GOOD PRICES FOR KIMBERLY FARMS

SEVERAL CHANGE HANDS DURING THE WEEK.

Growing Demand for Town Property. Merchants to Put Incandescent Lamps in Front of Their Stores. Electric Flour Mill in Operation.

KIMBERLY, Ida., May 6.—The ice wagon has this appearance so it must be close to summer time and we get out of coal bins to pay the ice man.

Morgan O. Heap loaded out a car of fat hogs the last of the week for Oregon. He has no more stock yards yet we cannot keep from shipping out through the warehouse.

Claude C. Parks has leased his ranch to Alex Wilkins and A. L. Towle for the season. Mr. Parks has qualified for road overseer for Kimberly district and is repairing the bridges and roads which were in need of the same very much.

Three adjoining ranches just west of town, sold last week. Geo. Luff sold 40 acres to Henry Knutsen for $100 per acre; land being in sagebrush. Carl B. Moore sold his 40 just west of the latter for $100 per acre to Luther C. Remel. Mr. Moore will remain on the place this season. J. W. Parker sold his quarter section just west of Mr. Moore's for $86 per acre. Mr. Parker will have a auto soon, and Mr. Allen has rented the place and is tending the crop for this year.

Several Kimberly people attended the Bicks and Lockridge sale north of Hanks Tuesday. Not as large crowd was in attendance as usual, owing to the busy times now.

Walter R. Graham of Grand Junction, Colorado, has been placed in charge of the Kimberly-Pharmacy by A. W. Peterson of Twin Falls, the proprietor. He has put in a soda fountain and will serve drinks and ice cream, as well as having a complete line of drugs. People can now get what they want here as cheap as anywhere and save much time on the road. Mr. Graham will soon be another addition to Kimberly.

D. C. Pouts of Lanark, Illinois, visited Mr. Thomas asking for advice on residence lots and business lots and says he has a party who is thinking of coming here to start a bakery and a bath.

The shade trees are all set out and the sagebrush is disappearing on the townsite, a welcome transition to the people here.

It is turning out quite a lot of ground feed for the farmers around town and the dairy cows will all get fat now.

Bill Little is superintending the 320 acres of fat wheat owned by Mr. Carter and others southeast of town. He has several hands at work irrigating it and the crop looks fine.

W. F. Thoms was in Payette on business the first part of the week. The Commercial club met Friday night and the light committee reported each business house has placed its decent lights before their place of business instead of having no lights on the street at present.

W. F. Brecken is visiting in Payette this week and attending the Woodmen convention.

C. C. Parks and J. N. Clyde expect to leave in a few days to cruise the Salmon project. Quite a number of people around Kimberly are waiting for the opening and expect to file on land then.

The young people of town report a delightful party given by Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Keen on Wednesday evening. About 150 were present and took part in the games, contests, etc. In the word contest Miss E. Pettibone won the booby prize for the fewest words. Lunch was served at a late hour and everyone departed praising Mr. and Mrs. Kendall for their royal entertainment.

John L. Barr of Denver, Colorado, was here Wednesday. Mr. Barr is president and manager of the F. C. A. Y. M. C. of Denver, and came out to see the country. He decided to much grain and of such good quality. He bought a great many years last fall that were shipped him from Kimberly. He is very favorable impressed with the future prospects of Kimberly and is trying to get a site for an elevator. The last seen of him was on the way to the town manager to get prices on lots here.

W. M. Black, who has been manager of the Western lumber yard at Kimberly the past 18 months, has been offered the same position by the same company at Twin Falls. Mr. Black has built up a good business here and his many friends regret very much to see him leave Kimberly to take a larger salary and better yard.

People here were greatly shocked to learn of the death of Mr. A. Dunham, which occurred on Wednesday night. His friends here in town did not know that she was sick, as she has been living on their homestead east of Rock Creek the past few months.

Both Jerome and Wendell are being beautified with trees, quite a number having been set out.

Burt Haddock, one of the new settlers, is making quite extensive improvements in his land south of town. He has a 60-barrel cistern about completed and will probably be forwarded and ready for a fall crop. Good house to replace the shack he is at present occupying will be the next improvement.

Paul Haddock, one of Tacoma, Washington, has opened up a barber shop and full bearders are no longer the style in Jerome. As soon as a suit of clothes will probably be forwarded and ready for a fall crop. Good house to replace the shack he is at present occupying will be the next improvement.

The contest case brought by H. L. Owens against the 320-acre desert claim of town H. D. Cook is now being heard in Shoshone Tuesday before U. S. Land Commissioner Disney and has been referred to the office in Washington for decision. Contest was brought on the grounds that Mr. Barry was not a resident of Idaho. Mr. Barry testified that he expected to leave Idaho this year and was closing up his business in Chicago as rapidly as practicable for that purpose. Sweeley & Sweeley of Twin Falls represent the plaintiff and Stocklander & Bowen the defendant.

Main street is assuming quite the appearance of a city thoroughfare. Four new buildings are for course of construction. Two of which, the office of the Ostrander-Reed Lumber Co. and the general store building of Napton Bros. are nearing completion. Just at the corner of town H. D. Cook is putting up a good sized house, on the claim of E. L. Evans of Meadow Grove, Neb.

The high wind Sunday prevented the work of clearing the ball grounds. It also laid low one of Dr. Piper's tents.

Kartze & Co. will begin Monday the construction of a three-room house for E. G. Reed on one of the streets facing the park. Mr. Reed expects his family as soon as his house is ready.

Over a hundred trees are being set out in Gooding. These with the beautiful trees already there will make Gooding one of the most attractive towns in southern Idaho.

A. S. Hoovey has about completed the corrections in the town survey and the grades of the streets are now established. Wendell is next on the schedule.

On Wednesday evening a meeting was held at the land office building for the purpose of organizing a grounds club. The name of "The Jerome Country Club" was chosen and the following officers elected: E. G. Reed, president; Miss E. L. Covell, secretary; and C. H. Chapin, treasurer. A committee consisting of Paul Kartze, H. L. Owens and C. H. Chapin was appointed to look up a location for suitable grounds, a tennis court being one of the first things to be considered. C. H. Chapin was also appointed to solicit funds. E. G. Reed started the subscription with $20 on behalf of the Ostrander-Reed Lumber Co. and the promise of what lumber would be necessary for a small pavilion. Kartze & Co. subscribed $10 and the labor necessary for the same. The town of Twin Falls North Side Realty Co. $10 and the use of team and wagon. Owens, Nowell, Chapin, Hurlbush, Smith and others contributed quite a liberally and the fund was swelled to goodly proportions by the following night. There is no reason why Jerome should not support a grounds club and the prospect of it is fairly promising. The next meeting will be held at the office of the

CERTIFIED CHECKS ARE NECESSARY.

For the Salmon opening the company will require that a properly certified check be filed with each application for land and in no instance will this rule be deviated from.

The check must call for the first payment on the acreage desired by the applicant and this acreage will be paid in full by the applicant. It is increased though it may be diminished if the applicant so wishes.

For instance, if an applicant desires to file upon 100 acres, he will deposit with his application a certified check for $250.00. Should he decide to take only 40 acres, he will have the balance of the $250.00 balance of $390.00 will be refunded to him. On the other hand, should he apply for 40 acres and decide to take a check for $131.60, and after his number is drawn, desire to file on 160 acres, his request will be rejected and he will have to re-apply for the acreage called for in his original application. However, should it happen that after the drawing there is vacant land adjoining that upon which he has filed, he will have the right to increase his filing to 160 acres or to make another filing under another power of attorney on other land.

Each and every instance the check must be certified and which it is intended as a first payment.

Twin Falls North Side Realty Co. Wednesday evening.

Mr. Arthur Eriart, recently from Miss. has purchased a new $125 grubbier and is in the market for grubbing on a wholesale scale.

The Ostrander-Reed Lumber Co. has received the first consignment of fence posts. C. A. Pratt was the contractor for hauling them from Shoshone.

Word was received today that E. J. Ostrander and family would leave for their new home in Twin Falls next Tuesday.

Mrs. and Mrs. Earl Fee and Mr. and Mrs. James L. Mont spent Saturday and Sunday in Twin Falls.

Paul Haddock, one of Tacoma, Washington, has opened up a barber shop and full bearders are no longer the style in Jerome. As soon as a suit of clothes will probably be forwarded and ready for a fall crop. Good house to replace the shack he is at present occupying will be the next improvement.

Twin Falls, Will Play Rupert on New Grounds on Sunday.

The Rupert baseball team which played a game on the side of the Twin Falls club last year, will open the season here on Sunday afternoon on the new ball grounds. Work is being done on the grounds and it will be scarcely be possible to have the roof on in time for the game, the seats will be in place. The grounds are working up and the stadium is already in good condition.

Rupert has always presented a stout front on the ball field and will undoubtedly send down a strong team. The time they have been devoting to the time they could spare to practice and the game should be spirited. In any event the boys are deserving of liberal patronage they have done their best to provide Twin Falls with attractive grounds and a line of which the city may well be proud. It has been a hard and arduous task and the boys should receive the support which they merit.

While the action of the council in re-naming the streets may not meet with the approval of the majority of the citizens of Twin Falls, the sincerity and good faith of the aldermen is above reproach. If the people desired to have the streets named, they should have met with the council and expressed their views. It matters not to the News whether the streets are named after the fish of the sea, the beasts of the field, the birds of the air or the stars of the sky. This paper merely voiced the sentiment of the people who have made persistent complaint for three years against the existing nomenclature. Last week a Twin Falls lady advertised second hand furniture for sale. She did not know what street she lived on, and even if she had it would have been necessary for a stranger to hire an engineer in order to find the house. The lady did not receive any calls for her furniture, as it happened, but her neighbors were kept busy answering inquiries. This sort of thing happens every day. M. M. Murtough, who stands sponsor for the present system, declared in the council meeting on Wednesday night and reiterated that the trouble was due to the ignorance of the people of Twin Falls. Mr. Murtough's judgment on engineering problems is beyond question, but the citizens of Twin Falls will hesitate to accept his dictum regarding their mentality. However, the question has been settled by the council and nobody is going to throw rocks at the aldermen for acting as they did. The new system will undoubtedly be an improvement and if the people are not satisfied with it, they can have it changed.

MATERIAL FOR WORK ON SALMON

Big Orders Have Been Placed by the Company.

The Salmon river company has contracted with C. R. Shaw of Boise for 65,000 barrels of cement for the construction of the dam. To transport this cement to Twin Falls will require 16 trains of 20 cars each. The company has ordered a traction engine of 110-horsepower and eight wagons with a capacity of 12 tons each to haul the cement from Twin Falls to the dam site. The engine will have a speed of three miles an hour and will pull out four wagons while the other four are being loaded. It will make the round trip in two days.

The company has also arranged for the erection of a cement warehouse at the dam, also a house for the officers and a mess house with 70 seats. The capacity of 200. It will sit well above the high water line and erect storage tanks. A commissary will likewise be put up at once. An office building has been provided for and when the quarters at the dam are completed they will make a tidy village.

ATTENTION!—Civil War Veterans. You are requested to meet A. M. Rowe, department commander, Grand Army of the Republic, department of Idaho, at Twin Falls, in the office of Commander James W. Shields, First National bank building, May 11, next, at 2 p. m. The meeting is called for the purpose of organizing a G. A. R. post. It is greatly desired to complete the organization before Decoration day. Ten comrades are required to organize and there are 20 odd on the tract. Let all come!

NOTED CAPITALISTS COMING

Will Arrive in Twin Falls Saturday, May 23.

Three private cars, bearing bankers and heads of bond houses from Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis, Omaha, Cleveland, St. Joseph, St. Louis, Kansas City and elsewhere, will leave Chicago on the evening of May 19 bound for Twin Falls. With the party will be J. G. White, head of the contracting firm of J. G. White & Co., New York, the largest in the west. It is also likely that Tom R. Johnson, the famous mayor of Cleveland, and David R. Francis of St. Louis will be among the visitors.

The visitors are coming to look over irrigation investments and to make personal inspection of the Twin Falls and Salmon tracts. They will spend a week in southern Idaho. It is possible that Leslie M. Shaw, former secretary of the treasury, will join the party in Chicago.

President C. B. Hurst of the Twin Falls Investment Co., while on his recent trip through the east, called upon the gentlemen who are coming and invited them to make the journey to Idaho. He succeeded in inducing them to such an extent that they agreed to devote a week to this section of the state. Their coming will be awaited with keen interest as it means a great deal to Twin Falls.

Sealed Proposals. Sealed proposals will be received at the office of the clerk of the board of trustees of Kimberly School District No. 6, Kimberly, Idaho, up to and until the hour of 1 o'clock May 23, 1908, for furnishing all material and doing all labor necessary to construct an eight-room, graded school building, in accordance with plans and specifications prepared by J. E. Tourtellot & Co., architects, Boise, Idaho.

A certified check made payable to Martin Sullivan, clerk, in the sum of one hundred ($100.00) dollars shall accompany each general proposal as a guarantee that successful bidder will enter into a contract with the above board and will furnish a satisfactory bond for the performance of same.

The right is reserved to reject any or all bids submitted. Plans may be seen at the home of the clerk and at the office of the architects.

F. A. Raymond and A. O. Jones, representatives of "Ellors" big piano store, are putting in a line of pianos in the Lavering's furniture store such as has never been displayed in this section of the state. From this line the music covers, regardless of taste, should be easily suited, both as to price and quality. The terms are very alluring and with so many high grade pianos to choose from the line should be cut down very rapidly. The pianos are on view in Lavering's store.

M. H. Pape is building a carpenter and machine shop on north Main street which he expects to complete within a week. He will equip the shop with a planer, lathes, saw sharpener, band and rip saw and other appliances used in woodwork. The building covers a ground space 24 x 36 feet and when "Dad" gets through with it up it will be complete in every detail. Mr. Pape is an expert woodworker and one who have engaged him can testify, and he should see his hands full when his shop is ready.

Johnson of the First National bank stopped over in Twin Falls on Wednesday and Thursday en route to Washington, where he will attend the meeting of governors of the white house as a delegate from Idaho. Miss Grace A. Kiersted is visiting at the home of Mr. Robert Brown at Rock Creek for the summer. Miss Kiersted is recuperating from her recent illness and she will take a long rest before returning to work. She could scarcely have chosen a more ideal home.

C. D. Anderson of Jacksonville, Ill., an expert watchmaker, jeweler and engraver, has purchased the stock and good will of M. Musgrave on south Main street. Mr. Anderson will shortly bring his family to Twin Falls as he intends to make this city his home. He is a leader in his business and he considers Twin Falls the best field he has seen.

Rev. Ray Beauchamp of Bedford, Iowa, preached his first sermon as pastor of the Christian church last Sunday morning. Mr. Beauchamp resigned his pastorate at Kidder, Mo., to come to Twin Falls. He is a young man and a graduate of the Drake University of Des Moines, Iowa. He was accompanied to Twin Falls by his brother, Homer, who has been assistant secretary of the Y. M. C. A. of Galveston, Texas.

The number of cartloads of freight received in the month of April was 1,200, an increase of 103 cars over April of last year. The increase in cash receipts over last April was $17,561.74, all of which shows that Twin Falls is "going some".

Excavation is being made by the Twin Falls Investment Co. for a building 24 x 135 feet on the east corner of Main and Seventh streets, to be occupied by the Investment Co., the Twin Falls Land & Water Co., and probably the Great Shoshone & Twin Falls Water Power Co. It is possible that the ground space may be enlarged, plans for that and now being under consideration.

Mrs. Carl J. Hahn left on Tuesday with Carl, Jr., for a visit with friends and relatives in Nebraska and Illinois. Mrs. Hahn is a well known resident of Twin Falls. Since their departure Carl has been moping around like a lost soul. He watches nervously for the telegraph messenger and scans the papers for news of train wrecks. Nobody blames him and all hope that he will have no cause for alarm.

The Iris theater is fast winning favor by its excellent programs and good management. The pictures run smoothly and clear and the performances are given with commendable color. Manager Denoit has not made a slip since he opened and has demonstrated that he is a master of the business. Every picture introduced is a three act play and the week to the excellent accompaniments by Willie Coburn. For next week some striking pictures have been secured which are certain to attract much attention.

The Dime theater (formerly the Majestic) is more than sustaining its good reputation in its new quarters in the Bryant block on Main street. The management had some difficulty with new lenses which cast too large a picture but they have overcome it by the substitution of a lens which fit the building exactly. The pictures this week have been excellent and those for next week promise better. Miss McGuffin, songs are winning nightly applause and Miss Fargo's piano playing is, as usual, a feature without which the performance would greatly suffer.

R. C. Beach, president of the Idaho Department Store company, has been in Twin Falls for several days, looking after his interests here which are constantly growing. With each visit to Twin Falls Mr. Beach's enthusiasm increases. He has made some splendid investments in real estate and farm property which would yield him handsome returns at present if he cared to realize. Mr. Beach is conceded to be one of the shrewdest and most successful buyers of goods in the west and he is just as good judgment in purchasing retail. The Department store is exceeding his expectations and he is taking a pride in stocking it with the best goods obtainable.

U. met on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Felt and installed the following officers: Mrs. Anne Evans, vice president at large; Mrs. May (Granger), recording secretary; Mrs. Alice Schwab, treasurer. STREETS ARE TO BE RE-NAMED

Avenues Will Parallel Shoshone and Streets Parallel Main.

At its meetings on Monday and Wednesday nights the city council awarded the contract for street sprinkling to A. S. Peterson, at $4 per day for man and team; granted a right of way for a sliding screen, Ninth and Eleventh avenues for the elevator to be erected by the Mullen brothers of Denver; purchased a horse and wagon for the street commissioner; ordered the installation of an arc light at the junction of Ninth and Eleventh avenues; granted a saloon license to L. S. Pratt; ordered the Waterworks company to put a check in the low line canal to maintain pressure; created the office of planning inspector and appointed Fred Ramsey inspector; appointed a dog catcher and instructed him to get after the dogs and ordered a device for mending fire hose. It was decided to make the city a "no smoking" city, making the avenue near Shoshone and the streets parallel with Main street. Roughly speaking the city will be divided into four sections, radiating from the junction of Main street and Shoshone avenue, the names of these two thoroughfares remaining the same. In the northeast section, the first street parallel with Main street will be called First Street, Northeast and the same rule will apply to the avenues. Thus the first avenue parallel with Shoshone on the northeast will be First Avenue, Northeast, etc. The street corners will be placarded and the numbers will run 100 to the block.

Notice of Dissolution.

The firm of Sweet & Gaut has dissolved partnership this date. Mr. Gaut having purchased Mr. Sweet's interest in the firm. All accounts owed by the firm of Sweet & Gaut will be paid by Mr. Gaut and all accounts due the firm of Sweet & Gaut may be paid to Mr. Gaut.

There is scarcely anything of such great importance to a city as the proper construction of its business buildings and their artistic effect, consequently much responsibility rests upon the shoulders of the members of the building trades, but in no small degree are the architects responsible. Few things affect the prosperity of a city more convincingly than a stranger than a modern and artistic business center. An architect who is among the leaders in his profession and who has been the guiding spirit in a number of the leading cities where he has lived, is L. P. Clifton, who recently came to Twin Falls from Tulsa, Oklahoma, where he left many monuments to his talent. Mr. Clifton, who has secured office room with W. D. Garlock & Co., has had many years experience in his profession and his work shows him to be a master. He understands western requirements, both as to construction, and material. During the past nine months he has supervised reinforced concrete construction in San Francisco, where this class of work has been developed to the highest degree. Mr. Clifton brings to Twin Falls the latest and best ideas of modern building in the utility of native material and he is prepared to do his share toward building this city to the most substantial and artistic lines.

Buy Clothes With Your Eyes Open

HAVE YOU BEEN BUYING CLOTHES WHERE THE SALESMAN OR THE DEALER PUTS THE COAT ON YOUR BACK, GIVES IT A HITCH HERE AND A PULL THERE, PASSES HIS HAND OVER YOUR BACK AND SHOULDERS AND SAYS "WHAT A BEAUTIFUL FIT"? WELL, THAT'S ONE WAY OF SELLING CLOTHES AND ONE WAY OF BUYING THEM; BUT A FAR BETTER WAY, ACCORDING TO OUR METHOD OF THINKING, IS CHOOSING A SIZE-SUITED TO THE CUSTOMER AND GIVING HIM A COAT TO SLIP ON HIMSELF—A COAT THAT SETS PERFECTLY THE MOMENT HE PUTS IT ON—WHOSE COLLAR SETS CLOSE TO THE SHOULDERS, AND THAT SEEMS MOULDED TO THE FORM, A GARMENT THAT DRAPES AND FITS AS ONLY PERFECTLY MADE CLOTHES CAN FIT.

What's more you will find that a SINGERITY or a HART, SCHAFFNER & MARX coat will hold its shape; it will seem remarkable to you if you have been wearing coats that have been pulled into shape by the flatiron; that lose their good points after you have worn them for a brief time.

Profit by experience and let value enter into your calculations.

Three private cars, bearing bankers and heads of bond houses from Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis, Omaha, Cleveland, St. Joseph, St. Louis, Kansas City and elsewhere, will leave Chicago on the evening of May 19, bound for Twin Falls. President C. B. Hutt of the Twin Falls Investment Co., while on his recent trip through the east, called upon the gentlemen who are coming and invited them to make the journey to Idaho. He succeeded in interesting them to such an extent that they agreed to devote a week to this section of the state. Besides her husband, Mrs. Dunkan is survived by seven children. The funeral will probably be held Sunday afternoon and interment will be in the Rock Creek cemetery. L. J. Miller of Twin Falls has charge of the arrangements.

F. A. Raymond and A. O. Jones, representatives of Ellors, big piano house, are putting a line of pianos in Lavering's furniture store, such as has never been displayed in this section of the state. From this line music lovers, regardless of taste, should be easily suited, both as to price and quality. The terms are very alluring and with so many high grade pianos to choose from the line should be cut down very rapidly. The pianos are on view in Lavering's store.

M. H. Pope is building a carpenter and machine shop on north Main street, which he expects to complete within a week. He will equip the shop with a planer, lathe, saw, sharpener, band and rip saw and other appliances used in woodwork. The building covers a ground space 24 x 40 feet and when "Dad" gets through fitting it up it will be complete in every detail. Mr. Pope is an expert in woodwork, as those who have engaged him can testify, and he should have his hands full when his shop is ready.

President F. F. Johnson of the First National bank stepped over in Twin Falls on Wednesday and Thursday en route to Washington, where he will attend the meeting of governors at the white house as a delegate from Idaho. The freight shipments from Twin Falls during the month of April exceeded those during the same month last year by 200,000 pounds. The number of carloads of freight received last month in Twin Falls was 229, an increase of 103 carloads over April of last year. The increase in cash receipts over last April was $17,561.74, all of which shows that Twin Falls is "going some."

Excavation is being made by the Twin Falls Investment Co. for a building 24 x 125 feet, on the east corner of Main and Seventh streets. It is to be occupied by the Investment Co., the Twin Falls Land & Water Co. and probably the Great Shoshone & Twin Falls Water Power Co. It is possible that the ground space may be enlarged, plans to that end now being under consideration.

Mrs. Carl J. Hall left on Tuesday with Carl, Jr., for a visit with friends and relatives in Nebraska and Illinois. They were joined at Minot, N. D. by Mrs. Hall's mother, Mrs. M. M. Hall, and her departure Carl has been moping around like a lost soul. He watches nervously for the telegraph messenger and scans the papers for news of his mother. Nobody blames him and all hope that he will have no cause for alarm.

The Iris theater is fast winning favor by its excellent programs and good management. The pictures run smoothly and clear and the performances move with commendable celerity. Manager Beach has made a splendid record and has demonstrated that he is a master of the business. Boyd Linder introduced three splendid songs this week, to go to excellent accompaniment by Willie Coburn. For next week some striking pictures have been secured which are certain to attract much attention.

The Dime theater (formerly the Majestic) is more than sustaining its good reputation in its new quarters in the Bryan block on Main street. The management had some difficulty with new lenses which cast too large a picture but this will be overcome by the substitution of smaller lenses at the building. The pictures this week have been excellent and those for next week promise better. Miss McCrae's songs are winning plenty of applause and Miss Perry's piano playing is, as usual, a feature without which the performance would greatly be less.

R. C. Beach, president of the Idaho Department Store company, has been in Twin Falls for several days, looking after his interests here which are constantly growing. With each visit to Twin Falls Mr. Beach's enthusiasm increases. He has made some splendid investments in city and farm property which would yield him handsome returns if he cared to realize. Mr. Beach is conceded to be one of the shrewdest and most successful buyers of goods in the west and he uses just as good judgment in purchasing real estate. The Department store is exceeding his expectations and he is taking a pride in stocking it with the best goods obtainable.

U. met on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Folt and installed the following officers: Mrs. Anne Everett, president; Mrs. May Granger, recording secretary; Mrs. Alice Schwab, treasurer. STREETS ARE TO BE RE-NAMED

Avenues Will Parallel Shoshone and Streets Parallel Main.

At its meetings on Monday and Wednesday nights the city council awarded the contract for street sprinkling to A. S. Peterson, at $4 per day for man and team. Granted a right of way for a sliding news stand, Tenth and Eleventh avenues for the elevator to be erected by the Mullens brothers of Denver; purchased a horse and wagon for the street commissioner; ordered the installation of an arc light at the junction of Ninth and Eleventh avenues; granted a saloon license to L. S. Pratt; ordered the Waterworks company to put a check in the low line canal to maintain pressure; created the office of plumbing inspector and appointed Ed. Ramsey inspector; appointed a dog catcher and instructed him to get after the dogs and ordered a device for mending fire hose. It was decided to remove and repave the streets, making the avenues run parallel with Shoshone avenue and the streets parallel with Main street. Roughly speaking the city will be divided into four sections, radiating from the junction of Main street and Shoshone avenue, the names of these two thoroughfares remaining the same. In the northeast section, the first street parallel with Main street will be called First Street, Northeast and the second street will be called Second Street, Northeast. The same rule will apply to the avenues. Thus the first avenue parallel with Shoshone on the northeast will be called First Avenue, Northeast, etc. The street corners will be placarded and the numbers will run 100 to the block.

There is scarcely anything of such great importance to a city as the proper construction of its business houses and their artistic effect, consequently much responsibility rests upon the shoulders of the members of the building trades, but in no small degree are the architects responsible. Few things indicate the prosperity of a city more convincingly than a stranger than a modern and artistic business center. An architect who is among the leaders in his profession and who has been the guiding spirit in a number of the leading cities where he has lived, is L. P. Clifton, who recently came to Twin Falls from Tulsa, Oklahoma, where he left many monuments to his talent. Mr. Clifton, who has secured office room with V. D. Garlick & Co., has had many years experience in his profession and his work shows him to be a master. He understands the requirements, both as to construction, and material. During the past nine months he has supervised reinforced concrete construction in San Francisco, where this class of work has been developed to the highest degree. Mr. Clifton brings to Twin Falls the latest and best ideas of modern building in the utility of modern material and he is prepared to do his share toward building this city on the most substantial and artistic lines.

HAVE YOU BEEN BUYING CLOTHES WHERE THE SALESMAN OR THE DEALER PUTS THE COAT ON YOUR BACK, GIVES IT A HITCH HERE AND A PULL THERE, PASSES HIS HAND OVER YOUR BACK AND SHOULDERS AND SAYS "WHAT A BEAUTIFUL FIT?" WELL, THAT'S ONE WAY OF SELLING CLOTHES AND ONE WAY OF BUYING THEM; BUT A FAR BETTER WAY, ACCORDING TO OUR METHOD OF THINKING, IS CHOOSING A SIZE SUITED TO THE CUSTOMER AND GIVING HIM A COAT TO SLIP ON HIMSELF—A COAT THAT SETS PERFECTLY THE MOMENT HE PUTS IT ON—WHOSE COLLAR SETS CLOSE TO THE SHOULDERS, AND THAT SEEMS MOULDED TO THE FORM, A GARMENT THAT DRAPES AND FITS AS ONLY PERFECTLY MADE CLOTHES CAN FIT.

What's more you will find that a SINCERITY or a HART, SCHAFFNER & MARX coat will hold its shape; it will seem remarkable to you if you have been wearing coats that have been pulled into shape by the flatiron; that lose their good points after you have worn them for a brief time.

Profit by experience and let value enter into your calculations.

ed on humanitarian principles, allowing the prisoners work benches with tools, and here they make fine articles of the Mexican origin, and others make dog collars, bridges, halters, and and several very fine out of horse hair. The prisoners sell these articles to visitors and have the money to help their families. The convicts are mostly Mexicans. I did see one who who seemed decidedly imprisoned.

Yuma is situated on the banks of the silvery Colorado river, which has been called the "Nile of America".
The river is 300 feet wide. The government's plan is to store and utilize all surplus Colorado river water, and distribute it where it is needed. The Laguna dam, 13 miles northwest of Yuma, furnishes two irrigating canals, one on the Arizona side and one on the California side. These canals will open to irrigate 100,000 acres, indescribably fertile, growing palm olives, oranges, apricots, grapes, and all sub-tropical products. These wonderful irrigation projects will be the means of converting areas of arid lands into a perfect paradise.

On January 27th, at 10 p. m., I left Mr. Burrington at Yuma and boarded the train for my long journey east to Asbury Park, N. J. On this tour there was a personal conductor furnished, to call out points of interest. Our first stop was at El Paso, Texas. This is a most beautiful, modern city. The streets were brilliantly illuminated with colored lights, in harmony with the Mexican taste, not to please tourists, but a permanent custom. The crowd from the train impeded the opportunity of getting a good square meal, after which our conductor piloted us to many beautiful stores where the Mexican fire opals can be bought for a song. After purchasing souvenirs we all returned to the train.

Some distance further we came up on the second largest trestle work bridge in the world, over the Pecos river, 320 feet high or 150 feet high than Shoshone falls. An orange was dropped to the water, and nearly lost sight-of before it reached the river. The trestle work is 2100 feet long. From here we traveled over miles and miles of sagebrush (you all know what that is) until San Antonio was sighted. San Antonio is a very wealthy city, displayed in many ways; fine residences, modern skyscraper buildings and most up-to-date department stores. But most of all to be proud of is the delightful climate, bracing to the spirit and well suited.
Here we saw an old fortified mission building, also went through a hall with a collection of the most beautiful horns I have ever polished and mounted. From deer, elk, buffalo, moose and Texas steers. We saw a pair of elk horns measuring 15 feet that money could not buy. This is the most complete collection in America.
An eagle was made from the rattle of rattlesnakes.

One day's ride took us across the state of Louisiana through a low, marshy country, but where many beautiful trees, ferns and palms, such as receive the most careful attention in the homes of the northern states can be seen growing wild in the woods in great abundance just before reaching New Orleans. We were ferried across the Mississippi. Unfortunately, a freight train was just ahead of us, which caused us to be one hour late, and we were only favored in seeing the gorgeous river boats, brilliantly lighted, many very high buildings. We took with us no particularly choice roadrunner or interested city of the south. We then traveled from New Orleans several hundred miles along the coast of the Gulf of Mexico, then on through North and South Carolina and Alabama through various kinds of country, mostly low, marshy, with apparently little civilization, yet there were many cotton fields, with "pumpkin colored coons" in the foreground.

Historical Atlanta.
We arrived at Atlanta, Ga., on time, allowing us one hour for sightseeing. Atlanta is a renowned historical point of the civil war where Sherman marched with his troops to the sea. This brought about the song,
"Marching through Georgia." We visited the old exposition grounds, viewed the interior of the court house, also the Carnegie public library, very plain but full of fine books, and the comforts of reading papers which is a blessing to any place and it more reading rooms on less elaborate plans, were accessible even in smaller places.
I am sure there would be less time for wickedness. After buying a few cut flowers, which are extremely reasonable in these southern cities, we boarded the train once more, this time for Washington. D. C., where we arrived at 10:30 p. m. in a black cold night, quite penetrating weather compared with Sunny California. Arriving at this late hour, and soon to depart, I was unable to see much of Washington. However, a few of our crowd, who were en route for Maine, and myself, strolled along to the capitol building, and mounted the balcony in the east wing. The high piercing wind drove us back to the depot. One could spend much time in Washington to good advantage. The Smithsonian museum, the congressional library and many places of interest could be visited. We crossed the beautiful Potomac river just south of the city. I boarded a train on the Pennsylvania line at 11:30 p. m., changed at Trenton, N. J., and arrived at Asbury Park at noon the following day.

Great Summer Resort.

Asbury Park is situated on the Jersey shore 54 miles from New York city. It is one of the most popular, cleanest and moral resorts along the Atlantic coast. The population in summer is about 100,000, while in winter it is nearly 9000. Its many ways of entertaining the guests are strictly first-class. At one of the largest pavilions, Arthur Pryor's band of New York is filled for the small sum of $15,000 for the season. Fine board walks afford the people much pleasure in viewing the ocean and the hundreds of bathers. At Ocean Grove, just across Wesley lake, the Methodists great camp meeting grounds, is an auditorium which seats 12,000 people.

A new pipe organ is just being placed in this hall, at a cost of $100,000, supposed to be as the sea can be bought.
The very finest tenor is engaged to appear in the auditorium during the summer, free to all, if you care to go and listen. A chorus of 600 voices appears frequently. This sort of amusement is different to the usual lover or, I should say, to anyone. It was my pleasure and privilege to take several trips to New York. My nephew deceived me about one day. We first visited Arthur's tomb, a very beautiful structure of granite, wherein the bodies of Gen. Grant and his wife are resting. This tomb is on the bank of the Hudson. We took a car on the subway and went to the Brooklyn bridge, then over this bridge on the elevated to Brooklyn, soon returning by subway under the East river, then up in the air 41 stories in the Singer building. They say the Brooklyn bridge has gone up, and the subway is in a hole. This is a positive fact.
At Arthur's widow's apartment Hippodrome, E. H. Southern in a new popular play, and many of such attractions, which would tempt me Twin Falls people, were being played in New York. After our home visit with my dear old mother, who has since passed away, I returned to Idaho.

Homeward Bound.
From Asbury Park I went on the B.
& O. to Chicago, passing through Philadelphia, Pittsburg, Baltimore, Past John Brown fort and Harpers Ferry. Here we began climbing the Cumberland mountains, not quite as high as the Rockies but more picturesque. The country through Pennsylvania and Ohio is all exceedingly fine. Most beautiful farm-homes and orchards can be seen with a great variety of landscape. The highest point we reached on the Cumberland mountains was Sandeapach, elevation, 1000 feet. This portion of my trip was very pretty.

On arriving in Chicago, on Sunday morning, where my home was for about eight years, began to feel as one we had returned home after being gone for some time. My friends had planned pleasure for me for every minute of my brief visit. We started right and went to hear Cassius speak at the auditorium. He is just as grand as ever. On Monday afternoon my friend, who is a member of the Chicago Culture club, had secured a visitor's ticket previous to my coming so I had the pleasure and honor of being present, and announced as a visitor from Kimberly, Idaho. This club has a membership of one ladies. One of the prettiest features on the programs was "Babes in Toyland," a most interesting number also the sopranos, a recitation by Opheia Blair (her own composition).
She is a modern writer and fast becoming famous. The Comic Opera
"Robin Hood" was very delightfully produced at the Auditorium. Of course we had to see the "Merry Widow."
"The Man from Home." These were all very fine, and a rare treat to a resident of Twin Falls.

A shopping tour, and a lunch at Marshall Field's were of course in line, and a hunt for bargains, such as can only be found in Chicago, were made interesting and profitable.
One week later I boarded the Overland limited, for Minidoka, stopping one day in Omaha, a very fine city on the banks of the Mississippi.
Leaving Omaha at 1:30 p. m. on Tuesday for a day's ride over the great American desert to reach, once more, the land of sunshine, Idaho.

"Kind Providence our lot has cast."
"And yet we have to choose our lot

of the Mexican onyx, and others make dog collars, bridges, and other bits and several pretty things out of horse hair. The prisoners sell these articles
to visitors and have the money to help their families. The convicted are mostly Mexicans. I did not see one Jew, who seemed decidedly imprisoned.
Yuma is situated on the banks of the silvery Colorado river, which line is called the "Wall of America," because of its spring floods. The government's plan is to store and utilize
all surplus Colorado river water and distribute it where it is needed.
Within 10 miles north-west of Yuma, furnishes two irrigating canals,
one on the Arizona side and one on the California side. These canals will open to irrigate 100,000 acres, described fertile growing palms, olives, oranges, apricots, grapes and
all sub-tropical products. These won-
means of creating a score of arid lands into a perfect paradise.

Enterprising El Paso.
On January 27th, at 10 p. m., I left Mr. Burlington at Yuma and boarded the train for my long journey east to Asbury Park, N. J. On this tourists' train, there was a personal conductor furnished, to call out points of interest. Our first stop was at El Paso, Texas. This is a most beautiful, modern city. The streets were brilliantly illuminated with colored
lights, in harmony with the Mexican tapestries, not to please tourists, but a permanent custom. The conductor the train improved this opportunity of getting a good square meal, after
which our conductor piloted us to
many beautiful stores where the Mexican, and Spanish, can be bought for a song. After purchasing souvenirs we all returned to the train.

Some distance further we came up the second largest trestle work bridge in the world, over the Pecos
river, 320 feet high or 110 feet higher than Shoshone falls. An orange was dropped to the water, and nearly
lost sight of before it reached the
long. From here we traveled over
know what that is) until San Antonio
was sighted. San Antonio is a very
wealthy city, displayed in many ways;
fine residences, modern skyscraper
buildings and most up-to-date department stores. But I want to be proud of is the delightful climate, bracing to the sick and well alike.
Here we saw an old fortified mission
building, also went through a hall with a collection of the most beautiful horns that were ever polished and mounted, from deer, elk, buffalo, moose and Texas steers. We saw a pair of elk horns measuring 15 feet
that money could not buy. This is the most complete collection in America. An eagle was made from the rattles of rattlesnakes.

One day's ride took us across the state of Louisiana through a low, marshy
country, but where many beautiful trees, ferns and palms, such as
the houses of the northern states can be seen growing wild in the woods
in great abundance. Just before reaching New Orleans, we were ferried across the Mississippi. Unfortunately, a freight train was just ahead of us, which caused us to be one hour late, and we were only favored in seeing the gorgeous river with its brilliantly lighted, many very high buildings. We took with us no particularly choice remembrance of this noted city of the south. We then traveled from New Orleans several hundred miles along the coast of the Gulf of Mexico, then on through North and South Carolina and Alabama through various kinds of country, mostly low marshy, with apparently little cultivation, yet there were many cotton fields, with "pumpkin colored coons",
in the foreground.

Historical Atlanta.
We arrived at Atlanta, Ga. on time,
allowing us one hour for sight-
seeing. Atlanta is a renowned historical point of the civil war where Sherman's march with his troops to the sea. This brought about the song,
"Marching through Georgia." We
visited the old exposition grounds,
viewed the interior of the court house, also the Carnegie public library, vast
comforts of reading parlors which is a blessing to any place and I'll more reading rooms or less elaborate plans, were accessible even in smaller places, I am sure there would be less time for wickedness. After buying a few cut flowers, which are extremely rea-
boarded the train once more, this time for Washington, D. C., where we arrived at 10:30 p. m. on a bleak cold night, quite penetrating weather compared with Sunny California. Arriving at this late hour, and
much of Washington. However, a few
the capitol building, and mounted the beautiful steps. In a few minutes the pleasing wind drove us back to the depot. One could spend much time in Washington to good advantage. The Smithsonian institute, the congressional library and many places of interest could be visited. We crossed the beautiful Potomac river just south of the city. I boarded a train on the Pennsylvania line at 11:30 p. m., changed at Trenton, N. J., and arrived at Asbury Park at noon the following day.

Great Summer Resort.
Asbury Park is situated on the Jersey shore 54 miles from New York city. It is one of the most popular, cleanest and most resorts along the Atlantic coast. The population in summer is about 100,000, while in winter it is nearer 9000. Its many ways of entertaining the guests are strictly first-class. At one of the largest pavilions, Arthur Pryor's band of New York is hired for the small sum of $15,000 for the season. Fine board-

of bathers. At Ocean Grove, just across Westly lake, the Methodist great camp meeting grounds, is an auditorium which seats 12,000 people.
A new pipe organ is just being placed
in this hall, at a cost of $100,000, supposed to be the finest in the world.
The very finest talent is engaged to appear in the auditorium during the summer, from to go and listen. A chorus of 600 voices singing, "The Song of the Sea," amusement, is elevating to the music lover-or, I should say, to anyone. It was my pleasure and privilege to take several trips to New York. My nephew, who is about one day. We first visited Grant's tomb, a very beautiful structure of granite, wherein the
resting. This tomb is on the bank of the Hudson. We took a car on the
subway and went to the Brooklyn
elevated to Brooklyn, soon returning by subway to the East river, then up in the air 41 stories in the Singer
building. They say the Brooklyn bridge is suspended, the Singer building has gone up, and the subway is in a hole. This is a positive fact.
The Merry Widow, attractions at the Hippodrome, E. H. Southern in a new popular play, and many of such attractions, which would tempt me to Falls people, were being played in New York. After two months' visit with my dear old mother, who has
ho.

Homeward Bound.

From Asbury Park I went on the B.
& O. to Chicago, passing through
Philadelphia, Pittsburg, Baltimore, and John. Here we began climbing the Cumberland mountains, not quite so high as the Rockies but more picturesque. The country through Pennsylvania and Ohio is all or mostly
variety of landscape. The highest point we reached on the Cumberland mountains was Sandeasch, elevation 1600 feet. This portion of my trip was very pretty.

morning, where my home was for about eight years, I began to feel as one who had returned home, after being gone for some time. My friends
minute of my brief visit. I was in right and went to hear Gussie speak at the auditorium. He is just
noon my friend, who is a member of
honor of being present, and announced as a visitor from Kimberly Idaho. This club has a membership of 400 ladies. One of the prettiest features on the program was "Babes in Toyland", a most interesting number also the soprano, a recitation by Ophelia Blair (her own composition).
She is a modern writer and fast-becoming famous. The Comic Opera
"Robin Hood" was very delightfully
produced at the Auditorium. Of course we had to see the "Merry Widow" and
"The Man from Home". These were all very fine, and a rare treat to a resident of Twin Falls.

A shopping tour, and a lunch at
line, and a hunt for bargains, such as
can only be found in Chicago, were
made interesting and profitable.
One week later I boarded the Over-
land limited, for Minidoka, stopping one day in Omaha, a fine city on the banks of the Mississippi.
Leaving Omaha at 4:30 p. m. on Tuesday for a day's ride over the great American desert to reach, once more, the land of our birth, Idaho.

And yet we have to choose our lot

Mr. Milner has a fine ranch adjoining the town in the north. He has several acres in orchard which will bear next year.

F. L. Roberts of Shoshone, Wyo., was among the investment seekers in Buhl yesterday.

If something is not done soon to abate the matrimonial fever in Buhl, even the most loyal supporters of the Bachelors club will be bound to admit that the club will have a strenuous time to maintain its existence.

There is no telling who will be the next victim of bright eyes and bewitching smiles. The club would fare better if there were not so many pretty girls around.

J. Warren White moved into P. W. Monahan's dwelling house on Ninth avenue Tuesday.

Dr. James Monroe moved into the dwelling house in the rear of his office on Broadway yesterday.

Mrs. F. P. Marshall entertained very delightfully Friday afternoon with a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Xenia Farlow whose marriage to Homer Evans occurred Sunday.

The house was beautifully decorated with hearts and potted plants. The table in the dining room, where the gifts of the shower were displayed as Miss Farlow opened them, being especially pretty.

Hearts, with pencils attached were passed to each guest upon which they were asked to write a toast to the bride.

Mrs. W. J. Harger, George Marshall, Albin Nihart, George Eveleth, J. Warren White, E. A. Wyatt, E. A. Littler, G. A. Farlow, Frank Eveleth, C. H. Taylor, Tom Holmes, M. D. L. Barstow and Dr. Jane Shank; Misses Xenia Farlow, Bartholomew, Hincley, Day Shank and Nan Vance. Mrs. Farlow was assisted by Misses Laura Griffith and Hazel Allred.

A very quiet home wedding occurred at the home of M. and Mrs. G. A. Farlow on Sunday afternoon, when Xenia Farlow and Homer B. Evans were united in marriage.

Dr. Barnes of Boise officiating. A very few friends and intimate friends were present. After the ceremony and an informal dinner, the company was taken by surprise, as were all their friends afterwards by two of the guests asking also to be united in marriage bonds.

The proper papers being produced the genial clergyman again took the place, and Clarence Provins and Miss Edith Milner were solemnly pronounced man and wife.

The young people had stolen a march on their friends, who were not expecting the happy event until June.

Mr. and Mrs. Evans will reside in Buhl, where they will be at home to their friends in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Provins will live on their ranch, but for a few weeks Mrs. Provins will continue to make her home with her father, E. A. Milner.

Mrs. J. W. Faris is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Leah Burnside, in Shoshone.

Mrs. E. A. Wyatt and Miss Hincley entertained Wednesday evening with a shower for Mrs. Clarence Provins.

A surprise party on Glen Taylor Friday evening proved to be a surprise on the crowd of young people, as the young man had found it out and had retired when they reached his home.

However, he was induced to appear. Games were played until half past 11, when an elaborate luncheon was served.

Those present were: Hazel Allred, Cora Scholer, Ruth Stradley, Glen Taylor, Dave Howard, Howard, Louis Taylor, Retta Shank, Lillie Lindstrom, Eva Smith, Addie and Easter Howards, Kenneth Shank, Clarence Davis, Lucien Shields, Sam Stradley, Glen Taylor, Dave Howard, Ray Weaver, Lester Russell, Wayne Russell and Leon Taylor.

SEPARATOR MILK FOR CALVES

Properly Fed It Will Result in Healthy Stock.

The practical and successful feeding of hand-separator skim milk to calves is a subject of farm practice that is worthy of study and consideration. The evolution of the hand-separator has necessitated or brought about the rearing of many calves on hand-separator skim milk, and as the use of the hand-separator is of recent origin, this farm business has developed largely during recent years and bids fair to be one of the most important subjects before the cattle-raiser of the country. If it is not already so, it is safe to assume that nearly half of the calves reared throughout the country are raised on hand-separator skim milk, and this percentage is increasing each year. Therefore, the subject of raising good calves by this method is undeniably a very important one. That there is room for improvement must certainly be admitted, for what man knowing the average method of feeding calves can deny that the common method is rather primitive, and, often cruel. The average man, rearing calves, handles the subject in the following way: He selects two large pails and pours in skim milk until they are as full as they can be carried; he then takes a goat-skin club and, tucking it under his arm, approaches the calf. The hungry calf, knowing that the first come are the first to be served, two calves are allowed to drink at the same time from each bucket, and with the club he beats the other away. After he thinks that a calf has received enough milk, it is forced out of the pail by either a pull on the ear or a hit from the club, and another calf is allowed his turn. The calf having finished his allowed portion, resorts to his favorite pastime of sucking and butting. Thus are the calves fed, and thus starts the famous chain gang. If there are but two, they double up, but wherever there are many, they form a continuous chain.

Now this is not the best way to feed calves, because a man can feed them wisely or, to the best advantage to himself or the calves. Some calves drink faster than others. They are taught to bolt their food, and it is allowed to suck, will fill themselves with air and often, cause bloating. Besides, this is a very dangerous method of spreading disease among the calves. Such ailments as contagious scours, calf cholera, etc., are spread in this way. The calf stanchion is the best equipment for calf feeding. This stanchion should be supplied with a little box or manger and the stanchion should be used both in the calf pen and in the calf pasture. Care should be used to feed the skim milk fresh and warm from the separator, giving small rations in preference to large ones. With the present prices paid for butter fat, it requires a rich man to afford his calves the luxury of nursing their dams, and the man who saves his cannot afford the time to milk and feed his calves in either getting a very large salary or is well enough off so that he need not economize in this way.

This does not, of course, refer to the man raising purebred beef cattle, or the range conditions. There is quite a diversity of opinion in the method of rearing a calf on skim milk, and I do not presume that mine is the only one or that it is particularly better than others. But I have been very successful in raising calves for the last 20 years, and attribute this success largely to the method employed.

After the calf is born, I believe it is a good plan to allow it to remain with its dam for a day or two. It may get the first milk, which is very rich in albumin and ash—food substances which are needed by the young calf. There is another advantage in this method, and that is the calf will aid in removing the milk from the udder and will benefit the cow in keeping her quiet during a time when she needs rest.

After the calf is removed from the cow, it should be given its mother's milk for a few days, and then any whole milk will answer, but it is better to give milk that is low in percent of butter fat than that which is high. Feed small rations in clean pails. When the calf is from 10 days to two weeks old, it may be changed from whole milk to skim milk by adding a small amount of skim milk, say one-fourth, and increasing this percent at each feeding until the change is made and the calf is on a skim milk ration. The skim milk to be the best for calves should be fresh and warm from the separator. Now is the time to start feeding a butter-fat substitute, and this may be given in the milk until the calf is able to eat ground feed. Oil meal makes a good calf feed, and a little added to the skim milk will answer the purpose. Here is when the calf stanchion will come handy, for with such an equipment the calf can be taught to eat much earlier on account of it being held in front of the grain and it being free from the annoyance of the other calves.

A good calf feed may be made by mixing the following stuffs: Blood meal, 10 pounds; bone meal, 5 pounds; oil meal, 20 pounds; oat meal, 20 pounds; corn meal, 20 pounds. This mixed well together and given in small rations after the skim milk has been fed. The calf should also have free access to water as well as well as hay or pasture, as the season may require. The grain may be changed to simply corn and oats, or bran, as the calf grows older, say after three months old. In this way good calves may be raised in an economic way, and the valuable butter fat will be saved.

Don't count that skim milk is thin any no good, but feed it with the knowledge that it has in it the necessary food elements to grow the calf, and a small ration is safer to feed than a large one. Give the calf milk for seven or eight months, and if you have plenty a longer time will make a better calf. Don't say good calves can't be grown on skim milk, for this is not true, and thousands can show you tens of thousands of fine skim milk calves. You may say, "I can't" or "Bill Jones can't," but you have a chance to learn, and it certainly pays to know how.

Give the cow's baby a chance and treat it kindly and it will more than pay you.—Pacific Farmer.

Cure Your Kidneys

Do Not Endanger Life When a Twin Falls Citizen Shows You the Cure.

Why will people continue to suffer the agonies of kidney complaint, backache, urinary disorders, lameness, headaches, languor, why allow themselves to become chronic invalids, when a certain cure is offered them?

Doan's Kidney Pills is the remedy to use, because it gives to the kidneys the help they need to perform their work.

If you have any, even one, of the symptoms of kidney diseases, cure yourself now, before diabetes, dropsy or Bright's disease sets in. Read this Twin Falls testimony.

E. R. Chandler, farmer, living one mile and a half south of Twin Falls, Idaho, says: "I do not hesitate to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills for they proved of great benefit to me. For two or three years I suffered off and on with kidney complaint and backache and on one occasion I was laid up for a week on account of it."

I procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Sprague's drug store. I took this remedy faithfully and found it to be just as represented. Doan's Kidney Pills relieved the pains in my back in a very short time. I know this remedy to be safe and reliable for kidney trouble, and should I have a return of the trouble I will again resort to Doan's Kidney Pills."

LAND OF OPPORTUNITY

The Twin Falls North and South side canal systems and the Twin Falls Salmon river project cover 570,000 acres of the finest kind of agricultural and horticultural land. The Twin Falls "Bureau" project, which is an extension of the South side or original Twin Falls system, and which is now being projected, will reclaim approximately 600,000 acres more, making over 1,000,000 acres in a compact body, the largest irrigated tract in the world. This acreage will sustain a large population as a 10-acre farm will easily support a family.

The North and South side tracts are watered from the Milner dam, as shown by the map. The Salmon tract will get its water from the Salmon river, a never failing stream with a large drainage area which can never be disturbed, and a water right which is absolutely unassailable as no other land can be irrigated from the Salmon river above the dam site.

Water was turned into the South side canals on March 1, 1905. Approximately 200,000 acres of land has been sold on the South side, which is covered with magnificent farms, beautiful fields and promising orchards. A branch of the Oregon Short Line which will ultimately form a portion of the main line, traverses the South side tract from east to west. Coulees, or draws, occur frequently and afford the finest kind of drainage besides providing an outlet for waste water, and watercourses for stock water in winter.

Work was commenced on the North side system one year ago and already water is being delivered to 30,000 acres through magnificently constructed canals. The remaining 150,000 acres will be watered next spring. An electric road crosses the North side from Gooding to Milner, touching Wendell, Jerome and Hillsdale. This road is now being constructed and will be in operation to Jerome by the end of the year. Wherever wells have been drilled on the North side an abundant flow of beautiful spring water has been obtained at depths varying from 150 to 350 feet.

On June 1, 1908, in the city of Twin Falls, 50,000 acres of the Salmon tract will be opened for entry. The land will be sold for 50 cents an acre and water rights for $40 an acre, on which a payment of $3 per acre is required at time of filing, the remaining payments being distributed over a period of 12 years. Filings can be made either in person or by power of attorney. Every American citizen, and every one who has declared intention of becoming a citizen, has a Carey act right, regardless of whether they have used their homestead, stone and timber, desert or any other rights. Those who desire to obtain lands make their applications to the Twin Falls Investment Co., sole agents for the sale of land and water rights. Accompanying each application is a certified check covering the first payment on land and water right, which is 25 cents per acre for the land and $3 per acre for the water right. For a filing on 40 acres, the deposit required to cover the first payment on land, water right, filing fees, notarial and recording fees, is $131.50; for 80 acres $262.50; for 120 acres $393.50; for 160 acres $524.50. No one person can file upon more than 160 acres. The names of the applicants are registered and numbered and the numbers are stamped on wooden blocks which are placed in a churn or other suitable receptacle. The blocks are thoroughly mixed before they are drawn from the box. The applicant whose number is first drawn from the box has the first choice of land, the second number the second choice and so on until all the numbers are drawn. In the event that an applicant whose number is drawn does not wish to file, his or her check is promptly refunded without charge. The drawing is conducted under the direct supervision of the state board of land commissioners and is absolutely fair in every particular. The state has an inspector on the works during construction and the state land board passes upon and approves the works before they are turned over to the settlers in a completed state. This transfer is made when a majority of the water rights shall have been sold and the state pronounces the works complete according to contract. Thus the state stands between the settler and the company and protects the former.

The Salmon tract is identical with the South side or original Twin Falls tract, with the exception that it is more level and the soil is deeper and there is less rock. The slope from the foothills is ideal for irrigation and the drainage is perfect. There are well defined and proven water plains under the Salmon tract and the precipitation there is greater than on the South or North side Twin Falls tracts.

SORE ON RECLAMATION SERVICE

Minidoka Settlers Resent Nonsensical Ruling.

When will a restraining hand be laid upon the insane efforts of the Interior department to make life intolerable for a reclamation project settler? When will reason and justice mark the policy of Washington officials in handling reclamation problems? When will even a superficial knowledge of conditions upon these projects, a faint glimmer of intelligence, or a diminutive degree of fairness be admitted to the intellect and the conscience of the bureaucrats? God speed the day!

We have at hand the latest deliverance of the commissioner of the general land office, who rules that a settler on a reclamation project cannot make payment in full for his water right until he has made five annual payments. This means that the settler under the pumping system of the Minidoka project, who will have completed his five-year term of residence before the first water payment becomes due, will be required to wait five years longer for his title. On this side of the river it will yet be four years before patent can be acquired to an acre of land, notwithstanding many of the settlers have at this time put in four years on their claims.

A more unjust, unwarranted, nonsensical rule than this scarcely could be conceived. It is a complete subversion of the homestead act, a misinterpretation of the reclamation act itself. The framers of this act never intended that settlers who took advantage of its provisions should be forced to wait 10 years for title to their lands, if they were able and willing to pay for their water rights within a shorter period. Could the authors of the reclamation act have foreseen the vagaries and eccentricities that have characterized the administration of this law, they would have given the settler some protection by marking out an explicit and detailed plan of procedure.

The commissioner places the responsibility upon the secretary of the Interior, declaring that the secretary must modify his order before any other rule can be permitted. So much the worse for the secretary. The condition thus created is prejudicial alike to the interests of the settlers and the government. Certainly it is to the advantage of the government that this money be repaid as soon as possible, for the reclamation funds are depleted and other projects are clamoring for more. And certainly it is to the interest of the settler to acquire title at the end of five years residence. Hence, the rule is an injustice, both to the settler and to the government. Quite in line with this absurd policy is the letter from the secretary of the Interior, published elsewhere in this issue. This letter relates to the public notice given by Secretary Hitchcock in 1904, to the effect that the first water payment would be due in December of the year in which water was delivered in April. After lightly brushing aside this notice, as a "tentative" document, and not binding upon the government in any way, Secretary Garfield goes on to say that "the conditions in March, 1907, were such that there was a certainty that water would be furnished sufficiently early in the irrigation season to admit of the raising of at least one crop. That such condition was realized is not disputed."

How does that strike you, you farmers who fully six months prior to the non-delivery of water in time to save it? It certainly is the limit, in face of the fact that, had it not been for exceptional soil conditions on some portions of the tract and a most extraordinary rainfall, not a bushel of grain would have been raised on the project last year. And the secretary declares it is "not disputed" that water was furnished in ample time, when it is directly disputed by scores of affidavits now on file in his own department.

Further along the secretary says: "The settlers had no reason to doubt that they would be able to harvest their crops if they properly prepared and cultivated their land. This report shows few cases of failure, when the land was thus prepared, seeded and carefully cultivated."

The truth is that the settlers generally fully six months prior to the opening of the irrigation season of last year knew that it would be a physical impossibility to deliver water in time to mature a full crop, and for that reason many of them declined to waste money by putting in a crop. We are curious to know the source of those "reports" upon which the secretary relies. Show us their origin and we will guarantee to produce a pho dreamer.

This letter from Secretary Garfield simply reveals the appalling ignorance that prevails in the Interior department concerning actual facts and conditions here, an ignorance that explains but does not excuse a long record of blunders. It may be that our secretary means well. We will not deny that. But he is in tremendous need of more light.

It may yet become necessary for the settlers to approach this question with a big stick—Rupert Pioneer Record.
