70,000 PEOPLE ARE HOMELESS IN STORM WAKE

Tornado That Swept Over Porto Rico, Worst in History of That Country; Property Damage Will Run Into Millions; Ruin and Desolation Stalk

(By THOMAS J. HENNESSY) Charleston, Saturday, Sept. 14.—(By Cable to the United Press) (Copyright, 1928, by United Press) SAN PUAN, Porto Rico, Sept. 14.—Many lives have been lost in the tropical hurricane which devastated this island yesterday. The property loss will reach millions. Much suffering and death occurred as the storm spread through the entire island. It was impossible today even to begin to estimate the loss. All communications between the island and the mainland were interrupted. Thousands are homeless and in dire need.

What may have happened in the interior of the island is painful to think of. Many seven-mile radius of San Juan I personally viewed terrible destruction. Homes and churches, hundreds of them, are without shelter. Famine and disease threaten them.

Water Supply Cut Off.—The main supply of San Juan and surrounding cities has been cut off. Medical supplies, other than small quantities, are in short supply. Within the small area a limited quantity of coffee and banana plants are being destroyed. Other small crops are being wiped out, cutting off the main food supply.

Many more deaths from famine and disease are inevitable unless relief is organized at once. Immediate action is vital.

The intensity of the storm can be realized when it is considered that the wind velocity at 11.5 m. per hour, three hours before the storm attained its greatest force, was 85 miles an hour. Heavy rain added to the damage caused by the wind.

Vessels in the path of the storm have been warned by the naval wireless station at Guantanamo, Cuba, to exercise greatest care. The department of war has advised that the storm will likely pass over near Santo Domingo today. It was said.

"This is a dangerous storm," the message commented.

SHIP-TO-SHORE PLANE THOUGHT LOST, RESCUED BY SAILING VESSEL

PLYMOUTH, England, Sept. 14.—Commander Louis Lemonnier and two companions, lost in a ship-to-shore mail plane from the liner Ile de France, have been rescued at sea. A message received here today said they had been landed at Newlyn, Cornwall, by a steamer, Newlyn is in the southernmost tip of England.

The message said two of the fliers were well, but that the third, believed to be Lemonnier, was suffering from exposure. The plane left the shores of the Ile de France, near the Selby islands at 2:10 p. m. yesterday. It is supposed to be far east of Selby islands and must have met disaster soon after it left the liner.

The first report of the rescue came from one of four British seaplanes that left from here and from Portland to join the boats that had been dispatched to search for the missing plane. There was some confusion at first over whether the fliers had been picked up by a steamer or a sailing vessel, but later advice indicated that both aided in the rescue.

While not officially verified, the fliers were rescued by the Ile de France and their mail had been aboard the steamer so they could be landed as safely as possible. While the sailing ship took the plane to tow and started for France, as it would have to do, the steamer eventually always vessel, but later advice indicated that both aided in the rescue.

YOUNG CORBETT WINS DECISION OVER SAM BAKER

Brown From Panama Wins Over Kid Francis in 12-Round Final at Fight Graham.

By United Press

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—Young Corbett, 31, today held a 12-round decision over Sergeant Sammy Baker, 27, in a sensational boxing encounter. The New York fight, which was held at the Madison Square Garden, was the first of the year in which the victor was an unpopular one and the loser a popular one.

Baker, who was known as "The Fighting Irish" because of his Irish descent, had won the 117-pound title from Corbett in 1927. Corbett had Baker on the floor in the seventh round when Baker was knocked out. Baker was then held in the pit of the ring for 15 minutes. He was then taken to the hospital and was kept there for four days. He was then released and was able to walk.

AWARDS TO BE MADE TO HIGH SCHOOLS OF THE STATE OF IDAHO

A fund of $1000 will be supplied during the school year of 1928-29 for the purchase of equipment and other prizes for high school athletic competition in this state.

The fund is being administered by Secretary of State Fred E. Lusk, following a conference between the state athletic commission and John Hilliard, secretary of the Idaho educational association.

The money is to be supplied by the state commissioner and is available through the licensing and supervision of boxing and wrestling exhibitions in the state. Last year a fund of $1000 was given to the schools for the purchase of prizes.

The athletic commission, under the control of the secretary of state's office, is now in the hands of the state. It is a self-supporting body, deriving its revenue from the sale of tickets and wrestling exhibitions and a percentage of their receipts. With these funds it purchases for the schools athletic equipment for nearly 500 schools and playgrounds and other prizes for high school sports.

Among the awards to be purchased this year out of the $1000 donation are football, basketball, and track.

The California failed to press the case and Baker was able to walk. Baker was then taken to the hospital and was kept there for four days. He was then released and was able to walk.

Irish Colleen Gives Way to Yankee Girl On Irish Currency

By United Press

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—The American people are being asked to support the face of the typical Irish Colleen on the new banknotes of the Irish Free State, it was announced today.

John Lavery, eminent portrait painter who was commissioned to design a symbolic figure representing Ireland for the currency, told the press today he had chosen the face of the "Irish Girl" Marylin, widow of Edward Trevelyan, who was a member of the cabinet of the late British prime minister, Lord Palmerston.

Lavery, who is a native of Belfast, said he had to work hard to get the approval of the British government, which is the only one more suitable than his.

The Evening News, commenting on the new banknotes, said: "The Irish people have got the approval of the British government, which is the only one more suitable than his."

Baseball Popular In Japan, Says Speaker

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—Baseball is now so popular in Japan that it may well be considered the national game, said Shingoro Takagi, manager of the Tokyo Asahi baseball team, today.

"I have seen the great French colt, tried his luck against the best of the American thoroughbreds and failed to win."

"This for a time at least, paid one out international matches, English Count may fair better in England and France than Papyrus and Ebbly did here, but it is doubtful if athletic contests play a more important part in horse racing than in the United States."

WHAT THE STARS DID YESTERDAY

ROBERT HORNER (137) hit double and four singles in nine times at bat.

Fredy Lindstrom (.354) doubles once and singled three times and scored one run in eight times at bat.

Jim Bottomley (.230) singled once in four times at bat.

Wesley C. Goode (.305) going in Osaka, to witness the championship game between two interested parties for the title.

That was only 5900 less than the number of people who paid to see the game for four days, double-checked here last Sunday.

Horse Is King at Belmont

THE FUTURE OF THE FUTURE

Three overnight events valued at $1,200 or so each. The total of prize money that will exceed $200,000.

Belmont's "The World's Horses" is a race for profit and pleasure (and for improvement of the breed, as they say at Saratoga) is so much money offered for a single afternoon's racing.

The 13-day meet at Belmont, more than $400,000 is distributed, most of it on the next to the last day. The meet closes Monday night with the running of the Nassau Stakes.

Belmont More Popular

Horse racing seems to be losing none of its popularity. Rather are the stakes increasing in size and the attendance steadily. More than $2,000,000 in given in a year for racing in the East, about half that sum in New York state alone and the rest in Maryland.

It was announced recently that Right Count, winner of the Kentucky Derby, would be sent abroad to compete for foreign prizes next year.

The success of such international ventures has been pronounced. The winner of the Epsom Derby several years ago, came here and was bought by Zev at Belmont. Ten months separated the "Sindical" from the English champion.

Then England's great French colt, tried his luck against the best of the American thoroughbreds and failed to win.

"This for a time at least, paid one out international matches, English Count may fair better in England and France than Papyrus and Ebbly did here, but it is doubtful if athletic contests play a more important part in horse racing than in the United States."

SOME FROST IN STATE REPORTED

Bean Harvest Now Under Way; Prune Picking and Packing Is Now in Full Swing.

Weather conditions were very favorable to the harvesting of crops and fruit in extensive quantities as a whole, according to the weekly report of the weather bureau which reads:

Southwest Idaho: The week opened very warm, but a sudden change to cooler, near normal, brought temperatures below normal. Light to heavy frost was reported in exposed places, but no material damage resulted. Weather conditions were very favorable to the maturing of all-fall crops and for the harvesting of the autumn crops. The work is about completed, except in the higher sections. The third crop of alfalfa made rapid growth. The hay has been in the earlier fields. Prune picking and packing are in full swing with a good crop of excellent quality being secured. Apples are coloring fast and will soon be ready to harvest. Bean harvest has begun in the Twin Falls district and clover seed are being harvested; potatoes and onions are being hung in the fall. Beans are being gathered and hustled to market.

Southeast Idaho: The first of the week was warm, but it became decidedly cooler at the close. High winds caused some shelling of wheat. Winter wheat harvest is nearly done while spring wheat and alfalfa are being harvested in all sections. Seed peas are being harvested and some early potatoes are being dug. Late potatoes and beets are doing well. The third crop of alfalfa is growing well. Clover seed is being harvested.

Notes From the Field
Boise, Ada County: All crops maturing rapidly; third cutting alfalfa being cut; corn ready for harvest; no frost yet; corn ready; tomatoes late.

Idaho Falls, Bonneville County: Moderate temperatures first of week; cooler the last half; no rain; harvesting and threshing of grain continuing; seed peas being harvested; alfalfa and beets doing well.

Rupert, Blaine County: Weather very favorable for maturing crops; bean harvest nearly completed; corn harvest well under way; outlook good for good yields of all crops.

Pocatello, Blaine County: First of week warm; decidedly cooler at close; no rain; harvesting and threshing of wheat and oats continuing; clover seed is being harvested; third crop of alfalfa growing rapidly; potatoes and beets doing well; range very dry.

Twin Falls, Twin Falls County: Dry, cool week; corn cutting in full swing; clover threshing begun; harvesting onions, excellent crop and fair prices; beans, potatoes and rutabagas being harvested; a few early apples being picked; Jonathan pickings starting about the 15th. Both crops delicious excellent size; bell peppers very scarce.

Caldwell, Canyon County: First three days summer, last four days real autumn weather; maximum drops from 95 degrees to 65 degrees; minimum from 64 degrees to 35 degrees; no frost, but a dash to overcast and Kitchell station; water available for fall pastures; great crop of peaches and pears; ranch in market; prunes harvest now on.

Many Invitations To Inauguration Ceremonies Sent

Invitations to attend inauguration ceremonies for President Frederick J. Gillis, of the University of Idaho, are being sent to all cities and towns in the state, according to word received by W. D. Gillis, Gillis' nephew and the town of Twin Falls, Idaho, state commissioner of education and chairman of the general inauguration committee. Mr. Gillis is a member of the state-wide committee recently appointed by Commissioner Vincent to develop the inauguration as a statewide event for Idaho people interested in future development of their state university. It is the plan of the general committee, explains Mr. Vincent, to have leaders in every community in the state, including how many to respond invitations to attend the inauguration.

Perhaps the first time in this country that this type of inauguration has been arranged for a university president. An inauguration usually is an academic affair but President Kelly wants to meet Idaho supporters of the institution and confer with them the future of the institution.

Commissioner Vincent believes that the inauguration is entering a new era. "I am among others, shall be disappointed, if in the course of the years, the University of Idaho does not stand out as a distinctive institution, doing real work in peculiarly effective way," he says.

"MAGGIE HAS AN IDEA
them on commission. Then he manufactured them. Street brands in the old days in New York provided a great market for "Maggie" bricks which were better than other bricks. He grew rich.

"Maggie" stuck to his pipe and continued to smack his lips at the thought of corrod beef and cabbage.

"Maggie" didn't forget his former pal, "Pinchito" partner at "Dime Monte," a well-known place in Utopia.

But "Maggie" opposed "Jiggs" low-brow ideas and started to make her arguments clear by hurling rolling pins, vases, bottles, pans, and furniture at the intruder.

And so they continued to live their life. "Jiggs" longing for "them good old days" and "Maggie" for a bid to Count de Spoo's ball.

Despite the fact that "Maggie" had almost destroyed their wedding by using the dishes as missiles, deep down in her heart, she still loves "Jiggs."

"Jiggs" and "Maggie" are real characters in my mind, and in drawing them I try to please the public. We have been successful so far.

JIGGS GOT HIS START SELLING HARD BRICKS

By GEORGE McLANE
"Jiggs" was born in Ireland. He came to this country expecting to find gold on the streets of New York, but found bricks and cobblestones instead. He became a non-entender.

Romance came into his life when he met "Maggie," a waitress in a small cafe who put hanging chains of corrod beef and cabbage before him. They were married.

"Maggie" became thrifty. Instead of carrying bricks, he bought and sold them on commission.

Wendell Is Ready For Jerome Game

WENDELL, Sept. 14.—The Wendell high school football squad has had a week of practice now and will be in full bloom for the first game of the season at Jerome Saturday forenoon. Wendell led only one man by graduation last year and with the arrival of several new grid warriors, the veterans are having a hard time holding their places on the first team.

events was arranged for every day of the fair. The announcing by John A. Straker, supplemented by microphone announcements, was especially good. Mr. Straker has officiated in this capacity all over the country, starting the season at Millbrook Square last year and will go to California to fill full engagements.

The fair is being used as the medium for disseminating information on noxious weeds by the extension department of the university, both through an exhibit at the woods and through the distribution of printed information relative to their eradication.

An attractive exhibit in the products building was entered by Margaret Lee, including a hive of live bees under glass, as well as the comb honey and the flowers from which the honey is largely gathered.

THE POTATO SHIPPING PROBLEM

HOW to handle our crop of potatoes in order to get the most out of it is a vital problem, and on the skill and judgment displayed by local growers in the plan they follow will depend, probably, whether they make a slight profit or take a loss on their 1928 potato operations.

Government reports indicate a large crop. The second largest in history, we believe—that means there will be keen competition on the part of sellers. Dumping on the market, if such a method, or lack of real method, is followed, can prove very embarrassing to growers.

The Western Shippers' advisory board has called a meeting of representative growers to be held at Pocatello Monday and Tuesday. The board in announcing this meeting stated that it has no cut and dried solution to the problem and no preconceived plan.

It appears now that potatoes will be plentiful. Several factors that enter into the general situation may work to the benefit of the market and enable growers to receive a higher price than many anticipate.

The quality of Idaho spuds and their good reputation in many markets is another factor that favors our chances to sell relatively well.

THE IMPORTANCE OF KISSES
THE beginning of the end, says Lyle Womack, came when his wife, Ruth Elder, refused to kiss him on her return from her ocean flight.

Yet, however much truth there may or may not be in that, they are highly important things. Let a husband or wife omit a kiss when one is due and much trouble can develop.

J ALL inmates at Millersburg, Ohio, are marched in a body to church every Sunday. "People have a right to know what jailbirds look like," says Sheriff J. V. Gray.

We're not quite clear just what moral ought to be drawn from all of this. Does the fault, if any, lie with sheriff, congregation or prisoners? Figure it out for yourself and see how you feel about it.

A Wallowa county man took 39 acres of somewhat rocky land, but well watered, made pasture of it and put on 22 head of dairy cows. With as many hogs and chickens as the skim milk from his 22 cows would care for, he added to the revenue derived from butterfat, and this is the result for the last year: Gross receipts, $5000; net receipts, $3500.

The Hoover Side Of The Case

JAHN VOYE WILL SWING TO HOOPER
Spokanean-Review
A St. John contributor to the Spokanean-Review thinks that "a lot of the farmer vote in going to Smith is a misstatement. The farmer who might vote from that motive would be disappointed if he were to vote for Hoover, and that was the farmer who would not get the endorsement. The Democratic popular for Hooper has not been in common, by the Hooper association, or experience, with the American farmer, city-bred and head of the Democratic party, has the metropolitan Timothy-point-of-view. The great city masses to whom Smith is indebted for the farmer in support of a false and ridiculous assumption of superiority but maintained none the less, as they want cheap cost of living, they want cheap food products. The choice the better, from their point of view, is Hoover. Hoover Smith, however, in his purpose and policy in his acceptance speech, he extolled the endorsement of the Democratic party administration, which put farm products on the free list. The vote for Smith will make the political mistake of their lives. The Spokanean-Review does not believe that any of them will do that. It believes that they will turn to Hoover, farm-bred and farm-bred and a by-product of the industrial revolution, or that they will vote for the alliance that Smith represents, of the city population, Tammany, booze and Wall Street.

Best Editorial of the Day

CITY DOMINANCE
(Idaho Falls Times-Register)
The trend of population from the farm to the city and its consequent result in a change in economic conditions has been the cause for comment and speculation for a long time. Right now there is another reason for attention and that is the religious and political change which has been effected.

The cities and larger towns have a greater percentage of the population of the country and the people of the different cities have a different perspective and viewpoint and vote their sentiments.

The condition is brought out in articles by Mack Sullivan, political writer, who warns of the danger of city dominance, particularly in the present national campaign.

And Smith, the Democratic nominee, appeals to the average city voter who so far as food products are concerned is a consumer and an such is interested in the lowest possible price. The lowest possible price is to be had by the removal of the present tariff which stands in protection to the American producer of food stuffs.

The moral question is a big issue. The cities and the larger towns are not at all in the smaller towns and the rural districts are far from being in great distinction between town and country.

The Smith Side Of The Case

TOBERNANCE
Idaho Falls Post
Senator Tolson's assertion that "the Smith's creed, as applied to government, is as roundly American as Methodism or Baptist" ever professed will have the effect of the abolishing the majority of Americans. It is, we think, a comparatively small minority which remains to think the bulk of the industry would get the endorsement. The Democratic popular for Hooper has not been in common, by the Hooper association, or experience, with the American farmer, city-bred and head of the Democratic party, has the metropolitan Timothy-point-of-view. Daily Poem

THE ROAD TO STURM
It's a long way to school," said little B. B.
"Take hold of my hand, 'twill be shorter," said Dad.
The road for the lark lies up there in the sky.
I would be fine to be fooling the turf on the bog.
"Go on," said she. "I was just an old dog.
That never need learn A, B, C in a crib—
Or printer, or grammar, or tables, or rule."
But Dad held her hand in his own,
And he said so long, as they thought,
"Betwixt 'tween and trotty" was well on his way;
And the two of them back on the bog road together.
With the bees humming songs and the birds in the leafy trees.

Sisters Over the Skin

Kipling's famous "Colonel's Lady and Judy" over the skin as well in these days when the latest and most authoritative fashion news is available to every woman in the advertising columns of her news O'Grady, who were "sisters under the skin", are sis-paper.
Today no woman's clothes need proclaim the thickness of her pocketbook. The advertisements which meet the eye of the woman accustomed to social securities and liveried chauffeurs, and guide her in her selection of a wardrobe—likewise greet and guide the young lady who earns her own living. And both may be thankful that advertising has forever banished the dowdy, frumpy "female."

Where will the waistline be? Bows at the cuffs, or not? "V" neck or square? How long—or how short? What materials does Paris favor? What colors are "being worn"? Those questions are answered for everyone—in the advertisements. And with the answers are coupled the names of manufacturers and merchants who make and sell materials, trimmings, accessories, on which you can rely. For those advertised advertised names are advertised only because they are reliable. Otherwise you would probably never hear of them.

You can follow the advertised styles with assurance—and buy by advertised names with profit

Children's Clinic Being Held Today And Sat. At Jerome

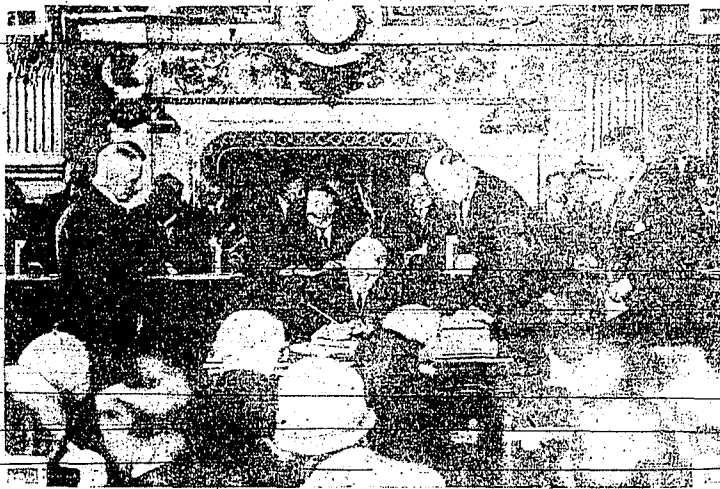

(Staff Correspondence)
 JEROME, Idaho, Sept. 14.—Sponsored by the American Legion auxiliary, Mrs. W. H. DeWilder, Hazelton, chairman of the committee having the matter in charge, a children's clinic is being conducted here today and tomorrow.

Dr. Emily Holcom, Mrs. S. J. McEwen and Miss Grace Coffman, all of Holcom, are in attendance, while Dr. J. F. Schenckel and Miss F. Zellner of Jerome and E. L. Berry of Hazelton are assisting. Paroxysms will be given to children from Jerome and attention to appointments for children from the outside districts.

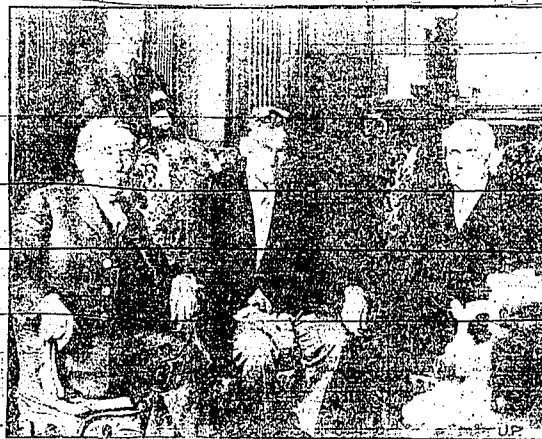

This is the sixteenth consecutive week during which the members of the children's bureau of the state welfare department have conducted clinics, lectures and public health instruction for the children of the state, the work beginning May 26 in Blaine county and planned to end October 20 in Owyhee county. During this time it is expected that fully 1500 children will have passed through the clinic, and 1000 mothers will have received instruction in child hygiene.

The southern part of the state has been receiving intensive attention this season, the welfare department being in touch with the northern part of the state. A large percentage of the children examined here have been found to be defective in a degree and the parents advised to consult the family physician. In no instance does the state department advise treatment.

the path of the storm. Twenty persons were injured at Dyer.

The fatalities occurred over an area 100 miles square in the extreme corner of the state. An accurate estimate of the dead and injured was impossible immediately. Property damage may run more than a million dollars.

Two school houses were demolished. In one near Hamer, Helen Rasmussen, a teacher, was working. She was killed. In the other, located near Whitfill, the daughter of Frank Belts was killed and 13 other students were injured.

An independent farmer rushed to his neighborhood school house when he saw the storm approach. He hurried the children and teacher into an open and turned back for a moment. The storm struck, wrecked the school and killed the man.

A three-month-old girl of Ed Kniele, a farmer, was blown away by the storm and killed. The girl's body was found after the storm 30 miles away buried in a straw stack. Kniele was totally blinded by flying fragments in the wind. He was not expected to live.

A special train was dispatched by the Burlington from Sioux City, Iowa to the scene of the disaster. It carried tools, nurses and medical supplies.

Three railroad workmen were injured when their lumber was blown down the track at a terrific rate of speed and derailed. The grain elevator at Portage was wrecked as were the structures there.

The Storm passed Sioux City, Iowa by only a few miles.

Weather conditions were very favorable to the harvesting of crops and fruit in excellent condition as a whole, according to the weekly report of the weather bureau which says:

Southwest Idaho: The week opened very warm, but a sudden change to cooler under the close brought temperatures below normal. Light to heavy frost was reported in exposed places, but no material damage resulted. Weather conditions were very favorable for the harvesting and threshing of grain. This work is about completed, except in the higher sections. The third crop of alfalfa made rapid growth and cutting has begun in the Twin Falls district. Prune picking and packing are in full swing with a good crop of excellent quality being secured. Apples are coloring fast and will soon be ready to harvest. Bean harvest has begun in the Twin Falls district. Alfalfa and clover seed are being harvested; potatoes and onions are being dug; all fall truck crops are being gathered and hauled to market.

Southeast Idaho: The first of the week was warm, but it became steadily cooler at the close. High winds caused some shelling of wheat. Winter wheat harvest is practically done—wheat threshing is well advanced. Beans are being harvested in all sections. Seed peas are being harvested and stored. Late potatoes and beans are doing well. The third crop of alfalfa is growing well. Clover seed is being harvested.

Notes From the Field

Boise, Ada County: All crops maturing rapidly; third cutting alfalfa making the crop; potatoes in full; no frost yet; corn nearly ripe; tomatoes late.

Idaho Falls, Bonneville County: Moderate temperatures first of week; cooler the last half; no rain; harvesting and threshing of grain continues; seed peas being harvested; potatoes and beans doing well.

Boise, Blaine County: Weather very favorable for maturing crops; grain harvest nearly completed; bean harvest well under way; outlook good for good yields of all crops.

Tocat, Blaine County: First of week warm; decidedly cooler at the close; no rain; harvesting and threshing of wheat and oats continue; clover seed is being harvested; third crop of alfalfa growing well; winter wheat and beans doing well; range very dry.

Twin Falls, Twin Falls County: Dry, cool week; bean cutting in full swing; clover threshing begun; harvesting onions, excellent crop and fair prices; peas, potatoes, and prunes being harvested; a few early apples being picked; Jonathan picking starts about the 15th; Bonneville delicious excellent size; Delicious very scarce.

Calwell, Canyon County: First three days summer, but four days real autumn weather; maximum drop from 96 degrees to 68 degrees, minimum from 64 degrees to 29 degrees; no frost, but a rush to overcasts and kitchen stoves; irrigation and more water scarce available for fall pastures; great crop of peaches and pears rushed to market; prunes harvest now on.

What were your father's last words? There were no last words. Neither will there be until the end.

But now here are the last words to this coal problem. The utilities commission has the public of a coming EQUAL FAVORABLE account of our shortage. Better price safety first.

THE BEST PROGRAM is to buy a stoker and burn stoker coal at a saving of $2.00 per ton and fifteen per cent less coal. Fine all the conferences, through in. Always uniform. No more trouble with the coal. The room is always warm. The fire never goes out.

P. R. We'll sell the best coal in the West, not by what the Scottsman would call ball talk, but by actual chemical analysis. They look like two hard-baked, ash and fish brand. They are highest in heat and lowest in ash, and don't ask any more cash.

Many Invitations To Inauguration Ceremonies Sent

Invitations to attend inauguration ceremonies for President Frederic J. Kelly, the University of Idaho, every city and town in the state, according to word received by W. H. Gillette, vice president of the board of trustees, at the University of Idaho, state commissioner of education and chairman of the general committee.

Mr. Gillette is a member of the state-wide committee recently appointed by Commissioner Vincent to develop the inauguration as a statewide event for Idaho people interested in future development of their state university.

This is perhaps the first time in this country that this type of inauguration has been arranged for a university president. An inauguration, usually in an academic affair but President Kelly wants to meet Idaho supporters of the institution and consider with them the future of the institution.

Commissioner Vincent believes that the University is entering a new and greater period of usefulness to the state. "I, among others, shall be disappointed if in the course of five years, the University of Idaho does not attain an administrative position of such rank as to be peculiarly effective," he says.

JIGGS GOT HIS START SELLING HARD BRICKS
By GEORGE NEWMAN'S
"He came to this country expecting to find gold on the streets of New York, but found bricks and cobblestones instead. He became a hod-carrier. Romance came into his life when he met 'Maggie,' a waitress at a small cafe, who had hanging dishes of corned beef and cabbage before him. They were married.

"Jiggs" became a farmer. Instead of carrying bricks to the height and sold them on a small farm.

Not only was the Rev. Mr. Turner active in the church work, but as president of the Kiwanis club, chairman of the post war committee of the chamber of commerce, and member of the executive board of the local war relief organization, he has been closely identified with the civic and community affairs of Idaho Falls.

The Rev. Mr. Turner, coming to Idaho Falls in 1922 from Whitewater, Montana, has been in the local church crowd under his guidance from a membership of 250 and an indebtedness of $12,000, to a membership of 460 and an excellent financial condition. Today the church stands third in the state, and has increased its membership since more than 150 per cent in the past five years. His past successes in this regard are sure to be repeated here in Twin Falls, it is believed.

JIGGS STEALS A MARCH
MAGGIE HAS AN IDEA

At this point in his career, "Maggie" and his daughter, "Nora" changed their viewpoint of life. Society, country, money, and college professors became their idols.

But "Jiggs" stuck to his claw pipe and continued to smack his lips at the thought of corned beef and cabbage.

"Jiggs" didn't forget his former pals. Finchie parties at "Flitz Moore's" formed "Jiggs' Idea" of Uppity.

But "Maggie" started "Jiggs" low-brow ideas and intended to make her arguments plain—sweeping, rolling, plain, voice, bottles, pans and furniture at the altar.

And so they continued to live their lives as they saw fit.

Despite the fact "Maggie" had almost destroyed their wedding set by using the dishes as missiles, deep down in her heart she still loves "Jiggs."

"Jiggs" and "Maggie" are real characters in my mind, and I'm doing them in to try to please the public. We have been successful so far.

LOVELY WEATHER RESULTS IN BIG CROWDS AT FAIR

People From All Parts of County Flock to Jerome to Take in the Fine Agricultural Exhibits.

(Staff Correspondent)
JEROME, Idaho, Sept. 14—With cleared skies and a rising temperature Jerome country fair entered on the second day under most favorable auspices. Attendance for the first day was estimated by Secretary Earl Kennedy at 12,000 more than the first day when the opening of the Twin Falls-Jerome bridge was made the occasion for a large attendance from the South Side town. Repetition of the free breakfast was the approval of today.

Saturday has been set aside as "Children's Day" when all school children under 14 are admitted free to the exhibits by the teachers in the schools of Jerome county. This is the first day of the fair when the farmers have the privilege of entering draft horses for this one day only, without charge. This exhibit, has met with wide response from the farmers throughout the county, according to the announcement of the horse department, Ben O'Harrow.

"We believe that in an agricultural community, the horse department plays an important role, this is one of the most worthwhile displays, and the work of every encouragement should be given to it," O'Harrow himself a breeder of fine horses and dogs. Especial attention is being given to the promising colts and two-year-olds.

The fine dairy show includes entries of Jersey, Holstein and dairy type Shorthorn which breed carries the world record for butterfat production—1677 pounds in one year by Melba, 16th Darabon of Australia. The book show at the Jerome fair has long been a feature of the fair.

The Rev. H. C. Turner, whose activities in connection with his occupancy of the pulpit of the Trinity Methodist church of Idaho Falls are of the highest repute, and Mrs. Turner and their daughter arrived in Twin Falls this afternoon.

The Rev. Mr. Turner will officiate in the church work, but as president of the Kiwanis club, chairman of the post war committee of the chamber of commerce, and member of the executive board of the local war relief organization, he has been closely identified with the civic and community affairs of Idaho Falls.

Sheep and dogs were judged by T. C. Anderson of Shoshone, who presided over the show. The quality and reflecting a growing interest in the best breeds.

In the women's department which included poultry, supervised by Mrs. Jessie White of Jerome, who presided over the show, supervised by Mrs. G. W. Hawecker, the judging was done by Miss Mary Van Dusen of Rupert.

The winter department and the 4-H club made fine showing in their sewing and canning. Special prizes were offered by local merchants evoked a fine response.

The floral department, C. E. Booth and Mrs. H. W. Church of Twin Falls judged, stating that the displays were of the finest quality. The showing of dahlias was especially commended.

No harness races
Since the Jerome track does not permit harness races, an interesting program of running and novelty events was arranged for every day of the fair. The announcing by John A. Stricker, supplemented by microphone amplification, was especially good. Mr. Stricker has officiated in this capacity all over the country.

Starting the season at midnight square and being now en route to California to fill full engagements.

The fair is being noted as the medium for disseminating information on important subjects by the extension department of the university, being through an exhibit of the records and through the distribution of printed information relative to their organization.

An attractive exhibit in the products building was entered by Mrs. J. D. SIMONA, Director.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS
Bids will be received by the Twin Falls Highway District, at 2 P. M. on Sept. 16th for the graveled of one-half a mile of road located two miles south of Hamden.
