

ADD $20,000.00 IN IMPROVEMENTS

Planning a Large Extension of Business

LINCOLN REFRIGERATING CO. WILL BUILD ADDITION TO PLANT.

Plant Proves Too Small for Growing Business of Popular in This City.

The citizens of Twin Falls and the surrounding country should prize themselves in the fact that several of the prominent business men of Chicago should show such an interest in the opportunities afforded in this locality as to form The Lincoln Produce & Refrigerating Company, manufacturers and producers of pure artificial ice, high-grade ice cream and butter, and dealers in smoked meats, cheese, lard and provisions.

This company has now been in operation only a few months and judging from a recent visit to their plant, one can not only be impressed, but appreciably surprised at the volume of business transacted. The plant is thoroughly equipped with the most modern machinery for the manufacturing of artificial ice, ice cream and butter, and any one can not help but notice the cleanliness and perfect sanitation throughout the entire establishment.

Several of the officials of the company are now here inspecting the plant and expect soon to commence erecting an addition to the present building to cost from $15,000 to $20,000 for the purpose of a storage plant for ice, with a capacity of 1,500 to 2,000 tons. This will provide for any emergencies which may arise and their patrons are assured of their wants being supplied at all times. With the completion of this building to their already well equipped plant, they will be better able to furnish cold storage from a temperature above freezing to such a degree below zero as products entrusted to their keeping would warrant.

Visitors will be welcome to inspect the plant at any time where they will be heartily greeted by representatives of the company and given a chance to thoroughly inspect the plant, which is now in full operation. Farmers and those interested in farm products, particularly, should not overlook this opportunity, as it gives them a home market for their milk and cream, and they are assured the highest prices obtainable.

ROGERSON SELLING SHEEP.

Alfalfa Prices Hit Shepherds in the Colar Plexus.

Like many other big sheep raisers, Robert Rogerson is disposing of his sheep rather than feed the high priced alfalfa the coming winter. He states that he has 4,000 ewes for sale, which are now being fed in the vicinity of Elletts. This is an excellent opportunity for the ranchers to buy small bands and feed up the wastes in the fields.

THE INDUSTRIAL FAIR

Best Exhibition Ever Shown in Southern Idaho

Gates of Twin Falls Country Fair Thrown Open on Tuesday. Special Attractions

The Twin Falls Country Fair and Exposition opened on Tuesday with a good attendance and with exhibits far beyond the dreams of the real enthusiastic hostess. The committee on grounds and buildings under the supervision of H. W. Jones, had everything in readiness and every arrangement made to take care of the exhibitors and those desiring concessions for stands. Throughout the whole grounds everything bespoke the careful planning of the general committee and the able assistants who have given weeks of time to the preparations.

Beginning with the machinery building and extending clear through the grounds, exhibits which would do justice to any county or state fair were placed in tastefully arranged booths. The industrial hall, with displays from the various firms of this city and other cities of the tract was one of the most interesting parts of the ground with displays by the enterprising merchants which excellently advertised their line. Mr. Hall, as superintendent of this feature, was overwhelmed with applications which had to be turned down at the last minute, owing to lack of space.

The horticultural exhibit with peaches, plums, apricots, nectarines, grapes, apples of almost every variety, were displayed to advantage in a manner to convince the most skeptical that Twin Falls is to be reckoned with as a future fruit center. The display of apples which for coloring, size and perfect shape could not be excelled anywhere, was a matter of surprise to nearly everyone who entered the building. Hon. Silas Wilson, the fruit expert, while judging the exhibit Tuesday and Wednesday, stated repeatedly that he could hardly believe his eyes.

PAINTING BIG SIGN.

Robert-Daly Co. Have Sign 60x20 Feet On Water Co.'s Building.

One of the largest signs in the country is being painted this week by Jervett for the Robert-Daly Co. who have recently purchased large tract of land in this locality to the value of $200,000. The sign is 60 feet long, 20 feet deep. The large red apple on the wall is 9 feet high and is a conspicuous object at a distance. A landscape with an orchard completes the work. It takes the upper half of the east side of the Water Power Company's building. The work will be completed this week.

LAWRENCE HARRITT, Mid. Mo. June 9

with regard to the splendid exhibit and said that Twin Falls need not take a back seat for anything which the Spokane apple show would put up in competition.

The agricultural building proved bewildering with the genuine pumpkins, cracked cracked squash, taller even than Iowa ever saw, and in fact everything in the general exhibit which can be raised in any part of the United States, except in the tropical zone.

The fair committee in providing amusement and entertainment for the crowds have put on some remarkably clean and clever vaudeville stunts which attract the crowds afterwards and evenings together with the Twin Falls and Kimberly bands. The latter organization deserve special mention for the pleasure they afforded the audience every day of the big fair.

DEDICATE NEW MASSONIC TEMPLE

Large Crowd Sees Laying of Corner Stone.

GOVERNOR BRADY ORATOR OF THE DAY.

Local Men Speak at the Exercises Held On Wednesday Afternoon.

Yesterday afternoon the Masons formally laid the corner stone of their new temple. The exercises were attended by some 100 people and were carried out in a most auspicious manner. Favorable weather helped bring out an attendance which is estimated at 300. The masons were late in forming and it was after three when the procession reached the building. The Kimberly band led, followed by the Masons. At the door a double line was formed, through which the high officers and honored guests passed.

After a number by the band, Rev. John Courtney asked divine blessing. He prayed that the corner stone of our lives might be laid on a firm foundation and emphasized the need of a feeling of brotherhood.

Mr. Alfson, as presiding officer, after a few introductory remarks, proceeded to introduce Senator Sweeter, who spoke on Masonry from a national standpoint. He stated that it was his belief that the world was growing better and proceeded to name the forces at work bringing about this end. Among these he mentioned the law-abiding, who he said should simply manifest the will of the people. The Christian church, medical societies and the lodges have aided. But greatest of all a feeling of brotherhood is beneficial and for this Masonry stands. As it has permeated our national life so it has had a national significance. Masonry is democratic in principle and so is national.

W. H. Horsfall was called upon to speak concerning "Masonry At Home." He spoke of the fact that a Mason is a brother at home or abroad. The home ties are valuable. He emphasized the fact that any permanent building and expressed his satisfaction over this new building. It was, he stated, a credit to Masonry and to Twin Falls.

At this point Grand Master Bowman took charge and introduced Governor Brady as the orator of the day. Governor Brady read a prepared address. In commencing he commented upon the rapid growth of Twin Falls and of the new growth of the tract.

It is his belief that in twenty-five years Twin Falls will have a population of 40,000. It will also be the Mecca for all nature lovers, because of Shoshone and Twin Falls and the Hike Lakes. In his direct address he said he was not only a Mason but an American citizen. He commended the principles of Masonry and spoke of his past achievements. It is the oldest, but can adjust itself and so retain its hold. It now has a membership of 1,500,000 in the United States and Canada. In a religious sense it is against ethical and immoral is an uplift. After eulogizing Masonry he proceeded to congratulate Twin Falls and the local lodge on the creditable temple.

Manager Laycock of the Hansen M. & E. Co., reports a very good business during the past few weeks. Many farmers are marketing hay, oats and wheat. ## Fair Week Bargains are Attractions Enough

The band plays in the Fair grounds—people go there of course. We are not making a big hubbub about the attractions of the store, but all day long people troop in just the same. Good bargains have marvelous magnetic powers. They don't need wholesale advertising. People hear about them. Numbers of people entered our doors yesterday whom we are sure, have never read a written announcement from this store in their lives. After all, advertising only tells a small part of the story. Whole pages in this newspaper would not be sufficient to describe the scope and magnitude of the bargains we are now offering.

There seems to be a great need of some city ordinance prohibiting the many falls from using the streets of this city for the purpose of selling their wares or propaganda to the detriment of the general public. Scarcely a night passes but what the principle streets are blocked by crowds collected by the almighty fakirs who pay nothing to the city for the free use of its lights and streets for commercial purposes. If such street orators and fakirs cannot pay for the rental of some hall in which to orate, they should not be given rights which the ordinary business house is paying heavily in taxes.

The energetic way in which the business men and ranchers of Idaho and vicinity are entering for the present fall is indicative of the spirit which is pushing the lively city on the west and to the front. The fact that Twin Falls fair last week and Idaho's ready response to the country by their splendid exhibit should show that both places have much in common and an attempt should be made to keep up the friendly spirit just exhibited. The interests of both cities in getting live visitors into the country are mutual and some more should be made to increase the reciprocal spirit which at present is being shown. Every city and town on the tract has things to contend with in the matter of advertising and adjustment of freight troubles which could be rapidly settled if all were united. A spirit of give and take manifested right now may mean thousands of new settlers for the entire country and untold benefit to every locality.

OMEN OF VICTORY.

The result of the Republican primary election in this state is an omen of victory. There was much misunderstanding of the direct primary law and a great many of our people were doubtful of the results that would be secured. But the election has disappointed all those who may have feared that results would be unsatisfactory.

When the results of the voting are carefully scanned, it is seen that the people have expressed their will in no uncertain terms. Moreover, they have selected candidates who appeal to the judgment and conscience of all members of the party. Consequently, there is no ground left upon which anyone can make any valid objection. This is a most pleasing situation to confront us at the opening of the short campaign that remains. There are no explanations to make, no weak brethren to bolster up. The ticket is strong from top to bottom and will command the support of all Republicans as well as a very considerable number of the opposition party.

James A. Tawney, congressman from the Second district of Minnesota, is the latest stimulant to hear from the people in a disastrous defeat at primary election held last week. His opponent, a young and inexperienced campaigner, went in by a larger majority than Tawney had previously received for a number of years. Mr. Tawney attributes his defeat to the "democratic" with little foundation for his grievance. Minnesota Republicans have several times before registered their disapproval of machine rule in the state by the election of Democratic governors, elected to office solely by Republicans. Mr. Tawney, as one of the best known stampotters and chairman of the appropriations committee, was one of the often mentioned candidates to succeed Cannon as speaker, and his defeat under such a peculiar honor makes the minority of his constituency more pronounced. "It is said of Tawney that the machine built up his powerful federal pull was one of the strongest in the state, and the question arises as to how he was defeated."

feated, speaks volumes for the reforming spirit which of a well regulated primary system.

Considerable complaint is being made by the shippers and business men of the entire tract over the freight service given by the Short Line during this, the present busy season. As can be ascertained by careful investigation the Oregon Short Line is about seven years behind in its attempts to provide motor power for the entire system. Engines have broken down or passed into the utter useless state so that freight shipments on this branch are as uncertain as a Kansas legislature. The conditions is one that right at present needs a remedy which the company is helpless to give it owing to the increasing demand for rolling and motive transportation service on their entire system. But the cause of it dates back farther than the present condition and the utter useless state so that freight shipments on this branch are as uncertain as a Kansas legislature. The conditions is one that right at present needs a remedy which the company is helpless to give it owing to the increasing demand for rolling and motive transportation service on their entire system. But the cause of it dates back farther than the present condition and the utter useless state so that freight shipments on this branch are as uncertain as a Kansas legislature. The conditions is one that right at present needs a remedy which the company is helpless to give it owing to the increasing demand for rolling and motive transportation service on their entire system.

INSPIRATION. "It will pass." The answer is only the repetition of a few old-fashioned tenets. It will blow over. These are to make the whole principle of the democratic principle of the free people, not knowing that the whole idea is already based which shall last a generation and still more death. Insurrectionary "isms" like it, it is the first step of a new life which will grow and expand, and the people will triumphantly tell it under a new party all these radicals or progressives who believe in the human race, human rights and nevertheless justice. Nor does the administration's support of desire to follow Cannon, Aldrich and their like overhead command any respect. The extremely even that they found to the idea to have their own little new did create an admiration, Cannon and Aldrich are but the fruits of the time. You may pluck them and others will blossom. The real remedy is to have the axe to the root. Let Mr.

Taft not hope to delude and satisfy Insurgency by offering sacrifices while he himself calls the Aldrich-Payne bill best ever produced and says it meets his anti-trust promises. Let him cease to shake. Aldrich and the forces which advance Aldrich. Let him cease to snub Cannon and LaFollette in their own homes. Let him have a change of heart and see what Oregon says. That it is all part of one great struggle for equality of opportunity in this beautiful world, and the Cannon and Aldrich are mere incidents of a momentary wrong. Let him in reply to the man who asks, "What shall I say up who wants to work and can get none?" make a better answer than, "God knows," and not mock the wretched factory girl with the advice to take a two months' vacation. Then perhaps the people will see that he really comprehends the souls of the people, and they will forgive him the smile which must come off. For not only God knows the answer but the people are determined to know. —Chas. Eakin Scott Wood, in October Pacific Monthly.

CANDIDATES AT FAIR.

The action of the officials in charge of the Twin Falls fair grounds in refusing to permit candidates to speak there is a public that has often been raised in the public mind. The refusal of the state, at the same time, to be the first one to speak in Twin Falls. It does not follow that any discreditable act is implied. While the purpose was to deliver a purely nonpartisan speech, the very fact that a candidate is an impediment to the free expression of the idea of the Twin Falls fair authorities seems to have been clearly to remove the fair absolutely from all things having the slightest bearing on politics. If that was the purpose, and if it shall be adhered to with relation to all parties and all candidates, there can be no cause for complaint. There is nothing political in a country fair. People of all shades of political belief assemble there to interchange ideas, to view exhibits and to be entertained. If the representatives of one party be permitted to speak there, even though he does not mention one political subject, shall that treatment must be accorded representatives of other parties, with the result that sooner or later the non-political form will become a political form, with efforts that may militate against the prime purposes of the fair. —Stateman.

The above statement on politics at a fair was brought out by an article published in the Oregonian of September 14, 1905, by one of our zealous Republicans of this city in which article the fair committee were censured for not allowing Governor Brady the right to speak in the fair grounds. The Times heartily agrees with the above article and believes that the fair committee's action will be approved by all fair-minded Republicans. The truth of the matter was that unintentionally the Times in an issue in its anxiety to boost the fair, published that Senator Borah would be one of the attractions of the fair week. In so doing, nothing was intended but a boost, with no purpose of pushing partisan politics into the fair. In order to give all parties an equal chance the fair committee offered each side the privilege of having speakers at the grounds, but up to Monday of this week no acceptance of the offer was made. In fact the Republicans turned the offer down on Saturday for the second time. On Tuesday, after it was too late to give each side a fair show the same Republican came and insisted on having the governor speak at the grounds because he was the state's chief executive. The fair committee rightly, equanimity at this time turned the matter down and in so doing should have the support of every citizen. The money for the big fair was subscribed by Republicans and Democrats with equal generosity, and Governor Brady as a candidate for re-election would be objectionable to the Democratic contributors on that ground. It was purely on such ground that the committee took its stand and in so doing was in the governor in official capacity was intended.

About the same time The Times wishes to commend in no uncertain terms the action of the fair committee in refusing to grant with which the fair was brought to a successful conclusion on the opening day of this week. Their work has been done, it is standard but remember that year even was not back of the movement and blame the right persons for lack of initiative and support.

NEW SEGREGATIONS.

—Senator F. F. Patterson, H. L. Hollister of Chicago, and several others, have purchased about 200 acres of desert land from the Northern Pacific Railroad Company and will irrigate it. The land lies near New Lake and the purchase price was $10,000.

the land was granted June 1st and the work is being pushed with the prospect of an opening late this fall. The price of water rights is placed at $65 per acre, with a maintenance fee not to exceed 5c per acre.
T. R. Jones, John A. Early and associates have filed an application for the reclamation of a large body of land in Blumington county. ### NOTED MOTOR CYCLIST HERE.

Stops in Twin Falls On His 14,000-Mile Tour of the Country.

C. McNeeloh, known in the racing world as "The Flying Devil," passed through Twin Falls last Thursday on his specially equipped motorcycle power Auto Cycle Excelsior. McNeeloh is one of the great racers representing different clubs throughout the country and left Atlanta, Ga., July 25th. He is three days and a half ahead of his schedule and nearly 2,000 miles in advance of the other riders. Leaving Atlanta he followed the coast line, passing through Savannah, Charleston, Columbia, Raleigh, Norfolk, Newport News, Washington, D. C., Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York, Albany, Cleveland, Chicago, St. Louis, Omaha, Minneapolis, Kansas City, Lincoln, Cheyenne, Lincoln, Colo., Pueblo, through the Royal Gorge, Salt Lake, Golden, Tinsburg, Elko, Odeon, Payette, to Twin Falls. From here he goes to Boise, Portland, Spokane, Seattle, Sacramento, Bakersfield, Los Angeles and ends at San Francisco. He must make 14,000 miles within a given time.

Mr. McNeeloh relates some thrilling experiences, having raced with the 20th Century Limited until his engine was red hot and it was necessary for him to stop. However, he zipped 40 miles within a hour, having made 86 miles that day. Seventy-six miles was his lowest daily record. Thirty-seven punctures in 7 miles between Tinsburg and Golden, Mo., caused by gravel getting inside his tire.

Coming through Wyoming in a heavy rain, Mr. McNeeloh built a fire and a bear with two cubs came up to him and after playing with the cubs for a while he and the bears laid down a sleep. "He was scared at first but afterwards learned that the bears were tame ones belonging to a rancher near there, who was burned out. One other night he was kept awake by a mountain lion and lost for three days at another time during which time he had hardly nothing at all to eat.

Mr. McNeeloh states that prices here in Twin Falls are not as high as in some places through which he has passed. At one place in Wyoming he was obliged to pay $2.00 for two slices of bacon and two dry biscuits.

NEW POOL HALL.

Roy Borgard Opens Finely Furnished Establishment.

The Tanager, in the name of a finely equipped pool and billiard hall opens up this week in the basement of the new Twin Falls Bank and Trust Co. building.

The new hall is splendidly furnished in the mission style, and contains six pool and two billiard tables.

Roy Borgard, the proprietor, is an old Alaskan miner, owns considerable property in and around Twin Falls, as well as at Gardiner. Mr. Borgard named his new business enterprise, the Tanager, after Tanager, Alaska, to which he went in the early days of the Alaskan gold rush.

THE INTER-MOUNTAIN FAIR.

Flight of Modern Aeroplanes, Due of Principal Attractions.

Boise, Idaho, Sept. 26, 1910. The coming Inter-Mountain fair will be an education, as well as a place of amusement and excitement, and the choice products of the farm, orchard, and mine, together with the splendid array of fine stock, will prove a valuable object lesson for those interested in these industries.

With all the attractive fairs that Idaho has had in past years, the exposition to be held at Boise from Oct. 10th to the 15th, promises to be pre-eminent.

No races have ever been witnessed in Idaho equal to those that will be pulled off on the Inter-Mountain fair grounds next month. Some of the fastest horses in America have been entered for the large purse offered.

The universal exhibit, under the management of C. A. Renacker, secretary of the Idaho Mining Men's Association, will be attractive, and will contain many new features. There will be a beautiful exhibit of gold dust along with the display of rich and beautiful ore from the various camps in Idaho.

The live stock department will be one of the leading features of the fair and no effort will be spared in making this department comparable to anything yet attempted in the northwest for the exploitation of well bred domestic stock.

The educational department will have a prominent place, and every school and college in Idaho will have free space on which to exhibit the best and most representative work of the pupils. The great educational exhibit from the State University will occupy a space covering 500 square feet in the exhibition hall.

In the line of attractions the greatest will be the flight of the modern aeroplanes every day during the fair.

This will bring many thousands of people to the fair from Idaho, and surrounding states.

HAVE GOOD FAIR.

Booth Fair and Exposition Attracts Attention.

Although only intended as a display for the purpose of assembling and exhibiting to the people of Idaho, the products of the Idaho country, destined for the Twin Falls fair, the booth fair and exposition, was truly wonderful in the quality and appearance of the exhibits. A number of Twin Falls people were in attendance on both days and without a single exception, they all commented most favorably upon the fair management, and declared that for a collective exhibit it was the best ever shown on the Twin Falls tract.

BOOST FOR THE BIG PARADE.

Plans On Foot for Permanent Fair Association.

It is expected that everybody participating in the industrial parade today, can only be made a success and a winner by cooperation, and as it is our own parade illustrating and indicative of the progress made since the beginning, in 1904, carrying out the idea "From Sage-brush to Civilization," let us all fall in line. The school children from the whole county are expected to march in line, and all school children first to eighth grades inclusive, will be admitted to the fair grounds free, on Thursday only.

During the fair week, the people of Twin Falls country will be given an opportunity to express their wishes in regard to a permanent fair association. The subscription book will be placed at the secretary's office. The first consideration in determining whether or not a permanent fair association can be perfected, is the finance. A considerable amount will have to be raised, and if the people wish it, they will indicate that wish by subscribing liberally. The Twin Falls people fully realize that the most important thing in this line is not securing suitable grounds for the purpose two years ago. At that time the grounds could have been purchased at less than half their present value. Let us not repeat that blunder. This may be your last chance, as a annual fair is a quarterly one should be perpetuated, especially in this new and growing country, where such rapid progress is being made every year.

LARGEST SAFE IN STATE.

Local Jender Installs Five-Ton Carey Safe.

Probie, the Jeweler, on Tuesday placed the largest safe in the state and one which ranks with the best put out by the Carey people of New York, famous safe building. The actual placing of the safe attracted a large crowd as it was no little task to move it.

The safe weighs 10,000 pounds and is about six feet high. It was by a very close margin that it cleared the door in the bank & Trust building. The safe is fire-proof, while the inside doors are of light layers of steel. The safe was shipped from New York in a tug by low water and required two days to move and place it.

Now that it is in Mr. Probie feels that he has absolute security for his safe. It will require burglars to spend one and one-half hours with electricity and a sledge to open it. In conclusion, Probie has not only taken care of his present wants but has foreseen the future.

ROOSEVELT WINS CONTEST.

"Old Guard" Buys to Ex-President—He Names Committee.

Saratoga, Sept. 27.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt rode on the top wave of victory today, defeating James S. Sherman for temporary chairman of the Republican state convention and leaving over the old guard in the first engagement of a probable series of contests.

Colonel Roosevelt was in his element. After he had named the three important committees and the convention had adjourned to meet tomorrow the colonel turned to the newspaper men and remarked: "I said 'frazzle,' you may recall. You may quote me on that."

At True yesterday, the former president said he would hunt his opponent to a frazzle.

There were 1011 votes cast in the convention of which Colonel Roosevelt received 568 and Vice President Sherman received 443, giving the leader of the progressives a majority of 125. Colonel Roosevelt did not vote.

When it came to the vice president, Mr. Sherman voted for "Mr. John Doe," and two of the New York delegates did not vote.

Names did not respond when their names were called. The vote was officially announced at the convention gave Roosevelt 567 and Sherman 443, but an error in the count was discovered tonight.

All in all, the rooms are exceptionally desirable ones and an inspection of the plans shows that neither time nor expense has been spared to accomplish this.

Mr. E. R. London of Denver, as manager of the New Weaver House, corner Main and 2nd Street, has engaged this place on Monday and is now endeavoring to the people wants.

The Weaver House is first-class in every respect. Everything is new in a new building. There are 23 rooms, exclusive of bath rooms and office. Each room has running hot and cold water, and all rooms open into each other so that they can be made single or double. All rooms are outside rooms and are light and airy. The building has steam heat and electricity.

INCREASED INFUX OF SETTLERS.

Colonist Rates On Trans-continental Roads Responsible.

The flow of immigration into the northwest has received a new impetus this month through the inauguration by leading railroads of colonist rates from eastern points to the northwest. These rates have formerly been confined to a few months in the spring, when the westward travel of new settlers has always been heavy. People have the moving spirit in the spring season. Now the railroads have decided that west settlers will come west in the fall, when business is at its best, if they settle in cities they have the advantage of starting in when the return of activity comes after the summer lull. If they take up land or buy farms, they have the winter to prepare for the spring sowing, to erect necessary buildings, fences, etc. Reports of the first few days of the autumn colonist rates on the Northern Pacific indicate that the plan will be a success, and other roads will probably handle a good business. An unusually low rate of $25 from St. Paul and Alton to river points, $32 from Chicago and $32 from St. Louis has been made to attract new settlers.
