GETTING READY FOR THE FAIR

ENTRIES CONTINUE TO POUR IN FROM ALL SIDES.

No Concessions Will Be Granted Out of Difference to Local Merchants—W. C. T. U. to Furnish a Rest Room for the Ladies.

Everything is humming in fair circles. At the meeting of the Farmers' federation last Saturday James A. Waters was designated superintendent of construction. He will have charge of the building of the booths, stalls, coops, etc. Mr. Waters is a very busy man. He has arranged with the village trustees to have the brush and weeds cleared from the ground on which the booths and stalls will be erected.

The farmers are going after the premiums like ducks after June bugs, and all that is needed is good weather to make the fair a grand success.

The committees expect to have everything in shape for the reception of exhibitors prior to the opening date and exhibitors are urged to have their displays on hand not later than 10 a. m. of that day. It is desirable that residents of Twin Falls should have their exhibits in place on September 1. The response of the farmers to the calls for exhibits has been very gratifying to the fair officials but it should be borne in mind that a great number as well as a great variety of exhibits is desired.

In all probability no concessions will be granted by the fair, except to manufacturers of candies. This action was decided upon by the officers in justice to the local merchants who have contributed so liberally toward the success of the exhibition.

The W. C. T. U. will open a rest room for visiting ladies in the brick building next to the News office, which has been placed at their disposal by S. T. Hamilton free of charge. Superintendent Ramsey of the Waterworks Co. will furnish free water connection.

Superintendent T. J. Woods of the amusement department is preparing an elaborate bill of fare. He has arranged for a half-mile race, half-mile free for all trot, gentlemen's driving race, cowboy relay race, July Julius wrestling match, chariot race and a baseball tournament in which six clubs will take part.

Among the entries for the special prizes offered by the Land & Water Co. are:

BRICKYARD IN FULL SWING

Now Ready to Supply All Demands at Hansen.

HANSEN, Aug. 23.—A kiln of brick is being burnt this week and two more kilns of 200,000 bricks each will be started next week.

Miss Carrie Hansen and Miss Nina Burko of Rock Creek were the guests of Miss Nello Rauch last Tuesday.

Mrs. C. O. Morrell came from Twin Falls last Tuesday to spend a few days at her home northeast of here.

George L. Doughty is erecting a barn on his ranch east of here.

Mrs. Hewitt of Albion was a passenger to Rock Creek last Monday.

William Dawson of Twin Falls was a caller in Hansen last Monday.

Mrs. Nelson and children left last Thursday for Oregon, where they go to join Mr. Nelson.

Miss Gertrude Rauch visited at the McCallum home in Twin Falls last Thursday and Friday.

M. H. Nichols was a visitor in Twin Falls last Saturday.

W. V. Winham from Pullman, Wash., a brother-in-law of Mrs. C. O. Morrell of this place, was a visitor in this vicinity this week.

Miss Edith Keith left last Wednesday to accept a position as telephone operator for the Bell Co. in Twin Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Mechem moved to Twin Falls last week, where they expect to remain a few weeks before leaving for Canada.

Mr. Barker, representing the Haysburn Brick Co., was a caller in Hansen last week.

Rev. J. H. Schenck held services at the school house last Sunday afternoon.

E. L. Rauch, a rancher northeast of here, is building an addition to his house and also making numerous other improvements on his ranch.

Miss Edith Keith, a telephone operator at Twin Falls, spent last Tuesday and Wednesday visiting at her home near here.

J. R. Hinton and S. J. Babcock left last Saturday evening for Shoshone and returned last Wednesday, bringing several head of hogs and cattle home with them.

Among the recent visitors to Twin Falls were S. E. Nichols, N. Smith, B. G. Cowles, Chas. Hendricks, J. Y. Barnes, J. L. Barnes, W. P. Rauch, T. J. Rauch, Arthur Towne, Will Lytle and John Walton.

S. J. Babcock has purchased the Shoshone photograph gallery formerly owned by William Forbes and will open a gallery here in the future.

Babcock is an experienced photographer who thoroughly understands the art and the opening that will be here is assuring of success in that line.

A bloom of sorrow was cast over our community on learning of the death of one of our most esteemed citizens, Mr. J. D. Sherer, who died in Walla Walla, Wash., August 13.

The remains were taken to Lexington, Ohio, for interment. Scarcely a day has passed since Mr. Sherer left for the Walla Walla country, intending to remain there during the harvesting season. He had worked only a few days when he became ill.

A physician was summoned and after a careful diagnosis pronounced it one of the very strange diseases of which there are only a few cases on record.

His death was a surprise to everyone. He was taken to St. Mary's hospital where he died a few days later. Mr. Sherer was a graduate of Colorado College and had a bright future before him. He had taught two years in the graded school at Washuena, Wash. It seems sad to think that a young man, scarcely 25 years of age, with such bright hopes should be cut down, leaving his friends to mourn his departure. He had proved up on his 50 acres of land only one mile from Hansen.

SEWER QUESTION IS TO THE FORE

PUBLIC MEETING NEXT THURSDAY EVENING.

Details of Plan Will Be Laid Before Citizens—Commercial Club Votes $400 Towards Expenses of National Irrigation Congress in Boise.

Two important meetings of the Twin Falls Commercial club were held this week. At the first meeting on Monday evening the club, on request of John McMillan of Boise, voted $400 toward defraying the expenses of the National Irrigation congress in Boise.

It was pointed out that the congress would result in vast benefit for the state of Idaho and the Twin Falls tract in particular, as the delegates would be brought to Twin Falls on a special train to view the largest irrigation enterprise in the country. In this connection a financial statement was called for and it was found that the club treasury contained but $194.

Secretary C. M. Hill was absent from the city consequently nothing could be done until his return. A finance committee, consisting of M. Maxwell, T. J. Woods and O. E. Stalker, was appointed to investigate and report.

Mr. Barker, representing the Haysburn Brick Co., was a caller in Hansen last week.

Rev. J. H. Schenck held services at the school house last Sunday afternoon.

E. L. Rauch, a rancher northeast of here, is building an addition to his house and also making numerous other improvements on his ranch.

Miss Edith Keith, a telephone operator at Twin Falls, spent last Tuesday and Wednesday visiting at her home near here.

J. R. Hinton and S. J. Babcock left last Saturday evening for Shoshone and returned last Wednesday, bringing several head of hogs and cattle home with them.

Among the recent visitors to Twin Falls were S. E. Nichols, N. Smith, B. G. Cowles, Chas. Hendricks, J. Y. Barnes, J. L. Barnes, W. P. Rauch, T. J. Rauch, Arthur Towne, Will Lytle and John Walton.

S. J. Babcock has purchased the Shoshone photograph gallery formerly owned by William Forbes and will open a gallery here in the future.

Opening prayer, on schoolhouse step, by Rev. C. E. Evans, followed by raising of the flag and singing "Star Spangled Banner," led by Professor Potter.

Short address, in assembly hall, by Mayor S. T. Hamilton.

Duet, "Les Dames de Seville" (Schubert).

Pattee of the Pacific Monthly submitted an advertising proposition to the club at the Monday meeting which was taken under consideration until the meeting on Thursday evening.

The finance committee reported on Thursday night that owing to Secretary Hill's absence it could not render a statement. For this reason action on the advertising proposal was deferred.

The sewer question was brought up and discussed at length. Chairman Hamilton of the board of village trustees outlined the proposed plan and a committee consisting of George F. Sprague, M. J. Sweeney and H. Babcock was appointed to prepare data for submission at a mass meeting to be held in the Ring theater on Thursday evening, August 30.

Senator Dubois is coming. Dubois will open the political campaign in Twin Falls tomorrow (Saturday) evening, when he will deliver an address at the Ring theater. On Monday evening the senator will speak at Duhl and on Tuesday at Elletts. The local Democrats have arranged a reception in his honor and he will be shown many courtesies.

ZARLENGA HELD FOR HIS CRIME

MUST ANSWER FOR MURDER OF DIPOLITO.

Murderer Captured at Minidoka and is Now in Jail at Albion Awaiting Trial in District Court—Evidence at Preliminary Very Cloudy.

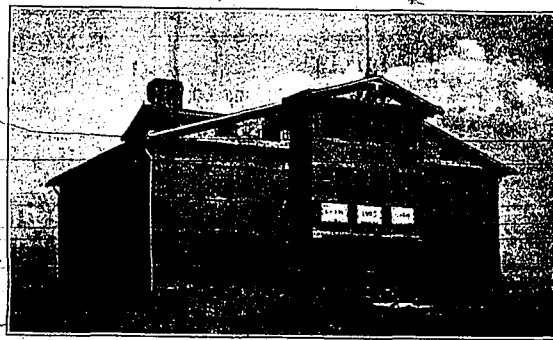

Rafael Zarlanga, alias Joe Patro, who shot and killed Joseph Dipolito in Twin Falls on the night of August 15, was captured at Minidoka last Saturday and brought back to this city by Marshal Dyer. He was arraigned before Justice Smith on Wednesday afternoon and held without bail to answer the charge of murder. Zarlanga was apprehended through the medium of the photograph, which Marshal Dyer had sent to all police officers in this vicinity. He had a hard journey from Twin Falls to Minidoka, walking most of the way and obtaining food as best he could.

County Attorney Derbyshire conducted the prosecution at the preliminary, W. P. Guthrie appearing for the defense. The evidence was very confusing. It would appear that Dipolito had first attempted to kill Zarlanga, shooting at him several times with a revolver. The circumstances connected with the first shooting were not clearly detailed, the Italian witnesses proving very stubborn on the stand. Nor did the cause of the quarrel become apparent. The Italians were evidently much befuddled by liquor on the day of the crime and none of them could give a coherent account of the tragedy. Both Zarlanga and Dipolito were bloodthirsty, from all accounts, and it was a case of who got the drop. Dipolito was armed when he entered the door of the bunk house where he met his death and Zarlanga was prepared for him with a shotgun. About all the evidence showed was that Dipolito had been killed and that Zarlanga did the killing. Whether or not the homicide was justifiable remains to be seen. No evidence was submitted by the defense and Justice Smith had no alternative but to bind the defendant over to answer for murder.

Samuel Ewell, conductor of a southbound freight train on the Oregon Short Line, was killed at Barrett siding, nine miles south of Dillon, last Saturday morning by a collision which partly wrecked the freight train. A switch had been left open and the southbound passenger train from Butte ran into the embankment. Engineer John Fuez, who jumped from the passenger engine with his freeman, after shutting off steam, was struck on his head and rendered unconscious. No passengers were injured.

STAGE TO CONTACT

C. E. Van Matre will run a stage to the Contact, Nevada, copper camp from Twin Falls every Tuesday afternoon for one month as an experiment. The first stage will leave the News office next Tuesday after the arrival of the passenger train. The passengers will stop at the Point ranch, 45 miles southwest of Twin Falls, on Tuesday night, proceeding to Contact, 40 miles southwest, on Wednesday. The News has guaranteed Mr. Van Matre $7.50 per week to make the experiment for 30 days. Those who wish information regarding the stage or wishing to reserve seats may apply at the News office. Contact is one of the most promising camps in the West and Twin Falls is its local railway point.

BICKEL SCHOOL, TWIN FALLS.

The formal opening of the Bickel school, named in honor of Paul S. A. Bickel, the first chief engineer of the Twin Falls Land & Water Co. and the first chairman of the Twin Falls board of village trustees, will take place this afternoon. The exercises will consist of a program in the afternoon in which the children will take part and a concert and reception in the evening.

Owing to the unavoidable absence of Hon. W. B. Borch, who was to have delivered the address at the evening entertainment, it has been decided to call upon a number of prominent citizens who will speak briefly upon the school question and its bearing on the growth of the Twin Falls tract.

Great care has been exercised in the preparation of the program, which is altogether creditable and will prove very enjoyable. It is as follows:

EDITORS TO MEET IN TWIN FALLS

ON THE THIRD MONDAY IN NOVEMBER.

Eastern Idaho Press Club Growing Stronger—Important Questions Taken Up—Interesting Meeting at Soda Springs—Unanimity of Action.

The meeting of the Eastern Idaho Press club at Soda Springs on Monday of this week was the most interesting held since the organization was formed. The members of the club are getting better acquainted and their "reporter" sessions are productive of great good to the fraternity. Unanimity of purpose and action has stimulated interest in the organization and brought the members closer together. They have found that their aims are identical and they are zealously devising means for the realization of these aims.

By unanimous vote the members of the club decided to hold the November meeting in Twin Falls. They are very desirous of seeing and hearing a large attendance at the meeting is assured.

An important work undertaken by the club is that of codifying the publication laws of the state and securing the enactment of needed legislation tending to make these laws uniform. To that end the club has engaged one of the leading attorneys of Boise who will examine the existing statutes and submit a report at the November meeting of the club in Twin Falls.

The committee of three was appointed to confer with the railway officials in regard to advertising contracts, for most which will necessarily be changed when the new rate law becomes effective.

By unanimous vote the members of the club decided that hereafter laudatory write-ups of political candidates should be designated as advertising matter and charged for at regular advertising rates.

The citizens of Soda Springs extended a cordial welcome to the club members and their wives, a more extended story of which will appear in next week's issue, together with a description of the marvellous springs and their surroundings. The title of the program at the public session of the club was a poem by Mrs. Whitman of Soda Springs, which follows:

Not the ever snow-capped mountains,
Far to northward, far to westward,
Where the snowy shroud of winter
Lies long upon the valleys;
Where the northwind blows his cold breath,
Through the icy pines and cedars,
Lies a quiet little village,
Sleeping beneath its sunny cover;
Guarded by the mighty desert
That encircles it complete.
To the south stands bold Mt. Sherman,
To the north the fair Mt. Pisgah;
And beyond, by clouds enshrouded,
White with snow and black with pine trees
Cariboo, the miser monarch,
Guarded by hoarded golden treasure.
And the waters of Bear River
Wind their way along the valley
Through the beds of blackened lava
At the foot of rugged mountains.

You can trace it in the summer
By the strip of bending willows,
You can trace it in the winter
By the line of frost also in it.
And around about the village,
Rumbling from about the rocky hill sides,
Bubbling from the banks of streamlets,
Many springs of sparkling water,
Effervescent, red with iron,
Sparkling, bubbling, rushing, hollering,
Green, the thingy man or maiden.
All around are rocky caverns,
Lakes of sulphur, lakes of brimstone,
Caves and craters of volcanoes;
Springs as clear as dew from heaven,
Springs as black as night in hades;
Some that whistle like a steamboat,
Some that cure the rheumatism.

In this quiet little village
With its curious surroundings,
With its springs of mineral water,
With its caves and lakes and seeyers,
I love a man of many talents,
Who has done his duty ever,
Who has won our hearts in friendship,
Joe De Witt, the mighty booster,
Who sends the welcome Chieftrain
Every week upon its mission
To the homes of all the people—
To the northward and the southward,
To the eastward and the westward,
With the words of cheer and gladness,
With its ever mighty booming,
To our worthy friend and brother
We would show appreciation;
We would thank him for his labors
For the good he has accomplished.

And upon his invitation
Come the members of the Press Club,
Come the mighty pencil pushers,
From many towns about us,
From Twin Falls and Pocatello,
From Montpelier and Ochoco,
From Ellettsburg and Grange City,
And the Falls, just up the river—
Men of talent and of power,
Whose opinions sway the people,
For know ye the pen is mightier
Than the sword of many warriors.

Friends and brothers you are welcome,
Welcome to our little village,
Welcome to our day water,
And our hearts are glad within us
At the honor you have done us.
And the ladies of the Press Club,
With your words and smiles of kindness,
We rejoice much at your presence
In our quiet little village.
In many towns,
Even the raindrops from the heavens
Needs must come to bid you welcome;
And to all we say in our hearts,
All our thoughts go onward with you,
Gitchie, Manitou, the mighty,
Guide you in your journey homeward;
And may you always remember
That our hearts are warm toward you;
That a welcome ever waits you
In the town of Flazy Water.

All good citizens will buy tickets for the band concert on the 31st.

WORK OF COUNTY ASSESSORS

Interesting Statistics Gained From Their Reports.

Some interesting items are found in looking over the abstracts of assessments sent in to the board of equalization by the various county assessors. Many of the items listed of personal properties are not taken into account, such as watches, jewelry, money in banks, etc. Saw logs are taxable property, as also are vehicles, bicycles, musical instruments, etc.

In the report of assessments in Ada county 24,820 feet of lumber is assessed, but no money is accounted for. No money on hand is assessed; no watches nor jewelry are assessed; no vehicles, nor bicycles, nor musical instruments.

In Blaine county musical instruments to the value of $300 are assessed and vehicles and bicycles to the value of $12.50 are assessed.

The Boise county report includes assessments on money on hand to the amount of $28,950, musical instruments valued at $6775, vehicles amounting to $455.

According to the report submitted to the state board of equalization from Bligham county, that county has no saw logs, no lumber, no money, no musical instruments, but assessments are levied on $6200 worth of musical instruments and $21,867 worth of bicycles and other vehicles.

Blaine county is the only county in the state where sewing machines appear on the list of assessed property. According to the assessor's report for Blaine county, 12 sewing machines were discovered by him. That assessor also found the following taxable property in his rounds: $6080 worth of musical instruments, $21,600 worth of vehicles and bicycles, $2200 worth of saw logs. But he found no citizens wearing watches, and jewelry of other kinds was very scarce.

No lumber was assessed in Blaine county. The assessor for Boise county found a few saw logs and a little lumber, $2980 in assessable money on hand, $1500 worth of musical instruments, and vehicles valued at $126.66. He also assessed two hay stacks at $350. The Canyon county report of assessments includes money on hand to the amount of $29,750, musical instruments at $31,702, vehicles at $32,515, watches and jewelry at $1015. No saw logs and very little lumber in Cassia.

From Cassia county came a report of money on hand assessed at $95,555, musical instruments at $13,391 and vehicles at $2485. No jewelry is owned in Cassia county. There are no saw logs there. Lumber is an unknown luxury.

There are also sawmills in Custer county, but the assessor found no saw logs nor lumber to assess. He assessed money on hand at $4000, vehicles and bicycles at $17,548, and watches and jewelry at $270. The assessor for Custer county was the only assessor in the state who noticed any dogs on his rounds. He found two of these animals in his territory that he thought should be assessed and he made notes of them as worth $25 each. The Elmore county report of assessments includes money on hand to the amount of $162 worth of cars and $200 worth of grass seed worth assessing, but he found no money on hand in his county that was taxable, no saw logs nor lumber. Musical instruments there are assessed at $7705, vehicles at $4580 and jewelry at $1460.

There are no saw logs assessed this year in Fremont county notwithstanding that county boasts of 15 sawmills. There is no money on hand that is assessable. The people of Fremont county are not musically inclined; at least the assessor found no musical instruments to assess. The men of Fremont keep no personal record of the time of day, at least the assessor found no watches to assess, and the women evidently have no taste for jewelry. The assessor found vehicles and bicycles to the value of $200.

In Idaho county, however, the assessor for that county assessed money on hand to the amount of $2474, musical instruments to the tune of $5367, vehicles to the value of $13,631, and jewelry valued at $275. In this county there was an assessment made on grain sacks valued at $16,680, hay at $120 and water works at $14,000.

The auditor of Kootenai county sends in one of the most complete reports of any county in the state. His assessments of miscellaneous items are as follows: Saw logs, $110,000; lumber, $195,500; money on hand, $48,450; musical instruments, $9040; watches, $425; bicycles and vehicles, $15,615; $2,215; watches and jewelry, $705.

In Latah county only a few saw logs were assessed. But 22 sawmills were reported. Lumber valued at $4090 was assessed, as were also $3000 of money on hand, $4010 worth of musical instruments and $35,630 worth of vehicles. No watches or other jewelry.

Lincoln county is the only county in Idaho where corrwood and beech are assessed. In this county corrwood is assessed at $2100 and beech at $226. Lumber is assessed at $14,000 and vehicles at $13,197. There is no report on saw logs, nor money or jewelry.

Money on hand to the amount of $78,350 is assessed in Nez Perce county, as are also $12,334 worth of musical instruments and $20,458 worth of vehicles. No lumber, saw logs, grain or sawmills are assessed, and no jewelry assessment appears on the list.

No jewelry is reported from Oneida county, but money on hand to the amount of $2560, musical instruments to the value of $190 and vehicles valued at $2,215 are assessed.

Owyhee county report shows assessment on $1700 worth of quicksilver, and $250 worth of charcoal. No money is assessed. Musical instruments are assessed at $19,425, vehicles at $19,425 and burros at $490.

Shoshone county reports $10,000 worth of franchises assessed, money on hand to the amount of $2000, musical instruments at $1500, vehicles at $4540. No watches or other jewelry. Compressors in Shoshone county are assessed at $14,250 and other mining machinery at $158,211. The report shows assessments on tramways, power lines, etc., totaling $28,000.

The Washington county assessor, after diligent search about the 17 sawmills of the county, discovered a number of saw logs which he promptly assessed at $50. In that county money on hand to the amount of $22,353, musical instruments valued at $9000, vehicles valued at $7775 and jewelry valued at $75 are assessed this year. Boise Statesman.

WEALTH OF CASSIA COUNTY

Big Increase Over Last Year's Assessed Valuation.

The assessed valuation of Cassia county, as reported by the county recorder to the state auditor, amounts to $1,129,093. Last year the total was $756,457. When it is considered that much of the Twin Falls canal has during the year passed into private ownership and that part is not assessable, the company being assessed only $192,590 as against $1,935,269 last year, it will be seen that a substantial gain in wealth has been made during the past year. Where this gain has been will be shown by the following table:

1905.	1906.
Patented land	$507,115 $942,937
Improvements on same	210,615 220,887
Imp. unpatented land	527,315 46,141

The amount of patented land increased during the year from 95,071 to 135,391 acres and is assessed at an increase of $6.81 as against $5.33 last year.

VICTIMS OF PRACTICAL JOKE

Foot-Killer Has Plenty of Work on His Hands.
(Cleveland Plain Dealer.)

A practical joke.
This is the curious and time-honored description of a certain form of incident. Sometimes it means death.
Sometimes it means death.

The other day Frank Gagner, a Polish worker in a plaster factory at West New Brighton, Staten Island, awoke from sleep on the floor of the factory to meet a frightful fate.

Who he slept a joke. He had tied a rope to one of his legs. Some one—just who, it is for the police and courts to determine—threw the end of the rope over a shaft. Perhaps the shaft was not then in motion. If it was in motion perhaps it was thought to frighten the sleeper by simply pulling the other end.

But the strands of the rope caught in the wheels and Gagner was drawn into the air screaming with terror and then whirled and banged until he was dead. The body was thrown violently to the floor, leaving a leg and arm still fastened to the whirling shaft.

The practical joke was over.
The joker—or jokers—fell in horror.
Another name was added to the long list of victims to the practical joke.

In the record of daily events in public print appear as many names of those who die from the unintentional violence of the fool joker as by the hand of the man who has murder in his heart.

Firecracker Fun.
A few days ago George W. Loster, an aged man, died in the Kings county hospital because he had had the ill fortune to be the victim of a practical joke.

He was dozing on the porch of a hotel
when to scare him a lighted firecracker was placed under his chair. His leg was burned and death came from lockjaw.

The firecracker is a favorite instrument of destruction in the hands of the fool joker. By it he has slain and maimed many a man. Kirkpatrick was killed at Longmeadow, Md., by one of the usual Fourth of July jokes. He was carrying a giant firecracker under his arm, when a young man applied a match to it. Kirkpatrick's side was torn open and he died in agony.

In the case of Miss Wilhelmina Smalley, at Newmarket, N. Y., a firecracker was used as one of the means of the jokers to make themselves agreeable to a bride and bridegroom. It was thrown in Miss Smalley's hat, where it exploded and set the hat and the girl's hair on fire.
Prompt measures saved her life.

But of jokes with explosives, the most serious was at the south factory in Scranton, Pa. In that memorable case, five girls and one man were killed and many others dangerously wounded. The factory was almost totally destroyed.

It all came about from the idea of a girl at the lunch hour, that she could have some fun scaring her companions by exploding a squib in the stove.
There was the not unusual miscalculation. The squib confined in the stove, blew it to pieces and the flying sparks set off the store of powder in the room. The building seemed to heave up at the second explosion, and several girls ran into the street, their hair and dresses afire, screaming in agony.

"Really, it was only a joke," was the explanation of three men when they were arrested at Middletown, N. Y., for indicted for assault. They had tied Andrew Clark, a nervous boy, in a stall with a kicking mule. The boy had convulsions and in a few minutes before the doctors pronounced him out of danger of losing his life by the "joke."

"Ghost" Caused Runaway.
A white-robed figure appeared in the road in front of the carriage in which Frank Dally of Summit, Vt., was driving with a woman he had just made his wife. The "ghost" scared the horse, which ran away. When it was finally checked Dally suddenly threw up his arms over his head and fell limply across the dashboard. The joker only laughed at the tragic crash when Mrs. Dally drove into town with the dead body of her husband.

Peter Kuhn was frightened to death by a white-robed figure in the street at North City, Ill. His body was found in bed in the morning with a look of horror on his face. A nail driven in a shingle of the roof above the head of his bed held a tin can, to which a long string had been attached. The "practical" jokers, by rubbing this string with rosin, produced the sound. Kuhn was driven by the jokers to be a firm believer in ghosts.

Some young men of Crowley, La., thought it was a good joke to lock Susan Washington in the room with an empty coffin. The girl thought so, too, at first, but became terrified when hours passed and all was still. The jokers having left her to spend the entire night in the room. She died a few hours after being released.

Of course people ought not to die of laughter. Neither should they go crazy.
Either results from the natural cheerfulness of the joker.

W. B. Messer, a farmer, 65 years old, at Huntington, W. Va., is hopelessly lame as the result of a joke played on him by his grandchildren. At a family reunion six of his grandsons, ranging from 16 to 30 years of age, residing at a distance, planned, as a joke, that each should write the old man a letter the following week. Each was to express solicitude for his safety, since the jokers had dreamed that his grandfather had died.

The letters arrived one by one. On Monday came the first. Tuesday—the second. Wednesday—the third. The letters followed, all with the same dark foreboding. The matter preyed upon the old man's mind so heavily that by Saturday he lost his reason.
Driven to suicide.

Frank Dawley, a mechanic at East
Rochester, accidentally shot a neighbor in the thigh. The wound did not prove very serious, and Dawley was not arrested. Then the fool joker happened alone. He told Dawley the man he shot was dying, that he would be suddenly arrested. Dawley took the "joke" seriously, went to his room, got a revolver and told his wife he meant to kill himself. She took the weapon from him, but he found it again and fired it into his head.

A joker of the lying type told James H. Lacy of Wilmington, Del., that his brother had died at sea. Lacy became seized with hysterical convulsions, which resulted in his losing control of his room organs. He had come to town to meet his brother, but fell into the clutches of the fool-joker, who represented himself as the first mate on his brother's ship that had just put into port. The shock so dazed Lacy that he fell into spasms of weeping, and later lost his power of speech.

A practical joker nearly killed William J. Jones of Boston, by one of the best known methods. Jones was with a fishing party at Avenue-by-the-Sea, when one of his companions drew a chair out from under him as he was about to sit down. Jones fell violently. He was taken to the Far Rockaway hospital in convulsions, suffering from injury to the spine.

James Lofton of Woonahaven, a member of the Mercury Athletic club, lost his life by this same joke. A member of the club shifted his chair when he attempted to sit down. He died from spinal meningitis due to the injury he received in the fall.

The loaded cigarette is one of the old favorites of the practical joker. It cost Edward Woltschreiber of Williamsburg the thumb and two fingers of his left hand and sent him to St.
Catherine's hospital suffering from these and other wounds. A friend
"fond of fun" had placed a cartridge
in his cigarette.

Case of Hydrophobia.
"Are you ready to be jacked?" the joker friends of John McDonald, a silk operator at Paterson, called after him, following a tussle he had with a dog supposed to be mad, in which he was severely bitten. The jokers also barked when he came near. Only McDonald and his aged mother knew the terrors of the bantering, and his horrible convulsions began. From that day on from day to day that in the end these jokes would come true. McDonald died two months after he was bitten in violent paroxysms of hydrophobia at St.
Joseph's hospital.

Once in a while the practical joker pays with his own life for the fun of trying to scare some one else into it.
Mrs. W. S. Lane at Covington, Ky., saw some one stealthily moving about her room when she was awake at night. Forgetting that she was alone, she attacked, she seized a shotgun that was hanging near her bed and shot the intruder. She then found she had killed her son, who was dressed in a hallway in disguise and had thought to give his mother a scare.

A jury in Philadelphia last month found Harry Norris guilty of murder in the second degree. Norris was a practical joker. It was as a joke, he now avers, that he "confessed" to the murder of Clara McConnell, a young milliner. He says he made this "confession" to give his brother a shock.

The jury took it seriously, however,
and Norris is now serving himself.
Then there was Samuel Ayers, who arranged to "hold up" a friend in the dark cave at Pittsburg and to pretend robbery. Ayers and his companions were made and the play began. The only hitch in the joke was that the friend who was being robbed drew a revolver and shot Ayers dead.
An innate cruelty is at the bottom of many of the performances of the practical joker. Whether cruel or only thoughtless, the fool-joker is a dangerous type, as this distressing record may serve to show.

HARVESTING THE CANTELOUPE

Great Care Should Be Exercised in Picking Melons.

The continual thought, care and labor bestowed upon the growing of a cantaloupe crop will not avail much unless the same thorough methods are maintained throughout the harvesting and marketing of it. The canteloupe must remain on the vine until it is fully developed or we sacrifice that characteristic lusciousness so expected in maintaining the flavor and as soon as picked all haste possible must be made in placing it before the consumer or it will become overripe.

In picking canteloupes an experienced eye is almost an essential and consequently good hands must be employed.
For shipping purposes, either locally or at long distances, none should be picked as soon as the stems can be peeled out by using a moderate amount of force. By peeling out we do not mean broken out, but a natural peeling out which leaves a juicy excretion around the hole. A canteloupe has not attained its full amount of flavor until the stem withers and in other words, it is not at its best. As soon as picked the melons should be buried into a refrigerator car or if shipping in a local way and not long distance, to destination as soon as possible.
A field should be picked at least once every day and in hot weather twice during the 24 hours. This frequent picking not only saves actual loss of over-ripe fruit, but what is a more important consideration, it secures a better and condition of the melons shipped and a more uniform article which a dealer can depend upon as being the same from day to day and insures against the loss in handling. Denver, Field and Farm.

Six Months, in Advance, .50

Reliable information regarding the city and country generally and especially the news of the Twin Falls region is published in this paper. The news of the Twin Falls region is published in this paper. The news of the Twin Falls region is published in this paper.

C. D. Thomas, local representative of the state land board, asserts that he is being unjustly attacked by the News for political reasons, but he is careful not to offer any defense. In other words he has been caught with the goods and he has no defense. He alleges that he is justified in charging every entryman who makes final proof $2 for notary fees, because the law requires that the evidence shall be sworn to before a notary. Is he the sole interpreter of the law? Supposing his contention is right, how does it come that his clerk, Miss Kierstead, who is not a notary public, administered the oaths and took the evidence in final proofs during his absence? How can he explain that? If he is to receive fees how can he draw a salary for doing the same work? For taking evidence in final proofs alone Mr. Thomas has received approximately $2000 during the past year. He has exacted 50 cents from every entryman who filed upon land. What excuse has he to offer for that? Where is the authority for the charge? What does he receive $1800 a year for? For drawing his breath and playing penny whistle politics? When the state land board granted leave of absence for six months to settlers west of Rock creek was Mr. Thomas authorized to collect $1 from each settler for granting leave? If so, did he turn these fees into the board? Was he authorized to charge more than $10 in contest cases? If not, why did he do so? Was he authorized to act as attorney for contestants? If not, why did he appear for W. D. Garlock in the Doughty case? In connection with the Doughty case, how does it happen that the description was wrong and why did Thomas advertise it, setting another date without advising Doughty or his witnesses, none of whom appeared the second time? The News would like very much to have Mr. Thomas "come back." There is no lack of ammunition on this side. The half has not been told. Nobody knows that as well as Mr. Thomas. This state land board has his case under consideration and when the investigation is complete Mr. Thomas will have some awkward explanations to make. Not to the entrymen whose money he has taken so freely for the use of his notary seal, but to Frank R. Gooding, governor of Idaho and president of the state land board, who will see that the Twin Falls settlers get a square deal. It is time for house cleaning.

CURRENT WORLD.

Heavy rains fell in all parts of Idaho and Utah early in the week.

Michael F. Dwyer, once one of the most noted turfmen in America, died of paralysis at his home in Brooklyn last Saturday.

Lewis Morrison, the well known actor, whose work as Mephisto in "Faust" made him famous, died in New York last Saturday. His wife, Florence Roberts, was at his bedside when the end came. Morrison was 61 years of age.

An earthquake of extreme severity was experienced on the Chilean and Peruvian coasts on Thursday, August 16. Estimates of the number killed vary from 3000 to 5000 and the property loss is approximated at $250,000,000. The cities of Santiago and Valparaiso suffered greatly, the latter being practically destroyed. Several of the smaller towns in the vicinity of Valparaiso were literally wiped out of existence. Railway service is demoralized and the country is under martial law. Tremendous fires followed the earthquake and did enormous damage. Thousands are destitute and famine prevails. The historic island of Juan Fernandez, made famous by Daniel Defoe in "Robinson Crusoe," has disappeared.

The Great Northern, Northern Pacific and Soo lines have filed with the Minnesota state grain and warehouse commission notice of a 10 per cent reduction in grain rates. The three roads named made a proportionate reduction to the railroad and warehouse commission offering to reduce grain rates 10 per cent if the commission would suspend hearing on rate reduction. The commission, owing to opposition, declined to accept the proposition and later, on suggestion of Governor Johnson, gave notice of an inquiry into the grain rates. The three roads then voluntarily filed their notice of a reduction. It is estimated that the lower rate will mean a saving of from one million to one and a half dollars on this year's crop.

W. C. T. U. WORK IN CASSIA

Organization Perfected Under Very Promising Circumstances.

The meeting of the Twin Falls Women's Christian Temperance Union held on last Tuesday, completed the local organization, which starts out under very promising circumstances. Ten departments of work were selected as being best adapted to the needs of the society at this place, with able superintendents for each. Vice presidents were chosen from the different churches. Educational features of the work will be emphasized. The Christian citizenship department will give the ladies an opportunity to study the needs of the state and cast an intelligent ballot. A silver medal contest

THE LATE FRANCES E. WILLARD.

A class has been formed which will give a public entertainment in the near future. A vast room will be provided during the coming fall. The W. C. T. U. had its inception in the decade following the close of the civil war, which was one of drunkenness and debauch. The revenue paid by the liquor dealers into the United States treasury proved a guise of respectability to the business which it was not previously enjoyed. The south land devastated, the north more or less demoralized and our soldier boys returning from the war bound by the chains of appetite for strong drink brought about a crisis in temperance reform. It was at a time like this that God spoke to the women and they responded in the movement known as the "Woman's Crusade" which started at Hillsboro, Ohio, in 1873.

Bands of timid women marched into saloons, praying for the salvation of women and the drink seller. It was though this movement was only of about two months' duration, the saloons were driven from 250 towns and villages. The failure to keep out permanently the saloons they had banished emphasized the need of an organization more compact and effective. Hence under the leadership of the late Frances E. Willard the Woman's Christian Temperance Union was brought into power in 1874. This organization has been justly termed "Organized Mother's Love," the object of which was the prohibition of the home and the downfall of the saloon. While this is still the central thought of which emanates in 38 different lines of work, yet the W. C. T. U. has come to have a grasp upon every phase of life—social, political, religious, industrial and educational—because experience has taught that upon all these the liquor traffic has its direct effect. The W. C. T. U. is the largest organization composed exclusively of women in the world. They are organized in every state in the Union, including the District of Columbia and Hawaii, numbering nearly 200,000 members. There are also eight separate unions for colored people. The organization extends over 50 different nations with a total membership of about a half a million.

TO STORE THE SNAKE WATERS

Government to Build Reservoir at Jackson Lake.

The secretary of the interior has withdrawn from entry 2,000 acres of land in Wyoming which surrounds Jackson lake. This lake is to be used as a storage reservoir in connection with the Mindokot irrigation project in Idaho.

Authority has been granted by the secretary of the interior for the construction of a temporary dam at the outlet of Jackson lake, Wyoming, by the reclamation service. The work owing to the special emergency which exists, will be done by force account and will be rushed to completion as rapidly as possible.

The structure required will be of logs, hewn from the national forests, and will be from 10 to 15 feet in height. Jackson lake is one of the finest natural reservoirs in the world, and the cost of storage is probably as cheap as can be found anywhere in the country. This will be the first attempt to utilize the enormous flood discharge of the Snake river. The initiation of storage works by the government at the headwaters marks another important step in the development of this section of Idaho.

While the first storage is for the lands under the commitment project at Mindokot, the capacity of the reservoir and the water supply will suffice to cover other areas and with a larger structure such as the engineers are planning for the future, a large quantity of the flood waters can be supplied to other areas and to other canals. It is probable in the very near future that steps will be taken by all the private canal owners to adjudicate their water rights and arrange for the purchase from the government of the additional water required to "cover areas now unirrigated."

The cost of the temporary structure is estimated at $20,000, and it can probably be completed within 60 days from the beginning of the work.

To Republicans:

We are anxious to have every Republican in close touch and working in harmony with the Republican National congressional committee in favor of the election of a Republican congress. The congressional campaign must be based on the administrative and legislative record of the party, and, that being so, Theodore Roosevelt's personality must be a central figure and his achievements a central thought in the campaign. We desire to maintain the work of this campaign with popular subscriptions of one dollar each from Republicans. To each subscriber we will send the Republican National campaign text book and all documents issued by the committee.

Help us achieve a great victory. JAMES S. SHERMAN, Chairman. P. O. Box 2063, New York.

Howells of Oakley was in Twin Falls on Wednesday to secure the release on bail of Bert Butler, who was held over to the district court by Justice Smith on July 2 to answer a charge of grand larceny. A valuable sewing machine was smashed and the wagon was put out of commission.

Mrs. Mary Ann Roeberry, mother of Mrs. Niles of Hagerman and Mrs. A. L. of Rock Creek, died at the home of the former last Saturday evening. The body was embalmed by Undertaker H. E. Hunt of Twin Falls, who made slight drive to Hagerman for the purpose and was shipped to the funeral of the deceased in Tooele, Utah. Mr. and Mrs. Atkins accompanied the remains. Mrs. Roeberry was one of the best known and most highly respected of the pioneers. Although more than 70 years of age she did not have a gray hair in her head and her lovely position endeared her to all.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Gult have arrived from Portland and are home on Mr. Gult's farm near Elgin. Mr. Gult is of the Honeymooners of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Holohan and was unable to secure a carpenter to build a house and was consequently when he met "Dad" Galt and was not feeling well enough to undertake the job but he volunteered to prepare the lumber, put in the windows, etc. in such a way that Mr. Galt could do the rest. Mr. Galt purchased Blin's book on summer houses and at last accounts he finished on 7 o'clock. He is now working on a window nail. He has any intention of applying to the printers union for a card after he has up.

Shortly after closing time last Saturday night VIII Perrine was called to the back door of the Perrine & Burdette by a stranger who had knocked at the door. Mr. Perrine was alone at the time and had just put away the keys. As he opened the door the stranger struck him over the head with a piece of metal. Mr. Perrine was dazed for a moment but he grasped the stranger and a fierce fight followed. Realizing that he was up against a hard case, Mr. Perrine called for assistance. He was more than holding his own with his assailant when the latter broke through the door and fled. Mr. Perrine was unable to furnish a good description of the would-be robber. He is a white man, about 30 years of age, of medium build, with light hair and a mustache.

The realty market has been unusually active of late. Brunk & Evans report the sale of the office now occupied by C. D. Thomas to T. C. Macaulay, who will fit it up as a clearing company of an infant which he will sell as fast as he can in the Twin Falls sunlight. This field yielded approximately five tons of alfalfa to the acre for the first crop and Mr. Erickson sold the crop before it was cut for $50 per acre. June Wilde of Seattle, Wash., was in the city yesterday and today looking over the ground with the view of building a roller mill in Twin Falls. Mr. Wilde and his associates have recently arranged to erect a big mill in Garland, Utah. They heard of Twin Falls and decided to investigate. Mr. Wilde stated that he found the outlook here very encouraging. Much he said, would depend upon electric power. If conditions warrant, it is not improbable that they will build a large mill here in time to handle next year's crop. The Twin Falls tract impressed Mr. Wilde very favorably.

BUHL WILL BE REPRESENTED

Two Delegates Named for Boise Irrigation Congress.

BUHL, August 22.—It was cool and raining yesterday.

J. H. Scholmer made a business trip to Twin Falls on Friday.

The Buhl Union Sunday school served ice cream and cake on Friday evening. The proceeds are to go towards the purchase of an organ.

John Hinchey says he don't care how hot it gets now since he put his nobby sunshade over his last freight wagon.

George H. Everich, A. J. Milner and Dan Bark finished up their degree work in the I. O. O. F. and took the third degree.

Mrs. Emil Braun was taken suddenly sick last week and was taken to Twin Falls for treatment. She is reported to be better.

J. Dixon, travelling salesman for the Diamond Furture Co. of Salt Lake, spent several days of last week in town on business for his company.

A subscription is being taken for the building of a school house, and also for the building of a jail. The townspeople have donated the use of a lot on Broadway for the school house.

E. N. Ingram of Hagerman was a visitor to Buhl on Thursday.

Simon Tribly of Frankaville, Iowa, is in town for the purpose of looking over the country with a view to locating.

Mrs. Louisa Mager and two daughters and Mrs. F. W. Elchhoff and daughter left Friday for Colorado. The Misses Mager will enter the Normal school at Greeley, Colorado, and Mesdames Mager and Elchhoff will visit with Mrs. Elchhoff's parents at Sidney, Colorado, for a couple of months and will then return to Buhl.

A. B. Hill and H. Hill of Phelps City, Mo., are guests of Hotel Buhl. They are on a tour of inspection and seem to like this country pretty well.

John Grant returned from Twin Falls Saturday.

T. B. Morgan of Salt Lake registered at the hotel on Sunday.

M. A. Ghometz of Stanley, Mo., arrived in town Saturday and is looking over the situation.

E. Jacob of Twin Falls took a run down to see us Sunday.

Camp No. 122, I. O. O. F., meets every Saturday evening at 8:30. They specially invite all wandering brothers to visit with them.

H. L. Hollister of Chicago arrived in town Saturday. He is very favorably impressed with the country and predicts a great future for the Twin Falls tract, and especially for this end of it.

John D. O'Leary of Pontiac is spending some time here and is taking a critical view of the tract.

Dr. G. E. Harper and Dr. Geo. R. Hersey of New York are visitors in Buhl. They are on a vacation and are enjoying themselves.

Work is progressing rapidly on the dam being erected to make the lake in the city park. It is nearly completed and another heavy spot added to the townsite.

The corn on the experimental farm is over seven feet tall and the ears are developing in fine shape. The sugar cane is ready for the factory and the wheat is ripe. Dan Bark, the foreman, said today that there was a time when the Irish claimed the ranch because of the color it had, but that they have no such grounds any longer on which to base their claims for the ranch has as many colors as the rainbow now.

Superintendent McPherson discussed the subject of "How late in the fall should the ground be irrigated?"

He said that the time when irrigation should cease depends on circumstances. Some crops, such as trees, should be irrigated late in the fall so as to give them sufficient moisture to live on during the winter. This is also true of alfalfa and other permanent crops, but care must be taken not to wet the ground too much late in the fall and kill the crops. He advised the draining off of all water from low places and thereby prevent ice drifting and killing grasses of any kind. He said that the ground that was irrigated late in the fall made the best crops, and such an irrigation usually saved at least one irrigation the next season. He gave it as his opinion that water could be run on the land as late as Christmas without doing any harm. Dan Bark and J. H. Scholmer were given "credentials" as delegates from this association to the irrigation congress at Boise. Dr. Harper of New York was present at the meeting and upon request made a few complimentary remarks. He said that he was well pleased to find so much interest taken in scientific farming, and predicted that those who took such an interest would reap their reward in good crops and large profits. The school board had no report to make and the meeting adjourned.

KIMBERLY WILL HAVE STORAGE

New Grain Need Not Be Thrown on Market as Soon as Threshed.

KIMBERLY, Aug. 23.—The Farmers' Storage and Commission Co., Ltd., was organized last night and at a mass meeting of the farmers residing in the vicinity of Kimberly called for the purpose; a constitution and by-laws were adopted and a board of five directors elected. The board consists of the following gentlemen: Messrs. B. Wilkins, W. S. Starr, William Webster, Martin Sullivan and W. Van Houten. Work will begin on a large warehouse within a very short time. A warehouse will be a big convenience to the farmers as it saves the expense of building private granaries and enables them to hold their grain until they obtain more satisfactory prices than those prevailing immediately after harvest. Sixty-five farmers have purchased stock in the corporation and all the stock is subscribed for.

Horace Perkins entertained Friday afternoon, the occasion being his 12th birthday. Several of his young friends spent the hours from 5 to 8 very enjoyably playing outdoor games. A delicious dinner was served at 6. The guests included Leo Sullivan, Helen West, Lida and Bonah McLean, Bruce McMillan, Paul Hegg, Jennie and Horace Perkins.

Alex. Wilkins, Lonnie and Madison Fletcher, Mrs. Minnie Fisher and Mrs. Maud Perry of Provo spent Friday at Blue Lakes.

Rev. R. D. Osterhout preached his last sermon of the conference—year here last Sunday night. Mr. Osterhout has held services in Kimberly for over a year and has been untiring in the performance of his duties. His many scholarly abilities have won him innumerable friends in this community who join in wishing that he will be returned to this field for another year.

The crew, at work upon the depot under the supervision of Henry Brady have finished their work here and left Thursday morning for Heyburn, where they will start the depot there.

The work is completed except the painting and Agate Taylor will soon move his quarters from the box car that has done service for some months into the much more commodious and excellently more up-to-date depot. The gravel walk about the depot has added materially to its appearance. Mr. and Mrs. Brady during their two months' stay here have made many friends in this vicinity who sincerely regret their departure.

P. W. Hess returned Friday from a 19 day's visit to Portland, where he attended the Teachers' Institute then in session there.

A party of mining experts left here Friday for central Nevada to look over the district with the idea of investing. Elmer Cunningham drove the party over.

Leo Sullivan was the host Monday afternoon to a number of his friends who spent a very pleasant afternoon at his home south of Kimberly.

Miss Eva Buhl and P. W. Hess have just concluded the term of the beryl school the coming term. Both of the teachers have had several years experience and are thoroughly capable. Miss Buhl is highly recommended from Wisconsin, while Mr. Hess, has taught for the past two years in northern Idaho.

The bond election voted on some weeks ago has lost through over confidence. As the election was held during the very busiest season the majority of farmers failed to use their prerogative and the vote was defeated by one vote. The question will be voted upon again on Thursday, August 30, when it will undoubtedly carry if the farmers will turn out, and do their duty.

Mrs. Burrington has just received a numerous sized bank check from Mrs. Fred Gooding of Shoshone, to be added to the public park fund of Kimberly.

Mr. J. M. Johnson and Mrs. Robinson of Twin Falls were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Burrington last Sunday.

Notice is hereby given that all residents of Twin Falls are notified to keep their closets and cesspools with lime. Lime may be procured by the sack of Mr. Dittendarger at Twin Falls house.

C. W. DYER, City Marshal.

And all the beets turned red.
'Go 'way!' the onion, weeping, cried;
'Your love I cannot be—
The pumpkin is your lawful bride—
'You canteloup with me.'

But onward still the tuber came,
And lay down at last feet;
'You canteloup by any name
And it will swell as wheat;
And I, too, am an early rose;
So don't turn up your lovely nose,
But supinate with me.'

'I do not earrot all to wed,
So go, sir, if you please.'
The muscad onion meekly said,
'And lettuce, pray, have peas.
Go, think that you have never seen
Myself, or smelled my sigh;
Too long a maiden I have been
For favors in your eye.'

'Ah, spare a cucumber the tuber prayed,
My cherrished bride you be;
You are the only weeping maid.
'That's current now with me,
And as the wiley tuber spoke
He caught her by surprise,
And clung her in an ardent choke,
Devoured her with his eyes.
