MILITIA COMPANY FOR CITY

State Adjutant General Hove Inspects Conditions.

A militia company of the city is in this condition. The adjutant general, Hove, has just returned from a trip to the city and has given out the information that the company would be formed as soon as the governor could pass upon it. A full quota of men for the company has been secured and some officers from the Idaho barracks of the U. S. forces will muster the company into the service of the state. Mr. Van Hook, who has been instrumental in the formation of the company, has had several years experience in the Philippines and should be able to give the company a good deal of instruction in camp to compare with the older companies of the regiment when it comes time to go into camp.

COLLIE DOG RUNS AMUCK

Five-Year-Old Child of D. S. Mann Killed.

While returning home last Monday the five-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Mann was attacked by a savage collie and severely bitten in four places before help could be secured. The animal was evidently in deadly earnest and four places required stitches in order to close the wounds. The owners of the dog readily agreed to ship the animal out of the city.

Buhl, Idaho, March 23, 1910.
On Sunday morning about 2 o'clock a bloody affray broke out between John May and John Smith, who were playing cards in the rear of the Pass Time Pool hall. A five-dollar bet was up. May won and claimed the five. The owner of the pool hall, heard a struggle in the rear and went in to separate the fighters. Upon examination it was found that Mr. May had been stabbed five times, with a dagger which was found close at hand. One of the wounds was through the right lung, reaching very near the heart. At first it was thought that Mr. May could not live, but the doctors now state that he will recover. Chas. Phillips the man who did the stabbing, was an employee in the pool hall, where the deed took place, and was a man about forty-five years of age. He has not been seen since. Mr. May is a stone mason, about thirty years of age. He states that he will not prosecute Mr. Phillips, but if it had not been for the fact that "I would not have been able to find him," he would have done so.

NEW DOPE ON RAILROAD WORK

Articles of Incorporation Filed With Secretary of State.

KELTON TO BUILD CUT-OFF IS ASSURED.

Believed to Be Part of Harriman Plan to Bisect State of Oregon to Head Off Hill Invasion.

The articles of incorporation of the Salt Lake & Idaho Railroad company, a subsidiary concern of the Oregon Short Line, were filed with the secretary of state yesterday, confirming the exclusive reports published in the Statesman a week ago of a cut-off from Salt Lake, Utah, to Turley, forming the final link of a direct route from Twin Falls to Salt Lake City. Right-of-way it is understood, have been purchased for the entire distance, and construction work is to commence in the near future. The new road is also believed to be a part of the Harriman plan to bisect Oregon as far east as Lake View, Ore., connecting there with the Deschutes branch, from Portland to San Francisco.

The incorporators of the Salt Lake & Idaho Railroad company are W. H. Bancroft, J. M. Davis, D. E. Hurley, P. L. Williams and F. H. Kieferbocker, all identified with Harriman interests, while D. Worth Clark of Pocatello has been designated as its authorized agent for this state. The articles state: "This company is incorporated for the purpose of building, owning, maintaining and operating a line of railroad, cable, telegraph and telephone lines in connection therewith, beginning at a point on the Ogden & Lucin branch, otherwise designated as the Salt Lake cut-off, at or near Salt Lake, Utah, and extending northward through the townships of north range 3, south range # AWAKE! AWAKE!

Rouse Yourselves, Men of the West!

These opportunities are yours! Yours, for your children and your children's children.

Do you realize that Utah's crop of irrigable land will soon be exhausted? Do you realize that it is costing more to build irrigating works, and that prices of lands must steadily advance to meet the cost of the more difficult projects.

In the State of Washington they are paying $200 to $300 an acre for lands on better than ours in Utah, and where the climate is far less attractive or agreeable, and the possibilities are no greater. WHY? Because the scramble for the last best lands has begun. It will begin in Utah soon. The growing realization all over this country that irrigation is the one sure way of profitable farming and fruit growing, is sending to the West the wide-awake eastern men and women, who are determined to buy irrigated lands.

Monday, April 11---11 A. M.

Is the date set for the Opening of the Sevier River Valley Lands

At Lyndyl, on the San Pedro Road, 117 miles south of Salt Lake City.

Forty-one state governors met in conference recently in Washington to cooperate in the effort to secure uniformity among the states. The difference in the laws and legal forms in the various states is such an inconvenience which undoubtedly can be remedied, while marriage and divorce laws, laws concerning the rights of subjects should be uniform throughout the states. The results of the conference no doubt will prove mutually beneficial to the states.

Attention is being called to the fact that some of the best men in the federal reclamation service have recently quietly resigned their work for the government and have taken up work with private enterprises or have entered into private business life. No complaint whatever has been made against the duties of the government employees or against the officials in charge of the reclamation service. The reason given out is that the salaries paid by the government are not as high as those paid by people handling large projects who are willing to pay high for experts.

Sagebrush has long been spoken of in tones of disgust and, worse—blatant articles show that a study is being made of this despised growth to discover some useful properties or commercial value about it. A report of a most recent experiment says: "It was found it was readily crushed into a pulp and formed a perfect mint. By mixing with earth it became firm, dustless, and noiseless, and gives promise of long wear. So satisfactory was the trial that this spring many millions of sage-brush roots will be sold on the highlands." Should all this be true, and come to pass, the despised sagebrush may yet be accepted a blessing in the west.

Reports from London give accounts of terrible snow storms at Andant and faintly, resulting in great packs of famished wolves swarming upon the wolf from the mountains. While the controversy has been going on over the placing of the statue of Robert E. Lee in the Statuary Hall of the Capitol in Washington, the statue has been unveiled from the railroad car, hauled to the capitol and put in position. The relatives of General Lee have resented the Virginia statue to make no effort to have the usual formal resolution of acceptance of the statue, at present, hence the statue, doubtless, will remain without formal acceptance until the display of hostility toward the south's great leader shall have subsided. Public opinion generally seems to voice regret over the rather unexpected and unbecomingly demonstration of prejudice recently displayed in this matter.

Sir Kallik, lord mayor of London, in speaking of the reception to be accorded former President Roosevelt, when he arrives in England in May, says: "No man is more deserving of the highest honors the city can afford him than Mr. Roosevelt. There is nothing that Englishmen delight in more than erasing the hand of a friend and our friend has done more than a great American statesman. My first suggestion on learning of Mr. Roosevelt's intention to visit London was that I should entertain him at the Mansion House, but very soon I realized that such a reception would be on too small a scale altogether. You may depend upon it that the reception at Goldsmith's will be as hearty and brilliant as the city of London knows how to make it."

Prof. Percival Lowell, one of the firm believers in the idea that Mars is inhabited by highly civilized beings, has recently announced that he has seen the Martians commencing work on a new canal. He also states that there are indications on the great planet which seem to demonstrate the present opening of a canal there for the development of their land. Success Magazine says: "Professor Lowell would surely be called a yellow journalist if he were printing a newspaper without the aid of his heavens. He would have to subscribe in order to see the very latest. Couldn't the professor turn his tales toward the neck of this continent, and not wonder it is true that a canal is also being dug there?"

Three Danish engineers, Messrs. Dersum, Nyrop and Thomsen, have recently made a discovery of great importance which they have telegraphed to the telephone patent. A Copenhagen dispatch says of the new device: "The Danish engineers have discovered a way to send a telephone subscriber to a certain telephone number without his automatically registered in the list of the numbers of the system called up by the subscriber. It is a key system in which the telephone number is operated by the subscriber and the subscriber's name is sent through the air."

Most Gigantic, Most Stupendous Money Saving Event You Ever Attended
Begins Wednesday, March 30, and Continues for 10 Days

No! It is Not "Another" Mill End Sale—but a "Different" Mill End Sale

An event which brings together purchases running into the thousands of dollars from Mills in all sections of the country, for distribution to the people of this locality at savings that are positive as they are decisive.

We Have the Best of Reasons for Inaugurating this MILL END Sale.

Mills don't like dull periods any more than any one else—so when it begins to get dull with them they get together all odd lengths and pieces and Make Business by selling at any price they can get. We bought tremendous lots from several Mills—bought goods in exact duplicates of those we have in regular stock—but what a difference in the price. In many instances at Half Regular.

This Mill End Sale will establish a new record for value giving. It will be an event that will rival our best efforts in the past. Its distribution of unmatched values will be wide spread. Its magnitude will establish this sale as the supreme value-giving effort of this store. Its values deserve your most serious consideration. Its vast stocks offer almost unlimited choice—and remember the goods on sale are all desirable and are worth today as much as if we bought and sold them in the regular way. About every known fabric Goes on Sale at reduction from actual cost.
