love this peach," she said, and she took a big bite.

"You'll have to water it well," said Granny, "for it has been so long since we have had rain that the peach is very dry."

Granny and Hester watered the little peach-tree that morning, and she worked to do the work for her grandpa. They had been gone so long. Soon the only well left with water in it was the one in the King and his people were almost frantic.

"The King offered a bag of gold to anyone who could find a well spot for a well in the village area."

Hester Tended the Peach-Tree Very Carefully.

Several days had tried and the drilling had cost the old King much money. At last a strange thing happened. Hester heard a tiny voice in the branches of her peach-tree.

"Who can help your peach tree and I who can help you when you're dry?"

"Hester, who could be helped her peach-tree was excited because it grew so rapidly. Very carefully cut a twig from one of the branches and brought it to the King's garden. He said about the tiny voice she should guard the tiny voice she brought to the peach tree."

"The King would have thrown Hester out of the royal garden if the beautiful Princess had not begged her father to let Hester walk through the garden."

"At last the King and the Princess walked to Hester's side. The little voice told her just as straight as it could be said, they came to a certain spot in the garden where the stone had laid there suddenly, he saw the water flowing from the ground."

"The King and the Princess turned toward the ground. The old King called the men and they began to dig and dig, and soon they had a well in the lowest spot of water. The old King was so happy he gave Hester two big bags of gold and sent her away to the village home with her peach-tree. Hester and her grandmother had been so poor, but now they were rich.
