JEROME CROWDED WITH VISITORS

LANDSEEKERS COMING IN BY THE HUNDRED.

Party of 110 Arrived One Day Last Week—Two New Business Blocks
Going Up at Wendell—Great Activity on the North Side.

JEROME, Ida., May 28.—Mrs. E. G. Reed and children arrived in Jerome on Monday. Mr. Reed is busy with the completion of his building as rapidly as possible and the family will soon be established in Jerome.

Ernest Tacha and family, formerly of Milner, arrived in Jerome last week. Tacha will have charge of the Booth general store. The building is about completed and business will be opened very soon.

O. R. Peterson spent Saturday and Sunday in Jerome.

Mrs. J. H. Smith entertained the card club at her home in the company building on Thursday evening. The usual good time was enjoyed. Dr. and Mrs. Pippor and Mr. and Mrs. Blum were welcomed as new members.

One Long and family of Colorado have taken up permanent residence in Jerome and are established in a small house on Second avenue.

Chung is negotiating for a lot for a church building.

The Twin Falls North Side Realty Co. is erecting shops on its property for marketing the new rice recently purchased.

C. L. Dinger of Chicago arrived last week and will take charge of the lumber yard of Ostrander & Reed at Wendell. His family will follow soon.

Paul R. Kartze has started the construction of two fire proof buildings at Wendell, one store and office building 25 by 50 feet for O. R. Keith of American Falls and one double house building 30 by 40 feet for H. B. Keith of American Falls.

The weekly meeting of the Jerome Jarvis was held Friday night at the office of Ostrander & Reed. The order of business was conducted.

The family of Jos. Krivanek moved into their new residence on Second avenue last week.

The headquarters of the engineering department has been removed from Milner to Jerome.

An unusually large number of people were called to Twin Falls Saturday morning. Important business and incidentally attended to the electric.

A Sunday school is being talked of. With 30 children and plenty of good teachers it would seem an easy matter to organize.

Jerome is benefiting from the Salmon river advertising, a great many taking the opportunity to look over the North Side while waiting for the opening.

Over 110 came in one night last week taking the accommodations of the town to the utmost. A hotel is an absolute necessity. Travel into the town is increasing and there is a few extra added to the usual number. It is hard to secure comfortable quarters. The company's big hotel will be ready to completion.

The second game between the Jerome and Shoshone ball teams took place in Shoshone Sunday, May 17. The result was a tie.

The Shoshone men Jerome won with ease, the score standing 11 to 4.

Major Fred R. Reed passed through town Tuesday on his way to Wendell and Gooding.

R. H. Trull and family of Chicago are among the late arrivals. Mr. Trull will engage in the real estate business and has arranged for an office building to be erected at once.

The organization of the Wendell State bank has been completed and the bank will be opened for business in about a month.

Goods for the Booth Mercantile company are arriving daily and are being placed as rapidly as progress on the building will permit.

The Griffith construction camp began work on the lateral well of town Monday.

The Jerome Mercantile company opened up with a business that exceeded their wildest expectations.

Three teams are kept on the road reeling goods and yet are unable to keep a sufficient supply on hand.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION

Steps are being taken to entertain the delegates to the Democratic state convention which will meet in Twin Falls on Wednesday, June 2, at a large number of delegates are expected and a lively session is predicted. The convention comes at an awkward time for the people of Twin Falls, but the visitors will be shown every attention and no effort will be spared to send them away with a good impression of the city. The convention will meet in the rink which will be suitably decorated for the occasion.

FIRST CAR FROM KIMBERLY MILL

WAS SHIPPED FROM THERE THIS WEEK.

Home Demand is Being Supplied and Mill is Now Ready to Take Care of Outside Trade—Several New Arrivals in Kimberly of Late.

KIMBERLY, Ida., May 27.—M. C. Henshaw is the new station agent, relieving B. F. Hoover while the latter is enroute to the Salmon river country. M. Denton, a nephew of W. H. Thomas, is here from Payette assisting in running the mill and will probably be here permanently.

Mr. Ambrose of Oregon arrived the first of the week and is visiting Mr. Cather south of town. He likes Idaho and will make this his future home.

Quite a number of our citizens are enroute to the Salmon river country this week. The rainy weather made it very disagreeable and many came back somewhat discouraged.

E. W. Tilley is painting the sign for the Commercial club which is located south of the depot. It announces that the best lands on the Twin Falls tract are located near Kimberly, and that we have accommodations for home seekers.

Professor Rempel was in town this week after lumber for the house he is building for Miss Elliott, his sister-in-law just east of his homestead.

Saturday was a very hot day for the business men of Kimberly. Everybody and his folks had gone to the circus at Twin Falls and it was about the same as a holiday for those who were left.

C. A. McMaster shipped out a car of oats Monday to Milner at $1.65 per cent.

L. D. Dart, cashier of the Yampa, Colorado, bank, was here the last few days visiting Frank Bower of Rock Creek and looking over Idaho investments.

Miss Era Pettijohn is assisting Mrs. Hudson with the work at the hotel.

Mrs. G. W. Osborne, who has been very sick at her home near Rock Creek, passed through here on her way to the hospital at Twin Falls on Monday. Her friends are very glad to know that she is much better.

The brother-in-law of A. G. Morion was accidentally shot by a target rifle Sunday. It seems that he was carrying the rifle with the barrel up and fired through the hole in the ceiling hall passing through the fleshy part of the hand and lodged in the neck. At the present time he is doing well and will soon recover unless complications set in.

The Kimberly Real Estate agency has out some neat folders setting forth some of the points in favor of the town and the advantages of the Twin Falls tract.

They have a lot of land listed and can interest buyers, especially those who may have to make a hurried exit from the Salmon river country, as there will not be enough land there to go around and some will be unable to find any land at all. A. S. Soule is holding down the office until his partner arrives.

A large touring car left Payette the first of the week to come to Kimberly over the new line. It was driven by the Kimberly Real Estate company, and by others when not engaged, in showing the people around over the tract. Our roads are fine and it can be used to great advantage in showing people the country when time is a limited quantity with the buyer as he has to make a hurried exit from the Salmon river country and get back in time to catch the train out.

Mr. McCoy and son of Lancaster, Mo., were here Wednesday looking at Kimberly and the planters around here will probably remain on the tract until after the drawing.

Among some of our citizens who have been camping out on the Salmon river country we note the following: P. J. Pringle, E. W. Davis, Carl B. Moore, B. F. Hoover, Mr. Barrows, W. L. Ray, Roy McMaster, E. E. Bismeyer, P. J. Falk, W. E. McMaster, Roy Shannon and others.

The probate court appointed Nick Smith, E. T. Newell, and J. C. Carter to appraise the estate of J. N. McMaster. C. A. McMaster will be appointed administrator.

Everybody is busy planning and preparing for the coming season. The farmers are engaged several weeks ahead of time. A large acreage is being put in and the prices will probably be much better than last fall as so few have planted potatoes in the east have had a bad season.

The first car of manufactured iron goes from the mill this week. The mill has been able to supply the products.

Several more boats have been added to the hotel but they will be ready to take them. Probably the hall will be pressed into service during the rush.

The Commercial club met Monday night and among other things a committee was appointed to take the matter up and report at the next meeting.

ALL IS IN ORDER FOR THE OPENING

PERFECT ARRANGEMENTS FOR HANDLING ENTRIES.

Every Contract Will Be Complete in Detail When the Entryman Passes
Through the Line—Registration is a Record Breaker.

More than 1500 landseekers have registered their applications for land under the Salmon system and more than a million dollars have been deposited by the applicants. Such a rush has never been known and such perfect arrangements for handling the landseekers have never been employed. Bob McCollum, had everything working as smooth as oil in his branding chute. The applicants are branded, marked and developed and turned out at the exit of the building. There is no limit to the number that can be registered by this system. In less than four hours there were more than 400 registrations made. Every incoming train brings a fresh batch of landseekers and by tomorrow night the excitement will be at its height. Many are arriving in wagons and the registration will exceed 5000. It certainly would if there were more land.

Real estate dealers are as thick as fleas. All the old reliable ones on deck, the curbstone operators are numerous and there are any number of unknowns who "have thoroughly crisscrossed" the land and are "prepared to locate you." The man who knows there will never be enough water for the Salmon tract raises his raucous voice now and then when he is sure that nobody but strangers are around. It would pay the company and the city to offer a bounty for his scalp.

There is plenty of good accommodation in Twin Falls. Anyone who wants a bed can have it and nobody need go hungry. The town can take care of everybody who comes and do it nicely.

If you don't see what you want in Twin Falls, remember that there are hundreds of opportunities for investment in and around Buhl, Rock Creek, Kimberly, Hansen, Rock Creek, Murphree, Hill, Hillside, and Gooding. You will find excellent land and good neighbors at all of these towns and you cannot appreciate the advantages of the wonderful resources of the Twin Falls tract until you have visited all the places mentioned. The land is of the kind and square treatment in all of them. The whole project is to use the words of the "Illustrated" magazine, "as clean as a hound's tooth" and every part of it will bear the closest scrutiny. See it all. Visit the Shoshone falls. They are the one of the greatest sights of America. Visit the Twin Falls and see the beautiful Blue Lakes. Don't forget to visit the Shoshone falls. Thousand springs will please you. Take your time and look it all over.

The registration books will be kept open until Sunday evening and the drawing will take place on Monday morning at 10 o'clock sharp. The land will be divided into lots and the registration will be followed in the drawing and the only possibility of delay lies in the probable tardiness of the entrymen in making their filings.

The contracts for both land and water have all been made out and all they now need is the names of the entrymen. The entrymen will be passed along the line, beginning with the engineers who will check off the land on two large plans, one outside and the other inside, as the most convenient method of taking the filing will be perfected, the contract with the state approved and every feature connected with the project will be completed.

A special train will arrive from Chicago today. General Funsten is due in Twin Falls on today's train and will make a few weeks with his family on their ranch south of town.

J. T. Rauch, William Good and George Washington are home from a cruise of the Salmon river tract.

The train of the Buhl project is in town this week looking up business in the painting line.

Town and Hinton shipped a car of oats to Milner the first of this week.

S. W. Phillips of the Twin Falls News and Walter Hoot of Pocatello were in town on Wednesday.

E. E. Griswold, O. L. Hooten and James Hamilton were in Twin Falls visitors Wednesday.

G. L. Redhead, William Baker and Edna Smith, who will be in town this week, are on the Salmon river project.

Road Overseer F. V. Brownlee was doing some work on the bridge near Hansen this week.

John F. Hansen & Son have ordered

COURT ADJOURNS UNTIL JUNE 8

NO ACCOMMODATIONS FOR THE JURORS.

Judge Walters Decides That Twin Falls is Too 'Live' a Place to Hold
Court in at Present and Will Wait
Until After the Rush.

The spring term of the district court opened on Monday morning with 40 cases on the calendar, of which two are criminal. After going through the calendar Judge Walters decided to take a recess until June 8, as it would be almost impossible at present to obtain accommodations for jurors. It is also an awkward time to secure jurors, so many farmers being occupied with their irrigating.

Among the cases noted upon are the following:

SPLENDID BRICK FROM BUHL CLAY

EXCELLENT SAMPLES RECEIVED FROM SALT LAKE.

Machinery for the Buhl Brick Plant on Route From Ohio—Several Costly Buildings to Be Built of the Buhl Product.

BUHL, Ida., May 27.—Last Thursday a man traveling overland in a wagon nearly lost his life in Warm creek. When he reached the middle of the stream, which he tried to cross, the current turned the wagon over and carried the man and one of the horses down a chute. The man finally managed to reach the bank and the horse was rescued further down the stream. Everything in the wagon was lost.

Alley, Everett M. Sweeney, who with his wife is doing the prove-up on his ranch west of town, visited Buhl Thursday night. He will talk nothing but orchard fruit and alfalfa. A friend tried to get a legal opinion from him, but he said go to some other ranchman. "I am not going to know anything about anything but orchard fruit and alfalfa for the next 30 days, which is the term of my sentence."

Gus Dore arrived from North Yakima last Thursday and is making preparations to settle down on his ranch. Mr. Dore spent last summer here and is now here to stay.

E. E. Paul is building a six-room cottage on Broadway and Linden street.

How Buhl people ought to love the wagon road. Last Thursday the splendid service it is rendering them. It carried them the rear end of an old express car and the forward end of a cattle car Saturday night to carry them home from Twin Falls where many of them had gone to attend the circus. There was no standing room in the express car but there was plenty of room to sit down on the wagon floor in the other. Persons returning from Twin Falls by the accommodation train are told that the train will leave Twin Falls at 6:30 and will arrive in Buhl at 4:45.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Sweeney of Twin Falls, who are residing on their ranch west of town, are the purpose of a final final, went to Twin Falls Monday, Mr. Sweeney having to be present at the convening of the district court on that date.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Sweeney were among the Buhlians who took in the big show at Twin Falls Saturday.

Don MacKay visited his daughter, Mrs. J. Perrine, at Blue Lakes Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Hayward were Twin Falls visitors Sunday.

Van was received here the latter part of last week that Geo. R. Dunn's father died Thursday at his home in North Yakima.

The numerous friends of Mr. Dunn here are deeply sympathetic with him in the loss he has suffered.

Jake Shank and S. O. Kerley are down on the Salmon river project and are looking at the land and the country thereabouts.

Two such interesting things as a Democratic convention and a circus show can be pulled off at the same time and place. Many of the delegates to the convention held in Twin Falls Saturday did not get a chance to see the circus. The delegates, after time being taken up carrying the donkey and preparing him for the race in November. The delegates from Buhl were worked into the various committees, which kept them busy until after the parade was over.

Dan Whaley left the new brush and alfalfa take care of themselves Saturday and took Mrs. Whaley and the babies to see the circus.

Bruce Howard was a Twin Falls visitor Monday. He went up to show the Buhl consorts how to chop off whiskers.

G. E. Harlan is from the ranch Saturday. He reports a large acreage being put-in in his new orchard this week.

Entered as second-class matter, December 2, 1901, at the postoffice at Twin Falls, Idaho, under Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

It was impossible to get an egg of chicken in Twin Falls, yesterday or the day before, even on a bet. Chickens have ever been conspicuously absent from the Twin Falls, month yet farmers are growing because they cannot sell their eggs and fowls. There is a big acre loose somewhere which should be tightened up instantly. When a stranger asks for a fried egg and cannot get it, he should not be blamed for growing suspicious. The caterers claim they cannot get eggs and chickens from the dealers. The dealers say that the eggs and poultry are not coming in. They are willing to buy all that is offered and the restaurant men are paying 50 cents apiece for chickens but none are to be had. It may be that the shortage is due to the fact that this is the "setting" season, but the cold fact remains that Twin Falls has to look elsewhere for henfruit and poultry. This is an ideal country for poultry, feed being cheap and plentiful and the climate favorable. Somebody should get busy.

The citizens of the Twin Falls tract have more than one million dollars to their credit in the various banks in the county. This is a remarkable showing and it demonstrates what has long been claimed, that the Twin Falls tract has a citizenship unequalled. The showing made by the bank statements is extremely creditable. The Miller bank, which has only been open a few weeks, has deposits aggregating $34,411.41. Every cent of this is home money, belonging to the farmers in the vicinity of Filer. When it is considered that many of these farmers have accounts in the Twin Falls banks, the showing is astonishing. The Kimberly bank, which is scarcely out of its swaddling clothes, shows up with deposits amounting to $46,471.50, a showing of which it may well be proud. The two Buhl banks have a total of $101,983.49 in deposits which illustrates the kind of people they have on the west end. The Citizens bank of Buhl is in the infant class also, yet it comes forward with over $48,000 in deposits. The Milner State bank, less than a year old, has $111,063.71 on deposit, which speaks well for the people who are populating the North Side. These are fine figures for Milner and they show what the North Side company is doing for the state. The deposits in the three Twin Falls banks aggregate $692,587.50. These figures do not include the money which has been deposited by land seekers since the rush began, the statements being made on May 14. There are no accounts which might be termed big in any of the banks. The bank statements furnish the finest illustration of what the Carey act has done and is doing for Idaho. The North Side company's payroll last month was over $300,000 and the Salmon payroll for the next two years will run into six figures every month. No wonder the Twin Falls tract is prosperous.

The subdivision is lighted by electric light and the electric railway will run right through the center of it. Orchulara station on the new road was built and was cleaned up in 60 days.

On Tuesday afternoon occurred the last meeting of the season of the Spring meeting. As it was the annual business meeting no program had been prepared, but the members kept nothing but business, and dispatched that business quickly. At the close a delicious luncheon was served by the hostess, Mrs. Johnson, assisted by Mrs. Morrell. Adjournment was taken until the last Tuesday in September.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Swallow and Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Seebeck are enjoying the delights of making final proof on their farms west of Buhl. Mrs. M. J. Swallow killed a large rattler the other day. She does not recommend other baiting or paper to keep quail, but perhaps it would be better to say nothing more about this feature of her experience. A lady that can kill a rattler, single handed and alone, would make short work of an editor.

CHILDREN ROMP AT BLUE LAKES

Stella Perrine Entertains Her Young Friends.

(By Miss Lesley Williams.)

On Monday, May 25, '08 about 20 boys and girls, who were invited by Stella Perrine to spend the day at Blue Lakes. We were all in fine spirits and we started about 8:30 or 9:45 a. m. We went down in one of the historic old stage coaches which Stella sent up for us. We arrived at the top of the grade and walked down. There was a large amount of water rolling over the side and white was singing through we got pretty well soaked. Some of the boys and girls walked to the ferry and the rest rode.

Some of the boys and girls walked to the ferry and the rest rode. Stella Perrine had some lovely strawberries and cake ready for our dessert. Then we went down to Stella's boat and some of the boys and girls rode alone in it.

After this we went to the lakes and enjoyed their beauty. We also went to a cave where some Indian bones were found and went in one at a time as it was not large enough for any more.

When we came back, someone suggested that we play the game "Follow the Leader," and so the game began. Stella was the leader and the guests followed. We jumped from rock to rock on the shore. We were getting along very well with the game when the girls (all with Stella) thought they could not jump an exposed place. There was a boat in the water below us and John Sinema took it out but he said it was not safe, so we jumped. Not long after this William Fulton began to play and give the board and walked across in safety. Eugene Ostrander went across all right and the next one was Fern Costello. She had seen some boys go across so she thought she would try it. She was nearly across when the board broke and she went backwards into the creek. She got out as quickly as she could but she got her hair and ribbons wet. Some one went for her coat and she stopped playing.

A little further along in the game Clara Manly fell in up to her waist. Not long after this we came to quite a wide place and Florence Costello jumped out. Beatrice Ostrander thought she could not jump so Florence said she would help her. Beatrice jumped and Florence caught her and so Beatrice succeeded in going across, but just as she got across Florence slipped and fell into the water to her waist. Then some one got out as quickly as she could but she got her hair and ribbons wet. Some one went for her coat and she stopped playing.

Then we girls gathered some flowers and started home. We went down to the ferry boat and started across, but we went so slow we thought we were not moving. We wrote our names and the date on the ferry and finally succeeded in reaching the shore. Some rode and some walked up. We then started home and it was about a quarter to six when we got home.

We all had a lovely time and thank Stella for her invitation. The names of the guests were as follows: Girls—Dorothy Trail, Fern and Florence Costello, Helen Oakley, Beatrice Ostrander, Burt Wall, Mary Miller, Margaret Conway, Clara Manly and myrtle boy—Eugene Ostrander, Sterling and Arland Oakley, Glen Kirkpatrick, John Sinema and Wilbur Bolton.

IDAHO PROUD OF
HER DEVELOPMENTSTRIKING ADDRESS BY GOVERNOR
GOODING.Delivered at the White House Conference—Chief Executive of Gem State
Tells of Its Marvelous Natural Resources and Progress.

Governor Gooding delivered a rousing speech at the White House Conference in which he took decided issue with speakers who preceded him. He stood forth as a foremost advocate of state control of forests as against federal control and pointed out how states are better equipped than national government to manage and regulate natural resources within their borders. The governor's time was limited because of the large number of speakers, but he was shown the courtesy of having his time extended. He was the only governor so honored. Before he concluded he related one of the remarkable developments in Idaho under the Carey act and declared it to be a great hardship to the state if congress should refuse to grant it its resources under the Carey act. He pointed out that law, Governor Gooding was complimented by other governors on the force of his argument and his able presentation of his case. At Pinchot's reception he was further congratulated.

—Governor Gooding's Address.

Governor Gooding spoke as follows: In my judgment no citizen can perform a greater service to his country than to assist in laying the foundation of a work that will protect and bring about the fullest use and the highest possible development of all our great natural resources. We have built here a great nation without thought of tomorrow. We will grow still greater, even if we follow the same old method of the past, but we cannot reach our fullest measure of greatness as a nation unless, before it is too late, we throw safeguards around these resources which have made us the mightiest nation on earth, and protect and conserve them so they may be developed to the fullest extent for the benefit of this and future generations. This work of laying the foundations of a greater nation should receive the support and encouragement of all the people of the United States.

But by whom and how best can this work be accomplished is the great question that confronts the American people. To bring about the best results there must be co-operation of all the people, more especially those in the states and territories wherein lie the national forest reserves. Too much care cannot be given to the interests, the liberties and the rights of the people of those states that have given up so much of their domain to the national forests. They have a right to insist on the fullest use in an intelligent way, of all the great natural resources which lie within the borders of their respective states. It is in the use and development of our great resources that lie the hope, the pride, and the ambition of the people of my state, to build one of the greatest commonwealths in the Union.

In this great work there is enough for us all to do. Some of it is of necessity national in its scope. The work of improving our large rivers for navigation can best be done by the general government. But that which lies wholly within the borders of one state can, in my judgment, with the passage of proper laws by congress, be best done by the people of that state. We need the strong arm of the general government in the initiation of this great work, but if it is to be successful the state must be made an interested party in the administration and development of its own resources.

Grand Work of State.
Idaho has given a practical demonstration of what a state can do for the development of its own resources, in the reclamation of its desert lands and the storage of its flood waters, under the law known as the Carey act, passed by congress in 1894 giving to each state in the arid portion of America a million acres of land to be reclaimed under state supervision. Idaho has demonstrated beyond the question of a doubt that the people of a state are best fitted for the development of their own resources. The work of reclamation of arid lands by the general government by the state side by side in Idaho, where the government has done a great work, for which we are all thankful, and, valuable as this work is, yet the state, in the same length of time, and under the same conditions, has brought about a state of development many times as great as that accomplished by the general government. Idaho has constructed under the Carey act the largest irrigation canal in the world, with the exception of those built by the British government in India and Egypt. The state has built and has under construction irrigation works that will reclaim more than a million acres of desert land, and is now asking the general government for two million acres more, under the Carey act, so that the state can continue this great work of home building.

—Great is the Carey Act.

Idaho is justly proud of her great development under the Carey act. Within the last four years we have turned water on more than 300,000 acres of what was then a barren waste and transformed it into fields of beautiful and waving grain. We have made possible the building of homes for more than 60,000 people, and have created a new wealth for the state of more than $50,000,000. Yet in this work of home building the state has only made a beginning. Within the next five years Idaho will have completed all of its irrigation works for the first million acres of Carey act lands, thus giving an opportunity for homes for more than 250,000 people, and creating a wealth in excess of $50,000,000. The state of Idaho will continue this great work until all its arid lands are reclaimed and every acre made valuable and beneficial to mankind. When the story can be written it will tell of the reclamation of more than 5,000,000 acres of as rich land as can be found anywhere in the world. It will be land that will equal in productive capacity 20,000,000 acres in the eastern states. For under irrigation there are no failures or half crops, but every year a full harvest for the man that tills the soil.

(Unlimited Power).

Idaho is especially fortunate in its natural water falls. I feel that I can say we have more opportunities for the development of power than any other state in the Union. The state is not only rich in water power, but has entered into contracts for the construction of great power plants in geologic hand and with the reclamation of our arid lands. The state is not only rich in water power, but has entered into contracts for the construction of large storage reservoirs that will control the flood waters of some of our rivers. Within the next 10 years our state will have under control all of its flood waters, which will be used for reclaiming our desert lands. This will be a great relief to the people of the state, lower valleys through which these rivers empty into the sea.

What Idaho has done and is doing in reclaiming her arid lands and controlling the flood waters of the state it can do in the protection of the forests and the range. The people of Idaho fully understand the importance of the forests. They know that the forests conserve the waters that are as the life blood of the state, and if they are given an opportunity they will conserve and protect the forests for all time consistent with an intelligent use by the people. Idaho has already passed a law for the protection of her forests on state lands. The laws provided that wherever land is more valuable for forest than for home building, the timber shall be cut under state supervision, looking to the protection of the young trees and throwing such other safeguards around it as will insure its success as a state forest. In my judgment the interests of the whole country would be best served if congress would turn over to the state all of the public domain, under proper laws looking to the protection of the forest and the range, to be administered and developed by the people of these states. I have become very much affirmed of late at the public sentiment growing against the administration of the national forest reserves in my state, for I know their administration cannot be successful without the support of the people. There are good reasons for this adverse public sentiment, for at times proper consideration has not been given the rights of the people. Great tracts of land have been included in the reserves upon which there is no forest, nor over can or will be a forest.

More of the area of my state is in national forest reserves than that of any other state or territory in the Union. Forty per cent of my state is today in national forest reserves, an area greater in extent than is embraced within the states of Massachusetts, Connecticut, Rhode Island, Maine, Vermont, New Hampshire, New Jersey, Delaware and the District of Columbia. In all the national forest reserves in the United States we have an area almost as great as was embraced with the 13 original states. These great reserves extend from the border of Mexico on the south to the British possessions on the north. The varied conditions that of necessity exist over this vast extent of territory make it impracticable, in my judgment, to accomplish the best results by its administration here in Washington.

The man is not yet born who can prescribe sound and sound regulations for the successful administration of so vast a territory as this, for in no two states in the Union are conditions the same. What might be practical to one state would be ridiculous in another. I have seen much of this administration of the national forest reserves in my state during the past few years. I have been its friend, I have given it my support, hoping it meant something for the advancement and development of Idaho, but after almost three years of close observation I am forced to the conclusion that the theory is all wrong, and that the work the government is trying to do properly belongs to the state.

I have a high regard for the chief forester. He is trying to do a great work, a work that must be done, but it never would be successful until the states are made interested parties in the development of their own resources. I know of no reason why the states should not be entrusted with the protection and development of all the natural resources that lie within their borders. The west is not lacking in intelligence, in courage, or in patriotism, or in appreciation of the marvelous resources that a kind Providence has given us with so generous a hand. Idaho is asking for an opportunity to develop her own resources. We need the assistance of the general government, not its guardianship. Idaho is asking for the same spirit of the constitution that has been given to all the states east of the Rockies, and her citizens will demonstrate to the whole world that she is worthy of statehood.

W. O. Buel sold his ranch in Dunkirk and talks of going further west. It is to be hoped that he will change his mind and remain in this country. His departure would be a distinct loss to the community. There is no better man, citizen or hustler on the tract than Mr. Buel.

E. A. Milner took in the big show Saturday.

D. G. Ferguson came up from Twin Falls last week on a short business trip. His company is clearing off their 1800 acres on Ferguson flats, all of which will be sown to clover and alfalfa, soon as it can be gotten in. There will be an orchard of an acre or two planted on each 40, the intention being to cut the land up into 40-acre tracts and sell them to purchasers who do not desire larger holdings.

They are enthusiastic over the future prospects of this country, as are all Colorado people who see it. They will attend the opening and if they do not draw a number to suit them, they will come to Buhl to invest. They say that this end of the tract offers the best opportunities for investments that they have seen anywhere in their travels. The cheapness of the land here at the present time makes an investment a safe, sure and quick money making proposition.

Several fine specimens of brick manufactured from clay in this vicinity are on exhibition in the office of the Milner-Perrine Lumber company. The clay was sent from here to Salt Lake and the brick made and burned there. They are of the very best quality. Specimens of the clay have been sent to various other places for tests and the returns show that it is of the very best kind.

TO BE IN STYLE

IS A MUCH DIFFERENT THING WITH A MAN THAN WITH A WOMAN. NO TWO MEN CAN DRESS EXACTLY ALIKE AND APPEAR TO THE SAME ADVANTAGE. IT IS NOT A MATTER OF COLORS NOR OF FINELY WITH A MAN. THE BEST DRESSED MAN IS USUALLY THE ONE WHO DRESSES IN VERY REFINED, CONSERVATIVE TASTE. WE CLOTHE GENTLEMEN FROM HEAD TO FOOT. WE MAKE THIS OUR SOLE BUSINESS. WE STUDY TO DO IT JUST ENOUGH BETTER THAN USUAL, TO MAKE PARTICULAR MEN RELY ON US FOR THE RIGHT THING AT THE RIGHT TIME.
