CHICAGO BEING DEPOPULATED

Windy City Citizens Coming Here By the Score.

Chicago is fast becoming "dopopulated", writes S. H. Bolton, who will arrive in Twin Falls from the Windy City today with a party of 24 new citizens for the great inland empire in the Snake river valley. Spending westward also is the tireless McGowan with another party, of landscapers who will also reach Twin Falls today. It is estimated that as many as 1000 of his last party they are, all right, all right.

In Mr. Bolton's party are Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Bolton, William Bolton and Lyle Bolton, Mrs. D. S. Manny, Lillian, Clara, Margaret, Florence, Kenneth and Sheppard Manny, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Hickling, Ewart Hickling, Mrs. M. W. Denoyer, Aloah, Elina, Mr. King, Mrs. and Mrs. Stanley Wilson and son, D. T. Ferguson and Mr. Field.

Mr. Bolton has on the way a carload of rock and household articles and he will ship another car in a few days. He is bringing his automobile and chauffeur.

Entered as second-class matter, December 3, 1891, at the postoffice at Twin Falls, Idaho, under Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

"Dust thou art, to dust thou returnest" MAY not have been written of the soul, but the Twin Falls historian can write it with absolute fidelity to fact. The coming summer promises to be a repetition of that of three years ago when dirt was moving all the time, above and below the level of the ground. Last year April was a dream, this year it is a night mare. The man who erects a building is a public benefactor and is entitled to every consideration. He improves the city, adds to its wealth and population and deserves a full measure of encouragement. Not a straw should be laid in his way. If it is necessary that he should use the whole sidewalk, or the whole street, for a time, let him use it. Give him a whole block, if need be. See that no obstacles are placed in his path. Get the buildings. But it must be assumed that the man who builds in Twin Falls has the welfare of the city at heart; that he desires to encourage others to invest and build and thus enhance the value of his own property. To choke a stranger with dust is not the proper way to interest him. Hundreds of loads of dirt are being hauled from excavations within the city limits of Twin Falls every day and dumped promiscuously in all quarters. The dust lifts between the boards of the wagons and litters the streets, to be picked up by the wind and hurled in the faces of the long suffering public. It is heaped on the streets to be stirred by the wheels of passing vehicles and wafted into the homes of the citizens. With the hydrant system possessed by the city it would seem possible that something might be done to keep down the dust. Take the excavation for the Presbyterian church, for example. Every body in that vicinity and in the entire city welcomes the church, but they cannot be blamed for being reluctant to harbor all the dirt in their homes, because cleanliness is supposed to be next to godliness. Those who are building houses and excavating for cellars cannot be expected to eat the dirt they take from the excavations, but they should not expect their neighbors to eat it for them. The pile of dirt on the Presbyterian church site could be soaked with water at a small expense and it would not be a difficult or costly undertaking to use water around all the excavations. The workmen could perform their labor more comfortably and the public would be spared a great deal of annoyance. Nor should the promiscuous dumping of dry dirt in the streets to the discomfort of the neighborhood be tolerated. In some instances, it is reported, the streets so treated are already above grade. The prevailing wind is from the west and it brings great clouds of dust from the railroad. Possibly the Commercial club might induce the Short Line to oblige the right of way within the city limits and for a short distance east and west. This would help conditions materially. In the haste and bustle of building up a city at the rate Twin Falls is growing, it is inevitable that there should be many inconveniences and it is imperative that no unreasonable restrictions should be imposed upon those who are making the city; but much could be done to improve conditions without annoyance to the public or the individuals. No later than yesterday, four men who came here to invest and who spent three weeks looking over the country, left for their homes without making a purchase. "It is the grandest enterprise we have ever seen," said one of the gentlemen, "but we cannot stand the dust in Twin Falls where we would like to locate. We could stand it ourselves but I would not expect my wife to put up with it." It might be urged that people who cannot stand a little dust caused by building operations are too thin skinned to make desirable citizens, but the cold fact remains that the dust is a nuisance which might be materially abated.

BREVITIES

L. L. Sweet came down from Wallace on Sunday and returned home on Wednesday. He was very much pleased with the improvement during his absence.

P. J. Holohan left on Wednesday for Salt Lake City. He will be in the eastern and southern territory for the Dupont powder company before returning, which will take him about six weeks.

Miss Oida was given a surprise party at the home of her sister, Mrs. H. W. Clouche, last Saturday afternoon by a number of her friends. Miss Oida left the city on Monday for Oregon where she is to be married in the near future. The surprise was in the form of a linen shower and many beautiful presents were received.

It is reported from Wallace that Deacon O. D. Jones, who has a farm in the first North Side segregation, where he will be a regular preacher, will be in the city on Monday. He is said to be practicing daily with a grub hoe in his back yard and the record for manhandling eggbrush is likely to go by the board when the deacon gets busy.

The regular meeting of the Syringa club was held at the home of Mrs. Clouche Tuesday afternoon. The quotations given were from the writings of Helen Hunt Jackson. The president appointed Mesdames Nixon, Morrell and Seaver as a committee to make all arrangements for the public picnic which the club will hold at Shoshone falls on Memorial day. The school wagons will be engaged to carry people over to the falls for a small sum and on all day picnics will be allowed. The wagons will leave the city at 8 in the morning and return early in the evening. Basket lunches will be taken along and a general social time will be had. Tickets will be placed on sale for the picnic before long and there is no doubt but there will be big demand for them. Mrs. Seaver gave an informal talk on the public parks of Boston and New York. This was followed by a paper on "The Irrigation Projects in the West," written by Mrs. John E. Hayes, but on account of her absence it was read by Miss Gourley. The next meeting will also be held at Mrs. Clouche's.

One of the transfer company's teams ran away on Shoshone avenue Tuesday evening, causing some excitement. The driver had no trouble in obtaining right of way.

D. S. Miller arrived on Wednesday from the Grand valley with a party of 12 practical fruit men who were brought here by H. A. Stroud & Co.

At the Republican primaries on Monday James McMullin, W. P. Guthrie, John Peters, J. W. Salda, G. D. Alken, F. E. Chamberlain, E. M. Sweoley, C. H. Mull and F. L. Ball were elected to represent North Twin Falls precinct, and C. F. Glaystain, S. B. Camp, T. O. Boyd, C. H. Coe, W. H. Wanner, T. W. Potter, G. B. Fraser, Emanuel Peterson and F. A. Hutcher to represent South Twin Falls precinct at the Buhl convention on Saturday.

The Lincoln county commissioners have stopped the Lakes ferry for the reason that T. B. Perrine declines to make it a public ferry because that would mean a gift to the county of the Blue Lakes north grade for the construction of which the county has never paid a cent. Neither has Cassia county paid anything toward the construction of the south grade. Naturally Mr. Perrine objects to the appropriation of his private roads, hence the ferry will be used solely for his own convenience hereafter. It is generally believed in Twin Falls that the ferry was stopped in order to compel the North Side company to shingling its landsceekers in by way of Shoshone, which the company is averse to doing. The ferry license is trading, but the cost of the grades was considerable. Meanwhile traffic is moving over the abominable grades at Shoshone falls.

M. H. Pape, familiarly known by hundreds of Park City people as "fack", was in camp yesterday shaking hands with friends prior to his return to Twin Falls, Idaho, where he has made fame and wealth as a contractor and builder. Mr. Pape has been in Salt Lake the past two months, part of the time in the hospital undergoing an operation, and the remainder of the time superintending the construction of two $4000 cottages built by Hilda Swanson, a former Parkite who has got rich at Twin Falls, and located at Eight South and West Terrace. Mr. Swanson was well pleased with the good workmanship and speed with which the cottages were built that he remembered Mr. Pape with a spanking new suit of clothes bearing a significant price for his services. The Parkite man left last night for Twin Falls, where he has already sufficient work contracted to keep him busy all summer in that growing and prosperous town—Park City, Utah, Record (Such is fame. This refers to "Dad" Pape and Heber Sorenson).

The ladies of the Methodist church will serve a dinner April 27th in the sample room of the Twin Falls Transfer Co.

The Great Shoshone & Twin Falls Water Power Co. has commenced work on the power plant at the lower Salt Lake. W. W. Glass is in charge of construction.

Rev. Bowler of Shoshone is in the city this week assisting in the work of raising funds for the new Baptist church building which is being erected. Rev. Bowler is secretary of the mission board for this part of Idaho.

Mildred Conway entertained 27 of her little friends at a party last Saturday afternoon. Mildred was assisted by Mrs. Clara Smith and Mrs. Ethel Mankor. Estella Davis won first prize in the egg contest and Suzanne Taylor, second. A most delightful afternoon was spent and all voted their hostess a royal entertainer.

Margaret Conway gave an Easter party to 46 of her friends at her home last Thursday evening. Games were played and delicious refreshments were enjoyed. The egg throwing contest was won by Bruce McMullin. In the guessing game Norma Musgrave was first, Clara Smith and Estella Taylor second. The rooms were very prettily decorated with paper streamers, fancy eggs and Easter lilies.

This happened at the Golden Rule. A gentleman strolled up to one of the counters and informed the amiable lady in charge that he had been invited to buy a comforter. He looked so fatherly that the young lady, without hesitation, handed him a baby ring with suitable attachment, commonly known as a rattle. The gentleman blushed and said he did not think that contrivance would keep him very warm, whereupon the lady also blushed and said she had no more to offer. The meanderings of the English language are more perplexing than the meander line of the Snake river.

Lawrence Daugh, of Butte, whose farm is south of Ellier, has finished setting out five acres of wineapp and grape vines and has planted a peach orchard. He has 60 acres in wheat and 40 acres in oats this year. Mr. Daugh is putting in a cellar and cement foundation to build his permanent home. He has acquired a beautiful tan color and an abnormal appetite but his strong hold is in lining up fruit trees, at which he is most proficient. His name weighs 211 pounds when he came from Butte and he weighs 213 now, which shows what Twin Falls climate will do for a man who has been eating sulphur smokes for years.

P. H. Smith has a field of wheat which did not come up and stood until it was in order to determine what ailed the crop he dug up what he supposed was a seed. It was a ponderous affair, globular in form and bisected with tendons. So thrifty did the seed look that Mr. Smith concluded to keep it for exhibition. The wind happened to be blowing when he made his investigation and he did not detect any odor but after he had placed the seed in his pocket it became very illumbrous. Submitting his prize to the renowned biologist, Herr von Hahn, Mr. Smith discovered that he had inadvertently unearthed a robust wild onion.

The second part of the program announced by the Blackville Bolles, otherwise the Episcopal-Ladies' minstrel show, is plain reading and in the form of a reading of a manuscript. But the first part contains a number of strange names. Evidently the ladies are determined to conceal their identity. The town sleuth managed to get within hearing distance of a rehearsal but he had to laugh so heartily at the jokes that his presence was discovered and he was asked, "Why did that Plymouth road chicken run across the road?" The interlocutor was asked, "Because it heard a Leghorn and it thought a Twin Falls road chicken was coming." "Have you seen Dr. Lewers lately?" was the next query. "No," "He is looking down in the well," he ought to, he's a dentist." But that would be unfair to anticipate. The only thing to do is to buy a ticket and enjoy the mirth feast.

One of the most brilliant social events of the season will be the marriage of Miss Clara Elizabeth Filer, daughter of Mrs. Joseph Filer, East Hill, and Talbot Eugene Pierce of Syracuse, N. Y., which will take place at St. John's Episcopal church at 8 o'clock on the evening of Tuesday, May 6. Invitations for the affair were issued Wednesday. The maid of honor will be Miss Mary Pierce of Washington, D. C., a sister of the groom, and the best man will be Edw. C. Withers of Syracuse. The ushers will be Messrs. David Craig of Chicago, W. G. Kranz of Sharpville, Robert Walker of Salt Lake City, Charles F. Cleveland, George Colloid of Sharon and Dr. Williams Sowers of Chicago. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. Frank J. Hall, rector of St. John's. It will be followed by a reception at the Filer home. Plans for the honeymoon are not yet divulged, but cards enclosed in the invitation announce that they will be at home after the first of September at 619 Walnut avenue, Syracuse, N. Y. The wedding is of more than usual importance because of the social prominence and great personal popularity of the bride-to-be. She is a young woman of charming personality and is unquestionably one of the most popular young women in Sharon. Mr. Pierce is a member of an old southern family, a Princeton man, and holds an excellent position with the Somerset Trust Co. of Syracuse. He was formerly in charge of the Sharon plant of the company and during his residence here, made a great number of friends. His bride is a sister of Frank Filer of Twin Falls and Walter G. Filer of Salt Lake City.

There will be services in the new Episcopal church next Sunday morning at 11. The Rev. A. Chamberlain of Blackfoot will preach the sermon.

Rev. Frank E. Jones, state secretary of the Christian church, preached at the Christian church last Sunday morning. Rev. Jones also dedicated the new church bell which has recently been installed in the belfry of the building. The bell was purchased by the Mazonia society and presented to the church. In the evening the members of the Sunday school gave the pastor a cantata. "The Birthday of Hope" The children sang their parts very well and gave a splendid rendition of the story.

Blahop A. J. Glorieux, the head of the Catholic Church in Idaho, visited Twin Falls for the first time this week. He was delighted with the city, the tract and the people. "It is a wonderful transformation," said the bishop, "the most remarkable of the kind I ever saw. I saw Shoshone falls more than 20 years ago and I saw them again today. The change in the surroundings is such that I could scarcely credit my own eyes. You are doing a great work and you are doing it well."

E. H. Adams has sold lot 2 and the southeast quarter of the northeast quarter of section 3, township 16, range 17, 30 acres to S. H. Bolton for $150 per acre. Three years ago Mr. Adams bought the tract for $2000 which included the first payment of $240. This was considered a high bonus at the time, being the highest bid, and the original owner of the property was gratified in having made a good sale. Mr. Adams will take a rest before making another venture on the Twin Falls tract.

John C. Isbell, state agent for the Dorris automobiles, arrived on Monday from Idaho Falls. He left the Falls on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock and made a good run to American Falls. From there to Burley the roads were fierce, the car cases frequently dragging in the sand. Mr. Isbell encountered good roads from Burley to Twin Falls. He spent a day here, sightseeing. To try the Blue Lakes grades Mr. Isbell went on to the summit of mixed grade, which he ascended with ease. The Dorris attracted a good deal of attention because of the easy manner in which it moved and its silent operation.

FARMERS SHOULD FORM LATERAL ASSOCIATIONS.

Should Agree on How Water is to be Distributed and Should Appoint Watermasters for Each Lateral and Thus Avoid Friction.

As the time to begin irrigating is here it seems to me that the farmers should be giving some thought to the proper distribution of water on their farms. There are many who have not yet organized and who have not clubbed together and constructed laterals from the company's ditches or ditches of their own. It is a good understanding or organization with regard to the proper use of the water, there is liable to be considerable misunderstanding or trouble during the irrigating season.

Previous experience has shown that haphazard methods with regard to these matters have invariably resulted disastrously to all concerned. The first cause for trouble is that the ditches have not been properly cleaned or the measuring devices and divisions of water properly installed. In cases where there are small areas that are entitled to only a small amount of water, it is liable to be excessive later in applying it, are prone to appropriate water that belongs to other parties to their own use sometimes in the night.

In fact, the company has no jurisdiction over the water after it leaves its ditches and laterals, and the farmers must look after this themselves, and they cannot do that unless they have some sort of organization to which all of them are referred and who may have the sole right to measure out or care for the use of water, either in rotation or singly. It seems to me that the farmers of this county, in view of these facts, but a community that has a community ditch, should get together and make a plan for the season's irrigation. Where the time is nearly at hand, it is imperative to count of the small amount of water that is allowed for a single acre.

On the experiment farm last year, it was demonstrated that irrigation can be done more effectively and more cheaply by rotating than by a continuous flow. In the hot summer days when evaporation is excessive, it will be found that those who are located nearest the head of the farmers' lateral will get the most of the water and the man at the tail end of the ditch will receive little or none at all and it should be the duty of the ditch boss to see that the amount of water should be so distributed that the excess evaporation would be felt by one equally. To illustrate this point: If the last man on the ditch was to receive but 25 inches of water, or one half of a cubic foot, and the evaporation in the entire lateral amounted to that much or nearly that much, he would be getting no water at all. Hence, not understanding, he would blame his neighbors above that the water was stealing his water, and thus trouble would begin.

In order to avoid this, an organization is absolutely necessary and I would urge upon every community that has a community lateral to arrange to have their ditches cleaned up and fixed up and a measuring device in working for a continuous flow of water so that there need be no confusion or possible trouble.

It is true that the Twin Falls tract has plenty of water and to spare, yet we ought to begin now and learn how to handle this water to the best advantage so that we would be prepared for the future when all of the water appropriated will be taken care of and put to proper use.

In other communities where this organization has been effected, one man preferably a good irrigator, was elected to act as ditch boss, and to carry out the arrangements that had been before agreed upon by those interested. Of course, this might be made a little outfit, or money to pay this man for his time, yet, all things being considered, it would be very cheap and the easiest way to avoid difficulties and give each one their just and proper proportion of the irrigating water.

There is another fact that comes up here, and that is the many who have come upon the tract who do not understand the using of water in irrigated countries—and think that because they have a water right to irrigate their land with, there are no restrictions placed upon them and they will go and shut off the entire flow and divert the water further down their water, resulting in "aggravation" and neighborhood trouble.

Now is the time to begin proper irrigation and so it systematically and in a business-like way, so that the disturbances that have happened in other less fortunate communities, which has resulted in giving them a bad name, may not occur on the Twin Falls tract, and thus keep up our reputation for business-like, law-abiding, up-to-date farmers.

A Lasting Effect

This Evidence Should Prove Every Claim Made for Doan's Kidney Pills in Twin Falls.

Relief from the pains and aches of a bad back is always welcome to every backache sufferer; but to cure a lame, weak or aching back is what's wanted. Cure it so it will stay cured. It can be done. Here's the strongest evidence to prove it: Mrs. Brigham Ricks, living in the First Ward, Rexburg, Idaho says: "It is with pleasure that I give my testimony and experience with Doan's Kidney Pills. I was feeling quite miserable suffering from trouble with the kidneys and a burning pain through my groin accompanied by a soreness about the kidneys. I had read so much about Doan's Kidney Pills and was so much impressed, that I procured a box. After using them a few days I was convinced of their great merit. The trouble with my back and in my groin disappeared and I felt better in every way. From the beneficial results I have received from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills, I feel I can recommend them very highly."

WATER SERVICE UNSATISFACTORY

PRESSURE IS INCONSTANT AND WATER MUDDY.

On Petition of Water-Users the City Council Will Take the Matter Up With the Waterworks Company's Officers in Salt Lake City.

The riley water which has been ebbing and flowing through the water mains of Twin Falls of late has riled the temper of the citizens to such an extent as to call for an investigation on the part of the city council in response to a numerously signed petition. There has been too much ebb and too little flow to suit most people and the taxpayers want to know the reason why. When the average citizen awakes in the morning and finds his water pipes as gaut as a sack of potatoes he naturally heads for the telephone and threatens to violate that telephone company's rules respecting the use of tropical language on the wire. In many instances the blame is called in vain. The speed of a hired man coming to dinner only to find the pipes as empty as a political promise. The insurance men are beginning to grow uneasy and the members of the Twin Falls fire department are talking in their sleep.

At the council meeting on Monday evening prompt attention was given to the petition of the citizens. It was decided to invite the officers of the Waterworks company in Salt Lake City to come down a day or two in advance of the next council meeting on Monday. The investigation conditions with the view of improving the service by increasing the reservoir capacity or providing in some manner for a more constant pressure and a less turbid quality of water. Twin Falls soil is too valuable to be used as a diet.

In justice to the Waterworks company it should be known that from Monday, May 13, to Friday, May 17, the water was turned out of the low line canal to permit of work being done on that canal. The reservoir supply was exhausted and rather than turn Rock creek water into the mains the company let the pressure run down, pumping from one well only. Last Friday night the pump shut out the Hotel Perrine out of the eight-inch main into a two-inch pipe on Main street, draining all the buildings on the south side of Main street, a number on the north side. This, following the draining of the low line, set the public teeth on edge and led to the circulation of the petition to the council, asking for an investigation.

At the Monday night meeting the council passed the lateral sewer ordinance, naming May as the day on which objections may be heard. The boundaries of the new lateral sewer district are as follows:

Beginning at the intersection of the center line of Main and Seventh streets, running northeast along the center of Seventh street to the center of Tenth avenue, southeast along the center of Tenth avenue to the center line of Shoshone avenue, northeast along the center of Shoshone avenue to the center line of Ninth avenue, south on the center line of Ninth avenue to the center line of Blue Lakes avenue, north on Blue Lakes avenue to the center line of Boundary street, east on Boundary street to the center of Main street and southeast on Main to the place of beginning. This makes about nine miles of lateral sewers which will cost approximately $55,000.

More Sidewalks.
The council also ordered the construction of another batch of sidewalks on the following thoroughfares: The southeast side of Fourth street from Tenth to Thirteenth avenues, the southeast side of Fifth street in front of blocks 31 and 32, on the northwest side of Fifth street from Main to Thirteenth avenue, on the southwest side of Ninth avenue from Shoshone to Third, on the southwest side of Tenth center from Shoshone to Second, on the northeast side of Thirteenth avenue from Shoshone to Fifth, on the southwest side of Thirteenth avenue in front of block 123, on the southwest side of Main street from Eleventh street to the south end.

Raus Mit It.
An unsightly object in the form of a hermetically sealed bootblack stand of gloomy construction loomed up before the gaze of the councilmen and threatened them with blind staggers. It had been placed at the corner of Main and Shoshone on the Shoshone side of the Hotel Perrine and its presence inspired many uncomplimentary remarks, more or less sulphurous in order that the artistic taste of the citizens of Twin Falls might not be riled any further, the council ordered the erasure of the structure without prejudice to the gentleman who said that "it is good faith and when one offense was a desire to conduct a legitimate business in the glare of the sunlight."

R. Moore suggested to the council the feasibility of obtaining a domestic water supply for Twin Falls from wells and told what the city of Nampa had done in this respect. M. H. Murtaugh, who has driven several wells in southern Idaho for the Oregon Short Line, gave some interesting and valuable information along the same line. Negotiations are now in progress for a change of the source of supply for the Twin Falls waterworks system and the city for a change of ownership. The choice of source lies between ROCK creek, in the hills, the Devil's corral and Blue lakes. All three are now being investigated. In the event that Rock creek is selected, a big dam and reservoir would probably be built in the forest reserve from which the water would be piped down to the city. This would give terrific pressure of pure water and a supply that would be reliable and ample. The Devil's corral and Blue lakes would both be pumping proposals and would entail the construction of big reservoirs high enough to furnish the necessary pressure in the event that the people who are now depending on purchasing the Twin Falls waterworks system should make a deal with the Twin Falls Waterworks Co. the city would be assured of a strictly first class system for all time to come.

SCHOOL NOTES.

Arbor day was fittingly celebrated last Friday in the school. Very appropriate and well prepared programs were given by the pupils; those of the lower grades at 11:30 and the upper grades and high school at 11:15. In the afternoon each grade of the school planted and dedicated a tree of their own with appropriate ceremony. Arbor this there was a prize-give-basket ball game between the Senior and Freshman classes. The Sealers won by 9 to 5.

The program was: Opening song, chorus; memory gems, roll call; recitation, "Planting the Apple Tree," Nellie Howe; quartet, high school; essay, "Arbor Day," Nellie Zimmerman; instrumental solo, Oscar Mitchell; recitation, "The Heart of a Tree," Rilla Snyder; chorus, Fourth grade; recitation, "When the Green Gets Back in the Trees," Margaret Gourley; chorus, "Bob White," Third grade; recitation, Ethel Hiltbroener; closing song, chorus.

On Friday, April 17, the baseball and basketball teams left for Albion. They were met at Burley by teams from Albion. They were taken directly there and the ladies of the party were taken to the girls dormitory and the boys were taken to hotels. At 10:30 next day the Twin Falls team met the Albion basketball team. The game was exciting and close from the first. First one side was ahead then the other. Just after the beginning of the second half Albion was ahead, when Twin Falls woke up and came to the front as usual. The final score was 10 to 10. The visitors had not played together before and did poor team work. In the afternoon the two baseball teams crossed swords. Albion's men were much larger than those of Twin Falls and many of them experienced ball players. However, considering everything, Twin Falls did very well. The score was 16 to 1 in favor of Albion. The treat received by Twin Falls was exceptionally good and the hospitality was of the warmest.
